Mr. Arthur Harris, of the Portsmouth Brewing Co., with his wife and one child, sailed from New York for England on Saturday.

A meeting of the members of De Witt Clinton Commandry of Knights Templar will be held at their Asylum this (Monday) evening at 7 1-2 o'clock.

Rev. Mr. DeNormandie, in a very able sermon Sunday morning, demonstrated the necessity of present retribution rather than speculation as to future punishment.

Mr. J. Albert Walker of this city is making arrangements for the immediate building of a fine brick block in Dover, plans of which are now being drawn by Mr. William A. Ashe, also of this city, the architect of Music Hall. It is proposed to have three elegant stores, with offices above.

As a census of the several wards is necessary in order to get a correct basis on which to decide the representation of the city in the re-organized Legislature, would it not be well for the City Councils to follow the example of Dover's city government, and arrange for its being promptly taken.

Prof. Warman has under instruction in this city a class of thirty pupils in reading. A large portion of this number are teachers in our public schools, and the talented Professor promises to do a good work with them. From what we have heard from and of him we infer that he knows his business, and will receive a liberal patronage here after becoming better known.

The Boston Traveller of Saturday evening says: "Arrangements are in progress for the formation of a stock company with a capital of $20,000 in shares of $100 each, for the purpose of building another large hall at Portsmouth, after a plan of the fine old Temple burned some time since, the same to be used for amusement and political purposes. Negotiations are now pending for an eligible lot."

Concerning a grand concert given in the hall of Willard's hotel at Washington on Thursday evening, by Mrs. Melvino Marcy, Messrs. Pugh and Hickox, and others, the Republican says: "Willard's Hall was crowded last evening with a concourse of admiring friends, assembled in honor of the occasion of the concert given by Mrs. Marcy and her excellent support. Mrs. Marcy's rendition of 'Qui la voce' and the 'Nightingale' song elicited prolonged and enthusiastic applause, and afforded her partial patrons a well-improved opportunity of presenting beautiful floral offerings."

POLICE COURT.

Saturday, March 30th; Batchelder, J.

Henry Davis, for being found with one drunk (not concealed at all) about his person, was requested to hand over $9.-90, the usual price of the article in this city. Being dissatisfied with the drunk tariff here, Mr. Davis removed to Brentwood.

THE VICINITY.

Elder George Brown is engaged in teaching a private school of thirty scholars at the schoolhouse in District No. 7 on Eliot neck.

The City Councils of Dover on Thursday appropriated $53,414.50 for the city expenses for the year 1878. Of this amount there is appropriated for highways $10,000; police department $3,500; board of prisoners $1,000; support of paupers $2000; fire department $4,500; schools $8,114.50; evening school for adults $500. A resolution "That it is not expedient to maintain a liquor agency for the current year" was passed; also a resolution "That the assessors be authorized and directed to take an accurate census of all the inhabitants of each ward in the city, previous to the first Wednesday of June next, and that they make a report of the same to the next General Assembly, at an expense not exceeding one hundred and twenty-five dollars."

The lobster-catching business at the mouth of Saco river has given employment the past winter to four schooners and several dories, manned by twenty-three persons; and between December 1st and March 25th they took 91,127 lobsters, of which nearly all that were over ten and one-half inches long (the Massachusetts minimum for a merchantable lobster) were sent to Boston, the second class ones going to Portland, the wholesale price of large lobsters having averaged five and one-half cents each during the winter, while the second class ones brought only two and one-half cents. The fishing grounds are some five or six miles square, on what is called Wood island flats, several miles off shore, in twenty fathoms of water; here over one thousand lobster-pots have been set during the season of deep-water fishing, which is now about over, the lobsters having already commenced to strike in at Goose rocks, Fortune's rocks, the Pool, and all along shore.

FIRE.

The alarm of fire at about half-past two o'clock this morning was occasioned by the partial burning of house No. 23 Middle street, owned by Mr. John E. Trefethen and last occupied by Mr. Charles H. Rowe, who vacated it some months ago. The fire was incendiary, George E. Hodgdon, Esq., who lives opposite and first discovered it, finding a rear window broken in and the whole interior in flames when he arrived, and the fire bursting through the roof. The building is ruined; insured.

How to Win Him.

"Eliza," said a fond mother to her offspring, as that offspring was about going forth in tow of her young man, who worships the very sidewalk she walks upon, "go to the bread-box and eat a good big crust of bread before you go out." "Why," replied the blushing girl, "I don't feel the least bit hungry. We have only just had tea." "I know it, but you wil be hungry before you get back; and when Adolphus takes you into a restaurant you'll eat ice cream and spongecake, and ham sandwiches and oysters enough to scare him out of a year's growth. Beware how you sit down on the budding flame of Cupid. Of course Adolphus will spend the money you save him on billiards and things; but that makes no difference. When he asks you to go in and have some oysters, even if you are hungry, don't. Say you do not approve of girls wasting the money of their future husbands on trifles, when it might be applied toward furnishing a house. Point out that for the price of an oyster-stew you might purchase a couple of towels, now that toweling is so cheap; and Saddle Rock roast is the equivalent of a silver fork, plated of course, but not easily distinguished from solid silver, or a glass sugar-bowl. This always takes the young men; it sets them to thinking of house keeping and matrimony; it makes them believe you are the incarnation of economy, and would make an excellent wife; and so they often say things which give you a hold over them, and are effective before a jury." Eliza treasured up these sagacious counsels, and acted upon them with such earnestness and effect that when she came home she was an engaged woman.

—George, the Count Joannes, gets more cabbages in one night than the average country editor receives in a whole week.

—A young man in an Austin, Nevada, barber shop was particular about having his moustache nicely perfumed. "Going to call on a young lady, I suppose?" the barber asked. The young man with much dignity replied, "See here, my friend, do you suppose I put perfumery on my moustache because I'm going to see a man or a boy, or an old woman, or a baby in arms? Do men gather grapes off thorns or figs off thistles?"

Let Them Alone.

Never try to rob any person of his good opinion of himself. It is the most cruel thing you can do. Moreover, it is by no means doing as you would be done by. Crush a woman's self-esteem, and you make her cross-grained and snappish. Do the same to a man, and you only make him morose. You may mean to create a sweet, humble creature, but you will never do it. The people who think best of themselves are apt to be best. Women grow pretty in believing they are so; and fine qualities often crop out after one has been told one has them. It only gratifies a momentary spite to force your own unfavorable opinion of him deep into another's mind. It never did any good. Ah! if this world, full of ugly people, of silly people, and vain people, knew their own deficiencies, what a sitting in sackcloth and ashes we should have! The greatest of all things that a man can possess is a satisfactory identity. If that which he calls "I" pleases him, it is well with him; otherwise, he is utterly wretched. Let your fellow beings alone; hold no truthful mirror before their eyes, unless with a pure intention to uproot sin. So may a mirror without a flaw never be prepared for you. * In those things which we cannot help, may we ever be blind to our own shortcomings. We are neither ugly nor uninteresting to ourselves if we do not know it. A fool may have the wisdom of Solomon, in his own conceit. Let him be, and the path to the grave will be easier for him to tread; you will be no worse, he no better. Leave every man as much self-esteem as his conscience will allow him to cherish. It may be a pleasure to enlighten people as to their faults of mind and person, but it is certainly not a duty.—Exchange.

—A Newburyport man with a head for figures, has ciphered out that if the 13,000 people of Newburyport should all be permitted to live 7692 years, four months, one of the number would fall a victim to hydrophobia.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and Ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 Dey St., New York.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Samt Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them decline it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive trials, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews a new growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.
It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its color from decay, weak or sickly tints. It becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.
As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics for the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated, beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Specifics have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions, and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKFORD, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could enlarge in a similar manner on the subject. For 20 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continually for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over eight months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my system, which had made my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,
S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Nasal Dropsies. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint," and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

We know a man who is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humers in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Erysipelas and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucborrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

CATARRH

A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER,—Sirs: I have practiced medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the worst form, I tried and tried, I have used everything in the catarrh medicine without any permanent benefit, finally I was induced to try a patent medicine—something that we allopathists are very loth to do, but I was, and three days until I got hold of your remedy I followed the directions to the letter, and am happy to say have had a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most malignant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully,
D. W. GRAY, M. D.,

OFFICE, D. W. Gray & Son, Physicians and Surgeons, Monticello, Iowa.

MONTICELLO, IOWA, March 27, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in our new Globe.

SYMPTOMATIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes which, in many cases accompany a severe case of Catarrh. The inflamed and diseased condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these conditions, and until the cause has been brought under control, it is folly to expect the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from these cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was placed before the public, and it is now that short time only and has spread from Maine to California, and everywhere acknowledged by druggists and laity, as the most successful preparation for the speedy extinction of Catarrh ever compounded. The [illegible] of cases from physicians who, in [illegible] that within five years over [illegible] Catarrh, and [illegible] exceptions, it is [illegible] and [illegible] the [illegible] cases, unless the remedy fails to reach the seat of the disease, it is absolutely certain to do a permanent cure.

Gardening---A Few Hints.

In sowing either vegetable or flower seeds, there are some leading requisites which must not be overlooked. The soil should be in right condition, or dry enough to be well pulverized, and not left wet, to form clods. It is better to defer work some days than to be annoyed the whole season with a baked soil, or hard lumps. Much depends on the previous condition of the ground; if old manure and vegetable mould have been fully applied and well mixed in, they will tend to give a fine friable soil.

In sowing the seeds of vegetables, three chief cautions must be attended to: 1, to have a fine mellow soil; 2, to cover shallow, and not too deep; and 3, except for the hardiest sorts, to wait till the soil is warm.

1. The importance of a finely pulverized soil is obvious.

2. The more shallow the covering, provided the moist condition of the seed is preserved, the sooner and more certainly the plants will come up. Seeds must have the three requisites for growth, of air, moisture and warmth. If buried deep they cannot get air. As a general rule, they should never be covered deeper than four or five times their diameter. We have known seeds of different kinds buried by ignorant gardeners several inches deep which they should not have been over an inch, or an inch and a half at the most. They were beyond the reach of air, and did not come up; the seedsman was denounced for fraud. In one instance a neighbor had buried his beet-seed four or five inches deep, as he thought, with great care, and none made their appearance, to his great disappointment. The remaining seeds from the same package were then covered an inch, and the plants came up in thick profusion.

3. Hardy vegetables, like peas, may be planted as early as the soil will admit. Tender sorts, as beans and corn, would rot if planted too early, and must be left till the soil is warm. The same precautions must be observed with flower seeds. Those which are hardy, and which the frost will not easily kill in autumn, may be put in earlier than such as are cut by frost.

Thorough drainage is one of the most important requisites for successful gardening. Wet feet will spoil any plant. Asparagus beds are sometimes killed by water below the surface. A cold, wet subsoil cannot produce early or good crops.

—Joseph Cook said the other day: "If there is any young man in this audience about to be married to a young woman of his own age, that future wife is now living somewhere upon the earth." This is very gratifying. We were afraid she had moved.—Buffalo Express.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most official cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and gives a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

News and Notes.

The department of state has received a dispatch from the United States Consul at Nuremburg, describing the distress in the spinning and weaving districts. Owing to the continuous depression of trade one thousand suffering German-Americans are wandering about Germany in search of employment and the means of returning to the United States, which they left in search of better wages. The consuls are overwhelmed with appeals for aid.

Mrs. Eliza Miller, a New York woman, has brought a suit in which she claims the ownership of lands in Virginia, Kentucky and Ohio, valued at thirty millions.

The "duel" at Eastville, Va., last week, turns out to have been a street fight between two "first families"—Sidney Pitts and A. T. Thom. The latter, a lawyer, fired first, and wounded Pitts in the hand; Pitts pulled out a revolver, and each man snapped at the other once without effect, both revolvers missing fire; at the next trial both pistols went off, and Pitts fell dead and Thom mortally wounded. Pitts was a son of the late Judge Pitts of Norfolk, Va., and a nephew of Senator Dennis of Maryland.

It appears from the official documents that the total expense of the Sioux campaign was $2,312,530.

Mary Brown is under arrest in New York for kicking to death in a saloon a bar-keeper who refused to sell her liquor when she was drunk.

Ship Bertha, of Bath, Me., has arrived at Londonderry, Ireland, with loss of captain and five men, washed overboard by a sea.—A boat with six men left Halifax for Betts' cove on the 11th ult.; the boat has been found bottom up, but the men have never been heard from, and are no doubt all lost.—Schooner W. A. Lovering, Smith, at New York from Bull River, S. C., reports that on March 28th, when twenty miles south of Absecom, she passed a quantity of wreck stuff, consisting of a life boat, painted white, bottom up, hatches and joiner work, and doors grained, with white knobs, supposed to have belonged to a steamer; had been but a short time in the water.—Barque Edward Jones left Astoria, Oregon, Jan. 12th, for Honolulu, and has not been heard from since. Brig Sheet Anchor left Burrard Inlet Jan. 25th for the same point, and nothing has been heard of her. Fears are entertained that both vessels are lost, with all on board.

Walter Delamater, of New York, recently stole $3,000 worth of diamonds from his mother and fled to Port Royal on a steamer. Police Captain Robbins went there by rail, arrested the boy as he landed, and brought him back to New York. His mother refused to prosecute, but the judge ordered a complaint against him, and he was ordered to find bail in $5,000 for trial. His step-father put up the money, and the young thief was released. The family are very wealthy.

The variety store of Henry Stockman, Jr., on Market square, Newburyport, was entered by burglars Friday night and about $80 worth of goods taken. The thieves gained access to the store by prying off a shutter in the rear.

Hugh Reed, aged twenty-four years, and William Burns, aged forty, both marble polishers, had a drunken fight at Reed's home in Boston on Sunday; Reed's nose was smashed flat to his face, his skull fractured on one side, and a hole knocked through the fontal bone so that his brain protruded, but despite these terrible injuries he managed to crawl down two pair of stairs to the street, and call for assistance. Burns was locked up. Reed was married not long ago, and used his wife very brutally. Burns is an ugly customer when drunk, and was "down on" Reed because the latter, in a fight the precious pair had some time ago, badly bit his antagonist on the nose. When the police entered Reed's quarters to arrest Burns, they found the place reeking with filth.

The printing machine of the Lowell Print Works shut down on Saturday, throwing 300 operatives out of employment. The manufacturing branch of the works will keep going.

About fifty years ago Mr. Isaac Blake, brother of George Blake, now living in Atkinson, Me., was returning from a trip to New Brunswick, where he had been engaged in buying and selling cattle, and other matters, and brought with him about fifteen hundred dollars, mostly in gold. He started out from Bangor one night and was never seen afterward. The disappearance was involved in deep mystery, until recently a man near seventy-five years old, who has lived in Milo and about that section forty years or more, was taken sick, and, finding that he could live but a few days longer, called in a neighbor and made a confession of being concerned, with two others, in the murder of Mr. Blake.

A meeting of the creditors of Kate Claxton was held on Friday. Kate having married, the proceedings were amended by inserting her new name. The creditors by their lawyers then quarrelled about the claims, elected an assignee and proposed to examine the bankrupt; and made the same fuss and will probably receive the same dividend that is customary in modern bankrupt cases.

Madame Restell, the "fashionable" abortionist of New York, cut her throat with a carving knife on Monday. She leaves an estate of $300,000.

Massachusetts wants the Moffot bill-punch.

England had a severe northeast snow storm on Thursday. The Herald sent a warning dispatch; nevertheless the obstinate Englishman left their island out over night exposed to the storm.

The daily and weekly Gazette, of Haverhill, Mass., has been sold at mortgagee's sale to Ira A. Abbott of Haverhill, for $1750.

A club-room in Hammond block, Haverhill, Mass., was raided on Saturday night, and eighteen men were arrested.

Ex-Gov. Swann, of Maryland will soon lead Mrs. John R. Thompson of Princeton, N. J., to the altar. Mr. Swann's age is about seventy.

The bank of South Pueblo, Col., was entered Friday night by masked robbers, who gagged the cashier, H. N. Banks, and obliged him to open the safe. They took $5000 in currency and a gold watch and chain. No clue to the robbers.

Burglars broke into the store of J. S. Jamesson & Co., at Westernport, Md., Friday night, blew open the safe, and stole about $50,000 in bonds and notes. Three suspected parties were arrested on Saturday.

New Jersey legislators refuse to increase the legal rate of interest in that State above six per cent.

Sherman can buy all the silver bullion he requires to carry out the provisions of the silver bill, without calling on the Pacific slope. Silver is silver, and in the lately-passed law there is no requirement that the Government shall buy of the Bonanza Kings. That was expected, but not assured by putting it in the bill.

Three weeks ago one John Weeks, of New Salem, Mass., disappeared, and a constant search has been kept up for him ever since by his townsmen, one hundred of whom were out on Saturday, when the body of the man was found. He was drunk when last seen alive, and evidently wandered into the woods and froze to death.

Travellers to New York will be glad to notice the re-opening of the "Providence Line" of steamers, on April 29, as announced in our paper to-day. For many reasons this line proved deservedly popular last season. The steamers are really magnificent, with dining rooms on the main deck, and offer a delightful sail through the beautiful Narragansett Bay by daylight. There is but 42 miles of railroad travel, from Boston to Providence, and no intermediate landings between that point and New York. Tickets and State Rooms, by this favorite line, can be had at Company's office, 214 Washington street, Boston; or at Boston & Providence Railroad Station, in that city.

Two St. Paul (Minn.) men have invented and patented an iron-clad express car, which it is expected will be proof against robbery, and render the murder of agents impossible. It is of boiler iron, bullet proof, and so arranged that, by means of an ingenious mechanical contrivance, the agent, in whatever part of the car he may happen to be, can instantly close and bolt every window and door, while loop-holes give him a chance to shoot as many besiegers as he pleases.

The "inscrutable dispensation of Providence" that took from Patrick Murray, of Newport, R. I., his six children, is explained. The premises in which the family lived were phenomenal in their filthiness; and an immense cess-pool in the yard, covered with two feet of earth, and not cleaned out for eleven years past, is connected with the house by a water-closet pipe which offers the only escape for gases generated in the cess-pool. That the whole family should die this spring of malarial disease is remarkable—the wonder being that they did not all die long ago.

The yellow fever rages at Rio Janeiro.

New Hampshire Items.

At the March term of the Supreme Court for Belknap county, Henry B. Glidden of Alton was sentenced to two years' imprisonment for killing a horse by cutting its throat last November, and he was taken to the penitentiary on Saturday.

The machine shop of the paper mill at Lake Village was burned on Saturday. Cause incendiary.

The contract for the work on the Manchester & Keene railroad between Hancock and Keene has been let to John H. Dame of Waltham, Mass., and George Bonnaffile of Lewiston, Me. Mr. Dame is the former contractor, having built the road from Greenfield to Hancock, which is all completed with the exception of ballasting. This is to be done at once. Trains will run to Hancock by May 1st. The distance from Hancock to Keene is twenty miles. The cost of building the road between the two places is about $700,000.

Political.

The Supreme Court of Louisana on Monday refused the State a rehearing in Gen. Anderson's case, and ordered his discharge. He was released from custody shortly after noon.

The Indianapolis Journal reminds those interesting people who are "flinging their cheap wit at Senator Howe," that "he once declined the offer of Chief Justice of the United States because to vacate his place in the Senate would add one to the democratic strength of that body."

The paupers in the almshouse at Flatbush, N. Y., have invariably been taken to the polls on election days by politicians, and compelled to vote for certain candidates. On Saturday the District Attorney gave notice that he should take measures to prevent the paupers from voting on Tuesday, April 2d, at the election of town officers. Flatbush is a town on Long Island, and its vote is always democratic, two to one.

The United States courts in the district of New Jersey had to suspend last week from want of funds. The "democratic House" of Representatives had so far reduced the appropriations that the Marshal had no money to pay jurors and witnesses. Attorney-General Devens has managed to get half the estimated amount required, and the courts will be temporarily re-opened this week.

Naval Affairs.

On Monday it was said to be rather doubtful about the U. S. S. Wyoming going to Havre this year. Her planking is thoroughly rotten, and her calking is equally bad. She is a dangerous tub either for crew or cargo.

The U. S. S. Plymouth is ready for sea at Norfolk, and awaiting orders. The executive officer of the Plymouth is Lieut. Comdr. A. P. Cooke, formerly attached to the U. S. receiving ship Sabine at this station.

The U. S. S. Powhattan, the flag-ship of Rear Admiral Trenchard, recently arrived at Norfolk, will it is said be sent to New York for a new set of boilers, and to be generally repaired and refitted, to be the flag-ship of Admiral John C. Howell on the first of July next. Admiral Trenchard will transfer his flag to the Plymouth.

Carpenter Wm. Carter is detached from the U. S. S. Plymouth and put on waiting orders.

Whipping the Wrong Boy.

While whipping a boy at school, the master found him laughing heartily, and the harder he whipped the louder the boy laughed. Stopping, he angrily asked, "What are you laughing at?" "Sir," said the youth, who could hardly suppress his laughter, "you are whipping the wrong boy." So physicians, when depending upon a limited experience in determining the nature of some delicate and complicated affection, often treat the wrong disease. Many times women call upon their family physicians, one with dyspepsia, another with palpitation, another with trouble of the breast, another with pain here and there, and in this way they all present alike to themselves and their easy-going and indifferent doctor, separate and distinct diseases, for which he prescribes his pills and potions, assuming them to be such, when, in reality, they are all symptoms caused by some uterine disorder. While the physician is ignorant of the cause of suffering, he encourages his practice until large bills are made, when the suffering patient is no better, but probably worse for the delay, treatment, and various complications made. A proper medicine directed to the cause would perhaps have entirely removed the disease, thereby instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery.

Mrs. Henry Patterson, of New York City, writing to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., says: "I had been under an eminent physician's care for eight months for what he called "spinal disease." I became worse during all this time, when, chancing to see a copy of your Medical Adviser at the residence of a friend, I read that part devoted to 'Woman and her Diseases.' I soon became convinced that my disease was a uterine affection, which, as you say, caused sympathetic backache, inward fever, nervousness, and general debility. I commenced the use of your Favorite Prescription and Golden Medical Discovery, applying also the local treatment which you recommend in the Adviser, and in three months I was well and strong."

—Eight to seven that S. Tilden pays that income tax.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

THE CITY.

The house on Middle street burned Monday morning was insured to the amount of $1800, in Morse & Isley's agency.

Schooner Mary S. Hontvet went on the ways at Neal's shipyard in Kittery, Monday, for examination preparatory to fitting for the Banks.

The medicine chest for the new barque Harvard is put up by William R. Preston of this city, who in experience, judgment and taste in this important branch of business stands second to no druggist in the country.

A horse belonging to Dr. Potter ran away early Monday afternoon, taking with him an empty buggy, which he stove up and left by the wayside before he got back to his stable. He ran furiously through several streets, but did no harm save that mentioned.

The vessels discharging at the Concord railroad wharf on Monday were the schooner J. D. Williams, from West Amboy with railroad iron for the Northern railroad, and schooner Ida E. Latham, with soft coal (697 tons) for the China mills at Suncook.

Ten persons (three males and seven females) were baptised at the Middle street church Sunday, by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Alden, being a partial result of the late revival work in this city, under Major Whittle and Mr. McGranahan. Other baptismal services will speedily take place at this and other churches, as rich results have been generally experienced through the labors of these evangelists.

The panorama of the Life of Christ, with scenes in the Holy Land, which will be exhibited in Franklin Hall this evening, is favorably spoken of by the press. The Fitchburg Sentinel says "There is but one opinion of the influence of the work—it is good and deserves patronage." "The Great Falls Free Press says the paintings really excellent, the subjects selected with judicious discrimination, and the entertainment deserving of liberal patronage. See advertisement.

We are informed that the projectors of the proposed new hall have leased a suitable site on Vaughan street, near Cochrane's stable, and that work will be commenced at once. The new building is to be of wood, with internal arrangements similar to the old Temple before it was remodelled—an amphitheatre, with no gallery. We have not heard who the alleged company is composed of, and do not feel absolutely certain that any new hall is to be built. Music Hall we should think enough to accommodate the city at present, and fully as much as will "pay" anything on the money invested.

Referring to "A Celebrated Case," which is to be given at Music Hall tomorrow evening, the Boston Journal says: "The French stage has given us another play of the melodramatic class, which is sure to become a success in America. 'A Celebrated Case' contains dramatic elements of a powerful character, which will enchain the attention of theatre-goers and give the play a prolonged term upon the stage. It would seem, however, that the ingenious playwrights might have invented something more romantic in the way of a title than 'One Cause Celebre,' but we will not quarrel with them on that score since they have devised something else than a violation of the seventh commandment—the basis of so many French plays of the present day—upon which to found their celebrated case. There are six acts, the incidents related in the prolonge occupying two and the later episodes of the play four. The central idea of the plot is the time-honored stage device of a false accusation of murder, but the manner in which the incidents are related and the denouncement is worked out displays much inventive skill and originality."

A TARDY TEAM.

The failure of Sagamore engine, No. Two, to arrive at the Middle street fire Monday morning until almost half an hour after the other steamers, though Two's hose-carriage arrived on the ground at about the same as the others, occasioned considerable comment. The fault was not with the engine company, the members of which were promptly on hand; but the horses assigned to draw the engine did not arrive until the very natural impatience of the firemen had begun to find vent in remarks more forcible than elegant. No real harm resulted from this tardiness, other than the disgust and mortification of the firemen, the incendiary having picked out a very good time to set the building on fire; but had there been a high wind at the time the delay might have been a serious matter. The two engines (Three and Four) that played on the fire took water from the reservoir on Madison street—the first time that valuable reservoir has been used, we believe. The first machine to arrive was Extinguisher No. Five, and it did excellent service in preventing the spread of the flames until the steamers could get their streams on. A good deal of ridicule was bestowed on the two "soda-fountains" when they were first purchased, but they have paid for themselves over and over again since that time in services rendered, and we believe the Fire Department authorities would not be willing to sell them for a good deal more than they cost, if they could not be replaced.

POLICE COURT.

Monday, April 1st; Batchelder, J.

John Lee, for being drunk, was fined $3, costs $6.90, which he paid.

John Stover, David Briggs, James Lane, Thomas Mahoney, Henry Fernald, James Jones, Henry McEvoy, Elmer Clark, Herman Clark, William Clark, Frank Clark, Philip Powers, Daniel Shugrue, Fred Danielson, George Danielson, John Sullivan and William Ayers, arraigned for playing ball on Pierce's island, Sunday, were allowed to go on probation.

FIRE COMPANY ELECTIONS.

On Monday evening the annual meetings of the various fire companies were held, officers being chosen as follows:

DEARBORN, NO. ONE.

Foreman, Edward E. McIntire; 1st Asst., George A. Jackson; Clerk, J. S. Whidden; Steward, Wm. B. Randall.

A POLICE "SHORT STOP."

Complaint having been made to the police authorities that Pierce's Island was a regular Sunday rendezvous for youthful base ball players, the City Marshal and Assistant Marshal Gray on Sunday last looked into the matter personally, and found on the island quite a gang of young fellows engaged in an animated and somewhat noisy game. Considering it useless to chase them the officers concealed themselves at the foot of Hunking street to await the boys' return from the island in their boats, of which they had two. Promptly on the stroke of twelve there was a rush for the boats, one of which was pulled for a landing close to where the officers were lying in wait, and when the latter put in their unexpected and (to the boys) unwelcome appearance there was no chance to escape with the boat, but five of the base ballists took to the water, clothes and all, swam to a wharf, and finally took refuge under a barn, whence they were ignominiously raked out by an officer in a boat. The captives, seven in number, were marched to the police station, several of them being "dem'd moist, unpleasant bodies" just then; and eight of the others who had been knocking base balls through the ordinance were soon after caught. On Monday the lot was paraded before Judge Batchelder, and "probation for seventeen" was served out.

A CRITIC CRITICISED.

GREENLAND, April 1st.

We think that the author of the slander on Rev. Dr. Robie in the Portsmouth Weekly of March 30th, had better learn the meaning of the word "Intemperate." Temperance does not mean total abstinence, but the proper use of every blessing bestowed upon man. Intemperance is going to excess in anything. In regard to the "Inside of the platter," we think that if we all followed the example set before us in the daily life of our Reverend brother, we should realize heaven on earth, and the thought of the hereafter would never disturb our peace of mind. Slander is a blight in any enlightened community; and the author of the article in question must be a resident of some other place than Greenland, for the society here is too intelligent to take such a one-sided view of things, and too morally high-toned to stoop to such mean business. Let him who is eager to proclaim his brother's faults to the world, first see that the inside of his own platter is clean.

PEN.

A GOOD SELECTION.

The President has nominated Hon. Joshua G. Hall of Dover, for reappointment as District Attorney for the District of New Hampshire. Mr. Hall, in addition to being a lawyer of eminent ability, is also well known as a gentleman of high integrity and personal character. He has, without seeking to increase the emoluments of his office, faithfully served the government in the discharge of the duties of the position; and no one in the State, that we ever heard of, deemed it proper to ask for the place when it was known he would accept a reappointment. The appointment will course be at once confirmed by the Senate.

THE VICINITY.

The abandoned schooner Mary Ella, of Kennebunkport, was recently passed by ship Portlaw, at Liverpool from New York.

We are informed that at about eleven o'clock, Sunday forenoon, Mr. Jere. Gunnison, of Kittery Point, cut his throat and also severed an artery in his arm, inflicting injuries that will probably prove fatal.

At Newmarket Junction, Friday night, a team was stolen from the stable of George D. Robinson, but the horse ran away from the thieves, smashed the wagon, and was recovered Saturday morning. An unsuccessful attempt was also made to enter the stable of the Railroad Hotel, but the marauders were driven away by a dog. They afterward stole a hand-car from the Concord & Portsmouth railroad, and left with it, but in what direction is not known.

One day last week some part of the gearing of the "big wheel" in the Portsmouth Company's mill at Great Falls gave way, and the speed could not be checked until the water in the canal was drawn off. The rate of speed was so high for a few minutes, and the mill shook so, that some of the operatives were led to believe that the end of the world was near, or that some other dire calamity was about to befall them, and the way they skedaddled out of the mill was a source of great merriment to the knowing ones. The mill will be stopped for a day or two.

We learn that Mr. Bradford Angell, so long known as the efficient clerk in the Superintendent's office while Messrs. Prescott and Bachelder were connected with the Eastern railroad, and who has remained under Mr. Hornby, is to resign his position on the Eastern this month, and will have charge of the office establishment of the Farragut and Atlantic Houses at Rye Beach. Mr. Angell has served for one summer season in this position. He has always been appreciated by those who know him best, for his ability as well as his urbanity of manner, and at the Beach will be of course a favorite.

In these trying times, it is necessary to make money, and there is no surer or quicker method than to invest a few hundred dollars in stock speculation. Alex. Frothingham & Co., 12 Wall st., N. Y., are reliable and experienced brokers, and have been the means of realizing fortunes for many of their customers. Their Weekly Financial Report is sent free. 5

The patronage among the first-class hotels in New York is constantly changing from one hotel to the other. The Grand Central hotel has recently incited the direct wrath of its competitors by offering the same accommodations for one and two dollars per day less than the others.

Portsmouth Chronicle

—No matter how thoroughly you clean the house, the wife of the next man who moves in will declare it is not fit for hogs to live in, and will slop suds around over everything trying to make it fit for hogs to live in.

—It is said that President Lincoln once said to Senator Fessenden: "What is your religion?" "Not much to boast of, but I suppose I am as much a Unitarian as anything." "Oh, a Unitarian," said Lincoln; "I thought you might be an Episcopalian. Seward is Episcopal, and I notice you swear about as he does."

—An anecdote is told of Driesbach, the once famous lion tamer, who died on his farm in Ohio, a few days ago, aged about seventy, a poor but contented man. At an exhibition given in New York twenty years ago, he was taken out of a cage covered with blood, and apparently fearfully injured, after a severe fight with a tiger. The audience shrieked, and much horror was expressed. For a fortnight afterward Driesbach appeared with his arm in a sling and face covered with bits of plaster. Then it leaked out that his wounds were imaginary. The gore had come from a sponge filled with rose pink, and the whole performance was nothing but a piece of advertising.

—"This man," said the warden, pausing before the door of cell No. 89, "was sent here for a most brutal assault on two freshmen at Princeton, where he was a sophomore. He is one of the worst characters in the prison. The cell adjoining is occupied by a man who was a sophomore at Yale. He attempted to poison the entire freshman class; all but seven were saved by antidotes. He is in for life. We are obliged to keep him heavily ironed. The next cell, No. 95, contains a Harvard sophomore, sent up for fourteen years, for putting out the eyes of a freshman with a red hot iron. These prisoners here, having their heads shaved, arrived from Amherst this morning; it is the party of students that burned the college and tarred and feathered the President last month."—Utica Observer.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 Dey St., New York.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 25 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. otmay1

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them cause it to shed prematurely.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair, and, probably, often renews the growth; and always restores its original color, when faded or gray.

It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and thus restores the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp cannot exist.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, recommended for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

FALL RIVER LINE,

BETWEEN

BOSTON and NEW YORK.

THE MAMMOTH STEAMSHIPS

Bristol and Providence,

Of this Line, are the Largest, Handsomest, and Most Costly in the World!

Trains leaving Boston from the OLD COLONY Railroad Station at 4:30 (Accommodation) and 6 (Steamboat Express) P. M., connect with these "Floating Palaces" at Fall River daily (Sundays excepted), arriving in New York at 6 A. M.

No line can offer the accommodations presented by this favorite route—

ONLY 49 MILES OF RAIL,

Passing through Narragansett and Mount Hope Bays by daylight—

NO DISAGREEABLE NIGHT CHANGES,

But affording passengers a full night's rest, and having an open water route, avoids the intricate and perilous river navigation incident to other routes.

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specified in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.

It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, Mass., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in their behalf. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "vaises," "inhaling-tubes," "douches," "washes," would, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tenter for unscented "Lilies of the Valley" worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, while I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and stimulate my system. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potassa and Iron, makes a most efficacious cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs; Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucborrhea arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

CATARRH

A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER.—Sirs: I have practised medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the nasal passages, fauces and larynx. I have used everything in the materia medica without any permanent relief until lately. I was induced to try a patent medicine (something that we allopathists are very loth to do), I tried ——— and divers others until I got hold of yours. I followed the directions to the letter, and am happy to say have had a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, correctly,
D. W. GRAY, M. D.,
Of Dr. D. W. Gray & Son., Physicians and Druggists, Muscatine, Iowa.

MUSCATINE, IOWA, March 27, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in the cure of those

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes which in many cases accompany a severe case of Catarrh. The inflamed and diseased condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these troubles; and until the system has been brought properly under the influence of the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from them cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was placed before the public, but in that short time it has found its way from Maine to California, and is everywhere acknowledged by druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh ever compounded. This fact will be deemed of more importance when it is coupled with the statement that within five years over 50 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day, with one or two exceptions, their names cannot be recalled by the best-informed druggist. Advertising may succeed in forcing a few sales, but, unless the remedy possesses undoubted specific medical properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.00. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

Daily Chronicle.

—Irate Landlord (and Free-Kirk Elder, after being called in for the fiftieth time about some repairs)—"The fact is, Mrs. McRacket, ye'll ne'er be content till ye're i' the hoose made wi'out hands." (Severely): "See Second Corinthians, fifth chapter, and first vairse, Mrs. McRacket!"—Punch.

—For several weeks a New York museum has advertised a curiosity in the shape of "the wild leopard boy," whose skin is black, dotted with white spots. When the child was first brought to this country, the white spots were very small, and all over his body. Recently they have grown larger, and change from one to another portion of his body. Several physicians have lately examined him and state that he will soon become entirely white.

—The Americans in England are constructing an American window for the church where Shakespeare lies buried. The design represents the "Seven Ages of Man," biblically. The infant is Moses in the bulrushes; the scholar, Samuel before Eli; the lover, Jacob and Rachel; the warrior, Joshua; the judge, Debora, (which seems to answer rather inaptly to Shakspeare's description of that functionary;) the old man, Abraham; and the very old man, Jacob.

—The story of the naming Punch, the English journal now world-famous, is thus told: One night, while the company of London Bohemians at the old tavern behind Drury Lane were discussing the name of their proposed humorous paper, Douglas Jerrold, remarking that Leman Rede and Mark Lemon were both present, said, "Here are two lemons, there is whiskey and hot water and sugar on the table, why not call the paper Punch?" The idea was adopted, and shortly after Punch made his first bow to the London public.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

Democratic Figuring.

The vote in the councillor districts of the State shows the infamous character of the republican gerrymander of the State under which the democrats are able to elect only one councillor. The combined republican majorities of the four republican districts are 2,499, while the democratic majority in the one democratic district is 2,519, or more than the combined republican majorities. Under a fair division of the State, it will be seen, the democrats would elect three of the five councillors; and yet the republican party claims to be the party of honesty and of "great moral ideas."

The above, which we have seen in a half dozen democratic papers, shows what a genius for blundering (or lying) it requires to run a democratic sheet in New Hampshire. The combined republican majorities of the four republican councillor districts are 5,018 instead of 2,499, and, as the democratic majority in the district they carry is 2,519, there is a clean republican majority of 2,499 on the councillor vote in the State, and this is the majority which the democrats have got to overcome before they carry New Hampshire.

A Democratic "Investigation."

A New Orleans correspondent of the Boston Traveller writes that paper, under date of March 26th, as follows:

Your readers will doubtless remember the letter of Ex-Gov. Wells some time since, presenting very damaging charges against a number of persons connected with the Returning Board prosecution. It was noticeable that not one of those affected presented a practical denial of the charges against himself. The Grand Jury undertook an "investigation" of the accusations, and called before them Gov. Wells. The old man expressed his readiness to testify and to bring before the jury witnesses who would on oath substantiate every allegation made in his letter. He, however, went on to state he was fully aware that their object was to "whitewash" the officials concerned, and therefore he should claim the right to publish the testimony at the same time with the report. From this moment the jury lost all interest in that phase of the investigation, and so far from directing Gov. Wells to produce his witnesses, did not even proceed to the examination of himself. On Friday last, without the examination so far as known of a single witness, and certainly without the examination of a single witness on behalf of the accuser, the Grand Jury gravely presented a bucket of whitewash, styled a report, to the very judge affected by the charges! All the officials concerned are declared to be pure as virgin snow, of course. Thus is Southern opinion manufactured.

More Civil Service Reform.

Representative Carter Harrison has a new plan of civil service reform. He proposes to create a department of civil service, to consist of five Commissioners, to be appointed by the President, and to be so classified that one new appointment shall be made every two years. Not more than three of such Commissioners shall be appointed from the same political party. After the first appointment the appointees are to draw lots, and the one drawing the shortest term is to be the head of the department. He is to receive a salary of $5000, and the other Commissioners are to receive $4000. Civil service officers are first to be appointed among all the Congressional districts pro rata. Whenever a vacancy occurs in a district, the Congressman for that district is to nominate twenty names and file a written attestation of their good character. These twenty may go before the Commission for examination, and the one passing the best examination is to get the appointment. The appointees are to hold office for life, or during good behavior. Any civil servant may be discharged at any time for cause by the head of the department, but the officer so discharging must file in writing his reasons for the dismissal.

Chronicle Correspondence.

BALTIMORE, MD., April 1st.

There is one thing still done here which strikes strangers as being rather queer, and which is at last being made a subject for the papers to talk about. It is the custom of sweeping the streets by the servant girls. They go out with their brooms and sweep the street in front of the house until there is a long winrow of dirt all up and down the middle of the street, which, if the day is windy, does not remain there long, but is blown about in all directions, and a good share of it goes into open windows, and into the eyes and on the clothes of pedestrians. And in addition to this, every Saturday is a day for washing off the sidewalks and scrubbing the steps, and if one can go out on that day and escape a deluge of water from a hose in the hands of a vigorous black damsel, such an one is lucky. Then there is another custom which seems a relic of past ages, and that is the cumbering up of the sidewalks on Baltimore and other streets, with boxes, in such quantities that it is sometimes hardly possible to make any progress unless the street itself is made available for the purpose. Then the city scavengers frequently delay making their appearance until noon, for the purpose of removing the contents of boxes, and for ashes, etc.; and then when they do empty them into their carts, the effort made to do it gently, so as to create as little dust and consequently annoyance to passers by as possible, is not at all apparent, consequently the chances for being smothered are good. Then the milkmen, the street hucksters, and the dogs, make the same noises as they did twenty years ago, and the noises apparently come from the same lungs and out of the same mouths. The "milk man" still drives in his covered wagon, in which is a huge can holding fifty or a hundred gallons, and he rings the same bell, and sits on his seat at his ease just the same, until the customer comes with the vessel for the milk. And every person on the street has a different milkman, and every milkman has a different sounding bell and a different hour in the day to call, so that there is no lack of the "music of the bells." The street hucksters are a study—that is, it is a study to find out what the unearthly sounds they manage to eject from their mouths mean, and unless one takes pains to look out, and see what it is they have to sell, it is impossible to form even the slightest idea of what they are trying to communicate to the public. To put down on paper what they intend to convey by their yelling is simply impossible; it has got to be heard to be appreciated—and then there is no such thing as understanding, unless you look—and then you don't know, unless you can see what they have for sale. As for dogs, it would be hard to find another spot in this world where dogs can be found that can bark longer and be in every way so disagreeable, every night in the year, as they do here. It is simply astonishing, the power and endurance there is in the Baltimore dogs in this matter of barking. But then there are lots of other things here to counteract these little annoyances; so that taken as a whole Baltimore is one of the finest cities in the country. It is where one can rely on getting the most delicious oysters, and the only fault one can find with them is the price one has to pay at a restaurant. It seems strange to those who come from New England that they should actually have to pay more for them, either on the shell or cooked, than they have to in Boston; but such is the fact, and notwithstanding that oysters at wholesale have never been so cheap as during the present season, (selling at Annapolis one day last week for six cents a bushel, and within two weeks a lot of extra large ones, none of them less than six inches long, for twenty-five cents,) still they ask here twenty cents for half a dozen raw, twenty-five cents for a common stew, twenty-five cents for five or six fried, and fifty cents for half a peck steamed. It is certain, that the price of two articles at retail has not fallen since the war in this city, and those two can be named—oysters and whiskey; and the traffic in both is simply immense, notwithstanding the hard times. People up here from the "Eastern Shore" say that the cold snap of a week ago ruined the peach buds, so peaches will be high this summer. NAT.

An Influential Divine.

Rev. Joseph Cook, of Boston, had a loud altercation with the customs inspector on the train from Montreal to St. Albans, Vt., on Saturday. The inspector asked politely to examine Cook's bag. The latter responded pompously, but opened his bag. When asked if some new books therein were purchased in Canada, he said: "I refuse to answer any questions," and refused to stop at the customs office as requested. The inspector passed on, but was recalled by Cook, who announced his name and lectured the inspector loudly and pompously on the act of seizing and detaining him, and threatened to have him removed, saying, "I represent the aristocracy of Boston and have great influence." The inspector had to send for the conductor, but Cook quieted down and finally went into the Custom House on his arrival at St. Albans. The value of the books being small he was permitted to go on.

Farmer's Institute.

Arrangements have been made, by members of the Board of Agriculture and gentlemen residing in the vicinity of Concord, to hold a series of Agricultural Meetings at the rooms of the Board in the State House. Farmers, fruit-growers, stock-raisers and all who are interested in rural pursuits, are requested to lend their presence and engage in the discussion of subjects presented. The first meeting will be held on Tuesday, April 9th, at 10 o'clock A. M. General subject, "Fruit Culture;" specialties,—grafting, fruit in diet, grapes, insect enemies, pears. Other topics will be presented by other parties. A general discussion on the subjects will be held, and all will be asked to participate. Samples of fruit or specimens of flowers for exhibition are desired. The doors will be opened to ladies and gentlemen from all sections. A second meeting will be held May 7th, and a third one June 5th. During the session of the Legislature a meeting will be held every Tuesday.

An Investigator Adrift.

Col. John L. Vance, of Ohio, who has been missing for some time, has been seen at St. Louis and again at Kansas City. His friends, however, who are on the trail, have been unable so far to overtake him. The Colonel is wanted in Washington by various parties with whom he has had dealings. Several friends in Cincinnati also, who have contributed to defray the expenses of his present trip, would like to see him. This fly-away Colonel is no other than Ex-Congressman Vance of Ohio, the great democratic "reformer," who, as a member of the 44th Congress, was particularly noted for his activity and enterprise as an "investigator" in ferreting out republican corruption, whether it existed or not. He is likely to be investigated himself, in the courts, if those he has swindled can only get hold of him.

Newspaper Errors.

Editor Chron.: You modern "gentlemen of the press" need not imagine yourselves the originators of those very common occurrences now-a-days, newspaper blunders, as the following incident that transpired as long ago as the administration of John Quincy Adams, will show. Among the items of a New York morning paper, after the arrival of a packet-ship the previous day, was this piece of information: "The French papers state that Uladislaus, King of Hungary and Poland, lost his life at Varna." An evening journal improved upon it by a typographical error of a w for an l, which made it read, "Uladislaus, King of Hungary and Poland, lost his wife at Varna," thus making it appear that Varna was an unlucky place for the family of Uladislaus. Both rumors originated from the statement in a French paper that the Czar of Russia had sent twelve pieces of cannon, that had been captured at the battle of Varna in 1444, to Poland, for the purpose of forming a monument to Uladislaus, who was killed in that contest; but the French editor forgot to state the time of its occurrence, so that the news was nearly four centuries old when reaching the American readers. When Irving's "Conquest of Grenada" was first announced one of the papers had it Canada, and stated that the author had gathered the materials for it while in Spain. B.

The War Cloud.

England has sent a circular letter to the powers, refusing to take part in the congress of nations under the restrictions of Russia. The latter government is greatly irritated, and the imperial staff has received orders to prepare for war with England. Austria, if not favorable to England, is strongly opposed to Russia's demands. Russia is reported to be bidding high for a Turkish alliance.

News and Notes.

Lieut. Charles M. Anthony, attached to the flag-ship Powhatan, of the home squadron, arrived at Washington on Monday from Norfolk.

Montgomery Blair's bill to remove Hayes and make Tilden President has passed the Maryland Legislature. Montgomery will blare louder than ever now, which is needless.

The bank of Jacksonville, Fla., was robbed on Monday of $7500 in greenbacks and bank notes. A man engaged the attention of the cashier while a confederate entered the rear door, stepped into the vault and secured the money. The robbery was not discovered for two hours. There is no clue.

Dennis Donnelly and Jack Kehoe, two Molly Maguires concerned in the murder of Thomas Sawyer at Raven Run, Pa., in 1875, are to be hung at Pottsville on the 18th inst.

On Monday, in Richmond, Va., Mr. A. A. Reinhardt, a man of very high standing, detected his wife in improper conduct with John Frick. Reinhardt immediately proceeded to give his wife a terrible beating, during which her paramour ran away; afterward Reinhardt went gunning for Frick, put a charge of small shot in his back, and then disappeared. Frick is not seriously wounded.

Patrick and John Rielly, brothers, started to cross the Niagara river from the American side in a row-boat at six o'clock Monday evening, not far above the falls. When half over it was noticed that they were in trouble, as if an oar was broken, too far down to render any assistance. They went over the Horseshoe falls, just outside of Three Sister islands.

Estella Brickett, a female domestic in Portland, was burned to death Monday evening through the igniting of kerosene with which she was filling a lighted lamp.

Ship P. R. Hazeltine, of Bath, Me., has been lost off Cape Horn. She carried a crew of twenty-seven men, all told, several of whom are reported to have been saved.

The Cincinnati verdict for $40,000 against W. C. Coup, late manager of Barnum's Great Show, for exposing the tricks of opposition showmen, has been set aside by Judge Johnston, before whom the case was originally tried. Mr. Barnum announces in his "Advance Illustrated News" for 1878, that several bogus imitators who do not exhibit one-tenth part of what they advertise, have gone into bankruptcy and been sold out by the sheriff, and that the same doom awaits the rest. He significantly adds, "I shall prosecute and expose all swindlers who steal my name and trade on my popularity."

Benj. Larogue, a Gloucester, Mass., saloon keeper, is under arrest for attempting to murder Andrew J. Center, because the latter refused to lend him some money.

George W. Briggs, Deputy Sheriff of Westchester county, N. Y., has brought a libel suit for $10,000 against the New York Herald in the Brooklyn Supreme Court.

Rev. Mason Chenowith stepped down from the Baptist pulpit in Bangor, Me., after preaching an eloquent sermon on "Purity of Character," and was immediately surrounded, as usual, by admiring members of his congregation, who desired to shake his hands. A constable then entered and arrested him. He has since been sent to Ohio, where he has three living wives, to be tried for bigamy. There is also a charge of forgery against him.

For the past three or four months the public authorities of Washington have been unrelenting in their war on the gambling houses, and they now pride themselves on the fact that for the first time for the past fifty years the city is now without a public gambling establishment of any kind. They have not, however, been able to prevent Congressmen from bluffing each other in Schenck's popular pastime of poker. There is a rumor in circulation that during a single sitting recently, a famous poker player, an Ex-Senator from Arkansas, lost $4000, and that a Texan mail contractor also came out loser for a larger sum.

In these trying times, it is necessary to make money, and there is no surer or quicker method than to invest a few hundred dollars in stock speculation. Alex. Frothingham & Co., 12 Wall st., N.Y., are reliable and experienced brokers, and have been the means of realizing fortunes for many of their customers. Their Weekly Financial Report is sent free.

A few days and even hours remain when it will be too late to make an application for a ticket in the grand April distribution of the Louisiana State Lottery Company. A letter addressed at once to M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box 692, New Orleans, will receive prompt attention, and if it encloses two dollars the sender of it will promptly receive a ticket, which we hope, for his sake, will entitle him to thirty thousand dollars.

"EUREKA" is the sentiment of countless sufferers who find the balm of relief, and the fountain of their health and strength, in AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. It is the most potent of all the alteratives to purify the system and cleanse the blood. It possesses invigorating qualities, so that it stimulates the faded vitalities and purges out the corruptions which mingle with the blood, promoting derangement and decay. We are assured by many intelligent physicians that this medicine cures beyond all others of its kind, and we can fortify this statement with our own experience. —Athol (Mass.) White Flag.

The occasional "hotel grumbler" is not a rarity, but there are few hotels that give the almost universal satisfaction both in rates and accommodation that characterizes the Grand Central Hotel, New York. It is concededly the best kept and most popular among all its rivals.

Beware of Worthless Imitations. Inquire for Adamson's Botanic Balsam. Take no other; see that the name of F. W. Kinsman is blown in the glass. It cures Asthma, Coughs, Colds, etc., etc. 35 cents.

THINK OF IT, that a Cough or Cold neglected may lead to serious consequences; in the early stage of Throat and Lung diseases, Madame Porter's Cough Balsam is an invaluable remedy, can be taken by the oldest person or youngest child. Is safe, reliable, and agreeable to the taste. Price 25 cents, and in large bottles at 50 and 75 cents.

THE CITY.

"A Celebrated Case" at Music Hall tonight. See advertisement.

The ladies will be interested in Miss Bickford's advertisement of Spring Fashions in Millinery, in another column.

The insurance on the Bowles house on Middle street, burned Monday morning, was $1200, and not $1800 as before stated.

It is rumored that an extensive shoe manufactory is to be erected on the site of the old Rockingham mill, by Mr. Thomas S. Nowell and others. Hope the rumor is well founded.

The Washington Post says Congressman Frank Jones will positively decline a renomination. He might as well; the First District is to be represented by a republican in the 46th Congress.

The wife of that charming author, Mr. T. B. Aldrich, is a lady whose many graces and accomplishments are matter for the delight of her home and friends, and not for the paragraphing pen. Nevertheless, it may, perhaps, be permitted to say that Mrs. Aldrich has been playing with a very fine spirit and finish two difficult and distinct roles in an amateur dramatic entertainment in a Massachusetts town. Mrs. Imogen Willis Eddy, the daughter of N. P. Willis, also took a part in one of these plays.—Tribune.

Says the Nashua Telegraph of Monday: "Portsmouth is without a public hall, and a stock company is proposed, with a capital of $20,000, in shares of $100 each, for the purpose of building a hall, after the plan of the old Temple burned some time since, the same to be used for amusements and political purposes." Such is fame! Here we have the finest public hall in New England outside the large cities, and about as fine a one as any in the large cities, size only excepted, and yet we are told that "Portsmouth is without a public hall." We shall be told that Portsmouth is without a hotel, next.

B. P. Shillaber has written a new book for the boys, which will be published by Lee & Shepard, illustrating, by text and pictures, the life of the "human boy." The author has long made the boyish character his study, and, having been a boy himself at an early stage of existence, is qualified to do justice to his subject. He takes his well-known creation of Ike Partington as the representative of the genus boy, and the adventures given fully portray the characteristics of youngsters of his age in their many phases. It is brim full of incident from beginning to end, and cannot fail to be an attractive addition to juvenile literature.

The following bill was introduced in the United States House of Representatives on Monday, by Hon. Frank Jones: "That the sum of $15,000 be, and the same is hereby appropriated, for making such repairs and renovations as may be necessary for the safety and continuance of the fog signal at the Whale's-back light station at the entrance to Portsmouth, N. H., harbor." The bill ought to pass at once, for the old tower is in a dangerous condition, and the Department has no money with which to repair it; and unless the work is done this summer the harbor will be without a fog-signal next winter. One of the heavy stones displaced by the gales of January, and which was estimated to weigh three tons, was promptly replaced in the foundation wall by the men of the lighthouse steam tender, after a hard day's work, and secured in place with wooden wedges; but that was all they were able to do until a liberal appropriation for general repairs should be made.

Judeg Peabody A. Morse, who recently died at Natchitoches, Louisiana, at the age of seventy-three years, was a native of this State and well known in this city, where he has connections residing. His brother, Horace B. Morse, was many years ago, principal of the Academy here, and on June 22d, 1825, went with a classmate, Edwin Baxter Stevens, and five other persons, on a sailing excursion to the Isles of Shoals, where they distributed religious tracts and gave oral instructions to the islanders. On their return, when about three miles from Portsmouth, a violent gale capsized the boat, and all on board were lost. Messrs. Morse and Stevens were unmarried youths of great worth and devoted piety, and their deaths were deeply deplored. —Times.

The exhibition of the panorama of the Life of Christ, advertised for Tuesday evening, was postponed to Thursday evening (when the manager informs us it will positively take place) owing to the non-arrival of the lecturer.

The last lecture of the Methodist church course will be delivered this (Wednesday) evening by Rev. Dr. Alden of this city; subject, "Travels in the East." Lecture to commence at 7:45; admission 20 cts.

POLICE COURT.

Tuesday, April 2d; Batchelder, J.

Edward Murch, Salisbury Kimball, Thomas Sherry and Thomas H. Smith, all drunks, were all sent to Brentwood in default of $9.90 each, fine and costs.

Thomas Dougan was complained of for an assault on Thomas Sherry. Dougan was anxious to quit town, and the Judge not deeming it essential to the town's welfare that he should remain in it, gave him just two hours in which to wind up his business here and remove. Thomas got through the job and beyond the city limits in less than twenty minutes.

THE VICINITY.

Louis Chignon, the Frenchman in whose house at Biddeford the "wholesale liquor store" was found concealed last week, was taken before the Police Court, and ordered to recognize to appear before the Supreme Court. He "stepped out" for his bonds, and as he has not since been seen it is supposed he has gone to Canada after bondsmen. Biddeford is rid of his presence, anyway.

An "old folks' concert" was given in the Methodist church at Kittery on Wednesday evening of last week, by a choir of seventy-five voices, assisted by the Kittery Cornet Band, the whole directed by Col. Littlefield; and after the concert a "New England supper" was partaken of, in the vestry. The affair was so much of a success that the concert was repeated on Friday evening, the supper being omitted.

The Hampton correspondent of the Exeter News-Letter furnishes the following historical item: "In 1763, Gen. Jonathan Moulton of Hampton, having an ox fattened for the purpose, weighing 1400 pounds, tied a flag upon his horns and drove him to Portsmouth, as a present to Gov. Wentworth. He refused to accept any compensation for the ox, but merely as a token of the Governor's esteem and friendship he would like to have a charter of a small gore of land, which he had discovered adjoining the town of Moultonborough, of which he was one of the principal proprietors. It was granted, and he called it New Hampton in honor of his native town. This piece of land contained 19,422 acres, a part of which now constitutes the town of Centre Harbor."

New Hampshire Items.

Rev. James Gorton, pastor of the Universalist church of Nashua, has sent in his resignation, to take effect at once.

A son of George H. Stevens, of Hillsboro, died of the "nose-bleed" last week. It began to bleed Wednesday noon and could not be stopped, and he died from loss of blood Thursday.

It appears from the Nashua city marshal's report for the quarter ending March 31st that the whole number of arrests was eighty-five. City Marshal Crowley and Assistant Marshal Talles assumed their duties Monday.

Dana Jewett, of Bartlett, died a few days ago under suspicious circumstances, and it is suspected that he was poisoned. The stomach of the body has been sent to Brunswick, Me., for examination. A man named Mullen, in Jewett's employ, is suspected of the crime.

The Warner Savings Bank has cut down depositors' accounts twenty-five per cent.; it is claimed that the assets are equal in amount to liabilities, and the cut down has been made by the Court on the petition of the bank trustees, to guard against the evil effects of a run. The amount of deposits is $77,933.10.

It is reported that Hon. Smith Ely, mayor of New York city, is soon to marry Kate A. Sanborn, the accomplished daughter of Professor E. D. Sanborn of Dartmouth college.

One of our citizens visited Frank Hiland at the Concord Insane Asylum last week, and reports that he is entirely recovered from his attack of insanity, and will soon return to this city, which fact his numerous friends will be glad to learn.—Mirror.

Eighteen persons were baptized at the Baptist church in Nasnua, Sunday, by Rev. Messrs. Nicholson and Hall.

The republicans of Nashua say that Randolph W. Farley, the new democratic city clerk, was not fairly elected, as the republican candidate, ex-clerk Bowman, was chosen on the first ballot, which the democratic mayor declared was illegal. The circumstances are as follows: After the organization of the city government, the mayor, board of aldermen and common council met in joint convention and proceeded to ballot for clerk. John H. Chapman had 1; Randolph W. Farley, 16; Eugene N. Bowman, 17. As there were only thirty-three members in the convention the vote was declared illegal. The second ballot resulted in favor of Farley, who was declared elected. The republicans claim that the first ballot was legal, as the vote for Chapman was for clerk of the council instead of city clerk, and that the extra vote got mixed in after the ballots were taken from the box.

Portsmouth Chronicle

—Many wear the "blue" in remembrance of departed spirits.

—The Chicago Freemasons are laying themselves out for the grandest banquet of modern times. The triennial meeting of the Knights Templar of America will be held in Chicago in 1880, and it is proposed to give a banquet to 10,000 knights. The cost is estimated at $50,000. The tables will be arranged on the lake front, if the weather permits, otherwise in the exposition building.

—A facetious brakeman on the Central Pacific railroad cried out as a train was about entering a tunnel: "This tunnel is one mile long, and the train will be four minutes passing through it." The train dashed into daylight again in four seconds, and the scene within the car was a study for a painter. Seven young ladies were closely pressed by seven pairs of masculine arms; fourteen pairs of lips were glued together, and three dozen inverted whiskey-flasks flashed in the air.

—The Quincy, Ill., Whig tells this dog story: "A few evenings since, while a number of persons were chatting in a drug store, a gentleman came in followed by a small dog. While the master was procuring some medicine the dog walked around the store-room, and finally picked up something and ran to one of the gentlemen and attracted attention by scratching his clothing. The man looked down and noticed that the dog had a piece of paper in his mouth, but thought nothing more of it. The dog, not satisfied, repeated his apparent appeal, but not with success, and then went to his owner, who took the paper and saw that it was a ten dollar bank note. The dog had found it on the floor, and evidently knew that it was valuable. It subsequently transpired that the money belonged to Dr. I. T. Wilson, and it was returned to him. The dog was rewarded for his sagacity by the present of a handsome new collar."

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 Dey St., New York.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

Sirs—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. Rose & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.
Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and destroy the vitality of the shed prematurely.
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.
It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrown with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.
As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

PENNSYLVANIA
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. in
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrate the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and roadbed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
of the
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An article cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outlived all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKFORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "blowing-tube" manufacturers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 20 years I suffered with catarrh. The usual passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "blowing-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for days successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, deaf and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken; and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your issue of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way possible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my system. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,
S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Chologogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery
By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Chologogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.
When the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or when there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as its effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health, and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Erysipelas and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

DR. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

CATARRH

A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER,—Sirs: I have practised medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the nasal passages, fauces and larynx. I have used everything in the materia medica without any permanent relief, until finally I was induced to try a patent medicine (something that we allopathists are very loth to do). I tried —— and divers others until I got hold of yours. I followed the directions to the letter, and am happy to say have had a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully,
D. W. GRAY, M. D.,
Of Dr. D. W. Gray & Son., Physicians and Druggists, Muscatine, Iowa.

MUSCATINE, IOWA, March 27, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in the cure of those

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes which in many cases accompany a severe case of Catarrh. The inflamed and diseased condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these troubles; and until the system has been brought properly under the influence of the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from them cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was placed before the public, but in that short time it has found its way from Maine to California, and is everywhere acknowledged by druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh ever compounded. The fact will be deemed of more importance when it is remembered that statistics show that within five years over 250 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day, with one or two exceptions, all of names cannot be recalled by the best-informed druggist. Advertising may succeed in forcing a few sales, but, unless the remedy possess undoubted specific medical properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.00. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

Lightning Time in an Engine-House.

A trial was made in the house of Fire Engine Company No. 5, in Liberty street, New York, Friday, of the time in which the men of the company can man the engine ready for duty. The horses were in the stalls, with the harness on their backs, as they always stand, and the men surrounded the engine. Captain Crum, who has commanded the company for a number of years, stood by the gong and gave the signal. At the first trial the horses came out of their stalls, were hitched to the engine, and all was ready for a start in seven and three-quarter seconds. The second trial was hitching the horses while they stood ready before the engine. Fireman Dennis J. Leary hitched them in twelve seconds without any assistance. As the horses stood before the engine the company went to work to harness them, and in one and three-quarters seconds they were ready for duty. The firemen then all went up stairs and the horses were put in the stalls. When Captain Crum struck the bell there was a rush of firemen down the stairs, and in seven seconds the engine was ready to go out. This is the fastest time ever made by any engine company in New York city. The firemen say that if their stalls faced the engines, as those in most of the engine houses do, they could have the engine ready for duty in five and a half seconds after the alarm. This fast time was witnessed by Mr. E. F. Brainard, chief of the Passaic Fire Department, and the time was kept with stop watches by Middleton Brothers, of No. 10 Maiden lane.

Hints on Working Butter.

Do not work too much nor too fast. Work slowly until all the salt is thoroughly and evenly absorbed. Otherwise the butter will not be of uniform color. Working it too fast will destroy the grain, and the butter becomes salvy and lard-like in its texture. Let it stand or put it away in the tray for twenty-four hours. Then work it enough to remove all the buttermilk or surplus brine, so that the butter may become dry or like a piece of cheese. Mould into rolls, and set these away for twenty-four hours, or until they become hard and firm. The cloth should now be put on, so as to cover one end, while the other is left open for the stamp. The cloth should be cut in pieces of exact size and dipped in brine, and the butter rolled when the cloth is dripping wet. Butter should never come in contact with the bare hand. When in bulk it can be easily handled with a ladle and a flat paddle.—Journal of Chemistry.

—The last ill-natured story told about Chicago is that twenty-five cents is exacted for the privilege of viewing what is reckoned the choicest curiosity which the great Lake City can show—viz., the only unmortgaged piece of ground.

—Galveston, Tex., being located on an island, guards herself against tramps by the simple expedient of stationing a policeman at the end of the bridge.

—Hamlet keeps a saloon in Detroit. It is to be presumed that he sells the slings of outrageous fortune.

Daily Chronicle

THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 1878.

A "Reform" Secretary.

Grave charges having been made against the management of the Freedmen's hospital in Washington, the Senate (after a loud howl had been made by the democratic and assistant democratic papers all over the country) ordered an investigation by a special committee; this investigation has developed the fact that two investigations had previously been made by order of Secretary Schurz—one by employes of the Interior Department, who reported that the charges against the management of the hospital were destitute of foundation, and the second by a committee of physicians, who made a similar report. So far it was all right, for it was the Secretary's duty to enquire into the matter; but the great "reform" Secretary, having received the reports of his agents entirely exculpating the surgeons and physicians of the hospital from all charges whatever, instead of making them public, as in justice and common decency he was bound to do, quietly pigeon-holed them! His conduct in this matter is of a piece with his star chamber proceedings against Commissioner Smith and Clerk Galpin. The report of the Senate committee is unanimous in favor of the physicians managing the hospital, and as to the efficiency, fidelity and economy of the management,—just as the suppressed reports of Schurz's committees were. At the rate the High Priests of "Reform"—both republican and democratic—are going on, they will soon make, if they have not indeed already made, the very name a stench in the nostrils of every believer in honest dealing and fair play.

The War Cloud.

Despatches from London, Wednesday evening, say: "It is reported that the English fleet is about to enter the Bosphorus to counteract any designs of the Russians towards occupation of Turkey's strongholds."

A Vienna despatch of the same date says: "Despatches from St. Petersburg report great excitement over the news of a probable alliance between England and Turkey, and everything has assumed a most warlike aspect." It was reported the Russians were rapidly advancing on Gallipoli, for the purpose of placing the army in position to seize, if necessary, the best strategical points in the vicinity of the Turkish capital.

Congress.

The Senate on the 2d inst. passed a bill directing the Secretary of War to examine and report upon the proposed route for a railroad from Austin, Tex., to the Rio Grande, and appropriating $20,000 for the survey. This is a part of the Topolanampo route. The bill also provides for a survey through to the Gulf of California, provided permission is first obtained through the State Department from the Government of Mexico. The Senate also passed a resolution providing for the transfer of the records of the Electoral Commission to the State Department; they are now in the custody of the Clerk of the Supreme Court. Debate on the Pacific Railroad funding bill occupied the rest of the day.

The House on the 2d inst. passed a joint resolution authorizing the Commission having in charge the Washington Monument to apply $36,000 to giving greater stability to the foundation. The case of doorkeeper Polk was then taken up, by a vote of 148 to 79, the question being on adopting the majority report of House committee on civil service, which recommends Polk's dismissal. Harrison of Illinois, chairman of the committee, occupied the floor all the afternoon, urging the adoption of the report, during which time Polk's friends indulged in a "circus," congregating about Harrison and interrupting him every moment with questions. No vote was reached.

News and Notes.

A delegation from the navy yards in New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Portsmouth, Washington and Norfolk will be heard Friday upon the subject of a bill defining the meaning of the eight-hour law. Members of this delegation say they favor Senator Spencer's bill, which requires the government to make a special agreement with employes not to work them over eight hours without extra compensation. The Secretary of the Navy has in a circular fixed the pay of men in the yards at a stated rate per day of ten hours, and the object of the delegation is to have some definite law which will fix the number of hours that shall constitute a day's labor, in order that it may be uniform in all the yards and under all departments of the government.

The Earl of Leitrim, his clerk and their car driver were recently murdered near Manor Vaughan, in the County of Derry, Ireland, the crime being probably of an agrarian character, the murders having been committed opposite a cottage from which a widow had recently been ejected, and eighty-nine other tenants being under notice to quit. The Earl's body was found in a ditch. The left side of his head was battered in. It is thought that he was also shot in the head, but the fatal shot was through the heart. His left arm was broken and the right completely shattered. The driver and clerk were shot in the head. The ground where the crime was committed showed traces of a hard struggle. A fowling piece and part of another gun were found near the spot.

A. M. D'Hussey has rediscovered and patented a lost art, well known to the Egyptians even in the remote days when Cleopatra's Needle stood at Heliopolis and Moses rested in its shadow. D'Hussey has produced specimens of fire gilded glass, which are not to be distinguished from the ancient examples, and which so delighted the trustees of the British Museum that they have made room for them in the showcases of the Egyptian Department. The modern process consists in introducing gold leaf or platinum into the body of the glass and amalgamating the gold with the glass by means of the blowpipe. The metal and glass thus fused are absolutely indestructible and unchanging, and will no doubt enter largely into the decoration of architecture and art manufactures.

The official report upon the loss of the steamer Metropolis shows that when rebuilt, her new timbers were improperly built on to the old, and the latter gave way in the strain of the storm, causing the leak which led her captain to beach her, and that the same weakness caused her rapid demolition by the waves.

It is now charged that American merchantmen are engaged in the coolie trade, that is, in the illegal transportation of Chinese from China, and the Navy Department is now considering the question of necessary instructions to our fleet to have the law executed by the seizure of all such ships.

It is stated that Mr. Barrett has offered to act "A Counterfeit Presentment" in private theatricals during the coming summer, with Mrs. T. B. Aldrich as the heroine.

A cabal of Cardinals against the liberal policy of the Pope is already recognized at Rome, but Leo is not regarded a weak man.

Lord Macaulay, in describing the troubles of Great Britain in former years in respect to currency, remarks: "It may well be doubted whether all the misery inflicted on the English nation in a quarter of a century by bad kings, bad ministers, bad parliaments and bad judges, was equal to the misery caused in a single year by bad crowns and bad shillings."

A twelve-year-old son of John W. Fairfield, of Savoy, Mass., hanged himself because he was threatend with punishment.

William B. O'Donahue, a well known Fenian leader, and Secretary of the Treasury of the Provisional Government formed by Louis Riel in Manitoba during the rebellion of 1870, died recently of consumption at St. Paul, Minn.

It is again reported from Chicago that English agents throughout the West are buying 20,000 horses, ostensibly for street cars in Scotland and England, but judging by the character of the animals they select they are intended rather for active movements than for draft purposes. They have bought 500 at Chicago.

Robert Clarke & Co., of Cincinnati, issue the Bibliotheca Americana for 1878, a priced catalogue of nearly 7000 books and pamphlets relating to America, (including 60 relating to New Hampshire, and over 170 confederate publications) for sale by them. The book comprises 400 pages, and is sold for 50 cts.

Smith Weed, who died in Stamford, Conn., Saturday, at the age of ninety-three years, had lived in the same house eighty-four years. In the war of 1812 he belonged to the company that prevented the British from landing at Shippan Point. His mother lived to be over 100 years old. He lived with his first wife fifty years, and at the age of seventy married again.

It is stated that 1,000,000 silver dollars have already been coined, and the demand for this coin at par in gold has nearly ceased. About $100,000 were absorbed at this rate. It was stated in the Treasury Department that they are too popular for general circulation as yet. Arrangements have been completed under which during April the Philadelphia mint will turn out 1,750,000.

The Chicago Tribune is engaged in the good work of showing up the cheap jewelry concerns. It speaks particularly of one calling itself the "Eagle gold and silver plating company" of Cincinnati, which advertises in Harper's Bazaar that it will send "six extra coin plated teaspoons, worth $4.50, and one elegant butter knife retailing at $1.50," all for one dollar. The Tribune finds that 58.5-12 cents of this dollar is profit for this company. Some of the most respectable newspapers, several religious ones, and one or two of the best young people's magazines have this or a similar advertisement.

An important case has arisen in the Municipal Court in Portland. Mr. David Miranda, a business man of the Jewish faith, is arraigned for keeping open shop on the Lord's day. Mr. Miranda keeps a cigar store, and for some time past has been in the habit of opening his shop on Sunday morning and doing business all day. He closes on Saturday and observes that day as his Sunday, and claims a right to do so. The police have closed his place several times, but after a while he refused to be so disturbed unless compelled to by the law, and has accordingly asked that he may be brought to trial for a test case.

Mrs. Thomas Burns of Portland is 112 years old. She is nearly bed ridden, sitting up only a small portion of each day. Her memory is entirely gone, but she recognizes her daughter. There were in all twelve children in the family, of whom only two survive.

Naval Affairs.

The boilers which were built a number of years ago for the iron-clad Colossus, which has never been launched, will be used in the U. S. S. Powhatan, as they are exactly the same size and build as the worn out ones now in the Powhatan, and only need a small amount of bracing and overhauling to prepare them. Admiral Howell will hoist his flag on the Powhatan on the 1st of July.

The House naval committee have agreed to report favorably Whithorne's bill authorizing the Secretary of the Navy to appoint apothecaries as warrant officers in the navy.

New Hampshire Items.

John H. Chapman, late clerk of the common council of Nashua, who, in the contest over the organization of the city council, collected about 4500 votes, has been presented with a purse of $75 for his arduous labors.

Rev. E. E. Cummings, D. D., a well known Baptist divine of Concord, observed a golden anniversary on Sunday, March 28th, by delivering in the First Baptist church the same sermon which he preached in that house fifty years ago, or on the last Sabbath of March, 1828. Dr. Cummings was born in Claremont in 1801.

Mr. Bailey of Concord, well known throughout New Hampshire as a tin peddler, returned from a visit to his neighbor, Deacon H. W. Savory, Sunday evening, and went to his barn, where were two of his neighbors, Moses Eastman and Mr. Noyes. He set down in a chair and commenced smoking, in the meantime engaging in conversation. After smoking awhile he remarked that he would go into the house as it was rather cold, and attempting to rise from his chair fell back and expired without a word.

A poodle dog in Canaan recently fell into an unused and dry well and remained there fifteen days without food. When taken out he was found to have lost two pounds of flesh, but was otherwise apparently little the worse for his experience.

Political.

The Louisiana bull-dozers having given up the attempt to railroad the members of the Returning Board to the penitentiary—with the aid of democratic defaulters sitting on the judicial bench—Gen. Anderson on the 1st inst. took possession of the New Orleans custom house as collector of the port.

At midnight on the 1st inst. the California Legislature adjourned sine die. One of the latest acts was to pass a bill, which received the Governor's approval, authorizing an increase of the police force at San Francisco by an addition of two hundred and fifty, making the total force four hundred.

We wonder if the democratic party is going to perish of doorkeepers? It has had this disease now during two terms of Congress. It was made ridiculous by its "Biger-man-than-old-Grant," and it is now apparently hesitating before Polk, who seems to be a "Biger-man-than-the-whole-democratic-party."—New York Herald.

Here is something much to the credit of Secretary McCrary. He recently read a newspaper paragraph that Mrs. Gilmer, whose husband was killed with Judge Chisolm in the Kemper county massacre, was in destitute circumstances. He investigated the matter, which proved to be true, and finding that she was a woman of education, he sent her an appointment as clerk in the War Department. She has no intimation of her appointment, and has never applied for any Government position. Secretary McCrary has also given a son of Mrs. Chisolm a clerkship in the Surgeon-General's office. The mother is already employed in the Treasury Department.

There will not be room enough in Washington for the democratic contestants in Congress who will be encouraged to go there next fall. If the party succeeds in preserving a bare majority, it will seat every man who can prove he was a candidate on election day, no matter whether he received any votes or not.

Glover's mud expedition hasn't been heard from yet, but if he doesn't stir up something that has a bad smell presently it won't be his fault. He has employed as experts two of the worst characters modern politics have produced, Bell and Moore. Neither of these men would be believed under oath by any court in the country. They have been at the bottom of no end of political roorbacks, and are drawing pay from the Government through Glover now to help him set up some more. It is entirely safe to say that any discoveries Glover may make, therefore, will not stand examination for more than twenty-four hours. They will hurt nobody but the men who make them.—Tribune.

It is reported that Mr. Hartley W. Mason has sold his new house on Lafayette road to Mrs. Dennett for $12,000, and has bought land on Sagamore road and will build thereon.

The panorama of the Life of Christ will be exhibited at Franklin Hall this evening, commencing promptly at 7:45; tickets 25 cts.; for children under 10 years of age, 10 cts. There will also be vocal and instrumental music.

A match has been made between Col. Frank W. Hilton and Mr. Henry R. Stoddard for a race between "Julius Cæsar" and "Kanoza Boy," for $150 a side, the race to be trotted between now and the 4th of July. These are the horses that trotted the ten-mile race at Dover some time ago.

The Berger Family will appear in Music Hall on Wednesday evening next. The artists who compose the troupe are: Miss Anna Teresa Berger, the marvellous lady cornet soloist; Mr. James W. McKee, a humorist of much merit; Jeppe and Fanny Delano, the originators of refined society sketches, together with a well-drilled corps of excellent performers. The entertainment which this company furnishes is one well suited to please a popular audience, and an enjoyable evening can certainly be passed at Music Hall on the 10th inst.

On Saturday evening, between seven and eight o'clock, as Mr. John W. Sewell was carrying in his cart to one of Mr. Arthur Doane's schooners a man employed on the vessel, with his luggage, on turning the bend in Water street, near Newcastle street, one of the wheels of the cart went into a gutter, throwing both men out and severely injuring them. They were taken into one of the neighboring houses in an unconscious state, and kindly cared for. Mr. Sewell's injuries were on one side of the face and knee; the other man had his face bruised and scratched, and one of the shoulders badly lamed. Those who have to travel at the south part of Water street complain of its bad condition, and say that it needs constant looking after.

A gentleman of Lonsdale, R. I., has invented a device for checking or hitching horses, which it is claimed performs its work securely anywhere and in a second's time. It does away with the bother of getting out a rope and finding a hitching post or a ring in the sidewalk, or of carrying a heavy weight and lifting it out of and into the vehicle every time a stop is made. This invention in a simple manner does away with those inconveniences, and we should think would be invaluable for grocers, provision men, doctors, and every and all sorts of people who have to stop a vehicle for a minute or two; it would also be just the thing for shopping excursions. It consists of a ratchet connection on the hub of the first wheel, attached by a strap that connects with the horse's bit; when the horse starts the strap winds round the hub of the wheel, pulling on the bit; the ratchet connection prevents injury should the horse back. Thus the horse, if he attempts to go ahead, winds himself up in such shape as to bring a heavy strain on the bit, which is instantly released when he backs. It hardly needs saying that this equine "pull-back" is arranged so as to act equally on each side of the bit; otherwise the horse would be slued short around the moment he started, and capsize the whole concern or break the shafts.

BANKRUPT CASE.

A hearing was had before Hon. Daniel Clark, Judge of the United States District Court, on Tuesday, upon a petition filed by E. P. Kimball as assignee of the Rockingham Ten Cents Savings Bank, against each of the individual estates of Aaron H. Hill, James M. Carr and Benjamin Cheever, to enforce a claim on behalf of the savings bank signed by one C. Warren Brown. The petitioner contended that there was a purchase of about $47,000 worth of real estate by one Packer, of Cambridge, who transferred the estate to Brown, who hired money of the bank on mortgage of the land, which was in Cambridgeport, Mass. It was proved that there was a secret trust made, which was produced, stating that the land was held for the benefit of Messrs Hill, J. M. and J. C. Carr, Cheever and Dearborn; and Brown was to be indemnified from any loss. The assignee of the bank was represented by Mr. Page; the individual creditors of Hill & Carr and J. C. Carr were represented by Mr. Frink; and H. S. Clark, Esq., of Manchester, appeared for A. F. Howard, assignee of the bankrupts. The position of the counsel for the assignee of the bank was that said Brown was merely the agent and factor of the five men above-mentioned, and the note and mortgage were the same as if signed by those parties, and they were the real debtors to the bank. The other side maintained that as the bank knew all the facts, their taking the note and mortgage signed by Brown elected to take him as their principal debtor, and could not hold the estates of Hill and others for the debt. The questions raised were argued before the Judge, who reserved his decision. The amount involved is over twenty-five thousand dollars, including interest, and, if allowed, would materially reduce the dividend of the estates of the several bankrupts.

BOARD OF INSTRUCTION.

At a meeting of the Board of Instruction, Wednesday evening, several applications for schools were received and placed on file.

Several bills were ordered to be paid.

Voted to close all the schools in the city at 4:30 o'clock P. M. until the first Wednesday in May.

Sections four, five and six of the new regulations were referred for revision to a special committee consisting of Dr. May, Mrs. Wilson and Mr. Gardner.

It was decided to have the annual examinations conducted by the district committees.

ANIMAL-PROTECTION SOCIETY.

At a meeting of the New Hampshire Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, held on Monday evening, the 1st inst., a proposition was made to adopt a new and amended Constitution. A number of changes in the same were proposed, to be acted on at the next meeting.

The treasurer reported the receipt of $50, from Mrs. Bartlett's recent entertainment. It was voted that the thanks of the Society be tendered to Mrs. Bartlett for her effort in its behalf.

President Marvin reported that he had invited Rev. Mr. Grant to deliver a lecture upon animals on a following Sunday evening, and that he had consented.

The secretary reported that he had received from the Paris Society for the Protection of Animals an invitation for this society to take part in the International Exposition to be held in Paris in May, 1878. It was voted that the secretary write the Paris society, regretting inability to take part in the Exposition.

The quarterly report of the treasurer was made, showing the receipts of the last quarter to have been $106.16, and the expenses $61.86, leaving $44.30 on hand, to which is to be added the $50 received from Mrs. Bartlett's entertainment.

The secretary reported the number of animals killed by the society's order during the last month, five. Horses found exposed to cold, and blanketed, two. Cases of cruelty investigated, seven; prosecuted, one—the latter being a case at Franklin, where two men went out one Sunday morning and fought their dogs for an hour and fifteen minutes, one of the animals being so badly injured that he died, the other being seriously wounded.

"UNE CAUSE CELEBRE."

"A Celebrated Case," which for so long a period had a successful representation at the Union Square Theatre in New York, was witnessed Wednesday evening with delight by a large audience at Music Hall. There are six acts, the incidents related in the prologue occupying two and the latter episodes of the play four. The action of the prologue is supposed to occur about the time of the battle of Fontenoy, which transpired on the 11th of May, 1745. The time of the play is fifteen years later. John Renaud (Mr. Collier), a soldier of the French army, goes home without leave the night before the battle for the purpose of confiding to his wife, Madeline (Miss Lillie Eldredge,) the papers, title deeds and jewels of a certain Count de Mornay, whom he found dying in a field where there had been a skirmish. The Count was a fugitive from France, his family having been proscribed by the Government, and was seeking to gain the enemy's lines in order to reach Flanders. The soldier entrusts the articles to his wife, takes an affectionate farewell of her and of his little daughter Adrienne (Little Lillie,) and returns to his regiment, with which he fights through the battle of the next day and distinguishes himself by the capture of a British flag. No sooner has he left his wife and child, however, than a thief or camp-follower, one Lazare, who has followed Renaud, enters the house by a window, murders the wife of the soldier in the hearing of the child, who is locked up in the adjoining room, and escapes with the papers and treasures of the proscribed Count. The child, accustomed to frequent quarrels between her father and mother, screams during the murder to get out, but the ruffian, by threatening to kill the child, forces the mother to call to her: "Don't be afraid, dear, I am with your father." The neighbors find the body of the murdered woman and the Seneschal of the village proceeds to the French camp with the child to accuse Jean Renaud of the terrible crime. The child is questioned by the Colonel of the regiment, the Count D'Aubeterre (Mr. McManus,) and the child, by a truthful repetition of the words she heard, condemns the innocent father, who, at the very moment of the accusation, was receiving the reward of his heroism on the field. In consequence of that heroism his sentence of death is commuted to imprisonment in the galleys for life. Fifteen years elapse, and the convict, with a convoy of prisoners, is being exchanged from one prison to another. He and his fellows are allowed to rest in the park of the Governor of the province, who at Fontenoy was the Colonel of Renaud's regiment. There two young girls, pitying the sad condition of the prisoners, offer them aid and sympathy. One of these young girls is the adopted daughter of the Governor. When she approaches one of the convicts a strange, uneasy feeling of recognition comes over her. Questions and cross-questions ensue. The convict tells his story, and as he does so the girl's memory is awakened, and she herself ends the last sentence of his narrative. The convict and father recognizes his child in the adopted daughter of a duke and peer of France. The young companion of the daughter of Jean Renaud is her college friend, Valentine de Mornay (Miss Meroe Charles,) a daughter of the proscribed Count. The prisoners depart and the girls return to the mansion, there to meet the Count de Mornay. In attestation of his identity the alleged Count, who claims to have escaped from supposed death, brings with him his deeds, passports, titles and family jewels. The latter he gives to the daughter he pretends to own, with the request that she shall array herself in them in order to meet the Minister of France, on whom he is about to urge his claims for the restoration of his position. Among these jewels the young girl finds a necklace that has been described by Jean Renaud in the interview with his daughter as his wife's property, given to her by the wife of the Governor (Miss Hill,) who was her foster sister. Through this necklace and with the further aid of the chanoinesse of the college (Miss Madden,) the claimant to the name and title of the Count de Mornay is detected as the murderer in the first act, who has stolen the deeds and jewels from the possession of the soldier's wife. The unhappy convict has already been sent for, and is a witness of his triumphant vindication. An Irish sergeant, Dennis O'Rourke (Mr. Lamb,) and a lover of Adrienne, one Viscount Raoul de Langy (Mr. Hine,) also figure in the play, the former to a considerable extent, although he is connected with the main story only incidentally. He is a faithful friend of John Renaud and his daughter, and as a soldier and afterward as a servant of the Duke, is brought into nearly every scene.

The play is absorbingly interesting, being not unlike the "Two Orphans" in that its interest turns upon the undeserved sufferings of the innocent, and the final overthrow of long-triumphant wickedness. It is finely put on the stage, the troupe carrying their own scenery, and finely acted, the company being a very strong and well balanced one.

We are informed that Messrs. Smith, Anthony & Parsons, of New Bedford, are lessees of the troupe "Une Cause Celebre."

THE VICINITY.

Gov. Conner, of Maine, has nominated H. H. Burbank, of Saco, for County Attorney of York county.

On Saturday last a traveller over the road from Epping to this city counted thirteen tramps on the way.

The house of Mr. John Goodwin, at Eliot, was partially destroyed by fire on Monday night, 1st inst. Loss about $300; insured.

Mr. Joshua Bragdon, of York, met with a serious loss recently through an accident to a horse worth $500, the animal getting cast in his stall and breaking one of his hind legs at the ankle.

The Morbid Sinner.

An eminent clergyman once said, that a change of stomach and liver would benefit the morbid sinner almost as much as a change of heart; yet many still attribute an irritable temper and morbid disposition to the ingenious workings of the devil, while they are simply the symptoms of dyspepsia, torpid liver, constipation, and general or nervous debility, and are readily cured by the use of a few bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets. Some may be persuaded into trying other remedies on the plea that they are "cheaper" and "just as good," but after using a few of the peculiar and heterogeneous combinations, they usually prefer to return to a remedy that has earned a reputation by reason of its merit. Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines are prepared from the choicest extracts, at great expense, and under the immediate supervision of a skillful chemist, whose business it is to knew their purity and strength; hence the success of these remedies in overcoming disease.

The occasional "hotel grumbler" is not a rarity, but there are few hotels that give the almost universal satisfaction both in rates and accommodation that characterizes the Grand Central Hotel, New York. It is concededly the best kept and most popular among all its rivals.

Beware of Worthless Imitations. Inquire for Adamson's Botanic Balsam. Take no other; see that the name of F. W. Kinsman is blown in the glass. It cures Asthma, Coughs, Colds, etc., etc. 35 cents.

THINK OF IT, that a Cough or Cold neglected may lead to serious consequences; in the early stage of Throat and Lung diseases, Madame Porter's Cough Balsam is an invaluable remedy, can be taken by the oldest person or youngest child. Is safe, reliable, and agreeable to the taste. Price 25 cents, and in large bottles at 50 and 75 cents.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Exercises, Salves and Ointments in existence. The immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and Ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & CO., New York.

The fatest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Cuts, Bruises, etc., is the Centaur Liniments. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for sparines, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmap1

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often restores the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.

It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regains with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated, beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 20 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a veritable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or was a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, hearing impaired, body shrunken and weak-ened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was looking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,
S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous or glandular affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, but taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and stubborn. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and ulcerous discharges, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,
For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and efficiently produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

CATARRH

A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER.—Sirs: I have practiced medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the nasal passages, fauces and larynx. I have used everything in the materia medica without any permanent relief until finally I was induced to try a patent medicine (something that we allopathists are very loth to do). I tried ——— and divers others until I got hold of yours. I followed the directions to the letter, and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure. YOUR RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully,
D. W. GRAY, M. D.,
Of Dr. D. W. Gray & Son, Physicians and Druggists, Muscatine, Iowa.

MUSCATINE, IOWA, March 27, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in the cure of those

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes which in many cases accompany a severe case of Catarrh. The inflammed and diseased condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these troubles; and until the system has been brought properly under the influence of the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from them cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was placed before the public, but in that short time it has found its way from Maine to California, and is everywhere acknowledged by druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh ever compounded. The fact will be deemed of more importance when it is coupled with the statement that within five years over 250 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day, with one or two exceptions, their names cannot be recalled by the best-informed druggist. Advertising may succeed in forcing a few sales, but, unless the remedy possess undoubted specific medical properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.00. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

Daily Chronicle.

How Much to Eat.

A paper by Dr. Wilson says for the active, out door laborer and artisan, an early breakfast, before work, a mid-day dinner, with an interval of rest, and supper after the day's work is over have long been proved by experience to be the most conducive to health. For the business man, a later breakfast, a mid-day luncheon, and a late dinner after the day's work is over, is the best arrangement.

For literary men who write more in the evening than during the day, an early dinner and a light supper will be found to be the most advantageous for steady work. Idlers, to enjoy life, if they possibly can, should dine early if they intend to spend the evening at the theatres and the like; but if they accept dinner invitations freely they should be very careful not to eat too much at the mid-day meal. The breakfast hour should be determined, in great measure, by the hour of rising, but in any case food should be partaken of before the material business of the day is commenced. Those who like to take a "constitutional," before breakfast would find their appetite whetted and their walk made all the more enjoyable if they took a little milk, or coffee with milk, with bread or biscuit before starting. Work done before breakfast is always irksome and fatiguing, and on that account is very likely to be badly done. The last meal should be sufficiently late for the whole not to be absorbed before retiring to rest. To a person in health three meals a day ought to be quite sufficient, and the practice of continually "taking something" is sure to bring on indigestion.

To Keep Nails from Rusting.

Heat a quantity of nails on a shovel, and throw them, while quite hot, into a vessel of coarse oil or melted grease. The nails should not be so hot that the grease will be made to smoke freely. Cut nails prepared in this manner are improved in every respect. They are rendered tougher, and they will outlast any kind of wood, even though buried in the ground; while unprepared nails are completely destroyed by rust in a very short time. Probably melted paraffine would be a still better coating, penetrating the pores and preventing the access of air or moisture.

—A story of notable daring by a Turk during the battles of the recent war has just been related. A very steep rock was to be stormed, and at its top frowned the Russian batteries. A Turkish colonel, desirous to set an example to his men, scrambled up first by the help of projecting bushes and pieces of rock, but when he reached the top he found himself entirely alone. The Russians looked at him with amazement, and their general, ordering them not to fire, hastened up to the Turk and said, "Colonel, begone at once; you see you are alone!" The intrepid soldier looked at his enemies a moment, and then turned and went back safely as he came, amid the cheers of the Russians.

The Travelling Investigator.

Ex-Congressman Vance, of Gallipolis, Ohio, who is now on his travels, it is asserted borrowed $20,000 of his friends before he started, to travel with, and has not returned any of it; and it appears he also borrowed the young and beautiful wife of a music teacher of Gallipolis, and has not yet returned her, either. His name and the lady's had before been coupled disparagingly, but his friends refused to credit the scandals; but she has been missing ever since Vance has, and is known to have been with him at St. Louis. Vance was chairman of the House committee on printing of the Forty-fourth Congress, and was especially active in investigating Congressional Printer Clapp; and now it is charged that that examination was itself of such a nature as to need an overhauling. The records at Washington show that a considerable sum of money was paid to one of Vance's Gallipolis relatives for his services as an "expert" printer, the relative being a miller by occupation, and never having seen the inside of a printing-office! This fact was developed recently by an investigation that is now in progress in Washington. It is also charged that he hypothecated a lot of valuable books to which he had no right, from the government, and was guilty of much other crookedness. However, he was a sturdy advocate of "reform" of the democratic brand, and his pure soul revolted at the thought of republican corruption.

Congress.

The Senate devoted the entire session of Wednesday to discussion of the Pacific railroad funding bill. The railroad lobbyists are discouraged, fearing the bill will pass.

The House was engaged all day in discussing the affairs of Doorkeeper Polk, the unlucky old fellow who was forced to disregard the laws by the eagerness of the democratic "reform" Congressmen to set their hangers-on to drawing money from the Treasury. Mr. Frye, of Maine, made a speech, in which he dissected the "soldiers' roll" of the doorkeeper, and showed that the democratic army of soldiers was as odd a one as Falstaff's. He kept the republican side in a roar, in which the democrats often had to join. No vote was reached.

On Thursday the House declared the office of doorkeeper vacant, so poor Polk is out of a job. It took all day to do it.

The War Cloud.

The news from Europe Thursday seemed to indicate that Austria and Germany will sustain England in the controversy with Russia. The London Times thinks the public opinion of Europe is with them, and if they act together with firmness Russia may be induced to withdraw from her position. There is a strong opposition in England to the war policy of the Government. Excitement in St. Petersburg was reported, over a possible alliance between England and Turkey.

Elections.

Rhode Island's election came off on Wednesday, and resulted in an unexpected majority for the republican candidates for State officers, Gov. Van Zandt having a majority of 3300 against 441 last year. The republican vote fell off 1340, the democratic vote 4582. The Legislature is heavily republican, as usual. This all comes, no doubt, from the failure of the Boston democratic papers to do their usual amount of pre-election bragging this year; not one of them, that we noticed, positively predicted a democratic victory in Rhode Island.

At the municipal elections in Michigan, Kansas, Illinois, Ohio and Missouri, the principal feature was the unexpected strength developed by the new "national" party; particularly was this the case in Michigan, where Grand Rapids, the second city in the State, was swept by them, over the combined democrats and republicans, led by the strongest men of both parties; they also carried Barry county by 700 majority, the republicans having usually carried it by 500; in several counties the nationals secured control of the boards of supervisers; they swept some of the old democratic strongholds in Wayne county, and made big inroads on the republican majorities in many hitherto republican strongholds. In Chicago the vote was; republicans 18,000; democrats 15,000; independents 6,900; communists 6,200; nationals 1200. Milwaukee went democratic, clean. Minneapolis went republican. In Cincinnati the republicans elect one candidate on the city ticket, and the city boards will stand: councilmen, 29 republicans, 21 democrats; aldermen, 12 republicans, 18 democrats.

Naval Affairs.

Commander Henry Wilson, Lieutenant-Commanders George W. Tracy, Mortimer L. Johnson, and Edwin M. Shepherd, and Lieutenant James M. Forsythe, have been ordered to report at Washington for examination for promotion.

Lieut. Comdr. Benjamin P. Lamberton, recently detached from Portsmouth navy yard, is ordered to the U. S. S. Alaska as executive officer.

The naval appropriation bill, as reported from the Senate committee on appropriations, is amended by the addition of the following amounts: For the pay of ensigns, cadet midshipmen, cadet engineers, etc., $80,840; for the equipment of vessels, $70,000; for the contingent expenses of the Bureau of Equipment and Recruiting, $15,000; for repairs of the naval laboratory, hospitals, etc., $10,000; for civil establishment of naval laboratory, etc., $15,000; for the secretary of the Naval Academy, $1800; for the preparation of a nautical almanac, $1000; with a few thousand dollars for the restoration of pay to watchmen and mechanics at the Naval Academy. The committee strike out the clause which provides that no more promotions to the grade of captain in the marine corps shall be made until the number is reduced to below twenty.

A Custom to be Honored in the Breach.

For fifty-four years the Globe National Bank of Boston, and its predecessor the Globe Bank, (of which the poet Charles Sprague was cashier,) paid its stockholders semi-annual dividends. Regularly its shareholders on the first days of April and October called at the bank, and took their share in the profits. The routine became monotonous. The directors saw that the stockholders had come to regard this as the regular thing, and the bank clerks needed rest from this uninterrupted labor of dividend paying. The board have decided not to plank any dividend this year, and the stockholders who as a matter of course came round on Monday were politely informed that it was the "First day of April."

Portsmouth, Gt. Falls & Conway Railroad.

The questions pending in the Court of Massachusetts relative to the liability of the Eastern Railroad to pay the interest on the bonds of the Portsmouth, Great Falls & Conway Railroad have been submitted to the Judges, whose opinion may be looked for about the time the June interest falls due. In the meantime the case upon the docket of the Supreme Court of this county will be called on Tuesday. Whether the parties in the case of Converse and the Somersworth Savings Bank will be content to wait the issue of the Massachusetts case, and let the New Hampshire case go over to the October term, we are not informed.

News and Notes.

The Providence Journal says "Mr. Montgomery Blair is as busy as the devil, while he existed, was supposed to be in a gale of wind."

A young man entered a police station in New York a few nights since, and informed the Sergeant that he had murdered his lady love, and wished to give himself up. Investigations followed, the girl was found as well and hearty as girls in love are apt to be after midnight, and the young man was discovered to be a sleep walker, who had sailed forth in a somnambulistic state and accused himself without any knowledge of his performance.

Walter Montgomery, aged fourteen, and James Daily, aged fifteen, two boys belonging to Providence, R. I., having had their imaginations fired by reading dime novels, recently ran away from home with about forty dollars to go West, but having spent all their money in New York they gave themselves up to the police and asked to be sent home.

Moses S. Little, of Newburyport, died on Wednesday. He was well known by travellers as the former landlord of the Merrimack House in Newburyport; and he was, up to a recent period, a contractor for carrying the mails between the depots and Boston post-office. He was a smart man, and understood how to keep a hotel, which is perhaps as eulogistic an expression of his business tact as we can give. He had many friends, not only at Newburyport but all over the line of the Eastern Railroad and in Boston, and in fact was one of the most widely known men of Essex county.

Hall & Bugbee, extensive lumber dealers of Boston, have failed with liabilities of $175,000. Forgeries of a brother of one of the firm is the cause.

A. H. Bogardus, the champion wing shot, has received a cable dispatch from Albert Smith, O'Leary's backer, to come at once to England, that he has matched him to shoot a match against the champion of Great Britain. Bogardus will make an early departure.

Samuel Henry, a married man, in Columbia, S. C., last November attempted a felonious assault upon Sallie Pauline, a young orphan girl. She shot him dead. She was recently tried, and the jury rendered a verdict acquitting her.

Lieut. Longneckar, U. S. N., has been placed in a most embarrassing, not to say distressing, position by the return of the Wyoming, on which he was going to France. He married just before the vessel sailed, and as he could not take his bride with him on the Wyoming, he placed her on a steamer bound for Havre the day before his vessel sailed. He expected to meet her in France on the arrival of the Wyoming, but as that unfortunate ship was compelled to return to New York, he has been unable to meet his wife at the appointed time.—Washington Post.

Mrs. Mary Farrell of Providence, who is reported to be 105 years old and still hale and hearty, attempted to commit suicide by drowning on the afternoon of the 1st inst., but was discovered and rescued. Her faculties are somewhat impaired, and she has expressed a wish to die at various times, life having become a burden to her.

Christopher O'Connor, aged sixteen years, was accidentally shot in Middletown, Conn., Wednesday, while with three companions amusing themselves with a shot-gun. He received a charge in the temple and died in a very short time.

The old steamer Florida, formerly a Confederate cruiser, was burned at Hull, Mass., on Wednesday, for the iron used in her construction.

Mrs. W. H. H. Murray and Miss Kate Stanton graduated from the New York Medical College for Women on Thursday.

James F. Kearney, a jealous husband, shot John Wilson at Westfield, Mass., on the night of the 2d inst.

The police of New York have arrested Augustus Raymond, alias Arthur L. Barry, the man who planned and executed the extensive jewelry robbery about a year ago, for which Thomas H. Leary was sent to State Prison as an accomplice in October last. It will be remembered that the robber was permitted to go into the baggage room at Worcester, Mass., and while there changed checks of a valise and trunk containing jewelry valued at $9000, and marked Alling & Company, 170 Broadway, New York. The trunk was received at New York by Leary, and the latter was afterwards arrested. Barry will be brought to Massachusetts for trial.

New Hampshire Items.

Hon. Dexter Richards, of Newport, has been chosen a director of the Michigan Central Railroad, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John V. Barron of Concord. Mr. Richards is well known as a capitalist and a sagacious man and is at present one of the directors of the Eastern Railroad in New Hampshire. The Michigan Central, to the gratification of many of its stockholders, pays a dividend of two per cent., and it is claimed has no floating debt; its road-bed is in excellent order, all laid with steel rails, and the entire corporate property in better condition than last year.

Samuel S. Brown, the Representative from Nottingham in the Legislature, recently met with a severe accident, breaking his leg and dislocating an ankle, while loading logs.

The case of the State vs. the Northern Railroad, in which $10,000 damages are claimed for injury by a railway train, was commenced Wednesday morning. The jury went to Canaan to view the scene of the accident, Wednesday.

Hon. Joseph B. Walker and family gave a brilliant reception at the ancient family mansion in Concord, Tuesday evening, to Edward W. Rollins and wife of Denver, Colorado, who have come east on their bridal tour. Mr. Rollins is a son of United States Senator Rollins, and is a successful broker at Denver.

The annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of Knights of Honor was held in Nashua on Wednesday, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Grand Dictator, G. E. Dame of Newmarket; Grand Vice Dictator, S. C. Gould of Manchester; Grand Assistant Dictator, J. H. French of Fisherville; Grand Recorder, Joseph H. Gardiner; Grand Treasurer, H. Glidden of Dover; Grand Chaplain, C. H. Marshall of Manchester; Grand Guide, J. H. Moore of Peterboro; Grand Guard, S. N. Porter of Peterboro; Grand Sentinel, M. E. Hood. The meeting was one of the largest and most interesting ever held in the State. The order is reported as being in a very flourishing condition.

Seven or eight years ago Martin Ahern was found in Ashuelot river, at Keene, dead. There were blows on his head, and everything indicated that he had been murdered. The case was thoroughly investigated at the time, but no clue could be obtained regarding the murder. Facts have lately come to light that throw suspicion on Thomas Fitzgerald, living in Keene, as the murderer of Ahern. Fitzgerald got drunk lately, and while drunk he got into a row with his wife and daughter. During the row his daughter said to him, "You want to murder us, don't you, the same as you did Ahern?" The officials who are investigating the matter say that there is nothing tangible yet. No arrests have been made.

Miss Nellie Preston of Pembroke, housekeeper for Sanford H. Morang, went out some distance back of said Morang's house to call him to dinner, found him chopping down a tree, and sat down to wait for him. The tree in falling took the wrong direction and fell on Miss Preston, very nearly killing her instantly. One leg was broken in two places, and an arm dislocated at the shoulder, and her head received serious injuries. She is now lying in a critical condition, with but little hope of recovery.

THE CITY.

The orchestra at Music Hall received liberal applause on Wednesday evening. Deserved it, too.

Two large flocks of wild geese flew over the south part of the city on Thursday morning, making a fearful cackling and disturbing some of the "not early risers."

Mr. Hartley W. Mason denies the truth of the rumor that he has sold his costly and elegant new house, and bought land on Sagamore road to build on. He says he built the house on Lafayette road to live in, and means to live in it; and his purchase of land on Sagamore road was only to have a field.

Mr. John H. Yeaton, who recently arrived home in the ship Coldstream, has resumed work with his father, Mr. Moses Yeaton, the well known master builder. John can be equally successful as a mechanic or an officer of a ship; we hope he will stay in Portsmouth, and give us the benefit of his skill in the former, as he has in times past.

Quite a large force of laborers is engaged, and a much needed improvement being made on some of the principal roads leading into the city, by blowing out ledges and widening the driveway, particularly on Lafayette road, from Langdon's hill to Sagamore creek, and on Islington road, from Frenchman's lane to the Plains.

John Goddard of Dover, and Thomas Collins and Timothy Shea of Wenham, Mass., were arrested shortly before six o'clock Thursday evening by the City Marshal and Asst. Marshal Gray, on a telegram from Dover, where they had committed a robbery. A watch and chain and some shoemaker's tools, all stolen, were found on the prisoners.

Eastern Railroad shares have again advanced in market, selling up to $8.50; Manchester & Lawrence sells at $135; Portland, Saco & Portsmouth at $81; Cocheco Manufacturing Co. shares sold at auction, Wednesday, at $700; Great Falls Co. at $97; Newmarket at $895; State of New Hampshire 6s, 1904, at $112.75. On Thursday Eastern stock sold at $9.

The Times of Wednesday evening says: "The trout law is off, and lots of amateur fishermen are 'off,' too, at early morn after a fine catch—if they can get it." Anglers for brook trout had better not throw the line, unless they own the stream, until the first of May. It is very fine to catch trout in April, but the "fine" attending it is not so pleasant. The law against fishing in lakes and ponds is off the first of April.

In the window of Mr. William P. Walker's tailoring establishment on Market square is a fashion plate published in London in 1840. It gives the very latest style of gentlemen's apparel at that date. The hats are quite stunning, the pantaloons gathered at the waist, the cravats high, and the general covering fearfully and wonderfully made. A glance at the plate tells us of the changes in style that thirty-eight years have brought about, and shows how much more graceful and symmetrical are the garments which Walker gets up in these latter days than were those worn in the Hard Cider era of 1840.

A recently published item to the effect that the "quickest time on record" between Boston and Portland was recently made by an Eastern train which did the distance in "three hours and thirty-three minutes from the time of starting," calls out a correspondent who informs us that in the summer of 1876, on a certain Sunday when Miss Anna Louise Cary was to sing in Portland in the evening, he went over the road in a Pullman car in much less time. Miss Cary having arrived in Boston on Saturday too late for the last train, chartered a special train "which left Boston at eleven o'clock A. M., and after making eight stops, (one of considerable length, owing to a 'hot box,') we arrived at Portland at 1:55 P. M., thus making the run in two hours and fifty-five minutes, which time is thirty-eight minutes faster than your 'fastest time on record.'"

THE SCUTTLED SCHOONER.

William May, the cook of the "scuttled schooner" E. H. Pray, who was arrested at Communipaw, N. J., some months ago, while in charge of the old hulk Guide, containing the stolen goods taken from the E. H. Pray, has been released, and returned to his home in Chelsea, Mass., last week. No tidings have been received of the schooner's captain, Melvin J. Clark, who seems to have made good his escape. His enterprise in the scuttling line was a losing one from a pecuniary point of view, as he did not realize enough on the 400 bbls. of fish he sold (at half price) to pay for his vessel, and that was all of the stolen goods he managed to dispose of, the fishing gear, axle grease, powder, etc., taken from the E. H. Pray, having been seized with the Guide. He also lost, besides his vessel, his name and home, for he will not again be able to appear as Melvin J. Clark, or to show himself in places where he might be recognized. This, however, will probably not be much of a deprivation to him, as he must have calculated on permanently absenting himself when he planned his act of barratry; and unless great injustice was done him in the letters from his wife, found in the wreck of the E. H. Pray, and published in the papers, he had abandoned his family some time before. The discharge of the cook from custody probably signifies that the officers of justice have given up all hope of overhauling Clark for the present.

CITY COUNCILS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Thursday evening:

A petition for a common sewer on Hill street from Vaughan to Bridge street was received and referred to committee on drains to examine and report.

A communication was received requesting that the road leading from Portsmouth to Newington be straightened; referred to committe on streets to report.

A communication was received from C. E. Myers & Co., stating that the report of the accident to Mr. Sewell in the Chronicle was not correct; accepted and laid on the table.

Request of George E. Smart that he be appointed Special Police Officer at Laughdon Park, was referred to committee on police.

Joseph Parry asked leave to encumber Fleet street, and George A. Jackson to encumber Cornwall street; both granted, with the usual restrictions.

A communication was received from the Secretary of State calling the Board's attention to Sec. 5, Chapter 99, Gen. Statutes, regarding the appointment of a liquor agent. Laid on the table.

Resignation of William C. Ham, Esq., as City Messenger and Clerk of the Fire Department, was received and was laid on the table.

The following document, sent from the Governor's office at Concord, was presented to the Board:

SUGGESTIONS TO SELECTMEN AND ASSESSORS.

By an amendment of the Constitution of New Hampshire, to take effect October 1, 1878, provision is made, that "every town or place entitled to town privileges, and wards of cities having six hundred inhabitants by the last general census of the State, taken by authority of the United States or of this State, may elect one representative; if eighteen hundred such inhabitants, may elect two representatives; and so proceeding in that proportion, making twelve hundred such inhabitants the mean increasing number for any additional representative." In view of the fact that population is to be the basis of representation in the State and that the population of the State is believed to have materially increased since the United States census of 1870; that several towns have been divided and new towns have been created; that the city of Keene has been incorporated and divided into wards; that the ward lines of most of the cities in the State have been materially changed; that most of the towns have largely or considerably increased their population, while few, if any, have made any preceptible decrease in number of inhabitants; that it appears that the census to be taken by the United States in 1880 can not be utilized for the purposes of a new basis of representation until November, 1882; and that this basis shall be "founded upon the principles of equality; and in order that such representation may be as equal as circumstances will admit;"—it is deemed desirable and equitable that an enumeration of the inhabitants in all the towns and wards of cities shall be made by the proper authorities, to show their present population. For these purposes it is suggested and recommended to the authorities of the towns and cities, that they authorize, at the expense of their several corporations, and have taken, a careful enumeration of every man, woman and child, whose place of abode was in their town, or wards, on the first day of April, 1878. It must be done without expense to the State, as there is no provision to pay for it. The results of this enumeration should be forwarded to the Secretary of State, Concord, N. H., on or before the 27th of May, 1878, certified and sworn to by the proper authorities of the town or city, that this enumeration may be placed before the Legislature in June, to indicate the necessity of ordering a census to be taken next September, upon which an equitable representation may be fixed for the election in November, 1878. This must be the voluntary act of each place in the State, and such enumeration can be economically taken by the Assessors while taking the inventory of property in their several precincts. This plan is presented as a suggestion of value and interest to all towns and cities alike, and a response is desired from all.

B. F. PRESCOTT, Governor.

Voted, That a committee of three be appointed to select suitable persons to take the census. Aldermen Hadley, Sides and Coffin were appointed.

Mr. Woodbury Seavey asked leave to set some posts in front of his store on Market street; referred to committee on streets.

The committee on drains reported that there was a four inch drain on Washington street and did not think it advisable to construct a new one at present; report accepted and laid on the table.

Committee on fire department, to whom was referred the engineers' report, stated they had been in communication with parties in Manchester and Boston in regard to the repairs needed on Kearsarge Steamer, No. 3. The matter was recommited to them to confer with parties in this city.

The committee that were empowered to assess land damages on the proposed marginal road from Richards avenue to Edward street, submitted the following report: Joseph Barnard $50.00; Sarah C. Kennard and Ann W. Pierce, $25.30; heirs of Daniel H. Pierce, $126.70; heirs of Ann R. P. Burroughs, $76; Benjamin F. Webster, $56.92. The committee also recommended that the city build such fences, after the road is built, as the Board of Aldermen shall deem necessary; report accepted and laid on the table.

Andrew Davis asked leave to plant two trees in the Point of Graves burying ground; referred to committee on burying grounds.

Repairs needed on school houses were referred to proper committees with power.

Voted, That the subject of disposing of one of the city horses and purchasing another, be referred to committee on streets with power.

Voted, That a committee of three with the Mayor added be appointed to confer with the owners of dredging machine as to the cost of dredging the North and South mill-ponds, Aldermen Yeaton, Hoyt and Perkins were appointed.

Voted. That all bills becoming due before the next meeting of the Board, after being approved by the proper committe, the Mayor be empowered to sign.

In the Common Council, the annual appropriation bill was reported, as follows:

Be it ordained by the City Councils of the City of Portsmouth as follows:

There shall be raised and is hereby ordered to be raised on the polls and estates of the inhabitants of the city and non-residents, to pay the current expenses of the city for the year ending December 31, 1878, and to pay such debts of the city as are required to be paid the current year, the sum of one hundred and twenty-two thousand dollars, which, with the sums to be received from the railroad and savings bank taxes and other income of the city, shall be appropriated as follows:

The following Ordinance was passed by both Boards:

Be it ordained by the City Councils of the city of Portsmouth as follows:

Sec. 1. That all money arising from taxation on dogs remaining in the treasury of the city at the last city election, which has not been ordered to be paid for damages to domestic animals, shall be transferred and applied to the support of schools, agreably to Chapter 18 of the law of 1876.

Sec. 2. That all unexpended balances of appropriations Dec. 31st, 1877, be transferred to the account of contingent expenses, and that such sums as may be needed for the purpose be transferred from the account of contingent expenses to supply deficiencies in the various accounts, provided that the money held for payment of coupons on city bonds shall not be transferred.

THE VICINITY.

The hand-car that was recently stolen from the Concord & Portsmouth Railroad hand-car house at Newmarket Junction by tramps, was found in this city.

The Stratham town farm has been sold for $3500, to the Folsom Brothers of Stratham. There is said to be over two thousand dollars worth of timber on the farm.

Louis Swasey, of Wells, Me., was killed at Gloucester, Mass., on Thursday, by the explosion of a can containing eight pounds of powder with which he was blasting rocks. A portion of the can entered his head, penetrating the brain.

Take a piece of butter the size of half a hen's egg, a teacup of vinegar, a teacup of water, a teaspoonful of black pepper, and a tablespoonful of salt; put them all in a tight covered kettle; set them over a brisk fire. Chop your cabbage finely; have three pints of it; when the liquid is boiling hot empty the cabbage into the kettle and let it boil slowly one hour. Serve hot in saucers. It is very delicious prepared in this manner.

☞ Chop a quart of cabbage very fine and stir in a little spoonful of salt, one-half teaspoonful of black pepper; then add half a pint of strong vinegar; some like an onion chopped into the cabbage. It makes a nice relish with cold, baked meats, and is a pleasant variety.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bad-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. They immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputible evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and Ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, entice the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cure-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,

There is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experience by the celebrated Samuel Pitcher, M.D.

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & CO., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.
Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; it restores, to its youthful color, the hair of youth; and always surely restores its color, whether it be gray.
It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.
As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction AND Equipment
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and comprehensive policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and roadbed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior article supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the annual exported footed up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I know the "snuff" and "snuff-taking-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 20 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "blowing-tubes," and "sticks," woulin't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for days at a time, successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, hearing and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting every eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly, S. D. REMICK.

A CLOUD OF WITNESSES,

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery
By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin as Scrofula or Kings Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties, it cures Biliousness, and as a remedy for Biliousness: Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.
Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish spots upon on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy foreboding, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are complained of. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects permanent cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leukorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

CATARRH

A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER,—Sirs: I have practised medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the nasal passages, fauces and larynx. I have used everything in the materia medica without any permanent relief, until finally I was induced to try a patent medicine (something that we allopathists are very loth to do). I tried——and divers others until I got hold of yours. I followed the directions to the letter, and am happy to say have had a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully,
D. N. GRAY, M. D.,
Of Dr. D. W. Gray & Son., Physicians and Druggists, Muscatine, Iowa.

MUSCATINE, IOWA, March 27, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in the cure of disease

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes which in many cases accompany a severe case of Catarrh. The inflamed and diseased condition of the mucous membranes is the cause of all these troubles; and until the system has been brought properly under the influence of the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from them cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was first offered before the public, but in that short time it has found its way from Maine to California, and is everywhere acknowledged by druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh ever compounded. The fact will be deemed of more importance when it is coupled with the statement that within five years over 100 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day, with one or two exceptions, the names cannot be recalled by the best informed druggist. Advertising may succeed in forcing a few sales, but, unless the named remedy embodied specific medical properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.00. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

Drunk on his Wedding Tour.

A few days ago a man and woman who live near Farmington, Van Buren County, came to Keokuk, and while here were married. The groom, being either unable to resist his new-found happiness or his fondness for drink, got unmistakably drunk, and, when he and his wife boarded the train, attracted all eyes by his boisterous conduct, which caused the blushes, not of the happy bride, but of shame, to mantle the cheeks of the woman who had just joined her fortunes to this man for better or for worse and was getting the worse side at the start. The fellow made a foot-ball of her muff and kicked it from one end of the car to the other. He was very conspicuous in many other drunken ways until the train reached Farmington, where, despite the tears and entreaties of his wife, who had got off of the train, he maintained his stubborn desire to ride further. The conductor tried to persuade him to get off, but he refused and said he would pay his passage to the end of the road. The conductor and bridegroom stood upon the platform of the rear coach, the wife on the platform of the depot. Finding entreaties useless and time getting the best of him, the conductor desisted and gave the signal for the train to start. As the cars got under pretty good headway the bridegroom concluded he would drop off and attempted to do so. The conductor stopped him and told him that if he wished to get off, he would stop the train, and seized the bell-rope to do so, but the fellow crowded by him to the other side of the car, reached the steps, and just as he jumped was seized by one of his coattails by the conductor. He hung suspended in mid-air for a while, whirling round and round like a dancing dervish, when the cloth gave way, the coat ripped clear up to the shoulder, parted, left half in the conductor's hand and the other half on the fellow's body, which was rolling over in the mud at the rate of seventy-five revolutions a minute. The conductor put his forefinger out of joint. The bridegroom, with a drunken man's usual luck, escaped unhurt.—Keokuk (Ia.) Constitution.

—It takes less time to get over one's own misfortune than to be reconciled to a neighbor's good fortune.

—One of the Senators is about to introduce a bill declaring that David Davis must either move a little more to one side of the Senate chamber, or else submit to having an aisle cut through him. These long walks are taking all the stamina out of our public men, besides using up much valuable time.—Danbury News.

—Three autographs, worth possessing, figure on one page in the album of Count Ensenberg, formerly an envoy at Paris. Guizot wrote: "I have learned, in my long life, two rules of prudence. The first is to forgive much; the second is never to forget." Under this Thiers wrote: "A little forgetting would not detract from the sincerity of the forgiveness." Bismarck wrote: "As for me, I have learned to forget much, and to ask to be forgiven much."

SATURDAY, APRIL 6, 1878.

News and Notes.

The Fremont National Bank, of Boston, in June, 1870, transferred forty-one shares of stock belonging to a lady, who was in Europe, the certificates, etc., being in the hands of Abraham Jackson, the forger. The lady claims that the power of attorney under which the bank transferred was forged. The bank contend that the lady's claim should be barred by the lapse of time, or negligence on her part, nearly four years having elapsed after the transfer before suit was brought. During all this time, Jackson paid her money, which he represented was for dividends on her stock. A single judge has decided that there was no such neglect as would bar the plaintiff from recovering the stock of the defendant bank. The bank has requested the case to be carried to the full bench.

Lovisa Bowen, the young woman who killed (as she said) her accepted lover, Benjamin C. Mussey, at Norwich Falls, Conn., in October last, by smashing his head with a base ball bat on finding him in her father's house one night, she mistaking him for a burglar, was tried and acquitted on Thursday. The girl's father was opposed to her union with Mussey, and the absence of any motive on the girl's part for killing him, and the fact that the fatal blows were struck with great force, has caused a general belief in the surrounding country that the father and not the girl did the deed; that Lovisa knew of Mussey's coming to the house on the night of the tragedy, and met him in the parlor according to agreement, with the possible object of elopement; that they were surprised by Lovisa's father or mother before they could leave the house, with the subsequent results; and that the girl has steadily and persistently lied to shield her guilty parent.

Gen. Thomas C. Devin, U. S. A., commandant at Fort Laramie, Wyoming Territory, died in New York, Thursday, aged fifty-two years. He leaves a wife and daughter in comfortable circumstances.

The funeral of Mrs. Robert Bonner was had in New York on Friday. In accordance with the wishes of the deceased the friends were kindly requested through the newspapers not to send flowers.

The latest New York sensation was the rumor that the body supposed to be that of Mrs. Restelle was not hers, but a corpse procured to defeat the ends of justice. It seems that only her relatives identified the dead woman. The coroner and his jury did not know her.

The returns from the Rhode Island election came in quite satisfactorily. In fact, Rhode Island is a good State for returns; all a man who wants the returns has to do is to walk around the State and gather them in after the vote is declared. This year the man who went around obtained the vote of every town but one in the State on the night of the election.

Mayor Ely of New York says it's all news to him that he is engaged to Kate Sanborn; fact is, he doesn't know her.

A Paris letter states that the prospect for foreigners during the exhibition is that of extortionate prices for the most miserable accommodations. Speculators have secured about all the sleeping rooms in the city. The prices of meats and vegetables have reached nearly prohibitory figures, and families of small means already find it difficult to live. The prices will be much higher at all the restaurants when the exhibition opens.

Two New York merchants named Oelrich and Robbins, had a prize fight last Wednesday night in a private room, in which the latter was whipped in six rounds. Both are well known, and heretofore respectable.

Edward Baker, who was rejected as a suitor by the daughter of Geo. Hawkes, of Lynn, Mass., on Wednesday night set fire to the latter's house, in which ten persons were sleeping. The flames were extinguished and Baker and an accomplice were arrested.

The Providence Journal says that on Wednesday Hezekiah Anthony, Esq., of that city, reached the advanced age of ninety years. At the dinner table on that occasion were four generations, and six out of the ten guests had Anthony for their middle name.

The people of Raleigh, N. C., were surprised, last week, to perceive large quantities of pine bark falling in and about the city. The fragments appeared to have been torn violently from the trees, and many of them were in the size of a man's hand. This singular shower continued some time, and the falling pieces could be seen at a height of 200 and 300 feet in the air.

Mrs. Jeanette Putnam, the principal in the terrible domestic tragedy recently enacted at the house of her paramour, William Ide, at Hopkins Mills, in the town of Foster, R. I., is still confined to her bed, although she is steadily improving from the effects of the brutal treatment received at the hands of the murdered man.

Naval Affairs.

Commodore Robert H. Wyman, of the Hydrographic Office, will be promoted April 15, on the retirement of Rear-Admiral Alexander Murray.

Lieutenant Charles M. Anthony has been ordered to be re-examined by the medical examiners for promotion. The board now comprises three medical officers, instead of five as formerly.

The atrocities of the Turks in Volo, Greece, have aroused the representatives of other nations, and the outrages will be speedily checked. The Admiral commanding the United States squadron in Greek waters has ordered a man-of-war, (the Marion) to proceed to Volo, and assist to protect the people.

The rumor circulated that Secretary Thompson had decided not to send the Wyoming with goods for the Paris Exposition is erroneous. The vessel will be removed from the dock to-morrow, and will probably get away Saturday afternoon on her second attempt to go to Havre.—Washington Republican, 4th inst.

Political.

The New York Herald's Washington special says: There is a frightful rumor here that David Dudley Field is about to reappear in the Capitol of his country in a few days armed with a prodigious bill to try the title to the Presidency. There are not two dozen democrats in both houses who will be concerned in an attempt to reopen the Presidential question. There are, however, prominent republicans who encourage, privately, all such demonstrations. The democratic party has a number of members whose friends think them eligible for nomination in 1880. All these are utterly opposed to any movement such as Blair and Field have in hand, because they all comprehend that it means only an attempt to perpetuate Tilden's claim to the nomination.

Rhode Island, where the platform of the Republican State Convention had no word to say, good or bad, of the policy of the National Administration, comes up with a republican majority 2700 larger than that of last year.

Mr. Edward T. Rowell, one of the enterprising proprietors of the Lowell Courier, has been nominated by President Hayes for reappointment to the lucrative office of postmaster of the Spindle City. We guess that not even the Courier will find any fault with this instance of civil service reform which continues a faithful officer in his position if his paper does give the Administration rather a halting support. It must be a good deal of a President who rises above such considerations, and hereafter we shall expect the Courier to help us appreciate him at his worth both as a President and a republican. When the dust settles, we have no doubt that President Hayes will rank as one of the biggest-hearted and clearest-headed Presidents that this country has known.—Nashua Telegraph.

Senator Edmunds on reviewing the efforts of the Pacific railroad lobbyists said that he had seen the officers of these companies in the Senate Chamber distributing free passes with an amazing impudence, and he had seen fifty cents a line paid to effect legislation by editorials.

Senator Voorhees, who is now the most rabid of paper expansionists, is reminded by the Indianapolis Journal that he canvassed Indiana in 1864-5 "with a gold eagle in one pocket and a ten dollar greenback in the other; that he was wont to exhibit and praise the former, and abuse and denounce the latter as a fatherless fugitive and a lawless bastard, utterly worthless."

A statement comes from Columbia, Ohio, that it has been ascertained from official records that a democratic member of the State House of Representatives, John O'Connor, from the Soldiers' Home at Dayton, is a deserter, a bounty jumper, a burglar, and has served in the Michigan Penitentiary for robbing a man in a bar room.

One of the remarkable incidents of the Rhode Island election is the vote of nearly 600 for the greenback candidate, obtained almost entirely in Providence, city and county.

A San Francisco letter furnishes the explanation of Mr. Sharon's protracted absence from the Senate chamber. He has more pressing business on hand just now than saving the republican party, namely, the engineering through the California Legislature of a job that has fifteen millions in it. Mr. Sharon is a business man first and a patriot afterward.

A farmer from out of town dropped his pocket-book on the sidewalk, on Monday, April 1st, and did not miss it for some half hour after losing it, and on retracing his steps, he fortunately found it, when on picking it up, and placing it in his pocket, some three or four persons began to laugh, and one of them cried, "April Fool." But the farmer replied, "Maybe I am a fool," when he undid the strap and showed to the lookers-on some $200 in crisp National bank bills.—Patriot.

The Temperance Reform Club of Keene celebrated its second anniversary Wednesday night. Hon. S. P. Page and others addressed the meeting. The club has a membership of 2800, and has done a great deal of good in the vicinity. The interest is unabated, and their meetings are fully attended.

The Grand Jury at Concord reported the following indictments Thursday: Fraud, five; breaking and entering, two; larceny, five; fornication, three; adultery, two; dog fighting, two; exhibition without a license, one. There are also 105 liquor indictments, a large proportion of which are from the towns of Franklin, Pembroke and Concord.

—A certain little damsel, being aggravated beyond endurance by her big brother, fell down upon her knees and cried: "O Lord! bless my brother Tom. He lies, he steals, he swears. All boys do; us girls don't. Amen."

A Cloud of Witnesses.

For nearly a quarter of a century Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy has been acknowledged by the people as a positive cure for all catarrhal affections. Its great popularity with physicians and patients, together with its constantly increasing sale, attests, in arguments stronger than words, its healing power. If there be general or nervous debility and impoverished blood, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery should be used in connection with the Catarrh Remedy. The following named parties are among the thousands who have been cured of catarrh by the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy:

E. G. PIERCE, JR., P. M.

THE CITY.

Rev. H. L. Kelsey, late of Hollis, and formerly pastor of the Methodist church in this city, has been installed as pastor of the first Congregational church of Brockton, Mass.

The Children's Home in this city has received another gift of $50 from Mrs. Freeman of Cairo, Egypt, the same lady having previously extended pecuniary aid to this admirable charity.

Rev. Dr. Alden is to give on Sunday evening at the Middle street church, the fourth in the series of lectures suggested by his travels in the East. Subject, "Cairo; its Mosques and Worship."

The many friends of Mrs. Whipple will be glad to hear that she contemplates giving a public entertainment at no distant day, for the benefit of the Children's Home, of which she is one of the board of managers.

The fresh fish market has fallen off, prices of cod and haddock ranging from $1 to $1.25 this week. Mackerel are reported off Savannah, and vessels are preparing to sail from here at once to share in the catch.

Portsmouth Grange, which took individual premiums to the amount of $85 at the State Fair in Manchester last year, is notified that it takes the fourth premium of $15, offered by the State Fair for Grange contestants.

The panorama of the Life of Christ, exhibited at Franklin Hall on Thursday evening, was greeted with a good attendance, notwithstanding the rain. The paintings possess some merit, but the bad management of the lights and the unfamiliarity of the lecturer with his subject were great drawbacks to the entertainment of the audience.

Schooner Mayor Jones, of this port, while going out of Gloucester harbor, Wednesday afternoon, ran into schooner Electric Flash, of Gloucester, which was lying at anchor in the stream, knocking off her stern to the water's edge. The Electric Flash was all ready for a southern mackerel trip, and will be detained some time for repairs.

The National Hotel is slowly disappearing; the chimneys, roof and some other parts are gone from our gaze. On Friday the indefatigable John Smith—name of modern and ancient renown—bill-boarded the front and side of the piazza and decorated it with illuminated posters of Stetson's entertainment of the "Babes in the Wood."

The Board of Aldermen on Thursday evening appointed a committee to confer with the owners of the dredging machine relative to the cost of dredging the two mill-ponds. We would suggest to the committee that at the same time they should discuss the question of how the huge ark of a dredging machine can be gotten into the ponds without knocking away the bridges.

Col. J. Horace Kent addressed the new reform club in Rye on Wednesday evening, 3d inst. The lecture was listened to with much interest by a crowded audience. Several signed the pledge at the closing of the meeting. Col. Kent never fails to elicit the fullest attention of his hearers when talking upon the subject of temperance, and the fact that his presence secured a well-filled hall in old Rye is no mean compliment to him.

We notice the name of Miss Laura Schermer, who is to sing here in the Easter Concert, in the list of artists who take part in the testimonial concert to Miss Mathilde Phillips in Music Hall, Boston. Both she and Mrs. Rockwood, as well as Mr. Studley, the distinguished accompanist who comes here with them, have been engaged with Miss Phillips, and her sister Adelaide Phillips, in their course of Music Hall concerts this winter.

The Metropolitan Theatre Company will play "Rip Van Winkle" in Music Hall, Monday evening, with the favorite actor, John Murray, in the title role. Mr. Murray has presented this character to a Portsmouth audience before, and his "Rip" is known here as a finished piece of acting. The company supporting Mr. Murray is a good one, and has recently filled engagements of eleven weeks in Lewiston, three weeks in Dover and two week in Great Falls. Reserved seats at Preston's; see adv't.

The democrats have again lost a doorkeeper in the House of Representatives. Frank Jones says they must have an honest man this time, by way of change, and nominates Ex-Sheriff Samuel Rowe of Portsmouth as the New England candidate.

POLICE COURT.

Friday, April 5th; Batchelder, J.

Eda Marden, a married woman, for drunkenness was assessed $9.90, fine and costs.

John E. Odiorne was held in $500 to answer before the Supreme Court to a charge brought against him by his niece, Nellie A. Spinney.

REFORM CLUB ELECTION.

At the eleventh quarterly meeting of the Temperance Reform Club, held Thursday evening, the following officers were elected:

President, John E. Roberts;

Vice Presidents, George W. Randall, Horace Martin, Samuel Langdon, Jr., Charles Hoyt, William Horn, Clarendon Everett;

Secretary, Frank L. Marden;

Treasurer, Joseph Pettigrew;

Ticket Seller, Albert L. Stringer;

Ticket Takers, Benjamin Powell, Reuben Rand;

Chaplain, Joseph T. French;

Finance Committee, John S. Treat, Charles W. Gardner, Ransom B. Crook.

A DISGRACEFUL AFFAIR.

On Friday our city was disgraced by an act of lawless ruffianism, for which it is not probable that any one will have to suffer personally except the victim, though the good name of the city is dishonored, and another strong argument placed at the disposal of the opponents of the liquor traffic. A man (said to be James B. Spencer, of Raymond,) who had been around town purchasing liquors of various dealers, labelling the bottles with the names of the sellers, presumably with a view of entering complaints against them for violating the law, was set upon by a crowd (his errand no doubt having been divined) at the corner of Washington and State streets, knocked down, kicked and severely beaten by the mob, and his bottles of "evidence"—of which he had a lot in a basket—taken from him and broken. He escaped from his assailants, and ran through the streets, bareheaded and covered with blood, to the police station. The officers immediately set about finding out the perpetrators of the outrage, but we have not yet heard that they have met with any success; we do not expect we ever shall hear anything of the kind, either. The man was terribly frightened as well as considerably hurt, and only asked to get safely out of a city where the rum-power is superior to the law; so he was kept in the station until train-time and then escorted to the depot by the police, a hundred or more persons being at the depot to see him off. It seems to us that the friends of the liquor traffic could hardly have done a worse thing for their own interests than they did on Friday; having been entrapped by the "detective," they would no doubt have had the sympathy of many usually law-abiding citizens, in an attempt to destroy the evidence of their illegal acts; but when in addition they proceeded to brutally and needlessly ill use the man, they bid high for the unqualified condemnation of every person who is not willing to submit to the unrestrained rule of the rum power.

SEEMS PRACTICAL.

In the Board of Aldermen, Thursday evening, it was suggested by one of the members who seems to have some sound ideas upon the subject, that the proper solution of the sewage question could be discovered if some provision were made for cesspools, or places of deposit for the solid matter passing through the drains. This could be received into receptacles prepared at the mouths of the drains leading to the ponds, which would hold the solid matter, to be removed in winter, while the liquid portion of the sewage would become clarified, and percolating through the receptacle flow off harmlessly and odorless into the ponds. This upon a small scale is now the mode in which some of the residents near the south pond dispose of the sewage from their premises; and what is done in one or two instances may be adopted for the entire region round about the pond. This will prevent solid matter from going into the pond. The latter should at once be dredged around the shores, before the weather grows warmer, and then at comparatively little expense the crying evil would cease, and the stench of the foul spot, instead of assailing our nostrils, would pass into oblivion.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

At the South Parish, morning service, at 10:30, vespers at 7:30. Sunday school at 2:45 P. M. Preaching by Rev. Jas. DeNormandie, the pastor.

At St. Mary's (Catholic) church, Children's Mass at 8:30, Solemn Mass at 10:30 A. M.; Sunday School at three o'clock, P. M.

At St. John's (Episcopal) church services at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. every Sunday,—except the first Sunday in each month, when the Children's Choral Service and public cathechising, commencing at four o'clock, is substituted for the usual one at 7:30; seats free at this service.

Mission services; William A. Loyne, Volunteer Missionary. Residence at Faith Home, 16 Deer street. At home daily from 8 to 10 A. M. and 12 to 2 P. M. Services every Sabbath at the Alms House at 10:30; at the County Jail at 12:30. Consecration Meeting every Monday evening at the Home.

At the Middle street (Baptist) church, services at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Preaching by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Alden, D. D.

At the Congregational church, service at 10:30 A. M. and 3 P. M. Preaching by Rev. James W. Hubbell, the pastor. Subject of morning sermon, "Christian zeal not fanaticism;" in the afternoon, "He thanked God and took courage."

At the Advent church, services at 10:15 A. M., 2:45 and 7:30 P. M. Elder George D. Burnham, of Newmarket, will preach to-morrow.

At the Freewill Baptist church, on Pearl street, services at 10:30 A. M. and 2:45 P. M.; Sabbath school at 11:30 A. M. Preaching to-morrow by Rev. E. Owen, the pastor.

THE VICINITY.

Thomas Lord, an old resident of Saco, dropped dead Thursday of heart disease.

F. A. Forsaith of Kittery took the $35 prize for the best female English setter at the Boston dog show.

The Dover Press nominates Prof. John R. Varney as a republican candidate for United States Senator.

The Cocheco Manufacturing Co., at Dover, propose to reduce wages on the 15th inst., from ten to fifteen per cent.

York County Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, held a County Convention in Saco, Thursday. The attendance was large.

We learn that Rev. L. Lucy, the pastor of the Catholic church at Exeter, who has been confined to his house by sickness for some days past, is becoming convalescent.

The Sunday train on the Boston and Maine Railroad will be resumed to-morrow, running as far as Great Falls. The train leaves Boston at five o'clock P. M., and Great Falls for Boston at 6:15 A. M.

The accounts of George F. Plaisted, tresaurer of York for 1876, have been examined by the selectmen and found to be minus of $750. His bondsmen have been called upon to make good the deficiency.

The Congregational society in Hampton has petitioned the selectmen to appoint two special police, who shall serve without pay from the town, to protect their religious meetings from disturbances by disorderly boys.

The nominee of the late lamented greenback party for railroad commissioner, Nathaniel Wiggin, of Greenland, ran eight votes ahead of his ticket in his own town. Who dare say that Nat. is not the coming man?—News-Letter.

Wm. P. Moses, the republican candidate for County Commissioner in Strafford county, has a majority over Foss, democrat, of 74. Jackson, the democratic candidate for Register of Deeds, leads Sayles, republican, by 784 votes.

—The suicide in disgrace of the notorious Madame Restell, at the age of nearly seventy, after a life of wickedness, is another instance of how slowly the mills of the gods grind.

—Kansas Teacher—"Where does all our grain produce go to?" Boy—"It goes into the hopper." Teacher—"Hopper? What hopper?" Boy (triumphantly)—"Grasshopper!"

A Moving City.

Virginia City is very quietly and very slowly moving to the eastward down the face of the mountain. This is owing to the settling of the ground over the bonanza mines. As all the town is going together it is not much noticed on the surface, where no cracks are seen. The water and gas companies are better acquainted with the movements taking place in the ground forming the site of the town than most others, as the instability of the earth tells upon their pipes.

A water main, running north and south, uncovered, was found to be telescoped to the distance of over a foot, and beside had in it a great kink which made it necessary to take out a piece nearly two feet in length.

About the Consolidated Virginia Pan Mill the pipes are crowding in from both east and west; at least, owing to the settling of the ground in that neighborhood, there appear to be two movements. Although there are as yet no cracks in the central part of the town, there is a large one to the westward. Toward the north this crevice is about eight inches in width, and the ground on the east side of it is about three feet lower than on the west side.

Captain Overton, of the Water Company, whose opportunities for observing these movements are unsurpassed, says that as the ground settles over the bonanzas, that on the slope of the mountain, where it is not much undermined, gradually moves down. He says the International Hotel has moved east about five inches since it was built. If such is the case, all the buildings in that part of the town, with the ground on which they stand, must have moved the same distance, as no cracks are to be seen in the earth.—Virginia City Enterprise.

—One night the master of the house overheard an exchange of kisses in the corridor; he struck a match and discovered the chambermaid and the valet; she blushed, held down her head, and said, "I thought it was you, sir, I had encountered."

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. The immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 Dey St., New York.

Mothers,

here is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, in the form of an Oil for Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

Sirs—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. Rose & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Lame Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.
Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair from its natural color of them incline it to shed prematurely.
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the color of hair, and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.
It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or mature their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.
As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the traveling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the safety only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis.
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.
Tickets for sale at the lowest rates at the Ticket Offices of the Company in all important cities and towns.

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specific in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of men? A medicine cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outsoldall others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if anyone could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 20 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't do, though I used them all. I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one knew how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shattered, my memory, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I proceed to detail how relief came to me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. With Dr. Sage's Remedy I cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,
S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery
By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers or Old Sores, Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.
Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy foreboding, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humers in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who o substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Erosive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

CATARRH

A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER,—Sirs: I have practised medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the nasal passages, fauces and larynx. I have used everything in the materia medica without any permanent relief, until finally I was induced to try a patent medicine (something that we allopathists are very loth to do), I tried—and divers others until I got hold of yours. I followed the directions to the letter, and am happy to say have had a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully,
D. W. ORLAY, M. D.,
Of Dr. D. W. Gray & Son., Physicians and Druggists, Muscatine, Iowa.

MUSCATINE, IOWA, March 27, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in the cure of those

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes which, in many cases simulate a severe case of Catarrh. The inflamed and diseased condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these troubles; and until the system has been brought properly under the influence of the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from them cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was placed before the public, but in that short time it has found its way from Maine to California, and is everywhere acknowledged by druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh ever compounded. The fact will be deemed of some importance when it is coupled with the statement that within five years over 50 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day, with one or two exceptions, their names cannot be recalled by the best-informed druggist. Advertising may succeed in fixing a few sales, but, unless the remedy possess undoubted specific medical properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.00. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

Daily Chronicle.

Diary of a Female of the Future.

Monday—Just as I had settled my household work for the day, I was called away to serve on a jury, and had to remain in the law courts until the evening.

Tuesday—Some riots having taken place in our neighborhood, was forced to act as a special constable. Paraded the streets all day long in a state of constant alarm.

Wednesday—Received a letter from friend Susie, who has learned that the militia are to be called out. Visited her and discovered that the women, as citizens, are now liable to military service.

Thursday—Had to attend an inquest as a coroner's juryman. A very unpleasant duty indeed, as it was held upon a man who had committed a most horrible suicide.

Friday—Having failed to obey the orders of a county court judge, was locked up in prison for contempt. I owe this scrape to the extravagance of my husband—a man who will buy hats and coats, and will not work for our living.

Saturday—In deep tribulation. The governor of the jail is a female, and, as a matter of course, favors the male prisoners. Asked for a book, and was furnished with a work upon Roman law. Cried myself to sleep over a passage which told me that no one could obtain the privilege of a citizen's without accepting a citizen's duties and responsibilities. Oh, why did I give up the privileges of a real woman for the miseries of a mock man?—Punch.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It all makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and gives a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

MONDAY, APRIL 8, 1878.

The New Doorkeeper.

Friday was Ben. Butler's day to be a republican, and he bothered the democratic members of the House of Representatives by moving as a question of privilege that Gen. James Shields of Missouri, a democrat, be declared doorkeeper of the House. There was some sharp verbal sparring between Cox, of New York, and Butler, but an adjournment was finally carried by a strict party vote.

The democratic Congressmen caucussed for a candidate for doorkeeper, Friday night, and the vote was as follows: Gen. C. W. Field of Georgia, sixty-nine; Gen. Shields of Missouri, twenty; Harry McCoy of Maryland, eighteen; Walter H. French of Massachusetts, seven; W. K. Pendleton of West Virginia, two. Walter H. French, of Massachusetts, being the New England candidate, of course stood no more chance of nomination in a caucus ruled by the southern brigadiers than Bob Ingersoll stands of becoming Pope of Rome. And Gen. Shields had a chance but little better than French's, it would seem, though he is from Missouri, is a life-long democrat, and a veteran of the Mexican war; but then he has never been tainted with treason, and was on the wrong—meaning of course the Union—side in the late war.

But Gen. Charles W. Field, of Georgia, had no drawbacks of any kind—his record is unblemished, from the point of view of the majority of the "democratic House." He hails from Georgia, is a native of Kentucky, and never lived in the North at all; educated by the United States government, at West Point, he promptly entered the rebel army on the breaking out of the war, and did gallant service under Lee in the struggle to destroy the Union; and at the close of the war, unable to remain in a country in which slavery was no longer to rule, he entered the army of the Khedive of Egypt, where he remained until 1877, when he returned to the United States. His political disabilities were removed about two months ago,—just in time for him to take office.

A Sensible Decision.

The sub-committee of the House committee on commerce on Friday reported adversely on the bill proposing to transfer the Life Saving Service from the Treasury to the Navy Department. The report recommends a great increase of strength in the service.

The War Cloud.

Saturday morning's reports from Europe indicated the impossibility of averting a war between England and Russia, with a strong probability of a large part of the rest of Europe being drawn into the conflict. England continues busy with her warlike preparations; Russia is sending a military force toward British India, and seizing upon important strategetical points in Europe. Roumania and Austria are dissatisfied with Russia, and may join England in case of a war. Turkish atrocities in the revolted Grecian provinces continue.

"Madame Restell."

The story from New York that Restell, the abortionist, is still living, and that some other woman was buried in the costly casket seen at her funeral, may or may not be true, but by far the most likely the latter. Ex-Judge Stewart, who was reported to have been at her house on the morning succeeding her alleged suicide, ought certainly to have been able to recognize his so recent client, dead or living, and it is scarcely to be supposed that he would lend himself to such an atrocious fraud as it would have been to connive at her escape, while some one else was buried in her stead. True, it is not much to say of a man in New York that he is an ex-Judge or an ex-Alderman, still there must be some limit in the matter of principle over which neither would pass. A similar story was got up in years gone by in relation to John C. Cett, the murderer of Samuel Adams, and although it was disproved beyond all question, there are yet those to be found simple enough to believe that it was not Cott who was seen dead in the Tombs after his suicide, by three dignitaries of his church, (including Rev. Dr. Anthon) of the highest standing, who had frequently visited him during his confinement, and a score of others equally to be credited, but a corpse procured from the dead-house. There is no end to some people's credulity. D.

Naval Affairs.

In the U. S. Senate on Friday the general naval appropriation bill was taken up. The amendments restoring the number of cadets to 100, cadet midshipmen to 300 and twenty-five cadet engineers, to be appointed in 1879, were agreed to. The paragraph relating to naval hospitals was amended so as to discontinue the naval hospital at Annapolis, but retains the one at Washington. All the amendments of the committee were agreed to.

A bill introduced in the House of Representatives provides: "That officers of the staff corps of the navy shall receive the titles of the line grades with whom they hold relative rank, in addition to their respective titles in their own corps; as, for example, medical director and captain, pay inspector and commander, chief engineer and lieutenant-commander, and so forth; and such shall be their official designation, and shall be so set forth in their commissions: That officers of the staff corps of the navy shall take precedence in their several corps, and in their several grades, and with officers of the line with whom they hold relative rank, according to date of commission; and in case of two or more commissions of the same date, officers will take rank and precedence in the order in which their names appear on the Navy Register: That staff officers of the navy shall, in all cases, receive the same rates of pay as the line officers with whom they hold relative rank: and that all laws, or parts of laws, which are inconsistent herewith, shall be, and the same are hereby, repealed; and that the pay of midshipmen shall hereafter be $800 at sea, $600 on shore duty, and $500 on leave or waiting orders, per annum."

The U. S. S. Kearsarge, now at this navy yard, is dear to the people of the United States in more than one sense. She cost $452,657.03 in repairs, at Mare Island navy yard in January, 1872, where she was repaired by order of the Bureau of Construction.

The U. S. S. Wyoming, which came out of Brooklyn dry dock on the 5th inst., it seems was by no means in so bad a condition as stated in the N. Y. Sun. While in dock she was recoppered, and had some bad timber in the turn of bilge on her port side replaced. The leak, which forced her return to New York, was caused by a split in the apron of her stem. The wood was old and dry, but not rotten. Her repairs took a week's time, and she is now good for a three years' cruise.

The U. S. Frigate Constitution began to discharge her cargo at Havre on Friday. A detachment of U. S. marines who will do guard duty in the American section arrived at Paris on Saturday. They will occupy barracks assigned them by the French government.

The Secretary of the Navy has directed that instructions be issued to the commanders of the United States men-of-war in the North Pacific Ocean to seize all United States merchantmen engaged in the coolie trade, and such vessels will be taken to the most convenient port and delivered to the proper United States officers to be dealt with according to law.

The special board ordered to examine Commodore Balch for promotion to rear-admiral is as follows: Vice-Admiral S. C. Rowan and Rear-Admirals John L. Worden (of monitor fame) and John C. Howell, chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks. Commodore Balch is himself a member of the regular board of examiners for promotion and retirement.

Lieutenant C. M. Anthony is detached from the Powhattan and granted leave, with permission to leave the United States.

News and Notes.

The Boston banks hold notes given on account of the recently failed firm of Holt & Bugbee, to the amount of $229,000. More than half of this is with forged signatures. Two banks have over sixty thousand dollars each of the paper. The enormous amount shows that for careless bank management Boston leads. The banks that have the largest amount of this worthless "security" are among the heretofore considered best banks in the city.

At Pawtucket, R. I., Friday night, a member of a variety show shot another performer dead on the stage while attempting the feat of shooting an apple from her head.

By a collision on a Pennsylvania railroad, Friday, a load of coal oil took fire and two persons were killed, and about twenty seriously burned. A large number of persons, including a woman and her children, were slightly burned, making the total casualties about forty. There was no insurance on anything destroyed. The damage is estimated at $200,000. Seven persons had died from the effects of the accident up to Saturday night, and several others were not expected to live.

Uncle Sam confesses by the blue book just published that he has 85,880 persons on his books as employed in the public service or as office-holders. This is about one for every 450 of inhabitants, or one for every ninety votes.

The New York Chamber of Commerce on Thursday passed a resolution "That in the opinion of the Chamber the transfer of the Life Saving Service from the Treasury to the Navy Department, as proposed by Senator Sargent's bill, would be inexpedient, and that the Chamber recommends the passage of the Roberts bill, now before Congress, in that matter."

One day last week Capt. Anderson, of the schooner Muriel, lying at Portland, accidentally capsized his boat, and the anchor catching him by the leg carried him to the bottom of the dock. By an almost superhuman effort he threw the anchor from his body and rose to the surface, when he was quickly rescued by the crew of his vessel. His right leg was considerably bruised, but otherwise he was none the worse for the accident.

Gov. Hubbard of Connecticut has issued a proclamation for a fast day on Good Friday, April 19.

The contest by Mary Agnes, daughter of the late George P. Gordon, the wealthy printing press manufacturer, of his will, has been decided in favor of the contestant, on grounds of incompetency in the testator, insufficient execution and undue influence. The property seems to have been valued at $800,000, and the daughter was left only the interest on $100,000 during her life.

Mrs. Tom-Ri-Jon was arrested in New York last week for assaulting a man by striking him over the back with her cane, and committed to jail in default of $300 bail.

New Hampshire Items.

Senator Rollins has presented to the Senate the memorial of Geo. B. Chandler, Esq., cashier of the Amoskeg National Bank at Manchester, and of other citizens of Manchester, against the passage of an act taxing income.

Two girls named Eastman, aged fifteen years, left their homes on Wednesday last for North Conway, a distance of two miles. Not returning on Wednesday night their parents became alarmed, and diligent search has been made for them; but nothing definite has yet been heard of their whereabouts. As they have threatened several times to run away, not much fear for their safety is entertained.

A singular case recently occurred at Plymouth. A little girl fell headlong some ten or a dozen feet to the floor of a greenhouse, striking in a brick trench, and receiving such a blow on either side of her head from the sharp edges that she remained unconscious about two hours. On being restored it was found she had recovered her hearing, of which she had been deprived two years before by a fall in which she struck her head in a similar manner.

Mrs. Mary Griffin of Londonderry, widow of Ben. Griffin, died of old age Wednesday, at the advanced age of 100 years and four months. She retained her faculties to the last. Her husband served in the war of 1812 and died some forty years ago. The deceased was a native of Londonderry and has always resided in that town.

The following sentences were given in the Supreme Court at Concord Friday morning, the parties all pleading guilty: George H. Young of Pembroke, breaking and entering, two years in the State Prison or Reform School during his minority; Harvey Blake of Concord, obtaining money under false pretences, two years in the State Prison; Richard L. Currier of Concord, constructive larceny, three years in State Prison; John L. Stanchfield of Lawrence, Mass., larceny, six months in jail and $50 fine and costs; Frank F. Stevens of Concord, larceny, three years in State Prison.

The Grand Jury at Keene found the following indictments: Breaking and entering, seventeen; larceny, one; assault and battery, one; violation of the liquor law, ten. There are also several other indictments for various crimes, the parties not yet being arrested. George Hamilton, the negro supposed to have had a hand in the Foster murder, will be indicted, upon his confession to the officers. He will not be tried at present, as it is a well-known fact that he was not in Keene at the time of the murder. He is a shrewd, tricky fellow, and told this story to get North. He says that if he has got to be hung he would rather be hung in the North where he could have a priest. He thinks that he might be hung to a tree in the South without much ceremony. He has been arrested for three or four different murders, but always got away. He seems to enjoy notoriety.

In the Court at Laconia, Tuesday, Albert E. Glines withdrew his plea of not guilty of attempt at rape, and pleaded guilty to aggravated assault, and was sentenced to six months in the county jail and fined $200 and costs. Charles E. Davis of New Durham pleaded guilty to stealing in Alton, and was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. The Champlin-Leavitt case continues to excite attention. The suit is brought by a husband against a young man, a minor, for alienation of a wife's affection, damages being laid at $5000. There is a difference of opinion as regard the object, some believing the husband to be wronged, others that the wife led the young man into the trap laid for him.

THE CITY.

St. Andrew's Lodge assembles this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Work on M. M. degree.

Eastern Railroad stock sold at $9 per share in Boston on Saturday; Portland, Saco & Portsmouth at $83.25. Dover city 6s, 1893, brought $105; Portsmouth, Gt. Falls & Conway 7s sold at $50.

Miss Parloa, at one time connected with the Appledore House, Isles of Shoals, and author of the Appledore Cook-Book, is soon to give lessons at the Young Ladies' Seminary in this city.

The Manchester Mirror says: "John H. Locke, of Portsmouth, Grand Patriarch of New Hampshire I. O. O. F., will be present Thursday evening and witness the work in the R. P. Degree in Mt. Washington Encampment."

Gideon Lewis having left over a million of dollars and there being a scarcity of heirs, his executor advertises for them. Persons who belong to Gideon's band would do well to communicate with the New York lawyer who advertises in the Herald.

Some days ago we published an item of news—news indeed—to the effect that the steamer Clara Bateman had gone on the ways at Badger's island for repairs. The item was slightly incorrect, and as it has "gone the rounds" of the city papers we will now correct it. The steamer was the Mystic, and she did not go on the ways at Badger's island, (where there are no ways,) but at Neal's shipyard at Kittery. With these trifling exceptions, the item was all right.

The Times calls Mr. Holmes the best Street Commissioner Portsmouth ever had. That being the case, we again call the attention of the "best Street Commissioner," etc., to the state of the sidewalks in front of Gerrish's grocery store on Market square, and near the crossing at corner of Middle and Congress streets, and enquire how much longer the "best Street Commissioner," etc., is to permit the grevivance to remain, when a little time would suffice to save a great annoyance to pedestrians in wet weather.

The next election for State and county officers, and Members of Congress, occurs Nov. 5th, 1878; therefore, by the statute requirement of a six months residence in a town, or ward of a city, a man making a change of residence later than Saturday, May 4th, will lose his right to vote at the November election. We therefore urge upon all republicans who propose to change their residence this summer, the importance of doing so before May 4th; as to the democrats, we don't care if every man of 'em moves to another ward or town as late as the middle of June.

When Congressman Frye, of Maine, reached the passage of his speech upon the expose of the democratic doorkeeper—or rather, the showing up of the manner in which he had been used by his fellow-democrats—and said, "Oh! one-armed democratic soldiers, fighting all day long in the beautiful old city of Portsmouth, for my friend from New Hampshire, [Mr. Jones,] the next time you hobble along up to the polls ask the Congressmen you vote for how this rabbit hunt for a crippled soldier ended thus tamely!" the House fairly shook with laughter, in which Mr. Jones himself, at the ridiculous picture, had to join. It is perhaps the way Mr. Jones has been treated by his southern brethren that induced him to send forth from the Washington Post the rumor that he would decline another nomination.

POLICE COURT.

Saturday, April 6th; Batchelder, J.

William Morrissey, for assaulting James Morrissey, was fined $2, costs $8.04.

Edward Clark and Dennis Sullivan, for drunkenness, were each assessed $9.90, fine and costs.

John Shay, a vagrant, was sent to Brentwood for four months; costs $6.90, to be worked out in addition.

John E. Odiorne, held in $500 on a charge preferred against him in the Police Court on Friday, went to jail in default of the required bail.

RIP VAN WINKLE.

Mr. John Murray appears as "Rip Van Winkle" at Music Hall to-night. He is Joe Jefferson's only serious rival in this character, and his support is said to be far superior to the average travelling dramatic company. Miss Cartland, the "Gretchen" of the company, was so much of a favorite in Dover, where the piece was played for three weeks, that she was tendered a benefit by the citizens and given a crowded house of the best people in the city. Tickets at Dr. Preston's, at 50 and 35 cents, with no extra charge for secured seats.

THE VICINITY.

Judge Smith will open court at Exeter at 10:30 A. M. to-morrow.

The annual meeting of the Piscataqua Conference of Congregational Ministers takes place at South Newmarket on Tuesday.

Rev. John Stevens, a well known clergyman of the Freewill Baptist church, resident at Biddeford for twenty years past, died suddenly on Friday afternoon, at the age of seventy-eight years.

A partially insane man named Jonathan Gray committed suicide by hanging at Dover on Friday morning, fastening a rope to a small hook in the clothes-press, then sitting down in the closet until he strangled to death.

Mr. Morris Goodwin, of Eliot, has during the past twenty-eight years attended about four hundred and seventy funerals in the contiguous parts of Eliot, York and South Berwick. He has kept a brief record of each, and is not unfrequently called upon for information relating to some of them.

Wells has just elected Trafton Hatch, a greenbacker, as selectman. The greenbackers had a plurality on the first ballot, and on the second ballot the democrats united with them, electing Mr. Hatch by a large majority. This is what seems likely to take place everywhere—the party of unlimited inflation, worthless currency, and repudiation of the national debt, will swallow up what pretends to be the legitimate successor of the "mint-drops" party of Jefferson and Jackson. Mr. Hatch was recently the democratic representative to the Maine Legislature from Wells, and is an out-and-out democrat of the strictest school; and this explains the result of this election.

WILLIAM B. SMALL.

A telegraphic despatch received by Sheriff Kent on Sunday, announced the death of Hon. William B. Small, which occurred at his residence in Newmarket on Sunday morning at half-past two o'clock, from the effect of concussion of the brain occasioned by a fall.

Mr. Small was a native of Ossipee, in this State. After attending Phillips Exeter Academy, he entered the office of Messrs. Bell and Tuck at Exeter, who were then lawyers in extensive practice, and in whose office at the same time as students were E. Frank Tucke, who died several years ago, Alva Wood, who died recently, and Hon. Charles H. Bell. Mr. Small, on being admitted to the bar, took up his residence at Newmarket, and succeeded to the business of Hon. Wm. W. Stickney, who had been in practice for many years in that town, and had removed to Exeter to form a law copartnership with Hon. Amos Tuck.

Mr. Small always enjoyed the confidence and esteem of his fellow-citizens in Newmarket to the fullest extent, and was chosen to represent them in the Legislature; he was also for many years a Director of the only discount bank of the town. He was chosen State Senator from District No. One, and while he held this office was nominated as a candidate for Member of Congress, to which position he was twice elected. He several years ago was appointed County Solicitor, to which office he was again at a later period appointed by Ex-Gov. Cheney, and which he held at the time of his death.

It was not so much in his political as in his professional career that Mr. Small excelled. As a lawyer he was industrious, pains-taking, studious, and devoted to the interests of his client. His integrity was never questioned. His clients, his brethren at the bar, the Judges of the Courts,—every one reposed confidence in him, and he was without the suspicion even of being capable of other than the most high-toned and honorable practise in his chosen profession, any more than he was deemed capable of being unfaithful in his political trusts or personal relations.

The peculiar circumstances under which while hastening to the bedside of a dying brother he received the injury which caused his death, are fresh in the public mind, and his end at this time was by no means unexpected; and yet it was only at the January term of the Court that he was in apparent good health, and was appointed by the bar as one of the committee to prepare and present suitable resolutions upon the occasion of the demise of his fellow student, Alva Wood, Esq. He was about the age of Mr. Wood. The funeral occurs on Thursday.

The town of Newmarket suffers a severe loss in the death of Mr. Small; the bar of this county is deprived of one of its most active and honorable practitioners; and the whole community in our State mourns the decease of a valuable citizen, who without for himself making any claim to prominence, but rather avoiding than courting publicity, was one whose influence upon his section of the country was always exerted in the right direction, and whose place will not easily be filled.

Cui Bono?

The committee of working men representing the laborers in the navy yards of the country still remains in Washington. Members of the committee say that the resolution of the House committee on education and labor, declaring the true purport of the Revised Statute to be that eight hours should constitute a day's work in the service of the Government, will probably be taken up within a week or ten days. This committee stands number twenty-three on the list of committees to be called. The gentlemen interested assert there is no doubt of the resolution passing the House; but we don't see what use there is in the House passing such a resolution, so long as a mere cabinet officer has power to do as Secretary Thompson of the Navy has done—set his own sweet will up above a law of the United States, duly passed by both Houses of Congress and signed by the President. This is just what Thompson has done; the eight-hour law had been a recognized law for years until he coolly decided it should be a law no longer. If it were an unjust law it should have been repealed, but so long as it remained a law it should have been obeyed; but we do not see how Congress can enforce obedience, Thompson having decided that he is above Congress as a law-making power.

Political.

Mr. B. F. Butler remarked in the House last week, that if the democrats got back their prestige he did not know but what he would go back to their party. So have thought many. With Butler, just now, there seems to be an uncertainty, although he indicated that parties were likely to break up and he was looking for a new party. Perhaps it is on the greenback party that he intends to rely for future honors.

The democratic candidate for Governor of Rhode Island is laughed at for his folly in supposing he was to be elected. It is the old story; money in the family—rich father with a soft side—intriguing bummers bled the old gentleman and flattered the son, put the money in their own pockets and omitted the usual hiring of the Irish democrats to vote, and a deficit in that vote of 4500 votes is the consequence. Another mistake was, the candidate had a bad attack of oratory, which when witnessed set him back badly with his party.

How Bar-Room Liquors are Made.

There may be seen daily on Chestnut street a man dressed in faultless apparel, with a great diamond on his breast vainly endeavoring to outglitter the magnificent solitaire on his finger. In a German university he learned chemistry, and not even Liebig knew it better. His occupation is the mixing and adulteration of liquors. Give him a dozen casks of deodorized alcohol, and the next day each of them will represent the name of a genuine wine or popular spirit. He enters a wholesale drug-store bearing a large basket upon his arm. Five pounds of Iceland moss are weighed out to him. To raw liquors this imparts a degree of smoothness and oleaginousness that gives to imitation brandy the glibness of that which is most matured. An astringent, called catechu, that would almost close the mouth of a glass inkstand, is next in order. A couple of ounces of strychnine, next called for, are quickly conveyed to his vest pocket, and a pound of white vitriol is as silently placed in the bottom of the basket. The oil of cognac, the sulphuric acid, and other articles that give fire and body to liquid poison, are always kept in the store. The mixer buys these from various quarters. They are staples of the art. — Philadelphia paper.

—A curious scene that well nigh ended in panic and a serious accident took place at Mr. Beecher's recent lecture in St. Louis. A large portion of the immense hall of the Merchants' Exchange had been taken up by the "reserved seats," and as only a small number of them were sold there was a great empty space between the speaker and the bulk of the audience. Mr. Beecher was but indistinctly heard by his auditors, and presently with one accord they rose and rushed forward to occupy the vacant seats in front. Those in front thought an accident had happened and jumped up, women screamed and darted toward the doors, and but for the efforts of the police a serious disaster might have been brought about.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of fleshy, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,

here is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & CO., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. otmay1

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the fading of the hair immediately; it then renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, even when faded or gray.

It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus barren, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft — under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the combined assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are ballasted in a foundation of to-k ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's standard Medicines have outrivalled all others. There sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.

It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could embalm a similar cure in the papers. For 20 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 36 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, only shreds of my senses, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven eighths of the time. I spent hundreds in vain for me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and try it. It did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active by the occasional use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Pectoral.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Tonic.

Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of constitutional diseases which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they decase and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucborrhea arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

CATARRH

A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER,—Sirs: I have practised medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the nasal passages and larynx. I have used everything in the materia medica without any permanent relief. Finally I was induced to try a patent medicine (something that we allopathists are very loth to do), I tried——and others others until I got hold of yours. I followed the directions to the letter, and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully,
D. W. GRAY, M. D.,
Of Dr. D. W. Gray & Son., Physicians and Druggists, Muscatine, Iowa.

MUSCATINE, IOWA, March 27, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in the cure of those

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes which in many cases accompany a severe case of Catarrh. The inflamed and diseased condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these troubles; and until the system has been brought properly under the influence of the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from them cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was placed before the public, but in that short time it has found its way from Maine to California, and is everywhere acknowledged by druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh ever compounded. The fact will be deemed of more importance when it is coupled with the statement that within five years over 50 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day, with one or two exceptions, their names cannot be recalled by the best informed druggist. Advertising may succeed in forcing a few sales, but, unless the remedy possess undoubted specific medical properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.00. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canada. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

FITZ JOHN PORTER.

The case of Fitz John Porter is exciting an unusual degree of interest throughout the country. Strenuous efforts have been made and are now making to secure for him a new hearing.

The plain English of the matter is this; Fitz John Porter was brought to trial on two charges, viz., "Disobedience of orders," and "Misbehavior before the enemy," and after a patient investigation, covering a period of forty-five days, during which he was aided by the ablest and most eloquent counsel, and had the moral support of the friendship of McClellan, of the reaction of Pope's defeat, and of the fame of his own hitherto brilliant career, he was adjudged guilty of both charges and cashiered the service of the United States. There is nothing new of fact, argument or reason, presented by his friends to warrant a reopening of this case. The record of his dereliction is indelibly written in history, and no efforts of his partisans can ever reverse the mature verdict of his countrymen. It is a fact, patent to every man who served in the Army of Virginia, that General Porter designedly chose his course for the purpose and with the deliberate intent of defeating General Pope and his army at the 2d Bull Run. There are not wanting thousands of officers and men who have never doubted that he acted in pursuance of an understanding with certain others, and that his conduct was but part of a preconcerted plan for the same purpose, viz., Pope's discomfiture and cownfall. If there be any question of this assertion, one has only to read the orders and communications issued and sent between the 23d and 31st August 1862, to remove the last vestige of doubt from a candid mind. A friend of Porter's, writing to the Boston Herald, coolly ignores the second charge, saying "No one who knows him (F. J. P.) believes, or ever has believed him guilty of this charge, as it involves the idea of personal cowardice." I take issue with him on this matter. No one, so far as I have yet learned, has ever called in question General Porter's personal courage. I fear the writer alluded to, simply designs to mislead the public mind by distracting attention from the real point involved. Cowardice is "misbehavior before the enemy," but "misbehavior" is not necessarily personal cowardice. I can have some sympathy or pity for a man who cannot bring himself to face the enemy's fire. It may be congenital, in which case he cannot fairly be held responsible. Cowardice under such circumstances, would be a man's misfortune, not his fault, but there is a sort of "misbehavior" in comparison with which physical cowardice sinks into insignificance, may even be exalted into a positive virtue,—and that is the premeditated, studied treason to patriotic duty and soldierly honor, which would sacrifice thousands of human lives and even the sacred cause of liberty and country, for selfish ends and to gratify personal vindictiveness. Arnold would have sold the liberties of his country for such a price, and so long as Arnold's treason is execrated by the American people, so long should Fitz John Porter's treachery be held in abhorrence and utter detestation.

I do not purpose going into details in this communication. I only call attention to the fact that General Porter received orders, after Hooker's brilliant fight at Bristow station on the 27th of Aug., to move at one o'clock that night and report to Pope at Bristow Station by daylight, and that he neglected and refused to even attempt to move, offering the puerile excuse that his men were tired and would straggle, and that a wagon train en route eastward would obstruct his march. Wasn't it quite possible that the Army of Virginia were "tired" also, after continual marching and fighting from the 7th to the 27th August? What brilliant results Sheridan would have accomplished in the campaign of '65, if he had halted and gone into camp when his men were a little weary! Were Porter's troops any more tired, I wonder, at that time than Sheridan's cavalry, and the 5th Corps during and after Five Forks. Did Sheridan send word to Grant that he feared his men would straggle, they were so "tired," or did he "push things,"—press on the harder and follow up Lee the more tenaciously and vigorously, so that from March 30th till the night of April 9th, we had not a night's unbroken rest? Ah! but Sheridan was a man and patriot, as well as a consummate soldier, and he was bent on making a grand success of Grant's campaign, not plotting to overwhelm him with disaster and defeat.

At 3 A. M. Aug. 29, General Pope directed Porter to move at earliest dawn on Centreville, leaving trains and all other impedimenta behind, and impressed on him the necessity of his arrival at an early hour, adding "a severe engagement is likely to take place and your presence is necessary." On that afternoon Sigel's corps had been considerably cut up and weakened, but Pope ordered him to hold his ground, as McDowell and Porter were, in pursuance of previous orders, moving up from Manassas junction and would soon be ready to fall upon the enemy's right flank, and probably upon his rear. McDowell, too, had ordered Porter to move against the enemy, and had himself, taking King's Div. from Porter's command (to which it had been temporarily attached,) together with Rickett's Div., pushed on northward to the battlefield at Groveton, arriving during the afternoon. Porter held his command all day in the position assumed early in the morning. Morrill's division was deployed and had some slight skirmishing with the enemy, but the other divisions were massed and remained inactive.

About half past four Gen. Pope wrote Porter, "your line of march brings you in on the enemy's right flank. I desire you to push forward into action at once on the enemy's flank, and if possible on his rear, keeping your right in communication with Gen. Reynolds." About 5:30, when Porter should have been going into action, in compliance with this order, Pope directed Heintzelman and Reno to attack the enemy, which they at once did, in the most vigorous and gallant manner, doubling up his left upon his centre, and after a hot fight of an hour and a half our troops held the field, with the enemy's dead and wounded in our hands.

I well remember the determined and brilliant bayonet charge of Grover's brigade of Hooker's division, which broke two of the rebel lines, and penetrated to the third before it was checked. At 8 o'clock our army occupied the greater part of the battlefield. Up to this hour nothing was heard of Gen. Porter, and his corps had taken no part whatever in the fighting, lying idly on their arms all day long within sound, and even within sight of the battle, while their commander sat, like Archilles, sulking in his tent, or perhaps coolly calculating the chances of Pope's ultimate defeat, and the restoration to command of his old-time favorite leader. Compare Porter's conduct, in this battle, with that of peerless Sumner at Fair Oaks. On the one hand, Porter deliberately disobeyed a positive order to engage the enemy, lest perchance Pope might win a victory over Lee's army. At Fair Oaks, on the other hand, "as soon as the sounds of battle from the west side of the Chickahominy reached him, Sumner, divining the situation had, with that soldierly instinct which characterized him, put his corps under arms and marched it out of camp; so that when at two o'clock he was ordered to cross his command without delay, and proceed to support of Heintzelman, no time was lost," but more than an hour was saved when time was of inestimable value. Faithful, brave old Sumner sleeps in a soldier's grave, but that one grand act of heroic, soldierly duty has forever enshrined him in the hearts of his grateful and admiring countrymen, while Fitz John Porter lives with the brand of Cain stamped upon his brow by the impartial verdict of history, and the sentence of an outraged and indignant people!

At 8:50 P. M., 29th, Pope sent the following peremptory order to General Porter:

Headquarters Army of Virginia: In the field near Bull Run, Aug. 29, '62, 8:50 P. M.

General: Immediately upon the receipt of this order, the precise hour of receiving which you will acknowledge, you will march your command to the field of battle of to-day and report to me in person for orders. You are to understand that you are to comply strictly with this order, and to be present on the field within 3 hours after its receipt, or after daybreak to-morrow morning.

JNO. POPE, Maj. Gen. Com'dg.

Maj. Gen. F. J. Porter.

There can be but little doubt, notwithstanding the ingenious plans and defenses of Porter's friends, and the skillfully used statements of confederate officers recently offered, that if General Porter had been a true man, and had faithfully discharged the first and paramount duty of a good soldier, by making a vigorous attack on the enemy at any time before seven o'clock on that evening, Pope would have crushed and destroyed the main portion of Jackson's force, before reinforcements could have reached him sufficient to enable an effective resistance on his part. Think of an officer, commanding one of the finest corps in the army, deliberately watching the progress of a heavy engagement, even in the absence of any orders, and not moving a man to help make the result a decisive and successful one! Think of a man, in utter disregard of positive orders for the performance of a specific duty, deliberately and maliciously throwing away the certainty of inflicting overwhelming defeat upon the enemy, for the purpose of accomplishing the overthrow and ruin of a military rival! Do I state this point too strongly? It is now in evidence that, when Pope's order was delivered to General Porter, he remarked in a petulant and contemptuous manner, "I shall move when I get ready and not before." Now there is no better settled principle of law than that which attaches paramount importance to the intent, the animus, of an act, and with this principle in view and giving due weight to Porter's evident malice, the results which might have followed his action, one way or the other, are of little consequence in the consideration of his conduct, compared with his deliberate intention to disregard the orders of his commanding officer, the studied effort to bring disaster upon Pope, the readiness and willingness to sacrifice, if need be, thousands of our bravest and best men, if thereby he might crush Pope in the general catastrophe. With this clear insight into Porter's intentions, let us see what followed. General Pope says he "did not consider that it was necessary for him, having given General Porter an order to march toward the enemy in a particular direction, to send him, in addition, specific orders to attack, it being his clear duty, and in accordance with every military precept, when a furious battle with that enemy was raging during the whole day in his immediate presence."

It is still believed, despite the ingenious arguments of Porter's friends, supplemented by reports and statements of confederate officers, that Porter could have turned Jackson's right flank and fallen upon his rear, in which event Jackson's forces would have been practically destroyed before Longstreet could have materially reinforced him.

Unfortunately, however, Porter's troops were "tired!" But Pope's men, too, had been almost entirely without food for two days, his cavalry and artillery horses had been continually in harness and saddle for ten days and without forage for two days. Porter's corps was in fine condition; their ears, to be sure, had been filled with the din, and their vision dimmed by the smoke of battle, but as yet they had not been permitted to share the burden and participate in the glory of their brethren of the Army of Virginia, and on the morning of the 30th, the time when Porter was ordered to report in person to General Pope at daybreak, it was found that he had directed, or permitted, the brigades of Piatt and Griffin,—5000 fresh troops,—to march off at daybreak for Centreville, where they were utterly unavailable for the day's operations. Porter's attack, when it was finally made, was weak and irresolute, and his men soon retired in great confusion, in marked contrast with the conduct of Tower's brigade, led by their gallant commander in person, whose brilliant behavior elicited hearty cheers from our entire line. Who can doubt but that, under the leadership of a chivalrous, patriotic commander like Kearney, in place of Fitz J. Porter, the final result might have been as grand and glorious, as it soon became disastrous and bloody? Who doubts but that true soldierly co-operation, on the part of some of McClellan's officers, a willingness to lay aside for a season at least, personal jealousies, envies, and heartburnings, and to act together for the public good, would have saved the Union Army from a severe defeat, preserved thousands of precious lives, increased the morale of our troops, and inspired the country with a deeper confidence in our commanders, and more fervent trust and faith in the ultimate success of our cause.

I protest against the reopening of this case. I protest in the name of the gallant men who bore the burden and heat of that terrible conflict, so bravely and unflinchingly.

I protest in the name of those thousands of chivalrous dead, who yielded up their lives on that fatal field, in the heroic effort to achive victory for the Union. I protest in the name of soldierly honor he so shamefully violated; of justice which he outraged; of humanity, whose appeals he that day piteously mocked; of eternal Right he so ruthlessly trampled under foot; in the name of patriotism, whose claims he sacrificed to personal revenge; in the name of our common country, which he that day abandoned to her fate; and in the name of high Heaven to whose every highest precept and law he proved so wantonly recreant do I protest against all efforts to reopen this case of Fitz John Porter! I can honor a chivalrous foe who fought us openly and valiantly, even while contending for an error. I can admire a gallant enemy, who stood up bravely to receive, as well as give, sturdy blows, but I have no words wherewith to measure my contempt and detestation of a man who disgraces his country's uniform, who prostitutes his rare abilities and talent to give aid and comfort to the enemy, who "steals the livery of heaven to serve the devil in," and who is ready to sacrifice everything which should be dearest and most sacred, even more precious than life itself, to true soldierly manhood, for the infamous purpose of destroying a supposed rival in the service. "VARUS."

PORTSMOUTH, April 5th, 1878.

Daily Chronicle

TUESDAY, APRIL 9, 1878.

"What Shall the Harvest Be?"

The recent announcement from Washington that Hon. Frank Jones, member in Congress from this District, will decline a renomination, though it comes in a somewhat questionable shape, serves to create considerable interest in the coming contest of November.

Mr. Jones, though keeping squarely in the party traces, nevertheless as a practical man, familiar with business and finance, shows his New England ideas in his votes upon public measures of non-political significance. He has been found, upon measures of general policy, voting with the soundest men in Congress, and has shown that on ordinary questions before the House he is correct in his judgment. But he is thoroughly a man of business, and after the flush of victory has passed off, is likely to be impatient of the slow routine of Congressional life, as well as disgusted at the insignificant influence he is allowed to exert among the politicians of his own party, as a New England member.

Whether the rumor is authentic, or merely sent out as a feeler, we know not. Mr. Jones is not without a good share of sagacity, and he cannot fail to have perceived that the democrats in Congress the past winter have very materially increased the difficulties and decreased the chances of a New England democrat's election. In fact, the verdict in our own State in March unmistakably convinces him that the party he supports, by its series of Congressional blunders, has made the position of a member, as well as that of a candidate on the democratic side, one of severe struggle instead of comfortable attainment. It is perhaps because Mr. Jones has looked over the figures of the March election, that he considers that two terms in Congress, and a retirement from which he can emerge bye-and-by and run for Governor of his native State, may be the most politic thing for him, in the present posture of affairs, to adopt.

Mr. Jones will not be allowed to withdraw if the managers of his party in the State can prevent it. He is perhaps the strongest man the democracy can rally under in this district, and what is essential in the estimation of the committeemen, has in addition to his personal influence, a good bank account from which the necessary campaign funds can be drawn to a most liberal degree. Should he persist in a declination, Carroll county will claim the nomination, and present the name of Hon. John W. Sanborn as a candidate. Mr. Sanborn is an able man, and if he can conciliate his arch enemy in the party, Stonewall Adams, of Sandwich, is likely, from his persevering labors, to make a good run.

But the district is republican, despite the nomination of any democrat, however able in the matter of obtaining votes; and the selection of a proper standard bearer by the republicans is all that is required to ensure success, next fall. By such a standard-bearer we mean a man who is qualified for the office, and at the same time is likely to bring out at the polls the strength of his party in the district. No other need apply. There are such men to be found in the district, if they will accept the nomination, to whose support the republicans will heartily rally. The selection must be made not as a personal favor to any especial aspirant or set of men, not to oblige any particular locality, but with a single view to rescuing the district from democratic hands.

The people have had a surfeit of democracy in Congress. As fast as business seeks to adjust itself to the change in values, and resume its functions, the commercial interests of the country receive a set-back by some blunder of the incompetents in Congress, and the country demands a new deal. The democracy have in their ascendancy in the House of Representatives, accomplished nothing beyond crippling the administration of the affairs of the country by a parsimonious voting of appropriations under the guise of economy, made wholly for political effect. The experiment has proved a miserable failure, and we of New Hampshire must add our disapproval of all of the cheap Congressional claptrap by doing our share towards changing the political complexion of the next House of Representatives.

News and Notes.

S. C. Ford, an insane pauper, set fire to one of the Steuben county (N. Y.) poor house buildings on Saturday night. The building was destroyed, and Ford and fourteen other paupers perished in the flames.

The Rockingham Universalist Association have arranged to hold a revival conference at Rochester, commencing Wednesday and continuing several days. A similar work will follow elsewhere through this and other counties of the State.

A serious boiler explosion occurred on Saturday afternoon at the Boston stamping works, owned by Seavey & Co., on Third street, Cambridgeport, by which three persons were killed and several others were severely injured.

The City of Para, the second of the United States and Brazil Steamship Company's vessels, was launched Saturday from the ship-yard of Messrs. John Roach & Son, Chester, Pa. About 40,000 persons were present.

The New York Sun states that it was on Saturday conceded on all hands that a reunion between Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Tilton is an accomplished fact. Mr. Shearmen, without saying that he knew it to be so, admitted that he believed it to be so. Others, near to Mr. Beecher, said that they had reason to believe Mrs. Tilton had capitulated to her husband and her mother. As the Sun gives the foregoing as an unquestionable truth, it is safe to say it is a flat-footed lie.

Dr. William H. Brisbane, a well-known citizen of Wisconsin, died on Friday at his residence in Arena, in that State, aged seventy-five years. He was a native of South Carolina. In 1835 he left his home, with some thirty slaves, his property, brought them North, manumitted them and saw them well settled in life. He located at Cincinnati, and became the associate of James G. Burney, Dr. Bailey, Gov. Chase and other anti-slavery men, and was a constant worker in that cause. He went to Wisconsin in 1855, was Chief Clerk of the Senate in 1857, and early in the war was appointed Tax Commissioner of South Carolina. He took an active part in the reunion of the old Abolition Guards in Chicago in June, 1874. He has been a prominent republican since the foundation of the party. He was a high-minded, honorable gentleman, and his death is universally regretted.

Charles Pelton, of Somers, Conn., having been converted by an evangelist, has confessed participation in numerous robberies, and several arrests have resulted. That's something like conversion.

A Mrs. Hunt, of Granby, Conn., lost her husband six weeks ago, and every week since has buried one of her children; the fifth, aged twenty-two years, was buried Thursday. The last child is not expected to live. The disease is like diphtheria.

New Hampshire Items.

Mrs. Cyrus E. Hardy, of Marlboro, was arrested on Monday on suspicion of having poisoned her late husband.

Charles A. Perry, a carpenter of North Conway, was thrown from a heavily loaded wagon, Saturday afternoon, and both legs were crushed beneath the wheels. An attempt was made to save his life by the amputation of one limb, but he died Sunday during the operation.

M. F. Holder, the Irish orator of Providence, R. I., has been laboring in Sancook since March 26, and has obtained over 500 signatures to the pledge, mostly drinking men. Mr. Holder will finish his labors Thursday, April 11, at which time there will be a grand temperance mass meeting.

The 22d annual examination of the State Reform School at Manchester will take place on Wednesday 17th inst., school exercises commencing at one o'clock. The public are invited, and trains up and down will stop opposite the institution to leave and take passengers.

Naval Affairs.

The U. S. S. Portsmouth, from New York, arrived at Havre on Saturday with pictures and goods for the Paris exhibition.

The U. S. S. Wyoming sailed at noon on Saturday from New York for Havre. She is loaded with goods for the Paris Exposition. Among the cargo is a large engine which is to run all the machinery requiring steam power of the exhibit. She will use steam all the way, and expects to reach her destination in fifteen days. Since the ship returned to port there have been forty desertions among her crew and marines. Her free passenger list has been materially lessened.

Lieut. Joseph E. Jones, U. S. N., now on duty as executive officer of the dispatch-boat Tallapoosa, has invented an ingenious contrivance, which he designates a "call candle." The candle is of a peculiar manufacture, and is marked to designate how far the candle will burn in a specified time—from one to ten hours. He has applied for a patent.

Political.

It is stated that Isaac Lawrence, late candidate of the democracy for the office of Governor of Rhode Island, has decided to test the right of Gov. Van Zandt to occupy his seat as executive officer of the State before the Supreme Court, on the ground that Van Zandt is not a legal voter.

Franklin J. Moses, Jr., Ex-Governor of South Carolina, better known as "the robber governor" whom Gov. Chamberlain so successfully opposed and who has for some time past been the most valuable auxiliary the democratic party has had, was arrested in New York for forgery on Saturday.

The Southern Mackerel Fishery.

The fish dealers of Boston are exercised over the early catch of mackerel, which they think diminishes the later supply and affects the market unfavorably. It would be difficult to prove that the catch or market are influenced either by the early fishery, or by the use of seines, as many contend. The demand for the first fresh mackerel of the season gives the business promise of success, and the quantity packed is not likely to interfere with sales of the small stock of better quality fish remaining on the market from last year's catch. The southern mackerel fishery will be followed by the usual fleet as the season advances. Quite a number of vessels are fitting away, and the Moses Adams, Capt. Jacebs, the pioneer of the fleet, sailed for the south Saturday. Schooners Seth Stockbridge, Crest of the Wave, Smuggler, Ada R. Terry, Lizzie, and Namari have sailed the present week. Others are busy fitting out. The first southern mackerel caught last year was by the schooner Seth Stockbridge, Capt. James Anderson, who arrived in New York, April 25th, with 35,000 in number. The mild winter gives promise that the first catch this year will be somewhat earlier.—Cape Ann Advertiser.

Skepticism.

Nowadays people doubt nearly every thing. They forget that the known facts of to-day constituted the knotty problems of hypothesis but a few years since. Unsuccessful practitioners of medicines quote the doubts and uncertainties experienced by Sir Astley Cooper, who lived not long after Harvey discovered the circulation of the blood, as evidence that but little is known of medicine aside from conjecture, entirely ignoring the fact that their competitors are daily healing diseases which Cooper thought incurable. Is not such ignorance criminal? Catarrh, the most common and most incurable of all chronic diseases, readily yields to the healing and soothing properties of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy when used with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche. If the case be complicated the blood must be enriched and purified by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. No remedy yet known equals the Discovery in permanently curing affections of the lungs, liver, blood and skin. If afflicted with constipation try Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. They are a sure cure. Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, in a late address, speaking of our progress, said, "To those of my generation this modern world, which most of you take as a matter of course, is a perpetual source of wonder, a standing miracle. Science and art have so changed the aspect of every day life that one of a certain age might well believe himself on another planet or in another stage of existence." No longer does the sedentary man or the delicate woman suffer from torpid liver, constipation or drastic medicine. Science has demonstrated that the concentrated extracts are more potent and reliable than the huge doses resorted to by our forefathers, hence the great sale and popularity of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, which are scarcely larger than mustard seeds, yet are safe and certain as a cathartic alterative and anti-bilious remedy.

The following names are a few of the many who have been cured by using the Pellets, to whom the doctor refers:

Chas. W. Struble, Wauseon, Ohio; David Thompson, Mountfort, Wis.; Mrs. N. M. Hastings, Troy, N. Y.; I. T. Mac, Pilot Point, Oregon; Wm. R. Bott, Hyde Park, Pa.; Caleb Cowing, Eddytown, N. Y.; A. D. Brown, Lisle, N. Y.; L. Fogg, Stillwell, Ills.; Thos. W. Landon, Fairmount, Md.

THE CITY.

We learn that the new managers of the Oceanic will secure the services of Mr. Geo. C. Meade, the heretofore successful steward of the hotel under Mr. Poor.

Commander George Dewey, U. S. N., a member of the Light House Board, has visited Whale's-back lighthouse recently to note the requirements for the rebuilding of the tower for the fog-whistle.

Mr. Oscar J. Pfeiffer of this city, now Principal of the Lancaster Academy, has just had $210 added to his yearly salary. The meeting, which unanimously voted to re-engage Mr. Pfeiffer and pay him this additional sum, was the largest holden there for years.

On Sunday afternoon two young men of a statistical turn of mind took their stand in a doorway near the corner of Market street and Market square, and in fifty-five minutes counted thirty-seven auburn-haired women and girls among the passers-by. Golden locks seem to be fashionable.

Kerosene flames are readily extinguished by throwing woolen over them, thus stifling them. But woolen is not always in the kitchen, where kerosene accidents are most likely to occur. Flour is recommended as a substitute. Thrown upon the flames it quickly deadens them by absorbing the fluid.

Mr. Charles E. Dyer, who has been for the past twenty years connected with the passenger train service of the Eastern Railroad and was one of the most popular conductors, has been appointed master of the passenger station in Boston, in place of Mr. W. H. Hatch, who has been transferred to train service.

Concerning the Berger Family, who are to appear in Music Hall to-morrow evening, the Norwich (Conn.) Bulletin of March 7th said: "The Berger family everywhere receive praise for the excellence of their entertainments and they are certainly the best company of artists combining music and characterization that visit this city. The several features of their entertainment are artistic, pure and meritorious. Every piece received an encore last evening, and in nearly every case met with response. The costumes are chosen to give a pleasant appearance and the performers move with sprightliness and grace. The wonderfully strong cornet solo of Miss Berger, McKee's characterization, the Coleman sisters in the xylophone duet and other specialties, the sketches of 'refined society,' the bell duet and fantasia and the concert of the silver cornet band were all finely rendered and deservedly applauded. A large audience was present."

POLICE COURT.

Monday, April 8th; Batchelder, J.

William Nolan, for drunkenness, was fined three dollars, costs $6.90. In default of payment Mr. Nolan was sent to the County Farm, where most of his time is spent.

SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS.

The annual public examinations of the schools of the city are being held this week, the dates as fixed by the District Committees being as follows:

Dist. No. One: Bartlett school (Misses Annie S. Hanscom, Nellie E. Rand and Florence A. Ham) Tuesday afternoon; Franklin (Misses Josie F. Prescott and Helen L. Philbrook) Wednesday forenoon; Spalding (Misses Nellie C. Mooers and Ida A. Shackley) Wednesday afternoon; Walker (Mr. Charles E. Buzzell, Misses Susan F. Drake, Sophia J. Foye and Emma E. Young,) third and fourth divisions Friday forenoon, first division Friday afternoon, second division Saturday forenoon.

Dist. No. Two: Peabody school (Miss Walker and Miss Marston) Monday forenoon; State street (Miss Giddings) and Cabot street (Miss Rowe) Monday afternoon; Cabot street (Mr. Kidder, Miss Barri and Miss Ham) Tuesday forenoon; Jones (Miss Woods) Tuesday afternoon; Plains (Miss Garrett) Wednesday afternoon; Jones (Miss Hill) Friday forenoon; Jones (Miss Whittem) Friday afternoon; Jones (Mr. A. R. Dickinson) Saturday forenoon.

Dist. No. Three: Haven school (Mr. R. H. Perkins, Misses Eliza M. Marshall, Frances N. Shackford, Irene O. Clark, Emma F. Johnson, Annie E. Smart and Mary E. Prescott) Tuesday forenoon at eight o'clock; Manning school (Misses Lucy Rand and Katie Green) nine o'clock A. M., Wednesday.

Parents of pupils, and citizens generally who are interested in the common schools, are invited to witness the examinations.

P. M. L. A.

The Portsmouth Mercantile Library Association held its annual meeting Friday evening, and elected the following officers:

President, William H. Sise;
Vice President, William A. Hodgdon;
Secretary, Albert H. Sides;
Treasurer and Librarian, Wm. C. Robinson;
Directors, Charles A. Hazlett, Floron Barri, Thomas H. Odion, Frank L. Pryor, Charles H. Marston, William G. Billings; Trustee (three years,) Thomas E. O. Marvin.

The meeting adjourned to next Friday evening, when they will consider the matter of celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary. Five new members joined the Association. A number of new books have been added to the large library during the past year.

[Communicated.]

"THE FEARLESS DeCOURCEY."

"Com.," in his communication on the subject of the poem, read with such fine expression by Miss Spalding at Music Hall one evening recently, is enthusiastic over what he confidently states as a bit of history. Now we are not among those who delight in spoiling a good story, and the poem relating the heroism of the noble DeCourcey contains a fine sentiment,—but is it history? We have carefully read those parts of history where this presumed affair should have occurred, but find not the slightest reference to it in either Hume or Hollinshed; and in all the biographical dictionaries into which we have peered, we find no mention of what we would fain designate this pretty gem of romance. "A thing of beauty is a joy forever," but a tale that has no especial chronology, has no more place in history than the adventures of "Jack the Giant Killer;" and if "Com." can give his references, for anything as regards the facts of this tale as occurring at any time from the accession of Henry II. to the death of King John, we will feel ourselves under due obligation.

CLIO.

"Lord Kinsale is the only peer who can remain in the presence of the British Sovereign with his head covered on occasions of state. The privilege was conferred by King John in the thirteenth century, upon his ancestor, Sir John De Courcey, Earl of Ulster, and to descend to his posterity through all generations."

It will be seen by the above paragraph from a late English journal, who it is of the De Courcey race, referred to in the fine poem recited by Miss Spalding at Mrs. Bartlett's recent entertainment, that, at the present day,

"When every other head is unbonneted,
May walk in cap and plume" in the presence of the British Sovereign.

THE VICINITY.

The parishioners of the Christian Baptist church at Kittery voted on Saturday evening to dismiss their pastor, Rev. S. A. Hutchinson. We have been informed that the reason for Mr. Hutchinson's dismissal is that he uses tobacco, but we guess that is all smoke.

Foster, of the Dover Democrat, prints an account of Montgomery Blair's scheme to make Tilden President, and comments as follows: "This man Blair is a confounded old ass. He is no democrat nor never was. He's a humbug and a fraud, and if he don't get down and out, he ought to be knocked down and out."

The section men and those employed in the rail shop on the Eastern Railroad at Kennebunk Depot, have been cut down to $1.20 per day. Trafton Hatch of Wells, formerly road master of the Eastern Railroad, has resigned that position after holding it for twenty-two years. He has been in that road's employ for thirty-two years.

The little screw steamer built at Dover by Messrs. Smart & Trefethen was successfully launched on Saturday, some fifteen hundred people being present. The vessel is fifty-two feet long over all, and nineteen feet beam. She has been named in honor of an old resident of Dover, James Sampson, and will be at once fitted for pleasure parties, light towing, etc. She is said to be a very handsome and well built vessel.

The Biddeford Times has the premonitory symptoms of a severe attack of greenbackism. It says: "The greenback party in this city is not dead, only sleeping. We understand they are soon to have a meeting to reorganize for the coming campaign. Indications now point to the rapid ascendency of the principles of this party, and the only question appears to be will they maintain a separate organization or will the ends they aim at be reached through the other parties."

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaure, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cure-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,

here is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D. It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & CO., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and children of them incline it to shed prematurely.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.

It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.

It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "douts," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "snifflers," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. Discharges grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 108 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hacking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way possible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over eight months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood, and strengthen my system. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. Any experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

A CLOUD OF WITNESSES,

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.

Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, such as Tetter, King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequalled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint," and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

When the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy foreboding, irregular appetite, and costive habit, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are observed. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and addicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who's substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S

VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

CATARRH

A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER,—Sirs: I have practiced medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the nasal passages, fauces and larynx. I have used everything in the materia medica without any permanent relief, until finally I was induced to try a patent medicine (something that we allopathists do very little to do), tried ——— and divers others until I got hold of yours. I followed the directions to the letter, and am happy to say have had a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully,
D. W. GRAY, M. D.,
Of Dr. D. W. Gray & Son., Physicians and Druggists, Muscatine, Iowa.

MUSCATINE, IOWA, March 27, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in the cure of those

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes which in many cases accompany a severe case of Catarrh. The inflamed and diseased condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these troubles; and until the source has been brought properly under the influence of the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from them cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was placed before the public, but in that short time it has found its way from Maine to California, and is everywhere acknowledged by druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh that is compounded. The fact will be deemed of more importance when it is coupled with the statement that within five years over 250 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day, with one or two exceptions, their names cannot be recalled by the best-informed druggist. Advertising may succeed in forcing a few sales, but, unless the remedy possess undoubted specific medical properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.00. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

BLUE ARMY BLOUSES.

WE have just received a few more of those BLUE ARMY BLOUSES, which have been in such demand for the last twelve months.

C. E. MYERS & CO.,
No. 3 BOW STREET.

Daily Chronicle.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 5th.

In his several skirmishes with the members of the banking and currency committee recently, Sec. Sherman has left the impression that he pretty thoroughly understands the part assigned him in the management of our finances. The most incorrigible silver extremists, the most rampant inflationists, the most ultra advocates of the single gold standard, and the most bitter partisans of that committee, so far as yet heard from, admit him to have shown himself the possessor of wonderful resources by his prompt and effective responses to the catechisers. The line followed by the Secretary in elucidating his methods for reaching resumption at the time designated by law, was about the same as that adhered to before the Senate finance committee a few days ago. He expressed himself as confident that if Congress would provide a reserve of $50,000,000, we could, beyond a doubt, resume specie payments January 1st, 1879, with the coin on hand in the treasury and national banks. The general effect of this interchange of views between the Secretary and financial committees of Congress seems to have been to enhance confidence in the present administration of our Treasury Department.

The passage of Blair's resolution looking to Mr. Hayes' involuntary retirement from the White House, and filling his place by Mr. Tilden, causes not even a ripple of excitement, so far as can be seen here. Certainly many local occurrences during the session have had a far greater sensational effect in political circles. It is reported of Maryland's attorney-general that he anticipates no immediate call for his services to push the proceedings authorized by the legislature. He says that first of all Congress must pass a law before proceedings can be instituted; then, should the President refuse his assent, the two-thirds vote required to pass it over a veto is not at all assured; and the doubt implied seems generally shared among all shades of political preference here, and to be amply justified by the circumstances.

The right assumed by heads of bureaus of the several executive departments here to debar attorneys from practicing before them, was liable to great abuse, and has no doubt often been exercised in an oppressive way to gratify personal piques and prejudices. A bill recently introduced into the Senate prohibits such suspension, until the cause shall have been fully heard before the attorney-general according to the usual rules of law and judicial proceedings. According to the terms of the bill the offending bureau head will be subject to a fine of not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000, and imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term ranging from six months to two years. All attorneys heretofore suspended without due trial and opportunity for defense, are restored.

There was a private meeting of the "old guard," including members of the old Congressional Republican Committee and of the present Republican Executive Committee, Thursday evening, at the office of Mr. Gorham, Secretary of the Senate, General Logan presiding. The object is stated to have been a thorough reorganization in view of the coming Congressional elections, and it is asserted that in the free interchange of opinions many of the President's appointments came in for severe comment.

Jay Gould's efforts, as leader of the lobby, to intimidate and bull-doze the Senate, is reacting, evidently, in such a way as to emancipate that body from the corrupt influences surrounding it, to an extent that would not have been likely had he and his aids been a little more circumspect. KNOX.

Democratic Reform.

The Boston Post, in announcing the dismissal of the democratic doorkeeper, Polk, commented as follows:

The democratic House has done what a republican House never did do and never would have done, by the adoption of the resolution declaring the position of doorkeeper vacant, thereby dismissing Mr. Polk.

And the Portsmouth Times had the following to say on the same subject:

Mr. Polk was not corrupt or dishonest, but was simply doing what his republican predecessors have always done,—using the patronage of his office for the benefit of his friends. His removal is in the interest of reform, which the democrats practice as well as preach.

The removal of Col. Polk was no doubt "in the interest of reform," and it was done by "the democratic House," too; and yet the democratic bragging about it, as being a proof that the democrats "practice what they preach," seems rather funny. The vote in the House on Polk's removal stood one hundred and thirty-nine to eighty; and of the votes to remove him nearly one hundred, or about three-fourths, were given by republicans, while of the eighty votes to retain him in office all but about half a dozen were given "in the interest of reform" by the democrats. In other words, the republicans voted to remove Polk (which the Times acknowledges was "in the interest of reform,") more than ten to one; while the reform democracy voted two to one for his retention.

In opposition to the Times and the Boston Post, which would have us believe that the dismissal of Polk "in the interest of reform" was due to the fact that the democrats "practice what they preach," we have the statement of the Washington Post, the democratic organ at the Capital, as follows:

The dismissal of the doorkeeper may be summed up as a triumph of the radical minority over the democratic majority.

We leave further comment on the triumph of democratic "reform," as exemplified in Polk's removal, to the democratic press.

The New Doorkeeper.

The "democratic House" on Monday, after a whole day spent in electioneering and the delivery of buncombe speeches, elected as doorkeeper Charles W. Field of Georgia, formerly a captain in the United States regular army, since the close of the rebellion an officer of the Egyptian army, and for two months past a citizen of the United States, his chivalry not having permitted him to ask for the removal of his disabilities until about two months ago. The vote stood: for Field, 123—all cast by democrats; for James Shields, a Union democrat who fought under the stars and stripes in two wars, 101—all cast by republicans with one exception, Springer of Illinois voting for Shields; for John H. Trent of Tennessee, a democrat who fought three years for the Union, eight. Field, it is said, has been no more true to his party of late than to his country formerly, for it is asserted that he has been for some time an applicant for office at the hands of President Hayes, the place he asked for being reported as Consul General to Cairo. All things considered, this is the most complete case that could be devised of the democracy in the House going solidly against a Union soldier of their own party, and for a confederate.

After Field was declared elected an ex-rebel brigadier attempted to "take the cuss off" the proceedings by introducing a resolution authorizing the President to appoint Gen. Shields a brigadier-general on the retired list, which passed by a vote of 226 to six. This resolution is the merest clap-trap. It is a resolution that cannot pass the Senate, as the retired list is one made up of officers of the regular army. It is contrary to precedent and law to appoint a volunteer to a place in this list. So the democratic resolution, for which so many republicans voted without reflection, is a very cheap affair, and entirely inadequate to the hiding of the fact that a Union democrat soldier was deliberately set aside and a confederate chosen.

Naval Affairs.

U. S. S Enterprise arrived at Norfolk, Va., Tuesday afternoon.

Lieut. Chas. M. Anthony on Friday passed examination for promotion.

News and Notes.

As there is no treaty of commerce between France and the United States, a commission for the purpose of stipulating a basis upon which such a treaty should be drawn has been formed at Paris, and an appeal is made to this country to organize a similar commission.

The unfortunate young woman who was fatally shot on the Pawtucket (R. I.) Opera House stage, in the foolishly reckless attempt of another actress to shoot an apple off her head, was Miss Lottie Malloy. She was twenty-three years old. Of her family and friends only her sister knew that she was a trapeze performer on the stage. As soon as Miss Volante (Miss Malloy's stage name) died, Mrs. Franklin, who fired the fatal shot, went into hysterics, and required medical attendance. She had been borne up since the accident by the hope that she might survive, but when she breathed her last her grief was inexpressible.

The dam of the Rice pond reservoir, in Ashburnham, Mass., has developed a leak which causes serious apprehensions on the part of the people of Fitchburg. The dam is two hundred feet long and twenty feet high, and the reservoir covers about one hundred acres. A former dam in the same place went off in May, 1850, and caused immense damage in the business portion of Fitchburg.

St. Nicholas promises an exceptional list of poetry for its coming May number. Lucy Larcom will have a new and beautiful poem, entitled, "The Sing-away Bird;" Celia Thaxter will contribute some fine verses; and a spring song by the little ten-year-old poetess, Dora Read Goodale,—whose verses in the December St. Nicholas attracted so much attention,—will also appear. And, besides these, the editors announce two humorous poems, with comic illustrations by Church and Hopkins.

Phebe Atkinson, of Andover, Mass., the aged lady who was suspected of murdering her sister, Miss Annie Jones, has been exonerated by the coroner's jury.

The crew of Life-saving Station No. Six, at Provincetown, Mass., discovered a dead finback whale, sixty feet long, off shore Sunday, beached it and stripped off the bluffer, and carried it into Provincetown to have the oil tried out at a rendering works.

Leo XIII has had a stormy time with his Swiss Guards, from whom he withheld the gratuity of three months' pay, usually given by a newly-elected Pope. Had not Lieutenant Mayer escaped down a staircase, the mutineers would have killed him; three of them barricaded themselves in a room and threatened to shoot any one who entered; the Pontifical gendarmes, who hate the Swiss, wanted to restore order, and there was a pretty quarrel till the Pope gave the thirty-five rebels twenty francs apiece and packed them off home. The forty who remain are elderly men, who don't care to forfeit the pensions to which they will soon be entitled.

The first of Dr. Thomas M. Brewer's papers on "Bird Architecture" will appear in Scribner for May. It will be devoted to the bower birds, and to the garden cabin-building birds of New Guinea. The latter is only known in America through the account in Italian of Dr. Beccari, who discovered it; and the wonderful construction of the cabin has excited the incredulity of many ornithologists. The second paper will be on weaver-birds, in the June number. The engravings are by Henry Marsh.

Allen Craft, the worst man of all the "Moon-shiners" in Kentucky, was captured Monday in Morgan county. He has defied the United States Marshals for years.

Two merchants in Missouri have been arrested by Secret Service officers for issuing advertisements in the form of National Bank notes. Every person issuing any paper in the semblance of the United States or National Bank note currency is liable under the laws to be prosecuted and to pay a fine of $100 for every bill issued. This law does not seem to be understood at all in the West and South, where merchants are constantly getting out advertisements of the kind. Much of the paper issued in this form has very little resemblance to bona-fide currency, but some of it is so well executed that persons who do not handle much money can be easily deceived by it.

New Hampshire Items.

The Cheshire Republican, at Keene, has been purchased by J. D. Colony & Sons for $10,000.

William Baker, son of the late ex-Gov. Baker of Concord, has been acquitted of the charge of murder at the recent trial for his life in Wyoming Territory.

Mrs. John S. Wadleigh of Laconia was at the recent election unanimously chosen Superintending School Committee, a position which she has filled the past two years. In Salisbury Miss Drusilla Blaisdell has been chosen Superintendent of Schools.

A. H. Lowell of Manchester has been awarded the contract for the iron work of the new State Prison. His bid was $10,841. It is reported unofficially that the bid of $36,216 for the wood work, made by Mead & Mason of Concord, has been accepted, while it is said that the brick work goes to Boston parties. The ground will soon be broken, and it is expected that the new penitentiary will be ready for occupancy in June, 1880.

Political.

The project of the defeated democratic candidate for governor of Rhode Island to dispute Gen. Van Zandt's election on the score that he is not a legal voter, it seems exists only in the fertile brain of a Post reporter. Mr. Van Zandt has been a voter for years on his own property; he has never voted on his wife's estate and has no interest in it, and if he had he married his wife before the time at which the present election law of Rhode Island took effect.

It is stated that the President has a letter from Gov. Hampton proposing that if the federal government will nolle prosequi all cases against citizens of South Carolina under the civil rights and reconstruction laws, that the State will dismiss all political cases, except against Patterson and Kempton. This looks mightily as if all the democratic prosecutions were part of a "put up job" to shield the democratic assassins and night-riders from punishment, and not in any way intended for the "purification of politics," or anything else. Ex-Senator Cardozo was released from prison upon giving bail in $8000 for trial in July. There are now no political prisoners in jail in South Carolina.

A Connecticut paper says "when you number the men who are mad because they didn't get the Presidency, and the men who are still trying to get it, you have almost a complete list of President Hayes' enemies in the Senate." This reminds us of a story of John P. Hale. In the early days of republicanism in Massachusetts, Joel Parker, who lived at Cambridge, felt called upon to deliver before his fellow citizens a tedious speech upon the folly of the new party's existence, and Mr. Hale was invited to reply to the Ex-Chief Justice of New Hampshire, at the same place. At the appointed time, Hale mounted the rostrum, took a copy of Judge Parker's speech, and read the first lines thus: "Mr. President, I have never held an office under the National administration." "That's what's the matter with him," said the New Hampshire Senator, and he proceeded to make one of his telling speeches without further reference to the Royall Professor of the Cambridge Law School, or any of his fossil theories.

THE CITY.

Proposed pastimes for Fast Day: Target shooting by the Heavy Artillery; practice and skirmish drill by Company F; base ball match at the Plains.

Services at the North church on Fast Day at 10:30 o'clock A. M. Sermon by Rev. James W. Hubbell, upon "Righteousness the stability of a nation."

On Fast Day evening, at Music Hall, Stetson's "Folly Company," from the Globe Theatre and Howard Atheneum, Boston, will present the "Babes in the Wood; or, Who Killed Cock Robin?" Miss Nellie Larkelle, Miss Jennie Winston, Gus Williams, Harry Bloodgood and other popular favorites will take part. Seats at Preston's, at popular prices.

It is seldom indeed that representatives of four such organizations as the Adelaide Phillips Concert Company, the Mendelssohn Quartette Club, the Apollo Club and the Pierian Sodality are united on one programme, anywhere but in the very largest cities. Such however is the feast of music which is offered to our citizens in Mrs. Rockwood's Easter Concert.

Of all the methods open to the merchant for advertising his business, an experience of nearly half a century enables us to unhesitatingly declare in favor of the newspaper. It is, without exception, the most economical, persistent, painstaking and successful canvasser any business firm can secure for the purpose of bringing their goods to the attention of the consumer.—Lord & Taylor, of New York.

For unfortunate management and impudent coolness in the manner in which they "square up" their bills, commend us to John Murray's Metropolitan Theatre Company. They have apparently been through bankruptcy so many times that use has become second nature. Murray is a first-rate actor in his specialty, but somehow he never gets a good house in Portsmouth. Hence the trouble about his bills.

The Berger Family, with McKee the great humorist, and Jeppe and Fanny Delano, give their entertainment at Music Hall this evening. The troupe always gives a superior performance, with a good deal of really refined jollity and fun. Anna Teresa Berger's cornet and Etta Morgan's saxophone make rich music, McKee is said to be as good as (but different from) Sol Smith Russell, and the Delano sisters are "immense" in their "refined society sketches." See advt.

BURGLARIES.

A number of places in this city were burglarized Monday night. James Mahoney's saloon on Fleet street seems to have been the first place visited, the thieves forcing open the door (which was secured only by a hook at the top) with a lever. The proprietor of the saloon misses nothing, but supposes the thieves helped themselves to ale.

Peyret's wine and liquor store on Congress street was entered through a rear window, which was pried up so as to break the catch. Here the raiders got eight dollars in money and several bottles of liquor, the whole amounting to about $25. They drank several bottles of wine, had a feast of pickles, crackers and cheese, and ended off with a smoke.

At Howard Newman's saloon on Vaughan street the front door was forced in, and one bottle of liquor and about five dollars in money taken.

At the bakery of Mr. George W. Plummer, on Congress street, the door was forced open, striking the call bell, which alarmed the thieves and gave notice to the proprietor of early visitors. Mr. Plummer found the door open, but no customers waiting. This was about four o'clock Tuesday morning.

Mr. George Wallace's bakery on Summer street was also visited, and divested of pies and cakes. There seems to have been a good deal of the "lark" style in this burglarizing—but the thieves would not find it much of a lark should they get caught.

THE CITY VALUATION.

The Board of Assessors announce to the citizens that they must render "a just and true account of their polls and estates ratable by law, on or before the fifteenth day of April" instant. How would it do for the Board of Assessors, by way of a change, to make the "account of polls and estates ratable by law" a "just and true" one, just for once, by assessing all property as near its actual value as possible?

Year after year the assessed valuation of the city is put far below its actual valuation, with no other result, that we can find out, than to make the rate of taxation apparently far higher here than in any other city in the State. In 1876 the amount of tax per $1000 of assessed valuation in the following-named cities was: Keene, $10; Concord, $12.50; Dover, $14; Nashua, $15; Portsmouth, $20. In 1876, the rate was as follows: Keene, $10.71; Concord, $14.50; Dover, $15; Nashua $15; Manchester, $15.80; Portsmouth, $20.90.

What advantage there is in having the rate of taxation appear so high we cannot see; and that the difference between the rate in this city and the others mentioned is more apparent than real, was shown by the action of the apportionment committee of the Legislature of 1876, when Keene's assessed valuation was reduced $500,000, Nashua's $730,000, Concord's $1,000,000, and Dover's $1,220,000, while Manchester got off with an increase of only $500,000, and Portsmouth was doomed to the tune of a million and a half!

The only valid reason that we ever heard for undervaluing the city, was that thereby the city might be able to evade the payment of a portion of its just State tax. Setting aside all questions as to the honesty and morality of thus attempting by fraud (for it is nothing less) to avoid bearing a just share of the burdens of the State, a very strong argument against the plan is that it don't work. The last equalization committee, satisfied that Portsmouth's assessed valuation was far too low, promptly added to it $1,500,000; and future committees will do the same, so long as they are satisfied that the local valuation is a swindle on the rest of the State.

We respectfully suggest to the Board of Assessors that this year would be a good time to try the experiment of assessing the city at something near its fair value; it will not cost any property owner one cent more to pay his share of the city bills, and will materially reduce the rate of taxation, which is now so high as to be likely to scare away from the city any one who does not know that the former valuations have all been fraudulent, and that the real rate of taxation is not so much higher than in other cities, where the valuation is nearer the truth. Try it, gentlemen.

"THE FEARLESS DeCOURCEY."

Editor Chronicle:—The interesting incident on which the above poem is founded, is given in Burke's Peerage and Baronetage of the British Empire, among the many rare books to be found in the Athenæum Library. The fact that Lord Kinsale is the present inheritor of the privilege of standing covered in the presence of his Sovereign given to his ancestor so long ago by King John, (as appears by my communication of yesterday,) would seem to prove the truth of the romantic passage in the family history, apart from the mention Burke makes of it. COM.

BULL-DOZING THE PRESS.

On Thusday morning the CHRONICLE contained the following item:

On Saturday evening, between seven and eight o'clock, as Mr. John W. Sewell was carrying in his cart to one of Mr. Arthur Doane's schooners a man employed on the vessel, with his luggage, on turning the bend in Water street, near Newcastle street, one of the wheels of the cart went into a gutter, throwing both men out and severely injuring them. They were taken into one of the neighboring houses in an unconscious state, and kindly cared for. Mr. Sewell's injuries were on one side of the face and knee; the other man had his face bruised and scratched, and one of the shoulders badly lamed. Those who have to travel at the south part of Water street complain of its bad condition, and say that it needs constant looking after.

In the confiding innocence of our heart we imagined our report of the accident about the correct thing, consequently it was like a whole thunder-storm out of a clear sky when we learned the attention of the City Councils had been called to our conduct by the following communication, sent in to the Board of Mayor and Aldermen on Thursday evening:

This is to certify that the CHRONICLE'S report of the accident which happened to Mr. J. W. Sewall is somewhat incorrect. Mr. Sewall was transporting in his team the outfits of six or seven men and the captain of schooner Light of Home, sailing for Messrs. V. Doane, Jr., & Co. The man's name who was riding with Mr. Sewall was Noah Morton. We know the above facts, as the outfits with the exception of the boots, were purchased of us. C. E. MYERS & Co., per OWEN.

This open movement to establish an official censorship—to overthrow the liberty of the press—should thrill the heart of the American people with indignation. Our offence in mis-spelling one or two proper names and mis-stating the quantity of "dunnage" in the cart when it was capsized, sinks into insignificance when compared with this evident attempt to induce the Board of Mayor and Aldermen to appoint a committee for the purpose of editing the editor of the CHRONICLE. True, the Aldermen have not yet appointed a committee of censorship; but we cannot tell what may happen, if this assault upon the liberty of the press is not sternly frowned down by the people of our great and glorious country, which calls ninety cents a dollar. The freemen of the Union may rest assured that we shall not tamely submit to the usurper; their liberties are safe in our hands, and there can never be a better time than now to subscribe for the GAZETTE, subscription price $1.50 per annum, invariably in advance. Should the domineering aristocrats of the Board of Aldermen send out against us a committee of censorship, we are prepared for them; we have engaged a book agent to do the skirmishing in the lower entry-way, and have persuaded "Grandsir's" famous yellow bulldog "Joe" to domesticate himself in the waste-basket; and thus fortified we are ready to uphold the ægis of liberty until it gets all stove to pieces.

SUPREME COURT.

The Supreme Court opened at Exeter, Tuesday, Hon Isaac W. Smith presiding.

Prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Street of the Second Congregational church in Exeter.

Judge Smith briefly charged the Grand Jury, omitting the greater part of what he had prepared.

Hon Chas. H. Bell was sworn in as acting County Solicitor, to fill a vacancy caused by the death of the late William B. Small.

The equity docket, containing sixty-five cases, was called, and the civil docket also was gone over.

The Grand Jurors were sworn, the list being as follows: Samuel A. Haley of Newmarket, foreman; Enoch Watson, Auburn; Joseph N. Rowe, Brentwood; Henry M. Eaton, Candia; J. Albert Hook, Chester; Leonard W. Collins, Danville; Joseph C. Dearborn, Deerfield; James Priest, Derry; Nathan B. Tilton, East Kingston; Charles Rundlett, Epping; John E. Gardner, Exeter; Geo. L. Sanborn, Freemont; Horace N. Norton, Greenland; Chas. W. Pressy, Hampstead; John H. Fogg, Hampton; John N. Sanborn, Hampton Falls; Saml. C. Marshall, Kingston; Andrew J. Benson, Londonderry; Chas. E. Simpson, Newcastle; Cyrus Frink, Newington; Peter S. Whittier, Newton.

At one o'clock Hon. Wm. W. Stickney announced the death of Wm. B. Small, and suggested the adjournment of the Court in respect to the memory of the deceased. The Court took a recess until Friday, when the Grand Jury are expected to report.

The Bar held a meeting after the recess, when the following resolutions were offered by Hon. W. H. Y. Hackett:

Resolved, That the Bar, as a token of their respect for the memory of Mr. Small and of their sympathy with his family, will attend his funeral on Thursday.

Resolved, That a committee of three, to be nominated by the chair, be now appointed to consider and report at an adjournment of this meeting what order it is proper for the Bar to take in reference to the death of their deceased Brother.

The chair appointed W. H. Y. Hackett, Gilman Marston and John S. H. Frink a committee.

The Petit Jurors for the second and third weeks are:

Moses F. Emerson, Benj. Taylor, Candia; Elbridge F. Gerrish, Rufus Baker, Deerfield; James A. Page, Nathan B. Prescott, Derry; Daniel True, Wm. H. Hodgdon, Epping; James D. P. Wingate, Newell S. Tilton, Exeter; Jona. Savory, Benj. F. Garvin, Londonderry; Joseph Pinkham, Wm. M. Robinson, Newmarket; Jerome C. Butler, Portsmouth, (ward three;) Lowell Brown, Jr., Albert J. Sanborn, Seabrook; Chas E. Thurston, J. Frank Bunker, South Newmarket; Samuel C. Dixon, Aaron M. Sanderson, Stratham; Isaac Richardson, James Emerson, Windham.

THE VICINITY.

The Baptist meeting house in Hampton, near the Union House, is to be removed back from its present site forty-five feet.

School District No. Five, in South Berwick, raised this year $1000 to repair the district school-house, and $700 to help wipe out a debt of $1950 on the building.

About five o'clock Sunday morning the barn of Ansel Boothby, in Kennebunk, took fire and was burned to the ground, together with farming tools, hay, etc. The loss is estimated at $500; insured $300.

During the past six months Deputy Sheriffs Durgin, Hanson and Grant, of York county, Me., have made forty-five liquor seizures in Biddeford and Saco, and captured six hundred and thirty-six gallons of liquor. Their action has resulted in breaking up several of the worst dens in the two cities, and driving the keepers thereof to more congenial fields of operation.

The First Congregational Parish, Saco, after various experiences, in the last twenty years, of annual subscriptions and annual deficiencies, some years $500 or more, adopted Jan. 1st, this year, at the urgent request of the present pastor, Rev. John T. Blades, the envelope system of weekly offering, and the result for the first quarter, ending March 31st, is, they have paid all the running expenses during that time and placed a small balance to the reduction of the debt.

Dr. E. P. Cummings, a homœopathic physician at Newburyport, Mass., died Monday, aged fifty-two years. He was the son of Rev. Jacob Cummings, and was born in Stratham. During the rebellion he was assistant surgeon on the ship Roanoke, and then in the twenty-third Massachusetts infantry. Rev. Daniel Wiggin, formerly of Stratham, died March 31st, at Manston, Wis., aged seventy-six years. His wife died eleven days previous.

Lieut. Frederick Hazlewood, of Epping, whose death was last week announced, was a native of Boston, and was about forty years of age. He served through the entire war in a Massachusetts cavalry regiment, entering the military service as private and being promoted to be a lieutenant. At the close of the war he married a lady of Epping, and subsequently resided in that town. The funeral occurred on Thursday last at the Congregational church at Epping, and was largely attended. He was a member of Sullivan Lodge of Epping and of St. Albans Chapter of Exeter, and was buried with impressive Masonic ceremonies. The deceased was chosen town clerk at the recent election.

Suspected Murder.

On Tuesday morning, at Biddeford, the dead body of an unknown woman was found on the river bank two miles below the city, by Ben. Colbrith, a fisherman, who sent word to the City Marshal, who had the body taken to the police station. The body is that of a woman apparently thirts years old, weight probably 175 lbs., dark complexion, long curly black hair, and five feet four inches tall. Around one ankle was a rope seven feet long, securely tied. The body had evidently not been in the water over twenty-four hours, and several physicians say not over twelve. When found, the only clothing on it was a tight-fitting waist, night-dress, drawers and stockings. There wore no external bruises save appearances of finger marks on the throat. The general impression is that the woman was strangled, put into the river and towed down the stream during the night by some persons dragging it by a rope tied to the foot.

A Woman's Opinion of Cremation.

"Don't tell me nothing of the kind," said she vigorously to her husband, who was reading the account of a recent cremation service to her: "It is only a vile device for getting an unfortunate wife away secretly to a lonely spot and killing her, and burning up the remains so that her husband can frisk off and marry some one else, and no one never know nothing about the murder. I know all about it; besides, 'tisn't possible to get a furnace as hot as they say it was." "But, my love," said her husband, "here it is in the paper, that the furnace was heated to a heat of 1,400 degrees." "Fourteen hundred idiots," said she contemptuously; "and any child with a nose—I mean with an eye on its face—could have told you by just looking at the thermometer that it can't be any hotter than 212 degrees!" —Chicago Tribune.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonders of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cure-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 Dey St., New York.

Mothers,

Here is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Saml Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness and even life is saved by its early and timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
O ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of these influences it to shed prematurely.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately, often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray.

It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus healthy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that manifests itself in perpetuating the species upon the principle governs the commercial prosperity of man! An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By the same or superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (more dollar-grabbers) would not go and say I could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 25 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," would all fail, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen hours of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than ten minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,
S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers and Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel debilitated, languid, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from torpid liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound, of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who a substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucborrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, Itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

CATARRH

A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER,—Sirs: I have practised medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the nasal passages, fauces and larynx. I have used everything in the materia medica without any permanent relief, until finally I was induced to try a patent medicine (something that we allopathics are very loth to do) I tried——and divers others until I got hold of yours. I followed the directions to the letter, and it gives me joy to say have had a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully,

D. W. GRAY, M. D.,

Of Dr. D. W. Gray & Son., Physicians and Druggists, Muscatine, Iowa.

MUSCATINE, IOWA, March 27, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in the cure of those

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes, which in many cases accompany a severe case of Catarrh. The inflamed and diseased condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these troubles; and until the system has been brought properly under the influence of the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from them cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was placed before the public, but in that short time it has found its way from Maine to California, and is everywhere acknowledged by druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh ever compounded. The fact will be deemed of more importance when it is coupled with the statement that within five years over 250 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day, with one or two exceptions, their names cannot be recalled by the best-informed druggist. Advertising may succeed in forcing a few sales, but, unless the remedy possess undoubted specific medical properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.00. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

THE COCK AND THE SUN.

A cock sees the sun as he climbs up the east;
"Good morning, Sir Sun, it's high time you appear;
I've been calling you up for an hour at least;
I'm ashamed of your slowness at this time of year!"

The sun, as he quietly rose into view,
Looked down on the cock with a show of fine scorn;
"You may not be aware, my young friend, but it's true,
That I rose once or twice before you, sir, were born!"

—St. Nicholas.

A High-Toned Tramp.

Three or four days ago a gentleman passing up Griswold street was hailed by a very courteous, but very hard up tramp, who said:

"Will you give me money enough to purchase a dish of fried oysters?"

"Fried oysters! Great lands! But you are mighty particular for a penniless man!" exclaimed the pedestrian.

"So I am—so I am! I was brought up that way, sir. I'm out of money, hungry as a wolf, and want fried oysters and their appropriate surroundings."

He didn't get them. Next day he was encountered on the post-office steps, looking more hungry than the day before, and the gentleman inquired:

"Have you concluded to come down to beef and potatoes yet?"

"No, sir; I still stick for fried oysters," was the reply.

At dark that night the high-toned tramp encountered the same man in a grocery on Woodward avenue, and without waiting to be questioned he began:

"I still call for fried oysters."

"And you haven't got em?"

"No, sir."

"And you are about as near starved as you want to be?

"Nearer, sir. In fact, I am about to die! I was born a gentleman. I'm naturally high-toned, and I want to die decently. We will skip over the subject of fried oysters and I will ask you to lend me a pair of red woolen mittens and a cigar-holder, to aid my corpse in a making a decent appearance before the coroner and reporters!"

The crowd contributed thirty cents to buy him the fried oysters.—Detroit Free Press.

The Old Man Circumnavigated.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says a novel wedding was solemnized in the county clerk's office at Rushville, Ohio, on the afternoon of March 25th. "Charles Harak, a wealthy farmer living near Ging's station, and whose locks have withstood the assaults of seventy winters, wood and (as he supposed) won the heart and hand of Miss Mary J. Morris, a neighboring lady, whose golden tresses have been fanned by the gentle breezes of eighteen summers. He proposed, was accepted, and yesterday morning the wings of love wafted him into the clerk's office, where he obtained the necessary license. He started home with a light heart and smiling countenance. But alas! During his absence one of his sons visited the fickle maiden, and so vigorously besieged the citadel of her affections, that she surrendered, jumped into a vehicle with him, drove to town by a circuitous route, and their hearts were beating in unison as husband and wife before the old man reached home. A large crowd witnessed the ceremony. It is said that the old gentleman, when he discovered the true state of affairs, opened his mouth and blasphemed."

Mme. Restell's Jewelry.

Among the property bequeathed by Mme. Restell to her heirs are the following-named articles of jewelry: One diamond necklace, one diamond bracelet, one pair diamond ear-rings, one diamond breastpin, twelve diamond finger-rings, one diamond bonnet-pin, one rich and old bracelet with opal and diamond settings, one necklace consisting of three strings of pearls and diamond clasp, one necklace of five strings of pearls and diamond clasp, one all pearl necklace, one pearl breastpin, one pearl bracelet, one pair of pearl ear-rings, one pearl ring, also an opal rich ring set in thirteen diamonds. The sensational stories about the woman's escape from justice are, of course, exploded by the action taken upon the will by the heirs. The estate is valued at $600,000.

—One of the latest whims in pottery adopts the tiny, homely little jugs of brown earthen-ware sold in fancy shops or a quarter. They are fac-similes of the jug classic in song, about two inches high, with the inscription "Little Brown Jug" etched on the front, and were originally intended to please children, but the fancy of the moment is to fill them with perfumery and tie a blue temperance bow on the handle for the toilet table.

Another Big Steal.

The Union Mill Co., of Fall River, Mass., has suspended; cause, the stealing of $480,000 by the treasurer, "Hon." S. Angier Chase.

Naval Affairs.

The U. S. S. Adams is at Panama, and is expected to sail early in May for the Samoan islands.

Paymaster Charles F. Guild is ordered to the U. S. S. Alaska.

The Navy Department states that before the sailing of the Wyoming from New York she was examined by a board of officers, and pronounced seaworthy in every respect.

The U. S. S. Enterprise, at Norfolk, commenced to discharge her powder on the 9th, preparatory to going up to the navy yard to have her machinery overhauled in readiness for a cruise up the Mississippi river in May.

A "Loud" Challenge.

Dr. W. F. Carver of Oakland, Cal., issues the following sweeping challenge: "I will wager from $250 to $500 that I can beat any man in the world shooting the following eight matches, or any one of them: First, I can break more glass balls thrown from a Bogardus trap, twenty-five yards rise, than any man in the world; second, I can break 1000 glass balls quicker with a shotgun than any living man; third, I can break more glass balls shooting from a horse's back, the horse to be on the run twenty-one yards from the balls, than any man in the world can break at thirty yards and stand on the ground; fourth, I can break more glass balls with a rifle, the balls to be thrown into the air, than any man in the world can break with a shotgun, and shoot thirty yards, using a Bogardus trap; fifth, I can break 100 glass balls quicker, with a Winchester rifle, than any man in the world can with a shot-gun; sixth, I can break two glass balls thrown into the air at the same time, making a double shot and loading the gun once while the balls are in the air, using a Winchester rifle; seventh, I can make more fancy shots with the rifle than any man in the world; eighth, I will wager $1000 that I can kill more buffalo in one run, shooting from a horse's back, than any man in the world, and, if buffalo are not to be found, will shoot elk, and go in the prairie at any time."

News and Notes.

Some $11,000,000 worth of United States bonds were brought home by the treasury clerks, who returned from London a few days ago, which they were unable to sell. There have been no sales of American bonds in England since the first of March. It is calculated that about $6,000,000 worth of bonds weekly will hereafter be sent to this country from Europe. The passage of the Matthews silver resolution by Congress has practically stopped all sales of the United States bonds in England and Europe.

A young man of Machias, Me., who was in Hong Kong last winter, on the eighteenth day of February folded two sheets of letter paper in the form of a letter, wrote "April Fool," on the one and enclosed it in an envelope, and directed it to a young lady at home. It came safe via. San Francisco, and on the morning of April 1st, the young lady took the letter from the office in Machias. Such marksmanship is not science; it must be chance.

Two masked men late Sunday evening rang the door bell at a house in Bangor. The woman who lived in the house with her children rose from her bed and opened the door. The men then entered and demanded money, telling the woman if she raised the least cry of alarm she would be shot. As it happened there was little or no money in the house, and the men made the woman produce the linen. They finally did up two bundles of clothing and departed. The people are much excited at the boldness of the operation.

The crew of ship P. R. Hazeltine, of Bath, Me., wrecked near Cape Horn, are all safe.

Rev. C. D. Lathrop, formerly of Amhest, Mass., has sued the Springfield Republican for damages of $20,000 for libel. The libel is based on a statement in the Republican of May 17th, 1876, in reference to Lathrop's expulsion from Amherst Congregational church for alleged cruelty to his children, and family abuse.

There are symptoms of unhappiness among the silver advocates because the buzzard dollar fails to circulate. In some sections of the country a specimen of the new coin has not been seen yet, and the populace in those localities are unhappy about it. It does not console them a bit to be told that they would be more unhappy if they were to see one. Secretary Sherman is charged with violating the spirit of the law in hoarding the dollars in the Treasury to aid resumption, since the bill was passed for the express purpose of giving "relief." Yes, but it was also passed to give us an "optional" standard, and that is what Mr. Sherman is doing with it. Anybody can take silver out of the Treasury, as he pleases, by paying gold for it. The trouble isn't with the Secretary, but the "option." The clamor was for Congress to make silver as good as gold, and Congress has done all it could to accomplish that miracle.—Tribune.

James David is exhibiting in New York two large rattlesnakes, one of which —the North Carolina Mountain Queen— has a pair of antlers. This is said to be the only horned snake that has ever been exhibited in America. The snakes were snared by a mountaineer in North Carolina, who said that the horned snake made her appearance yearly, and then returned to a den of over five hundred snakes. All the other snakes seemed to treat the antlered one with the greatest respect, surrounding her like a body guard and watching over her welfare. A very good story.

The police complaint against Mrs. Franklin, who fired the shot that killed Mile. Volante, on the Pawtucket (R. I.) Opera House stage, was discontinued on the 9th inst.

There is excitement in the drug market, owing to the advance in morphia and quinine. There is none to be obtained at any figure, the European governments having purchased the entire stock on hand.

New Hampshire Items.

The Boston Museum Company play the fine old English comedy of the Heir-at-law at Manchester to-night. Stetson's Company give the Babes in the Woods in that city on Friday evening.

The East Swanzey correspondent of the Keene Sentinel says; "Warren Reed narrowly escaped being killed on the 1st inst. by being drawn nearly one-half a mile by a pair of runaway steers, they taking fright as he was hitching them in front of another pair, and the chain-hook hooking around his leg just above his ankle. He was dragged several rods, when he succeeded in grappling the chain with both hands, and in this condition was dragged across the roads, over rocks and logs, through mud-holes, etc., unhurt, except a few slight bruises." That was a high old April fool joke on Warren.

Messrs. Powers, Conn and Pierce, Railroad Commissioners, adjusted the damages on the line of the Peterboro & Hancover Railroad, on the 9th inst. The land owners were represented by counsel from Nashua.

A meeting of the commissioned officers of the companies to compose the Third Regiment, New Hampshire State Militia, was held on the 9th inst. The following persons were selected for regimental officers: Colonel. J. N. Patterson, Concord; Lieutenant-Colonel, True Sanborn, Chichester; Major, Irwin W. Drew, Lancaster.

The subject of a railway from Littleton to the Franconia Mountains is again being agitated. Some years ago a charter was obtained for a railroad from Littleton via Franconia to the Profile House, and a preliminary survey was made. Sylvester Marsh, the builder of the Mt. Washington Railway, says that if the towns of Littleton and Franconia will take stock enough to grade the proposed line he will build a good, substantial road, stock and run it and take bonds or preferred stock for his pay. There is also a project on foot to build a railroad from Bethlehem station to the Profile House.

Although Thomas Wier of Enfield, who shot Caleb Dyer, the Shaker, was recently refused a pardon, his sentence by reason of monthly emissions of time for good conduct will be greatly shortened. He was sent to prison in 1865 for thirty years, but if he continued his good deportment, as he undoubtedly will, his credits will amount to about eight years, which would bring his release in 1887. Wier is now sixty-five years old.

Mrs. Hardy of Marlboro, who it is supposed poisoned her husband, is very religious. She is well cared for in the jail at Keene. She sings hymns. When brought to Keene she sang all the time as she was riding through the streets to the jail. Insanity seems to be hereditary. She will not be arraigned for several days. The negro Hamilton will not be tried at this term. It is doubtful if he ever will be tried.

Gov. Prescott has accepted an invitation to deliver an oration in Concord on Decoration Day, and the city government has made the usual appropriation for its observance.

It is stated that George Fountie of St. Alexandre, Canada, is in possession of evidence undoubtedly proving that LaPage, the lately-executed murderer of Josie Langmaid and Marietta Ball, was also the murderer of Mrs. Fountie, and her daughter, sixteen years old, in October, 1867. They were found dead near St. Alexandre, and mutilated in the same way as the other victims of La Page, who then infested the neighborhood.

A town meeting was held on the 9th inst. in Hopkinton, to ascertain the wishes of the voters in regard to the future disposition of town paupers, in view of the recent destruction of the county buildings. About one quarter of the legal voters were present. The voting was 151 to nine in favor of returning to the town plan of supporting town paupers, and 140 to seven against rebuilding the county poor-house.

By an incendiary fire in Lancaster on the evening of the 9th inst., a large part of the business portion of the town was destroyed. Eight stores and one dwelling were burned; loss about $50,000; insurance about $15,000. The fire was set in a barn by tramps.

Political.

Blair was among the first to advocate Grant for President. He had previously been a Lincoln man, a Johnson man, afterward a Greeleyite, and finally a Tildenite. A democratic Senator says Blair has not been consistent in anything save in his admiration and advocacy of Blair.

The civil suit of James A. Whelan against Major-General Sheridan for the recovery of damages amounting to $439,000, for the destruction of a plantation in Louisiana during the war, has been set for trial before Judge Wallace on the 24th inst.

A Patient Elephant.

"Tell my grandchildren," writes the Bishop of Calcutta, "that an elephant here had a disease in his eyes. For three days he had been completely blind. His owner, an English officer, asked Dr. Webb if he could do anything to relieve the poor animal. The doctor said he would try the nitrate of silver, which was a remedy commonly applied to similar diseases in the human eye. The large animal was ordered to lie down, and at first, on the application of the remedy, raised a most extraordinary roar at the acute pain which it occasioned. The effect, however, was wonderful. The eye was in a manner restored, and the animal could partially see. The next day when he was brought, and heard the doctor's voice, he lay down of himself, placed his enormous head on one side, curled up his trunk, drew in his breath (just like a person to endure an operation,) gave a sigh of relief when it was over, and then by trunk and gesture evidently wished to express his gratitude."

THE CITY.

This being Fast Day, no paper will be issued from this office to-morrow.

Post-office hours to-day: General delivery until twelve o'clock, M., and from five to six o'clock P. M. Box office open all day, as usual.

The opening game of base ball of the season will be played this afternoon at the plains, between the lately reorganized Granite States and the Atlantics.

A little daughter of Mr. T. Frank Stackpole was severely scalded Sunday evening, 7th inst., and died on the night of the 9th from the injuries received.

The United States Senate has agreed to add to the deficiency appropriation bill the following: "For immediate repairs of foundation of Whale's-back Light, and for signal station at Portsmouth, N. H., $15,000."

Fast Day services will be held in the North church at half-past ten o'clock this forenoon. Rev. E. A. Grant will preach at the Unitarian church, Mr. DeNormandie being absent from the city. Services will also be held in the Episcopal church.

Miss Mary Miller has just finished a fine portait in oil of Rev. Mr. DeNormandie, for the Ladies' Home Missionary Society of the Unitarian Parish, which has been added to the collection of pastors in the chapel library, and is pronounced an excellent likeness.—Weekly.

On Saturday night, 6th inst., somebody attempted to get into the house on Brewster street occupied by Mr. John Malsbenden, but the would-be thief made such a noise in trying to snap the spring of a window that he alarmed the inmates of the house, who in turn alarmed the marauder.

There will probably be a large attendance at Music Hall this evening, to find out "Who Killed Cock Robin," as a good many of the tickets were taken early in the week. Stetson's company has given two good shows in the new hall, and the extravaganza that will be presented this evening is said to be full of fun. See advertisement.

BOARD OF INSTRUCTION.

Meeting Wednesday evening. The Mayor in the chair; members present, Mrs. Wilson, Messrs. Sherburne, Pender, Hackett, Gardner, May and Shannon.

Committee upon the subject of school hours for the primary schools, reported in favor of closing these schools at half-past four P. M., in the summer months, and four P. M., in winter. Adopted.

Committee on Regulations reported sundry amendments to the 4th section, which were adopted.

The subject of taking a week from the spring vacation and adding it to the summer vacation was discussed; it was voted that the spring vacation be shortened one week, the spring term to close on the Saturday nearest July 8th, instead of the 15th as heretofore.

Adjourned.

THE BERGERS.

The Berger Family had a small audience, Wednesday evening, but the audience had a good entertainment. The bell ringing and band playing, Miss Anna Teresa Berger's cornet playing and Miss Etta Morgan's saxophone solo, were all excellent; Miss Clara Coleman offered some good banjo exercise; and Mr. McKee, the comic vocalist, and Jeppe and Miss Fanny Delano in their society sketches, were first-rate. The Bergers have always given first-class entertainments here, and this last was as good as the previous ones. There was not a poor number on the programme, and the performance richly deserved a full house; and the efforts of the performers to please were entirely successful, the applause being remarkably liberal for a Portsmouth audience to give—and the applause was well earned, too.

THE PORTSMOUTH, GT. FALLS & CONWAY INTEREST.

In the suit Converse and others, against the Portsmouth, Great Falls & Conway Railroad, the railroad filed an answer in the Supreme Court on Tuesday.

The defendant says that the plaintiffs are not entitled to the relief prayed for, because the bonds referred to in the bill not being negotiable, the complainants can stand no better than the Eastern Railroad Co.; also because the million of bonds were issued and received in good faith, in compromise and settlement of just, legal and mutual claims and demands between the Portsmouth, Gt. Falls & Conway Railroad and the Massachusetts Co., the general balance of which, as the Eastern Railroad claims, was much more than the value of said million of bonds, and the settlement, in absence of alleged fraud, cannot now be re-opened; because the plaintiffs having purchased said bonds knowing that the issue was a million of dollars, and that it was the result of mutual, legal dealings between the parties thereto, and making no inquiry as to the consideration thereof before investing therein, are precluded by their laches from doing so at this late day. They also contend that because the plaintiffs allege in their bill that the tolls, income and proceeds arising from the business of said Portsmouth, Great Falls & Conway Railroad and said Eastern Railroad in New Hampshire are largely in excess of the payments provided for and required by said lease of September 12, 1870, including the interest upon the bonds issued and actually sold as aforesaid, and they therefore fail to show that the application of said large excess to the payment of interest on the bonds remaining unsold would in anyway impair the value of the securities held by them, or that said unsold bonds should for that reason be cancelled.

The case will probably be heard upon the bill and answer at this term.

SUPREME COURT.

In the Supreme Court on Wednesday the Grand Jury proceeded with their investigations. A large number of witnesses were in attendance.

The Jury on Wednesday evening adjourned until Friday at 9:30 A. M., as a mark of respect to the late Hon. Wm. B. Small.

THE VICINITY.

On Tuesday, 9th inst., Greenland voted not to exempt the town bonds from taxation.

A series of revival meetings at the Advent chapel in Rye are being held by Elder Ira Wilcome of North Yarmouth.

Mrs. Lizzie Pickering, of Greenland, had her spine seriously injured by being thrown from a wagon on the evening of the 8th inst.

Mr. George E. Merrill, formerly station agent and telegrapher on the Eastern Railroad at Seabrook, has been appointed to a like position on the Boston & Maine, at Salmon Falls.

Mrs. M. M. Ricker, a lawyer of the District of Columbia, and formerly of Dover, recently won the acquittal of a client charged with murder in the criminal court of Washington.

It is said that Judge Fowler and family will resign the pleasures of a summer stay at their cottage at Little Boar's Head to enjoy a European tour, and the cottage will be rented for the season.

The Dover Democrat of the 9th inst. announces a "real marriage" to take place in Dover City Hall on the evening of April 16th, on the occasion of a benefit to be given to the Woodson-Palmer combination.

The Dover Democrat of the 9th inst. relates that on the forenoon of that day as a party of young people were taking a stroll in a field near Arch street in that city, the report of a gun was heard, "and a bullet or buck-shot grazed the cheek of a daughter of Mr. Geo. F. Morrill and went through the upper portion of the clothing of another young lady whose name was not learned. Who fired the gun and for what purpose, is not known, but it is not presumed that it was done with any malicious intent, but was probably accidental. But it was very dangerous shooting and the party who did it is culpable in not looking out better than that. It came within the narrowest chance in the world of killing Miss Morrill outright."

THE BIDDEFORD MURDER.

The body of the unknown woman found on the banks of Saco river on Tuesday, the 9th inst., as before reported, was identified in the afternoon of that day, and her murderer was arrested in the evening, and confessed the deed. The murderer is a Frenchman named Frederick Savage, (or Savoie,) a married man about thirty-five years old and weighing about two hundred pounds. The victim's name was Rose Vincent, and she belonged in Methuen, Mass.; she has been married, but she and her murderer have been on intimate terms, off and on, for some time. Savage went to Methuen on the Saturday before the murder, and returned with the Vincent woman, who took up her her residence with Savage's sister in Saco. On Monday evening, the 8th inst., at about nine o'clock, Savage appeared on one of the wharves with the woman, the latter being closely veiled; he hired a boat, and the pair went for a sail on the river. When only a few rods from the wharf, Savage (according to his own account) seized the woman by the throat and strangled her; he then pulled down the river, stripped the body of all clothing except the chemise, tied a rope to the woman's leg, dragged her out of the boat upon the rocks, and left her. Making a bundle of the murdered woman's stolen clothing, he returned to Saco and slept at the farm house of R. L. K. Grant, with whom he has been working. In the morning he went to the depot, presented a check and got the woman's trunk, into which he put the bundle; and leaving the trunk at the station, he took the eight o'clock train for Portland. In the afternoon Savage's sister was among the hundreds of people who viewed the body at the police station, and she at once recognized it as that of Rose Vincent. The officers, on learning from the sister what she knew, followed the clue until they discovered the trunk at the depot, in which they found the clothes worn by the Vincent woman on the night of the murder, and also a letter from Savage to her at Methuen, urging her to visit him at Saco. The murderer was found at the farm of Mr. Grant's (his employer's) father, in the evening, and lodged in jail. In his pocket was found Rose Vincent's pocket-book, containing her ear jewels and a finger ring. When asked why he murdered the woman he replied, "Oh, I loved her too much," but would talk no more on the subject.

Rose Vincent came from Stanstead, Canada, to Methuen, several years ago; she has not lived with her husband for some time, and has a large family of children, some of whom are full grown, and has a brother in Methuen.

Savage was arraigned in the Saco police court Wednesday morning, pleaded guilty, and was immediately taken to Alfred jail.

Edison contrived a machine which would, at regular intervals of half an hour, salute the central office without waking him up, if he chose to sleep. He sold them to other operators, and was discovered, and "dismissed the service."

Their Last Smoke.

The remains of four men were found, smothered to death, in a locked cotton car on the Iron Mountain road, Missouri, lately. The bodies when recovered were horribly disfigured and blackened. From letters upon one of them it was learned that he was from some town in Ohio, and had a family. It is supposed that the men crawled in among the cotton to hide themselves and get a free ride; that they began smoking, setting the cotton on fire, and were smothered. The appearance of the bodies when found was something dreadful.

—No living thing can go so slow as a boy going on an errand. Except a boy returning from one.

—Peekskill (N. Y.) boys took a novel way to ascertain how late one of their comrades "sat up" with his sweetheart one night. Fastening a loaded gun to the fence, so that opening the gate would pull the trigger and yet not harm anybody, as the muzzle was turned away from the path, they waited to hear it go off. But the girl's pa happened to be spending the evening out and returned before the lover left, and the result was that the old gentleman, badly scared, thought that some one had tried to assassinate him, and a good joke was spoiled.

—On the evening of the Rosebery-Rothschild wedding Lord Rosebery received a package from the bride. It contained a small gold box, and in a separate envelope a pretty gold key. No letter accompanied the gift, nor instructions of any kind. My lord, however, did not hesitate as to the use of the key. He opened the box. It contained the last check which Hannah de Rothschild would ever sign as a spinster. Beautifully written in her own fair hand, it was drawn in favor of Lord Rosebery, $1,000,000, payable to his order.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Fresh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not cure-alls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 Dey St., New York.

Mothers,

here is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. Castoria is the result of twenty years' experience by the celebrated Dr. Samuel Pitcher, M.D.

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

"Sirs—I have tried the Castoria, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The Castoria destroys worms, regulates the Stomach cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. Rose & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have real extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or so maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. Its all makes the most critical cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the Cherry Pectoral has really robbed those dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the speedy and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the traveling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis.
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.
Tickets for sale at the lowest rates at the Ticket Offices of the Company in all important cities and towns. 16tf20 79

THE GREAT
FALL RIVER LINE, BETWEEN
BOSTON and NEW YORK.
THE MAMMOTH STEAMSHIPS
Bristol and Providence,
Of this Line, are the Largest, Handsomest, and Most Costly in the World!
Trains leaving Boston from the OLD COLONY Railroad Station at 4:30 (Accommodation) and 6 (Steamboat Express) P. M., connect with these "Floating Palaces" at Fall River daily (Sundays excepted), arriving in New York at 6 A. M.
No Sunday or other accommodations presented by this favorite route—
ONLY 49 MILES OF RAIL,
Passing through Narragansett and Mount Hope Bays by daylight—
NO DISAGREEABLE NIGHT CHANGES,
But affording passengers a full night's rest, and having an open water route, avoids the intricate and perilous river navigation incident to other routes.
Grand Promenade Concert on each Steamer every evening during the summer.
New and Elegant Drawing-Room Cars on Steamboat Express Trains.
BROOKLYN ANNEX STEAMER connects with this Line only, having Pier 28, North River, New York, on arrival of steamer from the East. Passengers and baggage for Brooklyn transferred free.
Staterooms and Berths secured at No. 3 Old State House or at the Old Colony Depot.

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have constantly all others. Their sale is in the United States alone reckoned one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of Catarrh, I was induced to try "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (many dollars-poorer) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 20 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't do me, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a veritable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, I had no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen hours of the time. I prayed to death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did me a cure in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,
S. D. REMICK.

A CLOUD OF WITNESSES,

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery
By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Boils; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled Remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that underminc health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who a substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

CATARRH

A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER.—Sirs: I have practised medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the nasal passages, fauces and larynx. I have used everything in the materia medica without any permanent relief, until finally I was induced to try a patent medicine (something that we allopathists are very loth to do) I tried —— and divers others until I got hold of yours. I followed the directions to the letter, and am happy to say have had a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully,

D. W. GRAY, M. D.,

Of Dr. D. W. Gray & Son., Physicians and Druggists, Muscatine, Iowa.

MUSCATINE, IOWA, March 27, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in the cure of those

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes which, in many cases simulate a severe case of Catarrh. The inflamed and diseased condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these troubles; and until the system has been brought properly under the influence of the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from them cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was placed before the public, but in that short time it has found its way from Maine to California, and is everywhere acknowledged by druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh ever compounded. The fact will be deemed of more importance when it is coupled with the statement that within five years over 150 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day, with one or two exceptions, their names cannot be recalled by the best-informed druggist. Advertising may succeed in forcing a few sales, but, unless the remedy possess undoubted specific medical properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.00. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

THE SPY AND THE LAW IN TEMPERANCE.

A SERMON

Preached to the South Parish, at the Vesper Service, April 7, 1878, by Rev. James De Normandie.

JOSHUA 2:1. Joshua the son of Nun sent two men to spy secretly, saying, go view the land.

HEBREWS 7:19. The law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did.

The incident to which our first text refers occurred just after Joshua became leader in place of Moses, and as he was making preparations to cross the Jordan. Jericho was the city he intended to attack, and he desired to find out all that he could about its situation, strength, defenses and population, and to do this he sent out two spies. They were sheltered at the house of one Rahab, a disreputable character, but they were discovered and would have been killed but for the protection and deception of their infamous hostess. She put the pursuers upon the wrong track by assuring them her guests had left, and might be overtaken if hastily followed, and meantime she covered them up, on the roof of her house, with some flax lying there to dry. Rahab, either by reason of that superstitious fear which is often the result of a wicked life, or of the wonderful things which were told as the doings of the mighty God of Israel, whose hosts were just about to attack the Cananites,—told the spies she would rescue them if only they would swear that they would spare her household. She was to hang a scarlet thread in the window so that the Israelites should know the house which was to be saved in the destruction of Jericho. Rahab is commended again and again because of her service to the Israelites, in concealing the spies, and helping them to escape, and strange to say is selected as an object of commendation by two writers for two entirely opposite reasons. The unknown author of the Epistle to the Hebrews, instances her as an example of faith, while James in his Epistle says that Rahab was justified by works. And Rahab, either because she belonged to some distinguished Jewish family that long years after was reproached as of Cananite origin, or because she is classed among the helpers of Israel, is put down as one of the "best remembered" ancestors of David and of Christ, and the early Fathers have set her forth as a type of the Christian church which was gathered out of converts from the whole vast circle of heathen nations, and commentators for ages have been trying to find some excuses for her lying and her shame. It does very little credit to any one's moral judgment to commend any such character as doing anything for the benefit of Israel or the glory of God whether she was the ancestor of David and Christ, or not. The simple truth is, that added to her life of infamy she was nothing but a contemptible traitress who was willing to betray her king, and bring destruction to her native place, if only in an exigency of war she and her family might escape. Whatever success we may gain for our cause through the treachery, and selfishness, the fear or corruption of others, we can never cease to despise them; and in the habits of warfare in all lands traitor on the one side and spy on the other have always been regarded as persons worthy only of a dishonorable death. The necessities of war have almost almost always called for the office of spy — the necessities which, in the death-struggle ask for information at any price—but it is an office whose holders take their lives in their hands—assured that whatever advantage or glory their success might bring, if detected they must die. At any time, other than the desperation of war, in the quiet duties of civil life, in the desire to know or to perform the moral obligations we owe to others a spy is uncalled for, pitiable, contemptible, execrable, a poor, weak tool of others, or a deluded victim of his own fanaticism, deserving the loathing and the detestation of every fair, honorable, open-hearted member of society.

On Friday last, as I was at work in my study, my attention was drawn to a noise in the street, when, looking out of the window, I saw what in the distance I supposed to be police struggling to lead an intoxicated man to the station, followed and surrounded by a mob of children and men—a sight by no means as rare upon our streets as it ought to be with all the restrictions we have upon drunkenness. Strange to say, this time it was not intemperance but temperance that was the persecuted or arrested party. Strange to say that with all our boasted interest in the temperance reform; with all the hundreds in all parts of our city who have publicly professed to regard this cause as of chiefest importance; who have publicly, solemnly, religiously pledged themselves to do everything to help themselves and others in their one great interest; with all the provisions which have been generously made and carefully organized for the maintenance of law and order, and for the protection of any criminal even—a man coming quietly and peacefully to our city in the interests of temperance, is attacked, beaten, and kept from perhaps the most serious injuries, by a police guard which does not attempt to bring to punishment the offenders, but merely to help out of the way the poor victim of the temperance reform. There are some phases of this disgraceful affair which certainly demand a pretty serious consideration, and a pretty decided action, if all idea of reform, all sense of honor or responsibility on the part of the city government, all interest in order have not utterly departed.

There are three parties which are perhaps equally to blame:

1. There is the visitor himself in the office of a spy. To assume such a character necessitates temporarily or permanently all those traits which are instinctively the most repulsive to every frank nature, and heartily despised in others, even by those who in some ways are tempted to secret and indefensible courses themselves. Even if the ends are desirable, as in some great strategy of war, where success depends upon information of the enemy's camp, the means require at least the adoption of the same vices. To be a spy one must be a deceiver, he must profess to be on business he is not; one must be a liar, he must deny his real intentions; one must be a sneak, he must meanly and slyly conceal his true errand —in fine, like the spies of Joshua, one must be a fit companion for infamous characters, and like the spies at Jericho he goes first to such abodes. In moral questions, especially, there is no excuse for any such characters. All moral reforms lose in the long run more than they gain by them—indeed all reforms carried on thus cease to be moral and become immoral. The virtues demand openness, frankness, sincerity, truthfulness; they demand just what they themselves are; they can be advanced only in virtuous ways. Let there be no word of excuse, of defense, of approval for a spy in the moral Canaan. Let us welcome counsel, and enthusiasm, and experience, and honorable aid from any quarter, but a spy we will abhor. Our surrounding towns are not so much superior to us that they can spare any of their moral reformers to spy out the nakedness or the deformity of this city. If spies are a necessity let them be furnished in our midst. There need be no regrets for any punishment that a spy receives, if he has assumed the character himself. If he has only received enough to correct his false zeal, or his ignorance, or his conceit, or his self-righteousness, it is well; if not, he ought to have more. The only difficulty is that the office has been one so utterly abhorrent to human nature that the law even has not yet appointed for it any penalty, but left it to the aroused indignation of society.

2. It is not the severity of his punishment—but the way in which it was given which lays at least equal blame upon a second party. If there is no excuse for a spy, neither is there any excuse, under any circumstances, for persons who may have their trade injured, or their violations of the law exposed, or their anger aroused by such a display of meanness, to take the revenge into their own hands. All social order is at an end when that begins. It is in another form, being just as obnoxious as the spy, and just as much in need of punishment. No one can calculate what a momentum it gives to all the evil forces of society to let one such open, flagrant violation of all law and order go unrebuked. The pleas of momentary passion, of outside interference, of want of protection to one's business, are all in vain. Society is possible only by turning our complaints, our injuries, our prosecutions into the appointed hands —and if the spy is taught such a lesson that he will not repeat his crime, so should those be who disturbed the peace, and disgraced the reputation of the city. It is no slight matter; we are apt to pass all offenses over too readily, and it is a far greater disgrace than anything on the part of the spy, or liquor dealer, to have two or three days pass by and to pretend that the offenders cannot be found. An hundred or more persons following loudly, passionately, some of them brutally, a single man to the very quarters of the police; filling the street with their uproar,—and no possibility of discovering them! What a testimony to the fitness of our city officials! What a disgrace rather to everything in the name of government. What an open confession that they do not mean to and do not want to, or are willingly blinded by the very power which took the law into its own hand. Put the thing upon the right ground and say it seemed better to overlook it, than to attempt to expose and punish it. Talk as much as one will about the difficulty, or the practicability, or the desirability, but do not say it cannot be discovered. There seemed no difficulty the other day in punishing and discovering a poor fellow who stealthily took a pair of shoes from a wagon; it was somebody's business to do that without waiting to take testimony or to be informed; but no sooner does a more serious disturbance take place, a disturbance witnessed by hundreds, which reveals the most open violation of the regulations of the city, and of the State, than all kinds of delays are interposed, until the whole affair is lost in the swift forgetfulness of those things which do not directly injure us. The law must take cognizance mainly of things which disturb the outward peace of a community—if it fails in that how utterly poor it must be. The law deals with these civil affairs very much as society does with moral offenses; the minor ones are severely and hurriedly punished, the great ones are passed by under some softened and dignified name. You steal some trifling article in great need and poverty and are readily discovered, because you have no prominent protectors; or you steal a fortune in high places and it is called an irregularity, a failure, and you go on the same as ever. You play cards for some trifling stakes and are fined—you gamble on a magnificent scale with the savings of widows and orphans, and laboring men, and are regarded with lofty favor. A few little boys can go off on an island; play ball on Sunday, against which there is no law if it does not really disturb others or infringe upon their rights, and the police display most surprising and commendable energy in arresting them; but an hundred men may follow, hoot at and beat a man along our streets, and nobody can find out who did it!! What a farce and what a contempt all laws become when thus partially executed, or openly broken. 3. In the third place, the question naturally arises—what Joshua is it which in such cases sends forth the spies? A single person hardly starts out of his own accord upon such a mission; but are spies encouraged, sustained, sent out by temperance organizations? If any of them are defending their cause in this manner—if any gather funds which are contributed or used for such a purpose, then the whole cause ought to fall into obloquy and disgrace. There can be but one thing more obnoxious than to be a spy, and that is the association or individual that would employ one. It will not do for us as temperance workers to say anything about the dishonorable or concealed or sly acts of the liquor dealers if we resort to just the same methods. This is no secret business upon which information is needed. Is it not only too open, too familiar, to us all already? We need no informers to tell us where or what is done. The signs, the proofs, the witnesses are all around. We need no spies when almost every home could tell a tale of greater woe than any spy could learn. It is no strange land which needs explorers to tell us where the strongholds are. Open enough one would think the evil is when it stalks boldly, triumphantly, loudly through the streets, while the law is silent and hides before it.

The incident of the past week very fully illustrates two phases of this whole question, we steadily overlook. 1. This argument of those who are engaged in the traffic and thought their business was to be ruined—"If I do not somebody else will." Few persons are aware how readily that is employed to throw all blame off from ourselves. Hardly a month passes but I send away couples who come to be married, because, upon a little questioning I find there had not been the slightest reflection upon the significance of the step they were about to take—where one or the other had been made the victim of intrigue or fear—yes, of intoxication—and again and again when I have asked other clergymen how they could do it, I have had the reply, why if I did not somebody else would. Now I say if persons who have had the most abundant opportunity to have a conscience trained and enlightened, and strengthened upon such moral questions, are so thoughtless, so ready to offer an excuse which is only a reproach, what can one expect of those who have had no such opportunity? Add to this the thirst for gain or the necessity of a livelihood which so readily leads astray our public men in every station, and can we wonder that so many in this traffic plead the same apology? 2. It illustrates the actual indifference of the advocates of temperance. The number in dead earnest is really very small; there are the few for a long time victims of intemperance, who have reformed, and in the retrospect of whose lives this evil transcends all others, and who are ready to do anything, to labor, to give, to die, to do anything reasonable or unreasonable, to save others from a like experience and to rid society of this evil; there are the few who see the high moral bearing, but how many whose zeal is abated by other interests. In spite of all our assertion that this is the most serious and most destructive evil in the world, in comparison with which all others are trifling and subsidiary, the professed advocates of temperance never support in any number worth considering, their own candidates—because after all politics are really regarded as of more importance than temperance. Tell it not at all, or tell it only in shame that so many hundreds have openly professed a deep interest in this cause, and yet are utterly powerless. I know the law cannot make us perfect, it cannot remedy this evil altogether; but I know, too, if this sentiment were real, and single, and unselfish, and determined, and united, it could execute the laws we have, and it could devise those which should be more efficacious still. It is ineffectual only because after all our bitter experiences, these open testimonies in every home, on every street, we do not believe with our mind and heart and soul that this evil is as great as we profess; when we do, before such a belief it will begin to go down; when we do, such an event as last week's will be impossible; or if possible, it will be speedily punished. Until then, more and more our reliance must be upon a better hope within ourselves. I believe most fully in the possibility of the law doing much in the temperance cause. I believe most fully in the necessity of a temperance party which has faith in its mission and will labor for it, because in our form of government every great moral question must come at last to the ballot; but until this is done in earnestness and sincerity,—until we have a sentiment strong enough, and willing enough to see that we have wise laws and that they are impartially executed; until those who believe this is the great, overshadowing evil of our society, are willing as one person, to demand the employment of every honorable means to put it down,—the chief remedy is where the final one can alone be found, in the better hope within ourselves. We know there are men at every corner willing to lead our young people astray, but they are at their own corners, they are in their own saloons—and our sin is that we stop with them; that we seek them, that we enter in. We see the danger, the handwriting is very plain; we know the place is a constant invitation to dissipation, and yet we go in. The sin is ours and grievously must we answer it. Let us not be always laying the blame upon somebody else, the storekeeper, the manufacturer, the gay social companion—it rests upon us most of all; we have no business to yield. Let us cultivate a strength of character which can say, no,—a better hope which shall lift us above the law and above our own temptation.

Daily Chronicle

SATURDAY, APRIL 13, 1878.

John E. Lyon.

Mr. John E. Lyon, well known throughout New Hampshire as President of the Boston, Concord and Montreal Railroad, died at the Pemigewasset Hotel in Plymouth on Thursday morning, at the age of 70 years. Mr. Lyon had gone to Plymouth to make his usual examination of the accounts of the B., C. & M. R. R., which are kept at Plymouth. He retired at about eleven o'clock. The night-watchman heard screams and groans and "For God's sake burst open the door." He found him on the floor with his night-clothing in flames. He said, "Give me something to stop the pain." The manager of the hotel was summoned immediately, who sent for physicians, who remained until his death, doing everything for him that was possible. The unfortunate man died at 11:13 in the morning. The lower and middle portions of his body were burned and the side of his neck. His clothing caught from a candle. His habit for a number of years has been to set a candle on his chest while reading a newspaper, but the candle was found upon a small table near the bed.

Mr. Lyon about twenty years ago succeeded Hon. Josiah Quincy as President of the B., C. & M. R. R., and brought to the discharge of the duties of President an untiring energy, and has since exerted in its behalf a wide influence. He examined every detail in the management of the road, built up its business, extended its lines, encouraged the summer traffic by lending his capital for the erection of hotels and boarding houses, in the White Mountain region; in short, put the road upon its feet and gave the property a stability in value. He was a nervous, indefatigable man, never quiet, always on the move. Meet him in Boston or upon the summit of Mount Washington, he was always busy, astir early in the morning, abroad late at night.

Increasing years, without decreasing labor, caused him to draw heavily upon his physical reserves, but still he appeared to take no rest. He was the embodiment of hard work and unceasing diligence in business.

All up and down the line of railway from Boston to the upper part of New Hampshire, Mr. Lyon exerted a wide influence. Nothing seemed either too small to be disregarded or too large to be mastered by him. He was shrewd, cautious and circumspect in his business relations. He possessed wonderful tact, and could manage a legislature, without the lawmakers seeing the hand that guided them, better than any man who ever attempted it in New Hampshire. In fact, tact, common sense and a knowledge of men were qualities in which he abounded to an extraordinary degree. He was the life-long friend and business adviser of the late Major John S. Jenness, and administered upon his estate. He was always trusted. He could be shrewd without being dishonest, and sharp without approaching unfaithfulness.

Mr. Lyon will be greatly missed in New Hampshire. He encouraged the extension of her railroads. He made known the beautiful attractions of her mountain regions. He was an economist, and his counsels were always in favor of judicious, safe and healthful investments. In his charities he was unostentatious. In fact he was a remarkably modest man. Seeking no positions save those to which he was called by reason of his manifest fitness to fill them, he enjoyed the triumphs of accumulation, rather than of political or other honors. He had an extensive acquaintance, but he was careful in the choice of his friends and confided his varied business projects to but few. The extensive railroad property he has managed, he has left in good condition, and though he will be missed perhaps more than almost any other man, yet such is the recuperative nature of property that we shall ere long see some new man discharging the duties the deceased has satisfactorily performed, as on the battle-field a new soldier steps in to fill the place just vacated by a comrade shot down in battle, and thus moves the great panorama of life.

His funeral will be held on Saturday, and the remains be brought to this city for interment.

Death of Boss Tweed.

William M. Tweed, the old "Tammany Boss," died in Ludlow street jail, New York city, at precisely twelve o'clock Friday, of pneumonia and nervous exhaustion.

News and Notes.

Gold, Friday, 100 1-2.

It is reported that the British troops in South Africa have been disastrously defeated and a general native war is probable.

The remains of the Earl of Leitrim, recently murdered on his estate in Ireland, were buried in Dublin on the 10th inst., when violent and disgraceful demonstrations were made by a vast concourse of excited people. The mob, that gathered in front of the church, endeavored to capture the hearse, declaring their intention to drag out the corpse. They vituperated the late Earl as an "old ruffian" and a "heretic." They also climbed the wall of the church-yard, hustled the mourners, cheered, yelled and hissed during the reading of the services. Several mourners were roughly handled while endeavoring to make their way into the church-yard. All had to pass out by an unfrequented way in the rear of the church, in order to escape violence. Fifty constables were present, but wholly insufficient to cope with the mob, many of whom were drunk.

A worthless fellow named Fogarty murdered his wife and then killed himself, in New York, Thursday, because his wife refused to allow him full control over a business she had established without his help.

Sam Steenburg is awaiting execution on the 19th, at Fonda, N. Y., for the murder of Jacob S. Parker at Amsterdam, in November last. He has made a full confession acknowledging the commission of eleven murders, the first when he was fourteen years old; also innumerable burglaries, robberies and incendiarisms in and around Amersterdam. His confession will not be made public until the day of the execution. It is horrible in the extreme, and nearly all corroborated. He says he murdered Parker, for which crime he is to die.

Congress.

The Senate on Thursday passed the deficiency appropriation bill, after amending it.

Montgomery Blair has finally started his electoral resolutions on their very doubtful journey through Congress. Senator Dennis of Maryland offered them in the Senate, Thursday, and they were referred to the judiciary committee. Senator Dennis took occasion, however, to dissent from the purpose of the resolutions, and said his people had had turmoil enough and wanted peace. After Senator Dennis had concluded his speech denouncing the resolutions, nearly every Southern Senator shook him by the hand and congratulated him in having so forcibly discountenanced the scheme to reopen the Presidential question. Senator Conkling also extended his congratulations.

The ways and means committee of the House has decided by a majority of one to report in favor of an income tax. Five democrats and one republican voted for the tax, and three republicans and two democrats against it.

—The late Signor Blitz was once, in England, badly wounded by a person who was permitted to fire a musket at him. Blitz had taken the usual precaution, and with his accustomed skill had withdrawn the ball; but the man who fired the musket, actually and with utter stupidity, had slipped in another. Blitz was so impressed by the narrowness of his escape that for some years he gave up the gun-trick altogether.

THE CITY.

Rev. James De Normandie will preach at Eliot to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock.

The subject of Rev. Mr. Hubbell's sermons to-morrow will be, "Wrong views of God."

Schooner Hattie Turner, from Wilmington, N. C., arrived at Concord Railroad wharf on Thursday with 60,000 feet of timber and plank for vessels building in this city.

The State Central Committee of the greenback party met at Concord on the 9th inst., and organized by electing George E. Hodgdon, Esq., Chairman and Howe Call, Esq., Secretary. About forty members were present at the convention.

Prof. E. B. Warman, of the Boston School of Oratory, has a class in elocution at the High School, on Saturdays; it is largely attended by the teachers in our public schools. We learn that he is to give public readings here before long.

We are pleased to announce that the New England Glee Club will give an entertainment at the Universalist Church on Thursday evening next, assisted by Miss Edith Wendell, Vocalist, of this city, and Horace Lunt, Elocutionist, of Boston.

Seventy-five of the Good Templars of Dover visited this city on Fast Day, and were entertained by the lodge here with social games at Mechanics' Hall, and a supper at their Hall on Pleasant street. They went home in the "wee sma" hours of Friday morning.

On Wednesday Mr. John Harvey, who was standing behind some base ball players in Capt. Marcy's ship yard, got a blow on the forehead from a bat, which severely injured him. He is an old gentleman, and had the blow been struck a little lower it would have resulted in his death.

A numerously signed request from gentlemen who witnessed the dramatic representations at Franklin Hall some time since, when at an entertainment given for the benefit of the Sheltering Arms, "Cut off with a Shilling" and "Everybody's Friend" were so happily rendered, has been sent to the amateurs of that occasion, asking a repitition at Music Hall some time next month.

We learn that Frank D. Pollard, Esq., has resigned the position of Superintendent of the County Farm at Brentwood, and the County Commissioners have made an excellent selection of his successor in the appointment of Haven L. Scott, Esq. Mr. Scott's experience at the City Farm here and at Lewiston, Me., and his knowledge of farming, abundantly qualify him to fill the bill in this new office.

It is not true that the sunken place in the sidewalk in front of Gerrish's store on Market square, in which so many persons took a foot-bath on Thursday and enquired for the committee on streets, is to be kept in its present condition to be used as a reservoir in case of fire; and the theories of the gentlemen who maintain this position in the Athenæum and Mechanics' Reading Room, as a sort of reason why this nuisance is not removed, are all at fault.

Steamer Mystic is at Jones' wharf, awaiting the arrival of seven coal laden schooners bound to Dover. Four of these are consigned to C. H. Trickey & Co., and three to the Cocheco Manufacturing Co. The Dover people seem to understand how to get an annual expenditure to remove rocks in the Cocheco river. We have the member of Congress and Dover the appropriation, and yet twenty vessels are exposed in the Piscataqua, to one in the Cocheco.

Rev. Elbridge Gerry Brooks, D. D., who died in Philadelphia a few days ago, at the age of nearly sixty-two years, was formerly a resident of this city, and a Universalist minister of great prominence. When about ten years of age he had the misfortune to lose his leg near the corner of Vaughan and Congress streets, by getting it jammed between two buildings while one was being moved. Rev. Mr. Brooks was the author of several theological works, which have had extensive sale. His family reside in Dover. —Times.

FAST DAY.

The services at the Episcopal, Unitarian (where Rev. E. M. Graat, pastor of the Universalist church, preached,) and Congregational churches on Fast Day were but moderately attended, the observance of the day as a time of "fasting and prayer" becoming less and less apparent each year.

The High School Boys and the South End Scouts played a game of base ball at the Plains in the forenoon, the score at the close standing twenty-three to seventeen, in favor of the Scouts.

In the afternoon the Heavy Artillery Company engaged for the first time in target shooting, using their new Springfield rifles. The fact of their commencing in this practice is commendable, and the shots made were decidedly to their credit. The distance was one hundred and eighty yards, with the regulation target, twenty-two inches in diameter. We give the score as follows: Out of a possible 25, R. Pickering got 11; F. R. Garrett, 7; N. S. Philbrick, 4; C. W. Brock, 4; C. McCarthy, 4; W. Haddock, 4; J. Hurd, 3; A. P. Wendell, 3; F. G. Harraden, 1. Out of a possible 15 were, J. F. Magraw, 5; A. P. Preston, 3. Mr. E. Linnehan boasts of getting the Leather Medal. One or our crack sportsman took a turn with the boys, and scored 2 out of a possible 15. The rain did not prevent their eager enjoyment of the sport, as they continued until a late hour. Their marching through the street won the usual admiration of the lookers-on.

A number of our amateur sportsmen had some practice shooting at pigeons and glass balls at the Sagamore in the afternoon. Nobody was hurt.

The game of base ball between the Granite States and the Atlantics, in the afternoon, was the first of the season, and would have been well contested had the weather been propitious. On the fourth inning the Granite States were four ahead, but the rain prevented any show of play after it. Some good catches were made by both parties, and at the next game played we hope to hear of a better score than the resnlt of this, which was—Granite States 38, Atlantics 15. Mr. Getchell, a member of the G. S., is said to have distinguished himself.

A new thing here in the way of sports was presented in the afternoon. A game of bowls (a popular pastime in England and Ireland) was played by four representatives of the old country, Timothy Lynch and Dennis Leary against Cornelius Keefe and Patrick Carney, the latter being the challengers. The distance was from the end of Spinney's lane on Islington road, through the lane to Middle road, and up the latter to the Plains Hotel. Lynch and Leary won the game by about 500 yards, or one and one-quarter bowls on odds. The stakes were $10 a side. The game is simple, but needs considerable practice for one to become an expert. Two balls are used, weighing two pounds each; one is placed at the starting point; the player takes the other in his hand, goes back some distance, then runs up to the point where the first ball is placed and throws the one he holds as far as possible. His partner then takes the first ball and does the same, using the ball previously thrown as his starting point; and this is repeated until the goal is reached, the players throwing the least number of balls winning the game. There is considerable excitement in it, and being a novelty the game attracted a large crowd.

In the evening, despite the rain, Stetson's "Folly Company" had a very large audience in Music Hall, the really handsome costumes of the lady members of the company, and the other attractions they displayed, seeming to hit the popular taste as a Fast Day entertainment exactly.

POLICE COURT.

Thursday, April 11th; Batchelder, J.

Samuel Flanigan, who a month ago was adjudged guilty of having been drunk, but was then let off on probation, was up again for the same offence; he was let off this time with a fine of $8, costs taxed at $6.90. He would no doubt have preferred another dose of probation, but the Court had none on hand for him.

HON. WILLIAM BRADBURY SMALL'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late County Solicitor Small took place at Newmarket on Fast Day. Preliminary services were had at his late residence at half-past two o'clock, (attended by the relatives and immediate friends,) from whence at three o'clock the remains were conveyed to the Congregational Church, followed by the mourners—Hon. Isaac W. Smith, Presiding Justice at the Court at Exeter, members of the Bar and County officials, Directors of the Newmarket National Bank, (of which Mr. Small was President,) Directors of the Savings Bank, Rising Star Lodge of Freemasons, and a large number of citizens. The church was appropriately decorated. Mr. Small's pew was empty, and draped, a calla lilly in bloom at its entrance. An elegant pillow of exquisite flowers, the tribute of the Bar, Sheriff and County officers, was placed at the head of the casket; and upon the casket was a sheaf of wheat, the tribute of a friend of the family in Boston. His pastor, Rev. Isaac C. White, pronounced the eulogy, and was assisted in the ceremonies by Rev. Mr. Haynes of North Hampton, a relative of the family. It is estimated that one thousand persons attended the funeral, the management of which was in charge of an immediate friend of the family, Samuel A. Haley, Esq.

SUPREME COURT.

Court came in at nine o'clock Friday morning, and took a recess to 2:30 P. M., at which time it came in again, and the Grand Jury being still in session and no particular business before the Court, a recess was taken to nine o'clock this morning, at which time the Grand Jury will report.

THE VICINITY.

On Sunday, 7th inst., nineteen new members joined the Universalist church of South Newmarket.

The revival in Rye continues, and the interest increases; on Wednesday evening twenty persons went forward for prayers.

Miss Betsy Hoyt, of Newington, while standing upon a chair assisting in hanging room paper recently, made a misstep and fell to the floor, breaking her wrist.

Greenland has a reform club. It was started at the close of a meeting held in the town hall on the evening of April 12th, Capt. Edson E. Frisbee being the orator of the occasion.

A correspondent of the Exeter News-Letter says: "A gentleman belonging to Haverhill, Mass., has in view the putting on of a line of stage coaches between Exeter and Portsmouth."

Dr. Nathaniel Batchelder, of Epping, has sued that town for the sum of $10,000, for damages sustained by being thrown from his carriage, caused by an alleged defect in the highway.

According to the late census taken by the selectmen of Stratham, the town contains seven hundred and ten inhabitants. This as compared with the number in 1870 shows a decease of fifty-nine.

Mr. D. E. Smith, one of the selectmen of South Newmarket, has resigned his position on the board in indignation at what he asserts is gross injustice in making up the inventory for the purpose of assessing the taxes.

Hon. Jacob H. Ela, of Rochester, Fifth Auditor of the Treasury, has been nominated by the President for First Auditor. If "civil service reform" should always result in such excellent appointments as this, there would be no complaints about it.

The condition of Mrs. Charles A. Bennett, of Newmarket Junction, shot by the tramp Ryan last December, has not very much improved within the last month, and her permanent recovery is yet a matter of doubt. The circumstances connected with the assault are yet fresh in her memory, which is not impaired. She was before the Grand Jury at Exeter this week, to testify in the case.

On the 19th of last month, a young man named Woodbury Philbrick, of Rye, (who has recently been living in Portsmouth,) left his residence unknown to his wife, and went to Hampton, where he was seen to purchase a ticket for Boston. No tidings of him have been heard since. Enquiries have been sent to his father at Hudson, Mass, but he has not been there. As he had quite a sum of money with him when last seen, it is feared by some that he has been foully dealt with. He was twenty-two years old, a barber by trade, and has a wife and two children.

Mt. Vesuvius.

Should an eruption occur in this volcano, and cause the destruction of one-half of the inhabitants who live in the vicinity, the remainder, who barely escape with their lives, immediately move back upon the half-cooled lava, and there live in constant fear of another eruption, foolishly fancying that the only tenantable portion of the earth rests within the shadow of the great volcano. This fairly illustrates the force of habit, and the persistency with which people cling to opinions when once formed. For example, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures incipient consumption, coughs, colds and all affections of the liver and blood, yet some still depend upon physicians and remedies that have naught but repeated failures to which they can refer. And although Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is sold under a positive guarantee to cure those weaknesses peculiar to women, and notwithstanding that thousands of women bear testimony to its efficacy, and the truth of all statements made concerning it, many yet submit to the use of caustic and the knife. Again, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, no larger than mustard seeds, will positively cure constipation, where it is dependent upon dyspepsia or torpid liver; yet some still depend for relief upon the "blue pill" or huge doses of drastic cathartic medicine. In the face of such facts, can we wonder at the blindness of the poor Italians?

CAUTION.

☞ The great popularity of "ASTRAL" OIL has induced some unprincipled persons to sell worthless and dangerous imitations for "ASTRAL," while others palm off inferior oils, representing them as good as "ASTRAL." To prevent this fraud, purchasers should demand "ASTRAL" and take no other.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes those almost miraculous cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and gives a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded, if the remedy be taken in time. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness and suffering are saved, and life is saved by timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are imbedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the adoption only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis.

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employes are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that remembers thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. A reason or superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivalled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.

It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—I having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (two dollars-and-fifty-cent-a-month men) if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 20 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became complete-ly closed, "crusts" and "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a walking tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 36 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and boundless, broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen hours of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.

Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors, Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, and taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humers in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the deterioration of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, lichen and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

CATARRH

A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER,—Sirs: I have practiced medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the nasal passages, fauces and larynx. I have used everything in the materia medica without any permanent relief, until finally I was induced to try a patent medicine (something that we allopathists are very loth to do) I tried —— and divers others until I got hold of yours. I followed the directions to the letter, and am glad to say have had a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully, D. W. GRAY, M. D., Of Dr. D. W. Gray & Son, Physicians and Druggists, Muscatine, Iowa.

MUSCATINE, IOWA, March 27, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in the cure of those

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes which in many cases accompany a severe case of Catarrh. The influence and disordered condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these troubles; and until the system has been thoroughly purged by the influence of the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from them cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was placed before the public, but in that short time it has found its way from Maine to California, and is everywhere acknowledged by druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh ever compounded. The fact will be deemed of more importance when it is coupled with the statement that within five years over 50 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day, with one or two exceptions, the names cannot be recalled by the best-informed druggist. Advertising may succeed in forcing a few salves but, unless the remedy possess undoubted specific medical properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.00. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

C. E. MYERS & CO., No. 3 BOW STREET.

Daily Chronicle.

Old Time Chronicles, No. 169.

BY UNCLE JOSEPH.

A pamphlet of fifteen pages is at hand, with the following title page, "The History of Jack Nips, Dover, printed by Eliphalet Ladd at his Printing Office near the Court House, 1793."

Eliphalet Ladd published the first newspaper established in Dover. It was commenced July 15, 1790, and discontinued Jan. 19, 1792. It appears Mr. Ladd only stopped this to commence another, for, the following week, that is, Jan. 23d, he commenced the Phœnix, which was continued till Aug. 29, 1795.

The pamphlet is mainly devoted to a sketch of Jack Nips' theological and political experience. Of the last not much need be said, as then, during the first term of President Washington's administration, political parties had not taken shape.

As to religion he says his father was a Presbyterian, his mother a Newlight. This last was a name applied somewhat to the followers of Whitefield, and perhaps some others, who in life and religious experience were in advance of the established order of things. It appears that he imbibed some prejudices against the Newlights, as his schoolmates in derision would apply the term to him, and his Latin teacher told him his tones were like the Newlights.

But his chief difficulty was with the Presbyterians as to their form of baptism, sprinkling, and some of the subjects of it, unconscious infants. Possibly he had some acquaintance with the Baptists, then spreading themselves in different parts of the country, but hated and despised by many. He went to the Bible, and to it in the Greek language. He went to history and said that Cyprian, an African Bishop, introduced infant baptism in the middle of the third century. Thus far we follow Jack Nips, without any special criticism, but aside from this we cannot say so much. He opposes rantizing for baptism, by ridicule. He speaks of infants and children being forced to baptism in spite of their struggles and screams. And more than intimates that the advocates of it spell the word circumcision and pronounce it baptism.

To this mode of reasoning, as the lawyers sometimes say in Court, "we object." Ridicule may sometimes be justifiable, but it is not argument. We once heard Dover's adopted, illustrious citizen, the late Hon. John P. Hale say, "denunciation is not argument, neither is there any argument in a sneer."

"Bring forth your strong reasons," is written in the best of books. For ourselves we have no education only what was picked up by the way. Not even an academy was attended a full term thro'. But we have learned the importance of treating sacred things fairly. We have learned that there are rules for Biblical interpretation, and are as necessary as rules in mathematics. When any one treats of sprinkling for baptism, or immersion, it is nothing to us, unless it is fair reasoning, logical deductions and arguments, and the interpretation of the Scriptures by just rules.

What is here put down is not so much in reference to the pamphlet, not many copies of which may now be in existence, as to the right way of treating sacred ordinances and subjects. The mechanical execution of the work noticed is fair for that time. The type is clear, and but one or two grammatical errors are noticed.

—The official designation of the new silver coins is "standard silver dollars." They are shipped from the mint in kegs, each keg containing five bags, and each bag $1000.

—The Baroness Adolphe de Rothschild has just bought for $70,000 two groups in bronze, discovered in an old Venetian palace and attributed to Michael Angelo. Each of them represents a panther on which is leaning a graceful figure of either a satyr or a faun. They are to be shown at the Paris Exposition.

—A correspondent wants to know what "lying in state" means. Ahem! Yes, well, Claudia, there are two kinds. One is when a great man dies, and the other is when a great man lies. If you should not understand this, write again. If you should, write and explain it to us.—Bridgeport Standard.

—Mr. Larkin J. Meade's design for a memorial monument to Senator Morton presents a shaft rising from a base and sub-base, and supporting at the height of 115 feet a figure of the Senator in heroic size. He is represented in the attitude of speaking. The cost of a monument executed after this plan is estimated at $100,000.

Resumption Seemingly Assured.

Secretary Sherman's complete success with the New York banks in placing fifty millions of bonds on favorable terms, seemingly makes resumption certain on the first of January next, according to his deliberate prophecy and promise. The last syndicate take the the contract with him, offering to take the bonds at par and one and one-half per cent. premium in gold. Ten millions are to be purchased on these terms immediately, and five millions each month for the rest of the year. This, in the Secretary's opinion, renders resumption entirely practicable. If the business community at large share his confidence, it cannot but work a most favorable effect in all departments of trade and industry. With the gold now in the Treasury, increased by what is to come in during the year and the sale of fifty millions of bonds, the Secretary claims that he would have nearly $200,000,000 in hand by January 1st, with which he could easily redeem and maintain at par the three hundred millions of legal tenders.

Enterprising Journalism.

The members of the Republican National Committee had a secret caucus in Washington not long since, and of course (as the caucus was "secret") the Washington correspondents of all the metropolitan journals sent to their respective papers not only a full account of what was or was not decided on in the caucus, but verbatim reports of the various speeches made. Among others, Hon. Zach. Chandler was credited with a bitter assault upon the Hayes administration, and he has been vigorously assailed by many papers for giving utterance to such "atrocious sentiments" as his printed speech contained. Now it turns out that Old Zach. wasn't near the meeting at all!

A Good Record.

The Maine Central Railroad operates in its main line, branches and leased roads 357 miles of railroad. The following extract from the Report of the Directors made to the stockholders at their recent annual meeting, is a great tribute to the industry, zeal and capacity of Payson Tucker, Esq., of Portland, the Superintendent, by whose continued efforts vast improvement in the operation of the road has been brought about. The Report says: As tending to illustrate the condition of your road, and the care and promptitude with which your trains have been run,—during the last year scarcely an instance has occurred in which our passenger trains have been "out of time;" nor has loss of life, or serious injury occurred to any passenger on your trains, nor damage or detention to any considerable amount to freight in transit over your road. The fact that more than a million of miles of road have been run over, by rapidly moving passenger trains, or by trains, heavily loaded with freight, without accident and with entire regularity and safety, shows not only the superior character of your road, but illustrates the skill and faithful attention to their duty of those who have had the practical management of its operation.

News and Notes.

Gold, Saturday, 100 1-4.

"She-bang" is the unpoetic designation applied to the new Stewart's Women's Hotel.

Rev. John Jasper, a colored preacher at Richmond, Va., takes the bold ground in his sermons that the sun moves round the earth. He quotes the passage as to Joshua's commanding the sun to stand still, and the general acceptation of the theory of the sun's rising. He has preached twice upon the subject, having many white people in his audience. This black Jasper, before he undertakes to advance new theories in regard to astronomy, ought to read some of the able articles upon this subject in the Providence Journal, when if his head is not of extraordinary thickness he will become convinced that the "converse" of his proposition is the correct one.

Edward F. Maurett, book-keeper at the Tremont House, on Friday made a desperate attempt to commit suicide. He had gambled recently and lost money belonging to his employers, and, it being discovered on Friday he confessed, swallowed a bottle of laudanum and fired a revolver at his head. He will live.

Plin White, an alleged notorious confidence man, was arraigned in the Municipal Court in Boston, Friday, and was held in $8000 for further examination. It is said that the proceeds of his swindles during several years amount to over $2,000,000.

Two sons of Brigham Young have enjoined the executors of his estate from transferring a large proportion thereof to the Mormon Church. About $1,000,000 are involved.

Gen. Henry A. Smalley, receiver of the National Capital Life Insurance Co., of New York, and other institutions, has been missing for some time. His friends at first were much alarmed, thinking something was wrong, but they have been relieved by finding out that he has merely stolen $20,000 or so.

Mrs. Lydia Felch, a well-known nurse, seventy years old, fell dead at the breakfast table in Newburyport, Mass., on Thursday.

Pike & Choate's shoe factory at Newburyport was robbed of $700 worth of goods Thursday night.

A female defendant in a suit at Rushville, Ind., during the trial recently, became angry at the plaintiff, a man, and rushing at him struck him on the head and knocked him senseless.

J. D. Clay, Clerk of the Halifax County (Va.) Court, and an ex-member of the Legislature, has been arrested and confessed to the forgery and manufacturing of pension claims against the government.

Six young men living at Martin's Ferry, Ohio, went out on the Ohio river in a pleasure boat, Thursday evening. The boat was swamped, and three of the party were drowned.

The British steamer Childwall, Hall, was wrecked at Sagres, Portugal, on her voyage from Liverpool to Bombay by way of the Suez Canal. She had a crew of forty-five and eight passengers; twenty-seven persons were saved; the fate of the remaining twenty-six is unknown.

The English University boat race between Oxford and Cambridge was pulled on Saturday on the Thames, and was won by Oxford with thirty-five seconds to spare. This puts Oxford two races ahead of Cambridge.

The New York Post says the fall in gold to 100 1-2 as the result of Sherman's negotiations for the contract for the monthly sale of five million 4 1-2 per cents, is generally accepted as a guaranty of specie payments by the treasury on the 1st day of January next, and of practical resumption by all outside of the treasury long before that date.

At Myersburg, Ontario, on Thursday evening, a girl named Bertha Vynn, fifteen years old, was shot and killed by a school teacher named Shannon.

The Mexican representative in this country has received intelligence from the city of Mexico that on the 9th instant United States Minister Foster recognized the Diaz government.

The Metropolis Crime.

The United States Inspectors at Philadelphia, in their report on the causes of the Metropolis disaster, say: First, they believe that Mr. Lunt, the superintending owner, was cognizant of the imperfections of the hull of the steamer, and was therefore liable to the provisions of section 4493, Revised Statutes; second, that Eben Monson, ship-builder at Newburyport, Mass., was accessory to such knowledge, and deserves criminal prosecution for withholding it from the proper authorities until after ninety human lives were sacrificed. Third, they suggest to the Supervising Inspector of the district an examination into the conduct of Assistant Inspector Craft in changing the character of the steamer. Fourth, they believe the captain was in ignorance of the imperfections of the ship when he left Philadelphia, and that from the time she began leaking until she was on the beach his conduct was that of a cool and skilful seaman.

Naval Affairs.

Passed Assistant Paymaster Fred C. Alley is ordered to the receiving ship Independence.

Pay Inspector Caspar Schenck is detached from Mare Island navy yard, and ordered to settle his accounts.

The U. S. S. Monongahela recently arrived at Hong Kong to replace the Tennessee. The Monongahela will be relieved next fall by the Richmond.

The Army and Navy Journal announces as the more prominent candidates for the position of Chief of the Bureau of Navigation, Captains English, Whiting and Russell.

An official despatch received by the Secretary of the Navy from Rear Admiral Alexander Murray, dated on board the Pensacola at Honolulu, March 19th, reports his condemnation by medical survey, and that unless his relief should arrive he would haul down his flag, turn over the vessel to Captain Irwin, and leave for San Francisco about the 15th or 16th of April, in the mail steamer. In accordance with his request made some weeks previously, he having been over forty years in the service, he has been retired by the President—to take effect on his reaching San Francisco. No relief has yet been ordered, and probably will not be until the Pensacola has been overhauled at Mare Island, and her condition ascertained.

Secretary Thompson left Washington last week for Indiana to be absent a fortnight. Rear-Adm. J. C. Howell is acting Secretary of the Navy during the absence of Secretary Thompson.

Political.

If Montgomery Blair was a member of the Massachusetts, instead of the Maryland Legislature, he would be placed on the Hoosac Tunnel Committee, as he is certainly the greatest legislative bore the country has ever seen.

The Providence Journal thus refers to the election of doorkeeper by the lower branch of Congress: "Having tried a fool and a knave, and having been found out in both cases, the democrats have struck into a new path, as distinct as either of the others, and as characteristic. This time the prominent idea is the reward of treason. Field may be one thing or another as to ability or honesty; the discussion preceding his election by the House affords no sort of clue by which to judge whether he is a Fitzhugh or a Polk, or a mixture of both. The only positive thing about him, so far as the country knows, is that he was a confederate officer, that upon the suppression of the rebellion he abandoned his country, and that he now comes back in order to live at the expense of that government he so earnestly sought to destroy."

New Hampshire Items.

—A strolling theatrical company was at the dinner table. A waiter approached one of the members and said, "Soup?" "No, sir," replied the guest, "I am one of the musicians."

—We learn from several trustworthy correspondents from the interior of this State, that the people in their respective counties have not, as yet, received their share of the issue of new silver dollars. This is altogether the fault of the Secretary of the Treasury, who was a pronounced opponent of the silver bill, and is doing all he can to shake public confidence in its practical working. If our correspondents will write directly to Secretary Sherman, and threaten to expose his wicked neglect of duty, he will be obliged, under the provisions of the bill, to send them each $8.65 in new silver dollars.—Burlington Hawkeye.

THE CITY.

Mr. John Albee is giving four of his lectures upon English Literature at Chicopee and Florence, Mass.

The deficiency appropriation bill now before the Senate includes, besides the sum of $15,000 for establishing a signal station in this city and the repairs of the fog signal station at Whale's-back light, the sum of $5458 for pay of labor at the navy yard.

Fish weirs are being put up in the vicinity of Fishing islands, in the lower harbor. Mr. Silas Harding, of Chatham, Mass., also parties in Newcastle and Portsmouth, are interested in the enterprise. One school of fish has already visited the creeks.

A lime laden schooner, bound from Rockland, Me., to this port, went on the rocks near Cape Porpoise light Friday morning, and became a total loss. The crew were saved with difficulty, the last man taken off the wreck being greatly exhausted when rescued.

One of our citizens took two tramps to his house and fed them for several days. Being absent on business one day on his return home, he found several articles of wearing apparel, jewelry, etc., missing, and traced the theft to the trampers he had befriended. He will probably be wise enough in the future to let this floating stuff alone.

The U. S. S. Portsmouth, having on board exhibits for the Paris Exhibition, arrived at Havre last week, making the passage from New York in twenty days. The Portsmouth, which was built at this station in 1839, has always been celebrated for excellent sailing qualities, and on this voyage seems to have maintained her high repute.

Mr. S. Lamprey announces the opening of his dancing school for young people on Wednesday afternoon, May 1st, at Congress Hall. Residents of Portsmouth require no certificate of Mr. Lamprey's ability and pains-taking as a teacher, a large proportion of the best dancers among them having been his pupils in the past. For terms, etc., see the advertisement.

A "new departure" in the musical line is promised by Mrs. Rockwood's Easter Concert. Instead of the conventional soprano and contralto we are to have two first rate soprano singers. This will render possible the execution of many airs and concerted pieces which are entirely fresh and unhackneyed. This is the system which the best musical organizers throughout the country have adopted this winter, and we commend it to our citizens.

The remains of Hon. John E. Lyon, late President of the Boston, Concord & Montreal Railroad, arrived in this city from Boston at three o'clock Saturday afternoon; the funeral services had been previously held in Boston, and the body was taken direct from the depot to Union cemetery, where the commitment service was read by Rev. Charles A. Holbrook, rector of St. John's church. Governor Prescott and Ex-Governors Smythe and Stearns, Ex-Congressman Samuel M. Bell, many prominent railroad officials, and numerous other eminent citizens of this State, Massachusetts and Maine, were present to pay the last tribute of respect to the dead. The grave, which was decorated with a beautiful cross of flowers, and with wreaths, was visited by very many on Sunday.

SUPREME COURT.

The Grand Jury concluded their investigations Friday evening; and upon the coming in of the Court Saturday forenoon they made their report and were finally discharged by Presiding Justice Smith, and immediately paid off by County Treasurer Lane. They reported some sixty indictments, thirty of which were for violations of chapter 99 Gen. Statutes, prohibiting the sale of liquor. No evidence was introduced against Portsmouth parties, save one person.

The prisoners held for trial in the Portsmouth and Exeter jails, had already been brought into the Court room by direction of the Sheriff, and were called upon to plead by Solicitor Charles H. Bell—which they did as follows:

John Hanscom and Phebe A. Hanscom, Portsmouth, disorderly house; guilty. Inasmuch as they had already been confined in Portsmouth jail nearly six months, Judge Smith took this into consideration and sentenced them to only thirty days further in said jail, without costs.

James Gilchrist, alias "Scotty," Portsmouth, assault on officer Turner; guilty. Thirty days in Portsmouth jail, without costs; has been in jail five months.

John Bly, Epping, breaking and entering J. S. James' store; guilty. Two years State Prison. No counsel.

Henry L. Thompson, Charlestown, N. H., breaking and entering store of Jacob L. Bunker, Candia; guilty. Three years State Prison. No counsel.

John F. Horrocks, Portsmouth, larceny of shoes from Hussey's store; guilty. Two years State Prison. Hartriman for prisoner.

Chas. E. Witham, Epping, perjury; guilty. Three years State Prison. This was a case where the defendant was in jail at Exeter during Sheriff Rowe's administration, and in order to benefit himself and secure a discharge, gave information against other parties, (one of whom was his brother,) whom he swore broke into a store at West Epping on a given night, when in fact the brother was in the State Prison at that very time. Charles made a mistake as to the date of his brother's pardon. Witham was brought from Manchester here last November. He has been in State Prison before, and also occupied sixteen jails; he is one of the most desperate and dangerous men in the community, and swears he will never go to Concord alive. He has at times practiced his criminal profession in the garb of a preacher, and orated quite eloquently to the Judge in his own behalf, giving as an excuse for the crime that he was induced by other parties to do it.

William E. Dunbrack, Hampton, larceny from a freight car of the Eastern Railroad at Greenland; guilty. One year in Portsmouth jail. Lamprey for defendant.

John Huskins, Newmarket, larceny; guilty. One year in Exeter jail.

Charles Randall of Portsmouth, and William Robinson of Newton, for selling liquor, and William Tattersall of Exeter, for assault, all on bail, failed to appear; bonds called and defaulted, in each case.

John Ryan, (whose real name is Daly,) of East Hampton, Mass., the tramp who is charged with shooting Mrs. Bennett at Newmarket Junction, pleaded not guilty. Towle for prisoner. Trial some day this week.

O. Badger Hanscom, of Eliot, Me., receiving stolen goods, pleaded not guilty. Page for defence.

Phillip H. Kirby, of Portsmouth, indicted for breaking and entering freight cars of the Eastern Railroad in this city; Walter Hoyt, Portsmouth, indicted for attempt to break and enter in this city; and Samuel Wilson and wife, of Portsmouth, indicted for keeping a disorderly house, will be called upon to plead to-day; their cases will be disposed of in their regular order.

It is expected that the criminal business will be so far disposed of to-day that the civil docket will be reached to-morrow.

Court adjourned Saturday at 11 o'clock, until this morning at 10:30.

THE VICINITY.

On Wednesday, the 10th inst., in Great Falls, a tramp stole a pair of shoes from a store door, and ran. He was pursued by the storekeeper until he dropped the shoes, when the storekeeper dropped the chase and took up the shoes, and a policeman took up the chase. The tramp finding himself hard pressed took to the river, and landed on the Maine side in safety, escaping the officer, who took a longer and dryer route to get across.

A small schooner, loaded with poles for a ladder-manufacturing company in York, got stuck on a ledge in York river on Thursday. We are informed that she came off after lightening.

Geo. A. Frost, well known from his past connection with the Atlantic House at Wells Beach, has taken charge of the Eastman House at North Conway, which has been purchased by his brother-in-law, Mr. Boswell.

In acknowledgement of the complimentary vote which he received at the late town meeting in Newington, Mr. John A. Pickering recently gave a supper to his friends at the town hall. A very pleasant time was enjoyed.

While at work Saturday forenoon moving a foundation wall for Mr. Oliver Jenness of Rye, Capt. Elvin Rand of that town had one of his legs broken and badly crushed below the knee, by a large rock falling upon it. Capt. Rand is about sixty-five years old, and is chairman of the board of selectmen.

John McCabe, a section hand on the Portsmouth, Great Falls & Conway railroad, was killed at Union Village, Wakefield, Thursday. He was running in a hand-car over the track when the pay train of the road came suddenly upon him, ran over his car and injured him so that he died soon after. He was buried in Dover.

The average number of paupers and prisoners at the County Farm, in Brentwood, for the year ending May 12th, 1877, was 232. The weekly cost, per head, was $2.49, against $2.36 the previous year. The total debt of the county is $119,056.56, being an increase over the debt of 1876 of $10,037.84. The cost of the support of paupers on the farm was $26,320.54, and off the farm, $8580.78.

The commission of Hon. Joshua G. Hall as Attorney of the United States for the District of New Hampshire having expired, and the commission under his re-appointment not having been received, Judge Shepley, under the authority conferred upon the Circuit Judges by the laws of the United States, has appointed Mr. Hall as Attorney of the United States for this District, to serve until an appointment is made by the President of the United States and the appointee is duly qualified, and no longer. The District Attorney took the oath of office last week, and the appointment has been filed in the clerk's office of the Circuit Court as required by the laws of the United States applicable to such cases.

An indignant "Sufferer" writes us as follows: "Mr. Josiah Williams, of Kittery, in an attempt at hauling logs through the back passage of Brave-boat harbor, was unable on account of the low course of tides to effect his purpose. The logs now lay in the narrow stream (wide enough only for one boat,) and impede its navigation, to the great inconvenience of many who, often, on account of rough weather outside, use this means for returning home as a safety. On Tuesday of last week a number of boats were stopped here; some were hauled over the marsh, while others were obliged to return, and come to Portsmouth on the outside. On Wednesday the scene was repeated by parties who had been clamming. We understand Mr. Williams refuses to remove the logs until it suits his convenience. We should advise those who have been discommoded by him to send in a bill of damages."

Tramping Tests.

We have often intimated and mentioned that the tramps scouring the country, are a regular organized fraternity, having a general understanding with one another. Their uniform appearance, their periodical visits to the same localities, their regular calls at the same houses where they have before had food, all point to this. Jeff Carr, of this city, has found curious emblems about them, has studied their character and listened to their conversation, until he can tell a regular installed tramp from an imposter. The following amusing and instructive dialogue took place between the chief and one of a squad of tramps recently committed to the lockup.

"From whence came you?"

"From a town in New York called Jerusalem."

"What's your business here?"

"To learn to subdue my appetite and to sponge my living from an indulgent public."

"Then you are a regular tramp, I presume?"

"I am so taken and accepted wherever I go."

"How am I to recognize you as a tramp?"

"By the largeness of my feet, and general carnivorous appearance."

"How do you know yourself to be a tramp?"

"In seeking food, by being often denied, but ready to try again."

"How gained you admittance to this town?"

"By a good many long tramps."

"How were you received?"

"On the end of a night policeman's billy, presented to my head."

"How did the policeman dispose of you?"

"He took me several times around the town to the south, east and west, where he found the city marshal, police judge, and the jailer, where a great many questions were asked."

"What advice did the judge give you?"

"He advised me to walk in upright, regular steps, and to denounce tramping."

"Will you be off or from?"

"With your permission I'll be off, very quickly."

"Which way are you travelling?"

"East."

"Of what are you in pursuit?"

"Work, which by my own endeavors and assistance of others, I hope I shall never be able to find."

"My friend, you are now at an institution where the wicked are always troublesome and the weary are as bad as the rest. You will now be conducted to the lower chamber by a pair of winding stairs, consisting of five or ten steps. Instead of corn, wine and oil, the wages of the ancient, yours will be bread and water for thirty days. When you escape from this place, take a beeline for Sydney, where in the winter they usually run free soup houses, and you may be pardoned on condition of your never returning." (Pointing to Mr. Bob Ingalls, the turnkey) "Follow your conductor and fear no danger—if you behave yourself."
—Boston (O.) Beacon.

—"What made you steal that waterproof cloak?" demanded the judge. The culprit whispered: "I was trying to lay up something for a rainy day."

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured to wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the frequent and early use of its wonderful power. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. Its

Construction AND Equipment

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed, a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior article supplanted by a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.

It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 16 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know what I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, only shreds of my nasal canals, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen hours of the time. I prayed death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your issue of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydraulic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than three minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties produce an unequaled remedy for Bilious Diseases, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are accompanying swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If your feet drill, blaze, and blister, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potassium and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa, arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

CATARRH

A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER,—Sirs: I have practised medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the nasal passages, fauces and larynx. I have used every thing in the materia medica without any permanent relief, until finally I was induced to try a patent medicine (something that we allopathists are very loth to do) I tried——and divers others until I got hold of yours. I followed the directions to the letter, and am happy to say have had a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully,
D. W. GRAY, M. D.,
Of Dr. D. W. Gray & Son., Physicians and Druggists, Muscatine, Iowa.

MUSCATINE, IOWA, March 27, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked if the cure of those

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes which in many cases accompany a severe case of Catarrh. The influence and diseased condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these troubles; and until the system has been brought properly under the influence of the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from them cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was placed before the public, but in that short time it has found its way from Maine to California, and is everywhere acknowledged by druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh ever compounded. The fact will be deemed of more importance when it is coupled with the statement that within five years over 150 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day, with one or two exceptions, their names cannot be recalled by the best-informed druggist. Advertising may succeed in forcing a few sales, but, unless the remedy possesses undoubted specific medical properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.00. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

Daily Chronicle.

Are Advertisements Read.

Hon. John Forsyth, the veteran editor of the Mobile Register, used to tell a good story to illustrate the value of newspaper advertising, as a means of getting before the public whenever you wish them to know of your wants or wares. Mr. Forsyth was accidently drawn into a discussion of this subject with a mercantile friend, who expressed emphatic doubts that an advertisement benefitted a man's business at all, and closed his side of the debate with the common remark: "It's all money given to the aid of the newspapers. Nobody reads my advertisement, or thinks of it, or looks after it, except your foreman and collector."

Forsyth replied: "Let us test the truth of your assertion. Sit down and write out an advertisement such as I dictate, and we will put it in the smallest type the cases contain, and insert it in the remotest corner of the Register that you can select."

The next morning there appeared in agate, without a bit of display, and in the most out-of-the-way place in the paper, the following:

Wanted—To buy a dog. Apply at No. — Blank Street.

The contract was that in case the "ad" was a "success," the merchant was to pay Forsyth $5 and treat to wine and oysters. If it failed to meet the eye of parties with merchantable canines, the editor was to pay the merchant $5 and set up a supper for the two. During the day of the first appearance of his experiment, the merchant called at the Register office several times. He looked as though he were in trouble, appeared nervous, looked over his shoulder like one who is pursued by a terrible bore or persistent dun. Finally, late in the evening he met his editorial friend, and before the latter had time to open his mouth, the merchant said, hurriedly and excitedly, "For Heaven's sake leave that advertisement out of your evening edition. There's $5 for it, and $5 more to pay you for saying No. — Blank Street has got a dog. Let's go and get oysters; I'm nearly worried to death."

—Grace Greenwood wants more Schurz in office. Things wouldn't be so shiftless if she could have her way.—Boston Globe.

—In Virginia, while the Moffott register is in operation, the bar-keeper addresses his customer with, "What shall I punch you for, sir?"

—Eggs are only eight cents a dozen in Koscinsko, Wis., and the poorest kind of a lecturer can't talk there without receiving an ovation.

—Mrs. Flynn, of San Francisco, had triplets, and her proud husband, as a guide to the many visitors, chalked over his door, "This is whare the triplits is."

—"Why don't you give us a little Latin and Greek occasionally?" asked a country deacon of a new minister. "Why, do you understand those languages?" "No; but we pay for the best and we ought to have it."

—Mr. Moody tells the Springfield people that they have been reading their Bibles too little and their newspapers too much in the last fifty years, but the newspapers do not believe it, else they would not copy this item.

—A Newburyport photographer, who had a fussy customer the other day, tried a trick of the craft upon her by going through all the motions without any plate in the camera, and then showing the victim one of the first proofs, which very often works satisfactorily, but in this case with no very great success. "I think that's one of my first pictures," said the lady. "I guess not," replied the picture man. "I could hardly have misplaced them." "Oh, but I know it is," replied the positive original, "I've changed my necktie since that one was taken." The artist subsided.

—The quality of a man's work depends to a great extent upon what he feeds on, at the time he is doing it. "After years of study devoted to the subject," writes a gentleman who believes in his own brain capacity, "I have discovered that the very best incentive to brain-work is fish. But let not the reader run away with the idea that any fish will do for any work. On the contrary, a poem written fon codfish and oyster sauce might be excellent; a sermon written on the same would be idiotic. If you wish to write a good drama, turbot is the best fish; for poetical work, and comic, sprats; serious, codfish and oyster sauce; for a romantic story, boiled soles; for a leading article, whelks; for sermons, periwinkles. For writing essays upon pure or applied sciences I have always found bloaters the best food. No man can do anything on salmon, unless it is to make his will or write an actionable letter to his enemy."

The Patent Laws.

The bill to amend the statutes in relation to patents, introduced in the U. S. Senate by Mr. Wadleigh of this State last November, has been reported by that Senator from the committee on patents, with certain amendments. This bill has attracted no little attention, and parties interested have been heard before the committee.

Mr. Wadleigh, though not what is technically termed a patent lawyer, has nevertheless some experience in this branch of the law. His large practice and reading, and his industry, (for which he seems to be celebrated among his Senatorial peers,) naturally placed the responsibility of shaping this bill in his hands. The proposed enactment limits the recovering in actions for profits or damages for an infringement of a patent to four years from the commencement of the suit; it fixes the measure of damages, regulates the mode of appeal, provides for issuing a new patent in cases where a patent is invalid by reason of defective, specification or error, and enacts what is an infringement. It also provides for the perpetuating of testimony to be used in patent cases, and allowing persons other than patentees interested to bring suits to test the validity of patents, and establishing other like remedies. It provides for the assignment of patents and rights. It enacts that the Commissioner of Patents, the Assistant Commissioner and the Chief Clerk shall each give bonds for the faithful discharge of the duties of their respective offices, and payment of all money received by virtue thereof. The present laws relative to evidence of recent models, patents, etc., are amended. The first fee on allowance of a patent is fixed as to time of payment for six months after allowance of a patent. It changes the existing laws as to inventions first patented abroad, and also requires the word "patented" to be affixed upon all vended articles that are patented.

There are many new features in the bill which seem to be the result of a careful consultation with those best informed on this immense interest, and doubtless as it is to be considered at this time it may call out some discussion. The litigation growing out of patent infringements; the enormous capital embarked in the business, and the rights of the vast mechanical and agricultural interests of the country, so dependent upon patented articles; the changes brought about in many respects, since the earlier laws upon this subject, all render it important that a clear and adequate enactment of the law relating to patents should be had. Such a result is hoped for in the bill which Senator Wadleigh has laid before the Senate, and to the preparation and revision of which he has devoted much valuable time.

The McGarrahan Case.

The sensation in Washington, Saturday, was the extraordinary developments at the investigation of the McGarrahan case in relation to the original patent of the property to McGarrahan. The New Idria Company have claimed that the patent was never duly signed and executed. On Saturday it was conclusively proven that President Lincoln did sign the patent, and that the documents have been mutilated by somebody since that time. The recent developments in this case put Judge Jere. Black, counsel for the New Idria Mining Company, (but better known to the public as the loudest and most persistent "fraud" shrieker in the democratic party—not even excepting Montgomery Blair,) in a very peculiar light.

In brief, it may be stated that the New Idria Company hold a tract of land containing valuable mines, and McGarrahan claims (and has for many years claimed) that this identical piece of land is legally his, by patent from the United States government. McGarrahan has been fighting his claim before Congress for so long that he had at last come to be regarded as a chronic nuisance, and has been charged with about all the crimes in the calendar by his opponents, their leading counsel, the immaculate Jere. Black, and the numerous newspapers in the New Idria Co's pay. "The everlasting McGarrahan claim" was voted a standing reproach, and its persistent advocate a standing bore.

But at last he has secured a re-hearing before the Senate committee on public lands, and at every meeting of the committee the case looks blacker and blacker for the New Idria Co. and the great fraud shrieker. About the middle of March, Black introduced what purported to be a list of stockholders in the Panoche Grand (or McGarrahan) Company, this list containing the names of many persons who were members of Congress at the time this case was last before it; Black also put in as evidence numerous letters, from McGarrahan and one Franck, a former secretary of the Panoche Grande, to these members of Congress, all going to show that wholesale corruption had been used by Mc arrahan. But McGarrahan's counsel so riddled this evidence that Black was finally forced to repudiate the entire mass of documentary evidence, admit that he had no proof of its genuineness, are that he did not believe any of the assertions made in it! Further, many of the Ex-Congressmen (democrats and republicans) whose reputations were assailed hastened to Washington uncalled, and conclusively disproved the charges against them, several of those whom Black's evidence showed were bought by McGarrahan, proving from the Record that they voted against McGarrahan's claim; and one, who said that he then voted against it, added that were he now in Congress he would vote for it, believing it just. A democratic correspondent, writing of the scene in committee when Black was so completely checkmated, says "he had nothing to offer save an exhibition of temper and low blackguardism." And this from a democrat, after all Black's yelling of "fraud," too!

Other evidence introduced casts grave suspicion on Black's integrity as an official. Jere. Black, when Attorney General of the United States, made a motion in the Supreme Court to revoke a mandate dismissing an appeal in this case, on the ground that there was no appeal. Yet in the Attorney General's docket, which was produced, this entry appears: "Appeal filed," against this very case.

The New Idria Company has made $30,000,000 out of the property in dispute, and there is no wonder that they do not want to give it up; but it looks now as if they had only held it by the grossest fraud, perjury and forgery, perpetrated under the general direction of some consummate scoundrel.

Specie Payment Resumed.

The Third National Bank of Cincinnati on Monday commenced redeeming its notes in gold on presentation, and the telegram bringing the welcome news also announces it is as probable that other National banks in that city will immediately adopt the same course. It is significant that this first absolute resumption of specie payments occurs in what has been the hot-bed of the greenback craze.

Congress.

In the Senate, Monday, Mr. Sargent submitted an amendment to the House bill restoring Gen. Shields to the army and putting him on the retired list; the amendment proposes to put all the Union brigadiers on the list with Gen. Shields.

The Senate passed the bill repealing the bankrupt act, by a vote of thirty-seven to six.

In the House, Blair's blatherskite resolution was introduced. Stephens of Georgia wanted it rejected without a reference; no action was reached. During the debate the fact came out that a bill to carry into effect the recommendations of Blair's resolutions has been introduced in the House and has been referred to the judiciary committee, without the knowledge of the House. Gen. Garfield entered a motion to reconsider the reference of this bill.

News and Notes.

Gold, Monday, 100 1-8.

On Monday, April 15th, the magnificent steamers Bristol and Providence commenced running on the route between Boston and New York, on the Fall River line. No expense has been spared to make these splendid boats perfect for the convenience and safety of passengers. A fine band is attached to each steamer, and promenade concerts are given on every trip.

Mr. John Stetson, a successful manager of theatres in Boston, some time since leased from Arthur Cheney the Globe Theatre, paying a good round sum, (two thousand dollars per month, we believe,) in advance. Mr. Stetson makes a good thing out of the lease. He is a live manager and keeps his house full. He proposes this week to introduce horses and other animals in some exhibition, and Mr. Cheney sought to have him restrained by injunction, and the case was heard before Chief Justice Gray, on Friday, who holds that an international hippodrome may not be a circus. The lease specifies that the theatre should be used only for theatrical and musical performances, and the Court, after hearing experts, decides that though there may be a ring upon the stage, the proposed performance does not conflict with the terms of the lease. The case created considerable interest in Boston, and the result of Mr. Cheney's attempt will be simply a liberal local advertisement of his lessee's performance, which people will now want to witness and judge for themselves of its character.

The Parisian hotel men propose to extort high prices from the rest of mankind who attend the Exposition. They may overdo the thing and find that some Yankee will get up a set of hotels like those that started up near the Centennial grounds in Philadelphia, and while reducing prices make for himself far more than the frog-eaters can by their extortions.

S. Angier Chace, the Fall River defaulter, was arrested and lodged in jail on Saturday, bail being fixed at $250,000, which he was unable to procure.

A cable despatch from England, Saturday, speaking of the British government having countermanded an order to fit out a lot of little iron gunboats now hauled on the slips at Hasler, says: "These are formidable little vessels of 254 tons displacement, with twenty screws, and carrying each an eighteen-ton gun in the bows." Twenty screws and one gun seems an odd fit-out for a war-steamer, but possibly "twin screws" is what was intended.

Tweed's funeral occurs on Wednesday. It will be private and unostentatious, with no pall-bearers; services conducted by Rev. Mr. Price, of Hampstead, who performed the marriage ceremony for Mr. Tweed.

Clerk Mechlin of the War Department at Washington was on Saturday sentenced to a fine and imprisonment for kicking his daughters in the face, beating them with a chair-rocker, his fist, a hammer and a chisel, and for other brutalities.

A tornado passed over Cottonwood, Kansas, Saturday night, blowing forty-five cars off the track of the Santa Fe road, destroying a number of houses, and some lives.

There was a destructive fire at Clarksville, Tenn., Saturday night. The best judges estimate the loss at half a million dollars. The burnt district covers fifteen acres.

Walker Dening, a negro farm laborer, a few days ago eloped from a town in Walker county, Texas, with Fannie McGuire, the seventeen-years-old daughter of his white employer. The ill-matched pair took up their residence in Houston, in a hut on the outskirts of the city, where they were discovered by the girl's brother and uncle, who took the girl home, the negro being arrested by the Houston officials. On the night of the 9th inst. the prisoner was taken from the jail by a mob, and riddled with bullets.

Massachusetts occasionally makes a stride toward civilization. By a new law to go into effect the tenth of May, tickets issued by one street railway in Boston will be good upon any other line, under a penalty of one dollar for each refusal.

The reports of the various committees appointed at the Centennial Exhibition are being printed in a leisurely manner, under the supervision of the bureau of awards. Mr. Edward Atkinson's report on American cotton, which has just appeared, states that the judges had great difficulty in making a selection, and at last, after successive rejections, three bales remained among which they could make no discrimination and for which they made three awards. When the key was opened, which disclosed the names and residence of the contributors, it was found, "to the equal satisfaction of all the judges, whether from the North or South, or from abroad," that one of the diplomas had been gained by a freedman, whose farm, formerly known as the Joe Davis plantation in Mississippi, now proves that the production of cotton no longer depends on slavery for abundance or quality; while another was gained by a Vermont farmer, who moved to Louisiana after the war.

New Hampshire Items.

The Pension Agent at Concord had upon his roll Jan. 1, 1878, 18,585 pensioners. His salary was $2000; his fees on pension vouchers $8,177; on attorneys' checks $148.50; making a total compensation of $10,325.50. He claims to have paid for clerical aid $5,165.64; rent $350; fuel and postage, $1025.63; making his expenses foot up $6541.27, and a net income for six months, from July 1, 1877, to Dec. 31, 1878, of $3,784.23. The average cost of a pensioner to the government for six months was $0.54 4-9, or less than at any other agency in the country.

The debt of the First Baptist Society of Manchester amounts to $20,000, of which $15,000 is a mortgage held by the Amoskeag Bank, and $2500 are needed immediately to pay the accrued interest, to stay the proceedings of foreclosure and liquidate the small floating debt. Rev. William Hayne delivered an earnest discourse Sunday on the duty of paying honest debts, after which Hon. Lewis W. Clark, President of the Society, addressed the congregation for nearly half an hour in a plain, forcible and practical way. The result was an immediate subscription of $2635, which is more than enough to meet the present emergency. The new $60,000 church is the cause of the Society's indebtedness, which will probably be provided for before the year closes.

Lucien Gale of Laconia, aged sixty, a graduate of Dartmouth of the class of '44, died suddenly of apoplexy on Saturday.

Ex-Gov. Harriman has received an invitation from the Memorial Committee of New York city, representing the eighteen posts of the Grand Army of the Republic in that city, to deliver an oration on the coming Memorial Day, May 30, and to join in the evening exercises in Chickering Hall.

A despatch from Plymouth, N. H., dated Sunday, says: "The meeting of the Directors of the Boston, Concord & Montreal Railroad, called for Monday at the Treasurer's office in Boston, in reference to the death of President John E. Lyon, is indefinitely postponed. It is probable that nothing will be done until the annual meeting the last of May, unless something very unexpected takes place. There is no need of filling the position, as everything was left in such perfect order."

THE CITY.

The valuable paintings of the late Daniel Austin have been sent to Boston to be sold.

Mr. E. H. Winchester is putting up an Eclipse windmill to pump water from one of his wells to supply the cattle on his farm.

A new plank sidewalk extends from Miller avenue westerly by the residence of John Pender, Esq., and adds to the comfort of pedestrians in wet weather.

Mr. B. F. Webster has a new house in course of construction upon his land beyond the residence of Major Vaughan. Mr. Smith is putting in the foundation for a new house at the corner of High and School streets.

A telegram on Monday evening from Lancaster, where the Methodist Conference has been in session for the week last past, announced that Rev. Mr. Noyes goes to Amesbury, Mass., for the next year, and Rev. C. B. Pitblado comes to Portsmouth.

Mr. Edward P. Nowell, formerly of this city, has assumed editorial control of the Chicago Commercial Advertiser, a paper which as its name denotes is devoted to the business interests—of the West in general and Chicago in particular. He makes a lively sheet of it.

The schooner wrecked near Cape Porpoise on Friday, as before reported, was the Concord, Capt. Gray, for many years a regular trader between this port and Rockland, Me.; at the time of the wreck she was bound here with a cargo of lime consigned to Samuel Adams & Co. She was of about forty-two tons burthen.

There is no fear that the potato-bug will be scarce in this vicinity, this year. A gentleman in this city rooted several out of the ground on Monday, while trenching his garden for planting early potatoes. Last year the striped vagabond sat on the fence to wait for the potato to come up; this year he evidently intends to dig up the seed.

A despatch received in this city on Monday announced the total loss of schooner Light of Home, of this port, near Lockport, Nova Scotia, Sunday night. She was one of the fishing fleet of Valentine Doane, Jr., and left here last week for a trip to the Banks; she registered fifty-six tons, and carried a crew of ten men, who were all saved. She ran ashore, and afterward sank.

This being "Holy Week," the following is the order of services at St. John's church: Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday: 10:30 A. M., 5 P. M. Maundy Thursday: 10:30 A. M., 8 P. M., (commemoration of the institution of the Blessed Sacrament.) Good Friday: 11 A. M., 12 M. (meditation;) 7:30 P. M., (in chapel.) Easter Even: 10:30 A. M., 5 P. M. Sermons daily at Evening Prayer. Easter Day: 10:30 A. M., 4 P. M., (anniversary of Sunday School, offering for the Children's Home;) 7:30 P. M.

Friday evening, as three fashionably-attired young ladies were walking up Market street, one of them suddenly reached her hand as far toward the extremity of her back hair as the length of her arm would admit, and then exclaimed in evident consternation, "O, Lizzie! I've lost my hat." Hastily retracing their steps, the truant article of dress was found some three hundred yards distant from the point where its loss was first discovered; it was quickly replaced as near the young lady's head as possible, and the trio went on their way rejoicing.

A resident of this city on visiting the South cemetery last Sunday was surprised to find that the boys had been at work chipping out the lead from the joints of the granite wall surrounding his lot; and on examining other lots in the vicinity found that they also had been similarly tampered with. The young thieves may not be aware that such acts come under the head of "malicious mischief," which the Police Court cannot settle, all such cases having to go to the Supreme Court for adjudication. It would be a good thing if one or two of them could be detected; and yet they are not half so mean or provoking as the flower thieves who every summer desecrate the graves in our cemeteries by robbing them of the plants and flowers placed on them by loving hands.

The schooner Mayor Jones sails from V. Doane, Jr's, wharf to-day for the Grand Bank.

J. M. Tebbetts announces his spring opening of pattern hats and bonnets, and general millinery goods, at store No. 14 Market street, to-day. See advertisement.

Capt. Charles C. Ricker, formerly of this city but for some years past a resident of Liverpool, England, is now master of the British ship Kate Killock, which cleared at San Francisco on the 13th inst. for Liverpool.

Those who heard Mrs. Rockwood sing at the Eclectic musicale this winter will need no urging to attend the Easter concert she announces through our columns. To those who did not, we would say that no such musical entertainment as she offers has been presented in Portsmouth for many a day.

POLICE COURT.

Monday, April 15th; Batchelder, J.

Joseph Fabyan, drunk, $9.90, fine and costs. Brentwood to work it out.

John Berry and Mary E. Berry, claiming to be husband and wife, and most certainly vagrants, were sent to the County Farm for three months.

SUPREME COURT.

Court assembled at 10:30 A. M.; Monday. The petit jury were sworn for the two weeks to follow, and the criminal docket was resumed.

Samuel Wilson and his wife Anna Wilson, of Portsmouth, were called to answer to an indictment for keeping a disorderly house, pleaded guilty and were sentenced to thirty days each in Portsmouth jail, without costs.

Phillip H. Kirby, of Portsmouth, indicted for breaking and entering freight cars of the Eastern Railroad at Portsmouth, pleaded nolo contendere and was sentenced to one year in Portsmouth jail.

Orlando Badger Hanscom, of Eliot, indicted for receiving stolen goods (some tobacco) from the Eastern Railroad freight cars at Greenland, pleaded nolo contendere, and was sentenced to fifty days in Portsmouth jail.

The next case called was State vs Walter Hoyt, indicted for breaking and entering the liquor saloon of John and James Hehir. Bell for State; Hatch for defence. Case given to the jury in the evening. [A telegram to Sheriff Kent, at 8 o'clock Monday evening, stated that the jury acquitted Hoyt.]

THE VICINITY.

Vaughan's Island, off Kennebunkport, was sold on Saturday, for one thousand dollars, to Seth Warren of Kennebunk.

Owing to a cut down of wages in the Cocheco Mills at Dover, about four-fifths of the weavers refused to go to work on Monday.

The house and other buildings, owned and occupied by Leonard Wells, at Wells Beach, were burned Sunday night. The fire was cause by the breaking of a kerosene lamp. Loss $2000; insured $1200.

Ed. L. Jordan, the scamp who cut such a swell in Dover some months ago, swindling everybody he could, (including his wife,) has been heard from at Saratoga, N. Y., where he is under arrest for forgery.

Hon. T. B. Reed, Representative in Congress from the Portland (Maine) district, has presented in the House of Representatives the petition of the Ocean Insurance Co., of Portland, and others, insurers and ship-owners, for an appropriation to enable the Light-House Board to purchase and place at such points on the coast as the board may deem necessary, the Courtenay automatic bouy.

On Monday morning about one o'clock the Frisbee Hotel at Kittery Point was discovered to be on fire, and in two hours there was not a chip of it left. A son of Mr. Frisbee was the only occupant of the house, and as there had been no fire since eleven o'clock on Sunday morning it is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. Loss $7500 on house, $1800 on furniture. A parlor set and a small amount of bedding were saved. Insured (DeRochemont's agency) in the Germania and German American of New York, and the Commercial American, of London, $2000; also in the Old Hartford, of Boston, $3000. All of the rooms were engaged for the summer.

The Dover Democrat says that Savage, the murderer of Rose Vincent at Biddeford, is well known in Dover, having lived there a year ago or more. While there he went by the name of Young. He "was a good looking and smart appearing man who wore a sort of navy uniform, not full and complete, but resembling the dress of the navy, and walked smartly about town with a nice cane. He behaved so well that he worked himself into the good graces and affections of a young lady, and it was understood they were to be married. The lady had a bank account with quite a sum in her favor, which she drew out, and then the rascal Young, alias Savoie, alias Savage, stole it all and ran away, and had not been heard from since until it turns out that he is the murderer of Rose Vincent."

Naval Affairs.

Orders have been received at Norfolk for the repair and refitting of the U. S. S. Enterprise. She will start in about two weeks for a survey of the Amazon river, to occupy eighteen months or two years.

The U. S. S. Marion arrived at Smyrna from Greece, March 15th. She goes to Beirut and other ports on the coast of Syria.

Political.

The Washington Union, the paper established at the Capital some months ago by Hon. John Lynch of Maine as an extreme administration organ, has been bought by the Washington Post, the democratic organ. The latter will assume both names, and hereafter be called the Post and Union.

Democratic economy, as illustrated by the course of the present House, simply amounts to a reduction of appropriations for every branch of the government except the House itself. The result is deficiency bills, and an extravagant increase by the House over the amount required for its use while the republicans were in the majority. The figures prove the truth of these assertions, and should be carried forward for convenient use in the coming campaign.

To those democratic members who claim that the election of an ex-Confederate officer to the doorkeepership is "a magnificent triumph," we may say, as the French general said to the English general while witnessing the fatal British cavalry charge at Balaklava: "It is very fine, but it is not war." And if the democrats continue to make war in this manner, they deserve—and will get, sooner or later—a thorough drubbing at the polls.—St. Louis Republican (Dem.)

The selection of the rebel General Field by the democratic House is fair notice that the former condition of things, which did more to disturb the peace and prosperity of the country than anything else, is to be restored—the complete subjection of the democrats of the North to the slaveholding element of the South; a surrender of all manliness and independence to an aristocratic class which is prepared to demand entire control of National affairs as it did before the war.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

If the Ellsworth American is correct in the statement that "the leaders of the democratic party [in Maine] are forsaking the paths which their fathers trod, and are preparing to make their bed with the greenback party," it announces an unwelcome truth. After holding on to the old democratic faith so long amidst trials, discouragements and persecutions, * * * the present is no time for democrats to strike their colors.—Boston Post.

—A man will sit on a picket-fence all the afternoon to see a ball match, but put him in a church pew for three-quarters of an hour, and he will wabble all over the seat.

—A Nevada politician was elected on the merits of one single speech. All he said was: "Fellow-countrymen, follow me to yonder saloon!"—Detroit Free Press.

—At twenty a woman searches for the trailing arbutus. At twenty-five she is after horse radish. At thirty she digs roots for her blood. Such is gentle spring in the various stages of the feminine life.—Danbury News.

—The New York Herald says "Lotta talks of reappearing at the Park Theatre. She is one of the richest actresses on the stage. She draws interest on upward of $200,000 of government bonds, and can't keep away from the footlights."

—A creditor in Maysville, Ky., sought to get an attachment on the ground that his debtor had said, "I am going to sell out and go to hell," thus justifying a belief that he intended to quit the State. The justice decided that the remark was no indication that the debtor meant to go out of Kentucky.

Whom Shall We Trust.

When afflicted with a complication of disorders, and the limited resources of the family physician have been exhausted without benefit, the all important question is, whom shall we trust? Many physicians are bidding for the patronage of this class, and it becomes the afflicted to thoroughly examine into a physician's claims, and know upon what they are based, before trusting him. R. V. Pierce, M. D., of Buffalo, N. Y., is one of the most successful and widely known of authors and physicians in America. He has recently erected a Grand Invalids' Hotel, in Buffalo, at the enormous expense of nearly half a million dollars, it being the most complete and elegant sanitarium in the world. Dr. Pierce has originated a system of diagnosis by which he is enabled to distinguise most chronic diseases without seeing the patient. This scientific system is fully described in his Common Sense Medical Adviser, which is sent to any address on receipt of $1.50. Address R. V. Pierce, M. D., Grand Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

The doctor is endorsed by the clergy, as well as by the medical profession, of the land. We have space for only the following among the large list to whom he refers:

Hon. A. I. Boreman, Ex Governor of West Virginia, and late U. S. Senator; C. R. Fairchild, M. D., Seneca, N. Y.; W. B. Cousins, M. D., Albia, Iowa; M. J. McClellan, M. D., Garrattsville, N.Y.; W. F. Hazleton, M. D., Silver Lake, Kan.; F. S. Turner, M. D., Veazie, Me.; Geo. Dieterich, M. D., 105 Vine street, Baltimore, Md.; J. H. Seerrod, M. D., Paoli, Ind.; Geo. B. Chapman, M. Adamson's Botanic Balsam has restored thousands to health who had been long and painful sufferers with Colds and Coughs. 35 cts.

The Grand Central Hotel, New York, has long been a favorite with Southern people. Now that the St. Nicholas is soon to close, it is presumed that the Grand Central will absorb a still larger proportion of the Southern trade.

THINK OF IT, that a Cough or Cold neglected may lead to serious consequences; in the early stage of Throat and Lung diseases, Madame Porter's Cough Balsam is an invaluable remedy, can be taken by the oldest person or youngest child. Is safe, reliable, and agreeable to the taste. Price 25 cents, and in large bottles at 50 and 75 cents.

In these trying times, it is necessary to make money, and there is no surer or quicker method than to invest a few hundred dollars in stock speculation. Alex. Frothingham & Co., 12 Wall st., N. Y., are reliable and experienced brokers, and have been the means of realizing fortunes for many of their customers. Their Weekly Financial Report is sent free.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and gives a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their house, for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely precaution. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. Its
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed, a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES
Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.
NATURAL SELECTION.
Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that insures safety, thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they would emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became comple-ely closed, "snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," couldn't work, though at intervals I would snuff up the squalled catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head and other my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 36 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, spirits entirely broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I have kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly, S. D. REMICK.
A CLOUD OF WITNESSES.
The following named parties are among the thousands who have been cured of catarrh by the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy:

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Chalagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery
By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; Red Eruptions. By virtue of its Tonic and Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Bronchitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness; Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint," and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.
Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and eruptions, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternate with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Erysipelas, Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucborrhea arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff, and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

CATARRH

A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER,—Sirs: I have practised medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the nasal passages, fauces and larynx. I have used everything in the materia medica without any permanent relief, until finally I was induced to try a patent medicine (something that we allopathists are very loth to do) I tried——and divers others until I got hold of yours. I followed the directions to the letter, and am happy to say I had a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully
D. W. GRAY, M. D.,
Of Dr. D. W. Gray & Son., Physicians and Druggists, Muscatine, Iowa.

MUSCATINE, IOWA, March 27, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in the cure of those

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes which in many cases accompany a severe case of Catarrh. The inflamed and diseased condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these troubles; and until the system has been brought properly under the influence of the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from them cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was placed before the public, but in that short time it has found its way from Maine to California, and is everywhere acknowledged by druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh ever compounded. The fact will be deemed of more importance when it is coupled with the statement that within five years over 250 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day, with one or two exceptions, their names cannot be recalled by the best-informed druggist. Advertising may succeed in forcing a few sales, but when the remedy passes undoubted specific medical properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.00. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

BLUE ARMY BLOUSES.

WE have just received a few more of those BLUE ARMY BLOUSES, which have been in such demand for the last twelve months.

C. E. MYERS & CO., No. 3 BOW STREET.

Daily Chronicle.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 12th.

Early in the session Hendrick Wright, representative from the Wyoming Valley coal region, Pa., created something of a sensation by the introduction of a bill substantially proposing that government give $500 to each head of a family who would in return "go west" and settle upon the government lands. This was asserted by some to be in the nature of a bribe to idlers, voluntary and involuntary, of Wright's district, to restrain them from the riotous tendencies observed among them; or perhaps, a bid for their support. They are, it is said, largely of foreign birth or extraction, and the spirit of Molly Maguireism and communism, indigenous with the alien portion of Mr. Wright's constituents, has developed into alarming proportions under stress of the prevailing hard times among the coal miners. The truckling and apologetic tone he observed toward the mob elements of his district has not enhanced his popularity among those who believe obedience to law is vitally necessary to our national prosperity and safety. And new Mr. Wright has given the fullest expression to his financial views by the introduction, Tuesday, of a concurrent resolution authorizing the government to inflate by the issue of $400,000,000 in United States notes to be known as "National money," and to be legal tender for all debts, dues and obligations, public or private, save when specially contracted otherwise. Except rampant inflationists, members indicated their impatience by objections to its reading, characterizing it as a "stump speech;" democrats spat on it; and the feeling on both sides of the House appeared to be that it was a piece of work only creditable to the most arrant demagogue.

Jay Gould and his lobby adherents got a black eye in the House the other day, which with those previously received from time to time in the Senate has pretty effectually closed both peepers of that notorious wrecker; and the passage of the judiciary committee's bill forcing Pacific Railroads to provide means from their earnings to liquidate their government indebtedness at date of maturity, is about the most decisive defeat the powerful lobby has ever suffered in Congress. It has been a long struggle. For weeks the almost undivided attention of the Senate has been devoted to it. The whole matter has been discussed in all its bearings, dispassionately and without hurry or confusion. Gould slunk away abashed and mortified from the stinging rebukes administered by Edmunds and others for his shameless attempts to influence legislation by his peculiar methods, and he leaves us convinced that there are some things he can't accomplish with all his cheek and money. The vote—40 to 19—aside from the merits of the question directly involved, is particularly gratifying, inasmuch as it is likely to stand as a precedent in future legislation. And it is to be hoped that it marks a renewal of public policy, the government hereafter never to shrink from asserting and maintaining its superiority to the monopoly power which has in this instance been shivered to atoms, notwithstanding the championship of Stanley Matthews and other "reform" statesmen.

Secretary Sherman's conference on the 9th with New York bankers was to solicit their co-operation in an effort to anticipate the date fixed by law for resumption. His proposition is stated to have been that they should purchase $100,000,000 worth of four per cents. at par, allowing 1 1-4 per cent. commission, to be delivered in installments of five or ten million as the banks shall elect, payments to be made in gold for the full amount by Jan. 1, 1879. Confidence in Mr. Sherman's ability to wisely conduct our finances seems to have been largely enhanced by his successful defense of his plan before Congressional critics and catechisers.

The moderate course toward the Administration decided on at the Joint Republican caucus of Representatives and Senator, Wednesday evening seems to meet the approval of the party leaders here, those even most radically opposed apparently acquiescing, though not without symptoms showing that the restraint imposed is particularly galling. The constantly recurring assertions of the President's utter indifference to the good or ill opinion of the party that elevated him to the Presidency, has grown monotonous. He is made to sustain a character by these friends with more zeal than discretion, evidently, that is wholly abnormal. By them he is made a stoic simply through the absence of the ordinary sensibilities with which man was endowed when created "a little lower than the angels." Those best acquainted with the actual Mr. Hayes find it difficult to reconcile the two characters. The motives which appear to underlie these misdirected efforts seemingly made to ingratiate their authors with the administration are so much like those of the ordinary camp-follower, that they have succeeded in discrediting their own statements among reflecting men; and it is unlikely that the President feels under a great weight of obligations for these labored attempts to make him the pachyderm that he is not.

Polk haunts the Capital bearing his party's sins, a monument of democratic cupidity, faithlessness and ingratitude. Unless they can purchase his silence he promises to become troublesome, and they tremble at his tread. Field's election as his successor must be and is regarded as the deliberately-expressed preference of the party for the unshriven rebel over the Union soldier.

Democratic economy threatens to close the District public schools and the Pension Office, both seemingly regarded as Yankee institutions that ought to be suppressed.

Comments heard on the work of Wood's tariff adjusters are largely unfavorable. Under the operation of his bill a large deficit seems as certain as anything in the future can be. Eastern members of Congress think the spirit of hostility is patent at every stage of the work of Wood and his co-laborers, and the discrimination in favor of the products of the South and West—particularly the former—is quite as evident. KNOX.

Daily Chronicle

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17, 1878.

Monsieur Tonson Come Again.

For some time the public has had a respite from the Tilton-Beecher scandal, and most people—all decent people—devoutly hoped never to hear of it again; but some person or persons have dug up the foul matter, and it seems quite possible that the public may have to take another nauseating dose of it, though already super-surfeited. For some little time past the New York Sun has maintained that Mrs. Tilton had written a letter acknowledging her shame and guilt; but she, on being interviewed, flatly denied having written or intending to write any such letter; but on Tuesday a letter signed Elizabeth R. Tilton and addressed to her counsel, Ira B. Wheeler, was published simultaneously in all the papers in all the large cities in the Union. In this letter she not only acknowledges her guilt, but requests Mr. Wheeler to publish her shame to the world! Of course there will be many who think they can trace the machiavellian hand of Theodore Tilton in this document, purporting to be a confession by a woman of crimes which for years she has stoutly and solemnly denied. It would be a sad misfortune to society to have a general reopening of the Beecher scandal, and that we think is scarcely liable to occur unless the poor, weak-minded, pitable woman is able to cite some strong corroborating circumstances to sustain her latest version of her relations with the Plymouth pastor. There is something that seems foreign to the character of Mrs. Tilton, as before manifested, in the request that her confession, made over night, should be blazoned to the world in a thousand newspapers next morning. But it is exactly in the Theodore Tilton line of procedure. All this, while it must inspire hesitation in accepting as truth the story now promulgated, does not disprove it.

The most sensible commentary on the letter that we have seen is the following from the Boston Post: "Those who still have faith in Mr. Beecher will not believe Mrs. Tilton's statements, and we doubt whether they would accept a deathbed confession to the same effect from the Plymouth church pastor himself. The moral status of the affair and the opinions of the public will not be materially changed; so let this letter be filed away among the other archives of this 'celebrated case,' there to rest until time shall efface its condemning lines."

The Democratic Drag-Net.

When the present Congress assembled, Representative Glover, of Missouri, (that State of late so prolific of democratic "statesmen,") managed to get himself started in business as a general investigator—not to investigate anything in particular, but to hunt (with the assistance of certain bummers and disgraced officials as experts,) everywhere for possible republican corruption, exposure of which might help the democratic party politically. Every few days Glover electrifies the country by a blast on his bugle horn; and then, having attracted universal attention, he shouts, "We've got him at last—we've got a republican in the net this time, sure;" and next day he whispers, "Oh, thunder! it's a democrat, after all. Over with the net again, boys, quick." The trouble is, doubtless, not that there are no republican rascals to be caught, but that there are so many more democratic rascals that just before the drag-net catches a republican some democrat tumbles into it. The Bounding Bannisg, who holds his seat in Congress by the grace of Eph Holland, the ballot-box stuffer, and who is particularly severe on republican corruption and political frauds, was disgusted enough when he had to refund some double-pay which he drew during the war; and in fact hardly a mud-hole has been dragged without some prominent democrat being found in it. The latest haul of the net is the most displeasing one yet made by Glover and his men. When the Morrison committee of the last Congress went to Louisiana to hunt for republican frauds in connection with the electoral count, John G. Thompson, Sergeant-at-Arms of the House, placed $32,000 in the hands of Major E. K. Donavin, of Ohio, the then Deputy Sergeant-at-Arms, and Col. Polk, his assistant, afterwards the doorkeeper of the House. Now Glover's blundering experts, who are employed solely to ferret out republican corruption, have unearthed evidence that about one-third of the sum was misappropriated by democratic officials of the last House. Mr. Glover is the authority for the statement that at least $10,000 was not expended, but in a crooked manner went into the pockets of certain democrats. It is charged that Polk and Donavin can tell just what became of this money, and they will be required to testify regarding it. The affair has created much excitement among the democrats, and the proof as to the "irregularity" is said to be overwhelming. We fear the democratic Congressmen will soon lose all interest in further investigations.

Our New York Fashion Letter.

METAL TRIMMINGS.

'Tis scarce to be believed how fashionable "metal" of different kinds is at present. We have bonnets all crusted over with gilt, silver, or steel, or again we find alternations of metal braids with varieties of straw. Metal additions in the way of trimming are largely used, as for example, rows of large gilt beads, gilt bands and curiously devised gilt ornaments in great variety. Metal is employed on costumes likewise. Dress fabrics are interwoven therewith; braidings or bands are wholly or partially composed of gilt or silver, and ribbons placed in band-like fashion show borderings of metal. Again we see what may be called "metallic effects." Over superb costumes of Oriental fabric, seems to have fallen a shower of gold or silver, but it is in seeming only, since in truth there is no thread of metal anywhere. Rainbow jet on dark silks is also conspicuous in many colored radiations.

OUT-DOOR GARMENTS.

First come just the sweetest little capes and fichus that ever were; so coquettish; so pretty. Of black silk or cashmere, they are trimmed with lace or fringe, and the more expensive are embroidered. The Burnous scarf is a very graceful and stylish wrap in the form of a scarf, caught by a burnous plait at the back, and tied loosely in front. Then we have cut away jackets of light mesaic cloth, either black, gray, or brown, and in more sober style we find straight sacques, dolmans and mantillas. The Selika mantilla is a graceful design, and in dolmans, the Regina is a distinguished model. Garments made in silk are trimmed with rainbow jet, and additional finish is given by lace or fringe.

COSTUMES: COLORED EMBROIDERY.

Cool wash costumes are of percale stamped in bourette patterns combined with solid colored percale, showing overskirt, cut away jacket and vest. Knife plaitings are used in trimming, or again the underskirt is finished with a bias ruffle, and white or colored embroidery ornament the overskirt and jacket. On white costumes, pretty effects are produced by scarlet or blue embroidery. Colored embroidery is indeed quite a feature in spring fashions, for we see it furthermore on sacques, aprons, petticoats, and even night dresses, to say nothing of collars, ties, and handkerchiefs. Stylish handkerchiefs are now stamped with colored borders woven in scallops. But the most coquettish intermixtures occur in breakfast caps, which are extremely fashionable even for young ladies. On one, I counted a mixture of more than a dozen colors in the embroidery, while parti-colored ribbons and a bouquet of gay flowers gave finish. Then again they are of fresh white muslin, relieved by a delicate ribbon; wide gaudy ones are of colored silk barege, worked in some violent contrast. A handsome breakfast robe accompanies the cap, or the cap accompanies the robe, whichever way you may put it.

SHOES AND STOCKINGS.

Cinderella might be envious of the pretty shoes worn in-doors. With delicate straps across the instep, they show the ornamental stocking below, while bows of colored ribbon give a finish full of coquetry. One may choose the slipper, half high shoe or sandal boot. For street wear, we have the side buttoned boot in French kid, or with cloth top, but the novelty is the half high shoe finished in cloth to match the dress and stocking. New stockings are woven in bourette patterns; the ground work being dark to match dress goods. Surfaces of course are smooth. These are novel, but the solid colored, and hair line striped are also fashionable. Finer styles are of lisle thread or silk, and here we have open work, combinations of various colors, and embroidery. Let no one enquire too closely as to the coquettish devices resorted to, that all this may be seen. Certainly 'tis not without purpose that our dresses are short in front. We make up for the deficiency by trains, I fear to say how long.

CHILDREN'S FASHIONS.

Cunning suits of gingham in large plaids in tones of brown or drab are shown for little girls. They are made all in one, and finished with kilt plaitings or embroidery, white or colored. Other cool wash suits are of percale stamped in ordinary patterns. Spring suits are of bourette cloth made all in one. On all styles, Carrick capes often appear.

French kilt and Parisian suits are the newest styles for boys. Both are pretty as can be, and are in all classes of goods, from the mixed, up to fine dress cloth. One variety is plain in front; in another, the jacket is simulated by braid, and a third has the simulation of both vest and jacket. The Parisian kilts, of which there are also three varieties, have all a belt and buckle in the back, while the plaitings appear both in front and back. Overcoats for little boys are cunning little sacques—just as mannish as can be. Oxford and Eaton suits are desirable for larger boys, and for youths, the three buttoned cut away is fashionable. Assortments of all new styles are kept by the leading clothiers, Rogers, Peet & Co., 487 Broadway, and on application, samples to order from, with directions for self measurement are furnished. Goods are forwarded by express, to be returned at their expense, if not satisfactory.

News and Notes.

Gen. Sheridan has ordered Gen. Pope to remove the Ute Indians from Colorado to their reservation in New Mexico. There are 22,000, and military men consider their removal doubtful without trouble.

In a row, which originated in the African Methodist church in Jacksonville, Ill., Sunday night, Tobias Hannas shot Clarence Hubbard dead, and so badly wounded William Baker that he died Monday.

Revenue collectors in Randolph county, Va., broke up several distilleries and arrested one Wilmarth, a distiller, who was put under $10,000 bonds. Subsequently Wilmarth and several others ambushed the collectors, firing on them, but the latter returned the fire, and again captured Wilmarth, the other three escaping.

Jericho, Vt., is excited over the suspected abduction and murder of Miss Bertha Davis and her illegitimate child, to prevent the mother testifying against the father in the courts.

John Shallington, a negro, was hanged Friday at Snow Hill, N. C., for the murder of his step-daughter. He had tried to escape from jail several times. He made a long speech, prayed, and wanted to be led to a creek near by to be baptized, but his request was refused, whereupon a negro minister baptised him under the gallows by pouring water on his head. He then smoked a cigar on the scaffold and shortly after was hanged.

Mexican papers state that a woman called Maria Josefa Pacheco died in Chapultepec on the 25th ult., at the ripe age of 120 years.

The Czar consults the spirit world, and an intelligence purporting to be Peter the Great directs the present course of Russia. This important-if-true information is presented to the world by the Boston Herald's Spiritualist editor. It is undoubtedly true that the Czar and many of the principal personages in St. Petersburg have taken extraordinary interest in Spiritualism.

New Hampshire Items.

A deliberate attempt was made on Saturday night to burn Lake Village. There appears to have been several men in the plot, as the first move was to set fire to a barn some little distance out, to attract the engines and people in that direction, while the stores of G. A. Wilder and Mr. Bugbee, in the village, were fired. The barn was burned, but the stores were but little damaged.

Lake Winnipiseogee is clear of ice, which is at least ten days earlier than the average. Freight boats are advertised to run. The large passenger steamers will not commence their regular trips until about the 1st of June.

The New Hampshire State Temperance Reform Club will hold its quarterly meeting at Nashua, April 26th, at City Hall. Meetings at two o'clock in the afternoon and 7:45 in the evening. Visiting friends will be entertained by the Nashua Reform Club.

Pliny White, the million dollar forger and swindler, was formerly a resident of Manchester, and about 1841 was connected with the Manchester Gleaner, a scurrilous sheet which published numerous libellous articles, and White was arrested for having a hand in writing them, and lodged in Amherst jail, where he remained about six weeks. At the close of his confinement, a large number of Manchester men escorted him home in a barouche, drawn by four horses, and bells were rung and cannons fired in honor of his release.

Naval Affairs.

Naval Constructor John W. Easby was confirmed as Chief of the Bureau of Construction and Repair by the Senate on Monday.

George Leeds and Richard Vailey were fatally injured on Sunday on the frigate Powhatan at Norfolk, by falling from the topgallant yard to the deck.

Political.

A gain of fourteen districts from democratic control would give the republicans one majority in the next House. If the Senate should then become democratic the balance of power would be on the side of right, for the House is the place in which propositions for taxation and appropriation constitutionally originate. These facts are worth remembering.

The South will have none of this Blair foolishness. Lamar, Hill, Hooker, Gordon and all those who stood by the electoral law, will abide by its legitimate effect. There is a very strong belief, founded on common sense and good judgment, that there are very few politicians in this country who would not have done just as Mr. Hayes did. The number of politicians in America, who are so pure that they would refuse the presidency if attained by the decision of an electoral commission, is exceedingly small. The number is so limited that we don't think Mr. Montgomery Blair or Mr. S. J. Tilden is embraced in it. The people look at this question in this practical sort of a way, and Mr. Blair's efforts are more likely to work injury to his party than they are to overthrow a president. —Vicksburg Herald, (dem.)

Floating Wrecks.

If Nature made no provision for the removal of floating wrecks from the surface of the ocean, dangers of navigation would increase in a fearful ratio; floating hulls, spars and masts would soon cover the sea. To effect the removal of floating wood three species of small marine animals play an important part. Suppose we have a ship's spar drifting down upon the waves. A small creature known as the barnacle, soon discovers it and attaches itself thereto, and as these little creatures exist in immense numbers, the timber soon becomes covered with them. On examining them at this stage we shall find that they are attached to the timber by means of a tube not unlike the windpipe of a chicken, this tube being filled with a liquid, whilst from the shell protrudes a series of twenty-four hairy claws or tentacles. Each joint of the latter is arched, and furnished with rows of hair on its concave side so much like feathers that it is probably from their appearance that the first idea of the barnacle goose was derived. The effect of the barnacle is to sink the log. When in mid-water or at the bottom it is attacked and riddled through by two little wood-boring worms, the pholas and the teredo. The teredo navalis, or calamitas navium, works its way through hard planks, and lines the tunnel as it goes with a hard ivory-like shell. Thus, then, the barnacles and wood worms unite to work the destruction of the wreckage; for borne down by the one, it is speedily riddled by the others, until it falls to pieces by the action of the waves and becomes lost.

—They say Albani is married; they also say she is engaged to Capoul, the tenor; and, furthermore, it is stated that she will never marry.

—At dinner the host introduces to the favorable notice of the company a splendid truffled pheasant, amid murmurs of admiration. "Isn't it a beauty?" he says. "Dr. So-and-So gave it to me—killed it himself." "Aw, what was he treating it for?" asked one of the guests.

THE CITY.

The river begins to look quite gay with the many newly-painted boats.

Memorial Day will be observed this year, as usual; a meeting to make arrangements will be called the last of this month.

Chief Engineer David B. Macomb, U. S. N., Fleet Engineer of the North Atlantic squadron, is at home on a brief leave of absence.

Mr. S. W. Cole in another column announces a juvenile singing school, to commence May 1st, in the chapel of the Middle street church.

Parties in Dover are discussing the running of a steamer this summer on the river, touching at Portsmouth to take the workmen to and from the navy yard, and making regular trips to Newcastle and Kittery.

Smart & Atwell offer strawberries today at forty cents a box. The first lot received last year was the 18th of May, and sold for seventy-five cents a box. This year the above firm received them on the 3d of April and sold them at one dollar a box. The present lot arrived on Tuesday the 16th. Give them a call.

Miss M. F. Bickford opens her parlors at No. 59 Congress street, to-day and to-morrow, to the ladies of this city and vicinity, for the display of the spring fashions in millinery. Her advertisement will give the ladies some idea of how extensive an assortment of "sweet things" they can find at her rooms.

Mr. Arthur Foote, the rising young pianist who is to play here at the Easter concert, is a brother of Rev. Mr. Foote, pastor of King's Chapel, Boston, who is well known by many of our citizens. Mr. Arthur Foote it is said has all his brother's ability, although it is directed into a different channel. He is the only Harvard graduate, we believe, who has made instrumental music his regular profession.

The Woman's Temperance League has elected the following officers for the ensuing quarter: President, Mrs. John A. Goss; Vice Presidents, Mrs. James Sanborn, Mrs. Lizzie White; Recording Secretary, Miss Susie H. Yeaton; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. B. F. Thorndike; Treasurer, Mrs. Elisha Tripp; Assistant Treasurer, Mrs. Joseph Pettigrew; Chaplain, Mrs. Charles Bearse; Pianist, Miss Lizzie Tripp.

Fishermen are getting low prices—forty cents per hundred weight for haddock; cod average about fifty cents per hundred. Cod are getting into the river; trawls are set along the Kittery shore, and a number of fish are caught. The fishing weirs in the lower harbor run in a direct line from the western side of the wharf of Fort McClary and project about four hundred and eighty feet from the shore. They will be ready in a few days to trap the fish.

The entertainment to be given by the New England Glee Club on Thursday evening at the Universalist church, promises to be one of rare merit, and can hardly fail of success. Miss Edith Wendell, the young and gifted soprano, makes her debut on this occasion, and will doubtless meet with a hearty reception. Mr. Lunt we have heard spoken of in the highest terms by those who have listened to him; and we think it would be difficult to select a more pleasing entertainment than the one offered.

SUPREME COURT.

Tuesday, April 16th; Smith, J.

Tenio T. French, of Newmarket, pleaded not guilty to several indictments for selling liquor. Trial assigned for May 8th.

Stephen Chapman pleaded not guilty to indictments for selling liquor. Trial May 8th.

Walter S. Crafts, of South Hampton; selling liquor contrary to law; plea not guilty. Trial April 18th. Hatch for defendant. [In the afternoon Crafts retracted his plea of not guilty, pleaded nol. con., and was allowed to go on his promise to quit the business and leave the town of South Hampton, that being in accordance with the wishes of the citizens of the town. Crafts kept the somewhat notorious Central House.]

John W. Law, indicted for breaking and entering the dwelling house of Mary A. Webster in Londonderry, and stealing therefrom a black silk dress and other articles, retracted his former plea and pleaded nolo contendere. He is allowed to go on his own recognizance, on suspension of sentence. In the meantime Law is to abstain from the use of intoxicating liquors, and otherwise behave as a law-abiding citizen. Towle for deft.

Charles E. Witham, sentenced to three years in State Prison, left for Concord in the forenoon in charge of Deputies Smart and Dustin.

John Page, Jacob Prescott and Wm. G. Hill, of Deerfield, indicted for selling liquor, were brought into court by Deputy Sheriff Sawyer of that town, pleaded nolo contendere, and paid one fine each, and costs on all indictments; all indictments on which fines were not paid to be brought forward in case of further offence. [These were the first liquor cases from Deerfield.]

The trial of cases on the civil docket began in the afternoon, when action Sarah Perkins vs. James Perkins, a suit about a right of way in Hampton, was heard. Lamprey and J. F. Wiggin for plaintiff; Marston for defendant.

John Bly, of Epping, sentenced to two years in State Prison for breaking and entering, and Charles E. Witham, sentenced to three years, left for Concord in the forenoon in charge of Deputies Smart and Dustin. Witham, who is a noted desperado, having made numerous escapes from the officers of the law, and been in twenty-six jails and at least one State Prison, had sworn he would never be taken to Concord alive; and his wife, Mrs. Witham alias Chapman, who it is said came down from Manchester jail, where she had been confined for stealing, and who had taken a room opposite Exeter jail, was equally confident in asserting that she should go to Concord on the train with her "husband," officers or no officers. But Sheriff Kent had determined that Mr. Witham should go to Concord and that "Mrs." Witham shouldn't; so he gave out that the transfer was to be made on the evening train, and that the woman could go too for all he cared; so she took a walk down town in the forenoon. No sooner was she gone than a hack was sent to the jail, and the two officers, with the prisoner ironed hand and foot, were whisked to the station and put on a freight train, and off they went for Concord. Ten minutes later the woman went tearing down street for the station, dropping her hat and shawl on the way, but she wasn't in time to catch the train.

A SQUARE STATEMENT.

The accounts of George F. Plaisted, treasurer of York for 1876, have been examined by the selectmen and found to be minus of $750. His bondsmen have been called upon to make good the deficiency.

YORK, April 13, 1878.

Mr. Editor:—I clip the above item from the GAZETTE, and notice that it is going the rounds of the papers. I wish to say that it is false, and the author knows it to be so! George F. Plaisted settled his accounts as Treasurer of 1876, with his successor in office—and paid to his successor $1503.81, the amount of unexpended money, and has the vouchers officially signed by J. Frank Paul, Treasurer of 1877. Respectfully yours,

GEORGE F. PLAISTED, Treas. of 1876.

THE VICINITY.

The Preble House at Kittery Point is being made ready for summer visitors. There are few places on the coast that offer better attractions than this hotel.

The Cocheco Mills Company at Dover on Tuesday concluded to shut down for an indefinite period, and posted notices to that effect in the mills, work in which ceased Tuesday evening.

The wages of the operatives in the Salmon Falls Manufacturing Company's employment were reduced on Monday, but no trouble occurred nor do the managers expect any. The reduction is a small one.

The scarcity of smelts in Great Bay is said to be owing to their spawn being devoured by large fish. This sheet of water will be visited this summer by exploring parties who believe there is undiscovered wealth in it.

A part of Gerrish's island, including the south-west point and bordering the western shore, has been sold to a gentleman of South Boston. Some improvements are to be made, and it is said that the sea frontage will be divided into lots for summer residences. This location has the advantages desirable for a resort in warm weather, and lots should find ready purchasers.

At a very fully-attended meeting of the First Christian church of Kittery, Monday evening, a vote was passed retaining in the pastorate Rev. Mr. Hutchinson, whose dismissal by a previous meeting has already been noticed by the papers, some of them making ungenerous and we believe very unjust comments upon it. We have received from various sources, various and variegated accounts of the proceedings at the two meetings; but as we have no personal knowledge whatever of the points (if any there are) in dispute, are not affiliated with that denomination, and have always considered Mr. Hutchinson a pretty good kind of a man, we positively decline to "take sides" in the matter. There is nothing in the world helps along a row in a church better than an ably-conducted and venomous newspaper battle; but our regard for propriety and the good of the church in general will not allow us to permit our columns to be used for the purpose.

NEW HAMPSHIRE CONFERENCE.

The New Hampshire Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church adjourned Monday evening at six o'clock. The following are the appointments for the Dover District:

HILL'S HAIR AND WHISKER DYE, Black or Brown, 50 cents. tapr21

Science has accomplished no more wonderful or gratifying result than the perfection of an antidote to the chilling signs of approaching age, something to obliterate the tell-tale tracks of time, and preserve the natural adornments of youth to ripe old age. Hall's Hair Renewer does all this, and its praise resounds in cottage and palace. The dwellers among the snows of Norway and the peasants of sunny France and Spain, find use for it, and find means to get it, and it does not disappoint them. The whitening locks again resume their youthful color, the thin, dry and faded hair becomes bright and glossy. The whole appearance is changed as if by magic, and the man or woman, who, before was called aged, now appears as one in the prime of life. Such wondrous changes cannot pass unnoticed, and they have produced the unprecedented demand that now exists for the first and only article ever compounded that can produce them in a pleasing and satisfactory manner.—New Era, Woodstock, Ill.

In the years since its foundation, in 1868, the fortunes of the Louisiana State Lottery Company have considerably varied. For the first nine years of its existence it was looked upon as a very profitable concern, but recently it is stated that the number of prizes paid monthly have increased to such an extent that it may be said to have discovered to what extent it is more blessed to give than to receive. But our readers can learn all about it by addressing M. A. DAUPHIN, P. O. Box 692, New Orleans, La. See advertisement elsewhere.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City. eod&oteap15†

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it the confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed:

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed, a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an incredible result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specific in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated, beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the same has secured footing in several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.

It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKFORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell what I know about catarrh, and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could emulate such a similar cure in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "stick-in-the-nose" work, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable customer to the makers. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 36 hours. All sense of smell and taste is gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths or one-half time or in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over eleven months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose.

Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Pectoral.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Tonic.

Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness, Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellow-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and, although, it purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who c substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

CATARRH

A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER,—Sirs: I have practiced medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the nasal passages, fauces and larynx. I have used every thing in the materia medica without any permanent relief, until finally I was induced to try a patent medicine (something that we allopathists are very loth to do). I tried one and divers others until I got hold of yours. I followed the directions to the letter, and am happy to say without a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully, D. W. GRAY, M. D., Of Dr. D. W. Gray & Son, Physicians and Druggists, Muscatine, Iowa.

MUSCATINE, IOWA, March 27, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in the cure of those

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes which in many cases accompany a severe case of Catarrh. The inflamed and diseased condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these troubles; and until the system has been thoroughly under the influence of the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from them cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was placed before the public, but in that short time it has found its way from Maine to California, and is everywhere acknowledged by druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh ever compounded. The fact will be deemed of more importance when it is coupled with the statement that within five years over 250 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day, with one or two exceptions, their names cannot be recalled by the best-informed druggist. Advertising may succeed in giving a few sales, but, unless the remedy possess undoubted specific medical properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.00. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

BLUE ARMY BLOUSES.

WE have just received a few more of those BLUE ARMY BLOUSES, which have been in such demand for the last twelve months.

C. E. MYERS & CO., No. 3 BOW STREET.

Daily Chronicle.

It Happened in Texas.

It happened right here in San Antonio. One of the parties was a consumptive from Connecticut, and the other a commercial traveller from New Jersey. They were stopping at the same hotel, in adjoining rooms. The drummer was out of money, but had a splendid pistol. He said to himself:

"I wonder if that hungry looking Texan next door don't want to buy a pistol?" So putting the weapon in his breast pocket he walked into his neighbor's room.

The invalid from Connecticut had been reading about a noted Texan desperado, for whom there was a large reward offered, and he fancied the description fitted his unknown neighbor. Consequently when the New Jersey drummer entered the room, shut the door and put his hand in his breast pocket the Northern invalid began to shiver and think o his past life.

"What—do—you—want?" asked the invalid.

The drummer drew a large ivory-handled revolver (answering the description of the one the celebrated desperado used on strangers) and said:

"I want $25 for this pistol."

The trembling hand of the invalid could hardly find its way into his pocket.

"It is a good pistol—it never misses fire," said the drummer, bringing it to a half-cock.

"I—I—Jake yer money!" gasped the invalid.

The drummer took the money, laid the pistol on the table and went out. As soon as the door was shut the invalid from Connecticut breathed a huge sigh of relief and said to himself, "I'm rather glad the Texas desperado took my money. What a country this is, when you are robbed in broad daylight in a hotel. I'll leave to-morrow for the North."

As soon as the drummer got into his room he remarked, "I'm in luck. I'm glad that old Texas ruffian took my pistol. I wonder who he's going to try it on. I'm going to get out of here in the morning, now that I've got money to pay my hotel bill."

And the next morning both went off on the same train. In about two weeks we will scan the Northern papers for a story about how a noted Texas desperado robbed an invalid in a San Antonio hotel. —San Antonio Herald.

Applying the Sermon.

Rev. Mr. ——, of the Unitarian church in a neighboring State, preached a sermon a few Sundays since on the importance of saying "No," and in the course of it dwelt impressively on the moral courage required to use that monosyllable at the right time. After the sermon a collection was taken for a very deserving charity. When the congregation was dismissed, a certain newspaper man waylaid the pastor in the vestibule, and seizing him by the hand thanked him effusively for the sermon—one of the most effective he had heard. The pastor modestly replied: "I'm glad you think so, but cannot see why you should." "Why," replied he of the newspaper, "when I went into the church I was fully determined to give five dollars to that charity, but your sermon impressed me so deeply that I found courage to resist the temptation, and let the plate-passer go by with an emphatic 'No!'"—Editor's Drawer, in Harper's for May.

—"The older the tree the thicker the bark," but the older the dog the thinner the bark.

—Speaking of a religious meeting at a school-house in Penfield, Mich., the other night, a correspondent of the Detroit News says: "The Rev. Wm. Baker, the pastor, being ill, the people were determined not to be wholly disappointed, and organized a greenback club. Those people need prayers more than anything else. If he has any regard for the welfare of their eternal souls the pastor will not gain trust them alone."

—One of the oldest and best-known lighthouse-keepers on the Atlantic coast is a woman, Kathleen Andre Moore, of Black Rock light-house, near Bridgeport, Conn. She is sixty-five years old, has tended the lighthouse lamp for fifty years, and lives alone in her little house with two dogs and a pet lamb. She says there used to be many more wrecks than there are now on her coast, before sailing ships were replaced by steamers. She is as active as a girl of fifteen. There are several hundred printed rules for the instruction of lighthouse and life-saving station keepers, and this bright old woman knows them all by heart. She is a great reader, and prizes particularly Shakspeare, the British poets, and books of travel and history. She had more than 1000 visitors in her little house last summer.

The Tilton Scandal.

The good news—if anything in connection with such an affair can be called good—is announced that the details of Mrs. Tilton's last (and we belive as yet unretracted) "confession" are not to be published. Thank decency for so much, anyway. We had not proposed to make further reference in these columns to this resurrection of the great scandal, but find two or three things in our exchanges which we are forced to transcribe. The following we take from the Boston Truecffer, and we copy it solely because it vigorously raps Theodore Tilton, a man we despise more than anybody else in the world—more even than Charles A. Dana—for a man who is willing to use his wife's shame as a lecturing advertisement, and brand his children with the stain of illegitimacy in the hope to injure an enemy, is unworthy the name of man:

It has been pretty well known for months that Tilton has been negotiating with the wife he cast off and scandalized and trampled in the dirt, for the purpose of effecting a change in her mind with reference to this Beecher scandal. Now, the evidence confirming this comes to the surface with the new "confession" of Mrs. Tilton. He has made several secret visits to Mrs. Tilton's house. He has contributed to her support, and a letter of his is produced upon which Mrs. Tilton, a few weeks ago, visited a rural resort in New York and obtained a boarding place for the ensuing summer. All these things are before the public, and yet Tilton, through his friends, for he takes care to be out of the way, has the wonderful audacity to assert that he knew nothing about the present published "confession" nor of Mrs. Tilton's plans for the future. This mendacious phase of the well-contrived dramatic situation stamps the confession as an absurdity in any other sense than as a paying advertisement for Theodore Tilton as a lecturer whose popularity is on the wane and requires the impetus of a fresh sensation.

The next paragraph is from the New York World—and if all the "leading journals" would but treat the sensation with the judicial calmness displayed by the World, the threatened deluge of filth from the Brooklyn cess-pool would be averted:

Since the seven successive suicides of Mr. Mantalini there has been nothing like the confessions of Mrs. Tilton. In common we hope, with most of our readers, we have so far discharged this disgusting business from our mind that at this writing we are not able to say whether Mrs. Tilton has three times asserted and twice denied, or twice asserted and three times denied herself to be what she now once more insists that she is. Mr. Beecher consistently maintains she is no such person, for which Mr. Tilton will, no doubt, be grateful, if as is now reported he is on the point of once more seeking peace, mercy and grace in his conjugal nest. Our readers may believe what they like about it all, that is if they feel under any compulsion to do so. Perhaps the public may consider with advantage that it has itself mainly to thank for having the mess once more politely presented for inspection.

The last of our extracts is the answer given by a person widely known for his connection with the scandal, to a question as to what he supposed influenced Mrs. Tilton to write her late letter:

"It is her conscience; her keen sense of religious duty; her conviction of right, which has impelled her to write. She believes in God, in angels and in heaven, and she can't look up to heaven and lie.

The reader would never guess who it was that talked that way. It was Frank D. Moulton, no less! The "mutual friend." When the speaker is once known, his canting tone becomes comical indeed; and his statement that the poor, weak-minded, harassed, pitiful woman who has sworn all around the compass a dozen times in this very matter, "can't look up to heaven and lie," is ridiculously ludicrous. We never imagined anything funny could occur in connection with this wretched business; but the spectacle of Frank D. Moulton "looking up to heaven" and asserting that Mrs. Tilton can't lie is real funny.

As we cannot hope to ever get hold of anything else so rich as Moulton's endorsement of Mrs. Tilton's truthfulness, in the scandal literature, we shall probably not refer to the matter again. And we hope we shall never have occasion to.

Paying out the Gold.

The employes of the Cord and Glazed Paper Company, of Nashua, N. H. were surprised on the 16th inst. at receiving their monthly wages in gold. This was the first payment made in gold by any of the corporations in that city for many years, and the first "resumption of specie payments" in this State, so far as we have heard.

A despatch from Chicago, dated April 16th, says: "Daily reports are coming from cities in the northwest showing many National banks already paying out gold for circulation, and that gold is beginning to circulate." A number of the Chicago and Cincinnati banks were redeeming their notes in gold on presentation, when desired.

The National Banks at Des Moines and Grinnell, Iowa, and the First National Bank of Pittsburg, Pa., were paying out gold at par on the 16 h inst.

There seems to be a very decided though not apparently preconcerted movement on the part of the banks to resume on their own responsibility, without waiting for the United States Treasury Department. The premium on gold (one-quarter of one per cent., on the 16th,) is so small that greenbacks and National bank notes can reach par without "disturbing values" to any appreciable extent; and the wide-spread distress and business disasters predicted by the anti-resumptionists as a result of resumption have not yet appeared, while the greenbacker's argument against the possibility of resuming on the first of January next seems likely to be badly damaged long before the time specified arrives. What the inflationists need to get through Congress just now is not a bill to repeal the resumption act, but a bill to prevent resumption before the time set by the act of 1873.

Naval Affairs.

The Senate has passed the bill regulating the appointment of cadet midshipmen and engineers in the Naval Academy. It authorizes the appointment of one cadet midshipman for each member of the House, one for the District of Columbia, and ten at large, provided there shall not be at any time more in said Academy, appointed at large, than ten. The number of cadet engineers is limited to twenty-five.

Pay Director Geo. Frank Cutter, whose name has been before the Senate for some time, was on the 16th inst. confirmed as Chief of the Bureau of Provisions and Clothing, a position the duties of which he has for a considerable time performed. Mr. Cutter was stationed here many years ago, and his friends will be glad to learn that he has at last been confirmed in a position to which he has for some time been entitled.

In the U. S. Senate, on the 16th inst., Senator Sargent submitted a resolution calling upon the Secretary of the Navy for information in regard to the various boards convened to examine Captains Somerville Nicholson and William N. Jeffers for promotion. The latter is severely afflicted with chronic rheumatism, and has been before three boards before he could get recommended for promotion. He is at present Chief of the Bureau of Ordnance, and is an able man in every respect, though a terrible sufferer from rheumatism, which many of his inferior officers think would disqualify him from performing sea service. There are also objections to the promotion of the other officer named, and before either of them are pulled through they will probably have to be under fire.

News and Notes.

It is stated that the United States Courts have decided that the land on which the city of Little Rock, Ark., is built, belongs to Mr. Elias Wentworth of Elizabethport, N. J., who is a descendant of the original purchaser.

The Chicago Journal says that the counterfeit silver dollar can be distinguished by the superior workmanship of the engraving.

At a meeting of the Directors of the Maine Central Railroad, Tuesday, George E. B. Jackson was elected President, ex-Gov. Coburn declining a re-election.

The Liberian emigrant ship Azor is about ready to sail from Charleston for Africa with her full list of colored emigrants. A commissioner from Louisiana goes in the Azor.

Laws are better than bayonets for the security of personal rights in time of peace. Mrs. Green, a colored woman, has found that out by obtaining a verdict of $500 against the New Jersey Railroad because she was refused entrance to a first-class car.

The same military board which is to examine Gen. Fitz John Porter's case will also examine Surgeon General Hammond's case at West Point, June 20th.

The new "Blue Book" shows that there are at present in the employ of Uncle Sam, 242 Allens, 215 Bakers, 605 Browns, 432 Davises, 468 Joneses, 324 Thompsons, and 1097 Smiths.

The amount of specie held by the National Banks on the 15th of March was nearly $55,000,000, an amount larger than ever before reported.

In the Portland Municipal Court, recently, a case came up where several kegs of lager beer were seized on the way to the Togus National Soldiers' Home, where Gen. Tilton allows it to be sold to keep the soldiers from buying heavier liquor elsewhere. The Court dismissed it on the ground that the United States had sole jurisdiction there.

Caleb Cushing is in Newburyport, and rumor has it that he and Gen. Butler are retained to defend George D. Lunt in the steamer Metropolis case. Monson, the carpenter, quietly awaits results. Virtually he pleaded guilty in his affidavit.

Lake Michigan has its Grace Darling, and her father and brothers are as brave and heroic as she is herself. Sanford W. Morgan is keeper of the life saving station at Grand Point au Sable, Michigan, and after the close of navigation he allows the crew to go away for the winter, but remains on the ground with his daughter and his sons. At daylight on March 23, during one of the most violent gales of the season, with the sea so boisterous that it was covered with foam, a fishing boat was discovered about three miles off shore, in distress, by Miss Edith. Quickly giving the alarm to her father and two brothers, she urged them to go, volunteering to take an oar herself to assist the crew. It seemed as though a boat could not possibly live in the mighty waves, but one was launched, and after a pull of two hours, with seas breaking over the small boat and threatening its destruction and the loss of those on board, they succeeded in reaching the wreck, to find that one of the crew who had been clinging to the vessel's side had become exhausted, and letting go his hold had been drowned. Another sailor, however, was rescued as he was about to give up, and was taken ashore. Nor was this the first time that the brave young girl had ventured out on an errand to save.

New Hampshire Items.

On the back of a ballot cast at the late election in this State was found penciled in delicate chirography, "Every man has his price, and, believing in universal suffrage, the man who casts this vote has been bought by me, and in reality a lady votes this year in Rochester." A lady's name was signed, but the censors could not help themselves.

Five hundred French Canadians, from various manufacturing cities of New England, left Nashua by a special train on the 15th inst. for Manitoba, to take up government lands.

An attempt was made early Tuesday morning, 16th inst., to burn D. H. Fogg's house at Ashland, by putting kerosene on the front door. The fire was extinguished without material loss. About 11 o'clock Tuesday morning his barn was burned to the ground, including a small quantity of hay and grain, with farming tools. Loss about $1400; no insurance.

A fatal accident occurred in the Webster mill at Suncook on the 16th inst. A little French boy, ten years old, son of Adolph John Dreau, got his right hand between the rolls of a winder in the carding room, from which the flesh was entirely stripped, leaving the bones and ligaments bare. The hand was amputated, but from the shock and loss of blood the boy died a few minutes after.

Political.

The Nationals did even better in the Michigan elections than was first reported. In thirty-four counties they chose 175 supervisors to 211 democrats and 291 republicans.

The New York World of Wednesday publishes a long article purporting to be the sum of a series of interviews extending over a period of several months, between Senator Conkling and a confidential friend. In this the President and his policy and Cabinet are severely criticized as being corrupt and dishonest to the last degree. It seems (if the story is true) to be another case of "mutual friend," in which some trusted person has carefully jotted down for publication every expression whose publication he thinks might injure his friend. Mr. Conkling is not yet heard from.

80,000 Drunkards.

It is estimated that in the United States eighty thousand drunkards die annually, twenty thousand of whom acquire the habit through physicians' prescriptions, or the use of "temperance bitters" and "tonics," which are, for the most part, composed of whisky that has been repudiated by the "bar," but by a little "doctoring" and "puffing" speedily becomes a favorite "cureall." The fact that Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and his assistant chemists, do not use one drop of spirits in preparing his family medicines, has induced those utterly ignorant of the rudimentary principles of chemistry to attempt the manufacture of "temperance" medicines; but, like many other impositions, that which they sought to rival and destroy lives and flourishes after them. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is yet the standard remedy for the cure of coughs, colds, consumption, liver complaint, blotches, pimples, tumors, and all blood diseases. Chronic constipation readily yields to the mild and efficient action of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets, while Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription readily cures those diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women. Are you suffering with some chronic malady? If so, and you wish to employ medicines that are scientifically prepared, that are refined and purified by the chemical process employed in the manufacture, that are positive in their action and specific in the cure of the various forms of disease for which they are recommended, use Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines. Full particulars in Pierce's Memorandum Book, kept for free distribution by all druggists.

THE CITY.

Hon. Frank Jones is at home on a brief visit from Washington.

Howe Call, Esq., is preparing to take the stump in this State in behalf of his "new love," the greenback party.—Times.

The sale of tickets for the Easter Concert begins this morning, and we advise everybody to be on hand to secure good seats for what will probably be the very best musical entertainment Portsmouth has enjoyed for years.

The new Piscataqua Savings Bank is meeting with a success beyond the most sanguine expectations of its projectors. The number of depositors, and the amount of deposits, already quite large, are steadily increasing.

Mr. Wm. B. Hussey, at No. 49 Congress street, has a large assortment of foot-wear for men and women, boys and girls. He has an extensive stock, and claims to sell first-class good at prices that will prevent seekers going elsewhere if they once call at his place of business.

Twenty-five thousand dollars is the sum the friend of a six-years-old child claims of the Eastern Railroad for injury received by being run over at Gloucester two years ago. The railroad authorities say the child's guardian did not use proper care in allowing the infant to roam upon the track. An Essex county jury is struggling with the case.

The entertainment at the Universalist church this evening promises to be one of rare interest. Mr. Hunt is said to be a skilled elocutionist, and Miss Edith Wendell, the young soprano, it is claimed will surprise the musical people of this city by her excellent training and fine voice. The Glee Club is too well known to need any comment, and all together there is no reason to fear that one will not get his money's worth, with the tickets at the low price of 25 cents.

Two ladies were driving a fine horse owned by Charles W. Cottle over Portsmouth bridge (coming from Kittery) on Wednesday afternoon. Thinking that a train of cars was coming they attempted to turn the horse and go back to the Kittery side to wait the passage of the train. The buggy in which they drove was upset on the bridge, the top badly broken, and the horse severely if not permanently injured. There was no train coming over the bridge, and the accident resulted from an over-cautious step on the part of the ladies.

POLICE COURT.

Wednesday, April 17th; Batchelder, J.

Thomas Rine, for drunkenness, was ordered to pay $9.90, fine and costs. Not being able to comply, he was sent to the County Farm.

AMMI R. H. FERNALD.

Ammi R. H. Fernald died on Wednesday afternoon about four o'clock. He was born on the 9th of July, 1802, and had he lived to see another birth-day would have been seventy-six years old.

Mr. Fernald was the son of Randall Fernald, who served in the war of the Revolution, and of the sixth generation a descendant from Dr. Renald Fernald, one of the first settlers of Portsmouth, and one of the prominent men two centuries and a half ago in the town. Mr. Fernald was born in the house in which he died, and which was built by his father in 1797. Here for many years he resided as boy and man.

Mr. Fernald went a sealing voyage in the schooner Pacific, which sailed from this port on the 1st day of October, 1829. The vessel was owned and sailed by a company called the Pacific Seal Co. The capital was divided into shares, some of which were owned by some of our present oldest residents. Mr. Fernald owned four shares, which, however, did not prove a very solid investment, as the seals were not ready to be caught. Several of our then young men went in the vessel, and the deceased always enjoyed talking over the incidents of the voyage. As he said, when they neared the wharf and were asked as to luck, by one of the stockholders, "though they did not get many seals, they had a grand good sail."

After spending some time in a store, Mr. Fernald was afterwards engaged as bookkeeper at the shipyard of George Raynes, where he spent several years during the busy days of that celebrated spot.

After the business of U. S. District Courts had in consequence of the bankrupt law of 1841 become quite large, and during the time John L. Hayes, Esq., was Clerk of that Court, and applications to take the benefit of the law were numerous, Mr. Fernald was engaged in the office in this city as one of Mr. Hayes' clerks, for quite a period of time.

When the Portsmouth Steam Factory commenced operations, Mr. Fernald was selected as the Clerk. The building of the mill began in 1845, and from the first undertaking, beginning in the counting room that was earliest occupied, he has been constantly at the desk of that corporation and its successor, the Kearsarge Mills. He has made the pay-rolls and disbursed all the sums for wages and other payments at the mill, seen every new employee, settled with every discharged operative, and amid all the changes and varied experience of the present and former company, has remained the same faithful, honest and affable functionary. It is to his credit that in all these years not a cent has been lost by his neglect, not an unkind word spoken to corporators, officers or employees; but day by day he has gone in and out, the same kind-hearted, cheerful embodiment of integrity and faithfulness.

In these days, when so many fall out by the way, it is really refreshing to pause and contemplate the career of one who could not be selfish enough to be tempted, and who could not do no wrong, had he dared do other than right.

Mr. Fernald became a member of St. John's Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, July 5th, 1826, and continued a member up to the time of his death, always in good standing. He was also an officer of DeWitt Clinton Encampment of Knights Templar, of Washington Chapter, and of other Masonic bodies.

He was regularity itself in his daily habits, prompt at his post of duty at appointed hours, constant at church, and never other than punctual in performing every engagement. He regarded everything that was worth doing at all as worth doing well, and his volumes of mercantile books show a uniformity of neatness and finish seldom, if ever, equalled. During all the years he was Paymaster of the Mills he missed but one pay-day, which was about four years ago when he was kept at home by serious illness.

Mr. Fernald was a man who never sought public honors or political place. His enjoyment was found in his daily toil, in the comforts of domestic life and the society of his friends.

His wife, Elmira S. Sullivan, to whom he was married Dec. 23, 1832, deceased a few years since. She was an estimable woman, and made his home ever attractive and happy. He leaves three daughters.

His pleasant countenance, so long seen on our streets, his cordial greeting and his buoyant movements, we shall see no more; but he leaves behind a record which, in these days of apparent degeneracy, is perhaps as enduring as any that can be made.

"Be honest, is the only perfect man."

—A few evenings since, a father and daughter at Wellesley, Massachusetts, were having a pleasant chat, mutually recalling incidents of the latter's childhood. "I shall never forget," said the young lady, "how you took me out of church one Sabbath, when I was about three years old, and punished me for playing in meeting. I can remember the tingling of that peach-tree switch to this day." "Very strange, very strange," said the father; "I don't recollect the circumstance at all." "Ah, well, papa, you were at the other end of the switch!"

MARRIAGES.

ANTHONY—GERRISH. In this city, April 17th, at the home of the bride's mother, by Rev. W. H. Alden, D. D., Lieut. Charles M. Anthony, U. S. N., and Mrs. Florence L. Gerrish, daughter of the late John Norton, Jr. No cards.

DEATHS.

—Alleged strawberry shortcakes have made their appearance at New York and other money centres.—Worcester Press.

—A doctor in Vermont kept missing his wood, and set a watch. As expected, it proved to be the work of a near neighbor, who soon appeared, and carefully culling out all dry wood, started off with an armful. The doctor hastily gathered up an armful of green wood and followed, tugging as fast as he could; and just as the man threw down his armful, the doctor did the same, exclaiming: "There, you must burn green wood part of the time—I have to," and departed, leaving the thief to his own reflections.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Fresh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollar Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 45 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,

here is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher. It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & CO., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any other injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still wakes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of security from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their house, ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The product should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while embodying safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the company only of late improve ment and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

Tickets for sale at the lowest rates at the Ticket Offices of the Company in all important cities and towns.

THE GREAT

FALL RIVER LINE,

BETWEEN

BOSTON and NEW YORK.

THE MAMMOTH STEAMSHIPS

Bristol and Providence,

Of this Line, are the Largest, Handsomest, and Most Costly in the World!

Trains leaving Boston from the OLD COLONY Railroad Station at 4:30 (Accommodation) and 6 (Steamboat Express) P. M., connect with these floating Palaces at Fall River daily (Sundays excepted), arriving in New York at 6 A. M.

No line can offer the accommodations presented by this favorite route.

ONLY 49 MILES OF RAIL,

Passing through Narragansett and Mount Hope Bays by daylight—

NO DISAGREEABLE NIGHT CHANGES,

But affording passengers a full night's rest, and having an open water route, avoids the Intricate and perilous river navigation incident to other routes.

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's 8 standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.

It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, Mass., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (never college graduates) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 20 years I suffered with catarrh in the worst form, my eyes became completely closed, "snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. Gradually grew worse, and no one can know more of the misery of catarrh a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven eighths of the time. I gave up all hope of death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three months of a second or in one hour or month, but in less than 30 minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula, or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness; Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

When the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache, dizziness, and taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucborrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER.—Sirs: I have practised medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the nasal passages, fauces and larynx. I have used every thing in the materia medica without any permanent relief. Until finally I was induced to try a patent medicine (something that we allopathists are very loth to do) I tried—used and divers others until I got hold of yours. I followed the directions to the letter, and am happy to say have had a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully, D. W. GRAY, M. D., Of Dr. D. W. Gray & Son., Physicians and Druggists, Muscatine, Iowa.

MUSCATINE, IOWA, March 27, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in the cure of those

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes which in many cases accompany a severe case of Catarrh. The inflamed and diseased condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these troubles; and until the system has been brought properly under the influence of the RADICAL CURE perfect freedom from them cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was placed before the public, but in that short time it has found its way from Maine to California, and is everywhere acknowledged by druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh ever compounded. The fact will be deemed of more importance when it is coupled with the statement that within five years over 250 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day, with one or two exceptions, the names cannot be recalled by the best informed druggist. Advertising may succeed in forcing a few sales, but, unless the remedy possess undoubted specific medical properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.00. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

SPARE THE PIPE.

Frank Miller, spare my pipe!
Break not its tender stem;
From maledictions gripe
Release that sacred gem.

Forbear that vengeful stroke,
Nor let thy press it jam;
Like promises, when broke,
Pipes are not worth a—cent.

From me it shall not part
As long as I have breath;
That treasure of my heart
I'm bound to smoke till death.

A sweet emblem of peace,
A gem of untold worth;
A sedative, solace,
That fumigates bad breath.

Ergo, get a pipe. Yours, etc., NAT.

[Written for this paper.]

A Reminiscence of a Summer Night.

On one of the three hottest summer nights I ever knew, that all came together, after the loss of the previous night's sleep from being on a journey, I retired to rest at ten in the evening, hoping, as it was perfectly still around me, soon to fall into dreamy slumber; but, from the extreme heat of the weather, and the dulcet notes of the little winged insects, who, as Josh Billings has it, "sing at their work," my hopes were fruitless. In vain did I woo the drowsy god, first turning on one side, then on the other, and then on my back, where I remained until it seemed as if it were blistered by more than mustard-plaster power. At last, after hearing the bell of the old North peal out the hour of midnight, I was about dropping off into dreamland, when a dog, with a "lean and hungry look," like Cassius, that under other circumstances would have excited my compassion, commenced barking beneath my window in a tone that would have awoke the Seven Sleepers or Rip Van Winkle in the midst of his twenty years' nap. As not a sound else was to be heard amid the deep stillness that reigned around, not a rooster had announced "the witching hour of night," no Thomas concert was going on in anybody's back-yard, or even a stray feline was to be seen taking his walks abroad, I have always believed that what Josh Billings (quoting him again) would have termed the "pure cussedness" of his nature, instigated that wretch to come beneath my window to prevent me from getting my needed sleep. What I had done, strangers as we were to each other, to excite his ire, he could not have told, and when I spoke to him kindly, called him "good doggie," and said other kind words that any decent member of his species would have responded to with brightening eyes and wagging tail, he abused me in the most fearful language, that I am satisfied, could it have been translated into intelligible English, would have embraced every vile epithet in the rude creature's vocabulary. So ready was I to appease his wrath, from whatever cause it might have arisen, I would have searched the larder of my friends for food for him, not a bone, but generous slices of the roast beef remaining from dinner, even at the risk of disturbing a courting-scene between Biddy and her beau, as I had done two hours before in going to the lower regions for a drink of water. At last mortal endurance could stand no longer the provocation the wretch had given me. Every one who has read the antique ballad of "Mary and her Little Lamb," is familiar also with the prose tale of the "old man who saw a rude boy in one of his trees gathering apples," and as I had tried his first remedy of soft words without avail, so did I conclude, like, to "see what virtue there was in the harder argument of stones." He could sit upon his haunches and abuse me in the most virulent of terms while I was powerless to assail him, but with the first discharge of my missiles—such as Archimedes was wont to throw from his engines of war, if on a smaller scale—the cowardly wretch beat a retreat; but I kept on, replenishing my ammunition by the way, until walking as far away from my starting point in Court street, as the neighborhood of Liberty bridge, where the mean, dastardly, pusillanimous, contemptible offspring I have no doubt of some vile specimen of his race, sneaked away between two of the old buildings of that antique region. Replenishing my exhausted magazine with pieces of buck that lay conveniently by, I recommenced the siege, having reason to think there was no egress from the end of his retreat, and when the second missile made a report against some dilapidated domestic utensil of tin or iron, a voice from the inside darkness came through an upper window on the opposite side of the way, in words that wanted nothing of emphasis, "Give it to the rascal! I drove him off half an hour ago, but at the cost of three whetstones and a bootjack." I could not see my fellow-sufferer, as it appeared, from the darkness of his place of shelter, but imagined he could see me plainly in the bright moonlight, yet we compared notes together, in the course of which we bestowed compliments upon the disturber of our rest that could not have been soothing to his feelings, as, a cowardly, sneaking wretch as he was, he continued to hide in the remotest corner of his triangular retreat, until, our wrath exhausted, we burst out simultaneously into a hearty laugh, and bade each other "good night"—or rather it should have been "good morning," as the "wee sma' hours" had already commenced. If my attic acquaintance, however brief, of that night, whoever he was, yet lives and reads this sketch, he will doubtless remember the occasion. The dog long since, according to the course of nature, went, without question, to the place where the bad dogs go when they have "shuffled off this mortal coil."

Such are not the terms in which I should have been apt to relate the above midnight adventure on the morning following, with the mercury still at nearly a hundred in the shade, but so many hearty laughs has it since afforded me and the friend I was visiting, who had been equally disturbed by the dog, and who saw me, hatless, coatless, vestless, and in slippered feet, commence the attack, and heard from me the conclusion, I long since forgave the offending animal, and should tread lightly upon it were I conscious of passing over the spot beneath which his ashes repose. HARRY.

Daily Chronicle

FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 1878.

Chronicle Correspondence.

NEW YORK, April 17th.

Restell is in Europe, or inhabits a grave at Tarrytown; Tweed sleeps in his last resting place at Greenwood; and the Beecher business is again at the front. Elizabeth Tilton's confession is of about as much use to the non-believers in Beecher's innocence, as President Hayes is to the republican party. The misguided woman long ago showed weakness of mind and lack of stamina. The public certainly made up its mind that Theodore was "a hard crowd," and that Beecher was either a monstrous wretch or was most cruelly maligned. Elizabeth appears to have been "—— bland, passionate and highly religious;

She was also a painter of water colors—
And of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

Specie payment does not appear afar off, with gold ranging between one-eighth and three-eighths of one per cent. above its natural position. Secretary Sherman has made a vast stride toward forcing resumption on the 1st of January next, while anti-resumptionists in Congress have been trying to unite on some plan for its defeat. The placing of $50,000,000 worth of the 4 1-2 per cent. bonds seems to practically settle the matter. The depression in the gold market releases large quantities of the precious metal which have been hoarded, and practically inflates the currency without the interposition of an increased volume of greenbacks so persistently pressed for from the West and South. The natural effect is to stimulate the already well organized bull movement in stock, and Wall street is in high glee. Some of the miniature "exchanges" styled "bucket shops" by the members of the old exchange, went under at the first symptoms of a bull market, while the Mining Exchange, already strengthened by the accession of new and substantial members, does an increased business on a firm market.

The political harvest wherein the Congressional reaper wields his sickle during the coming fall, will be largely influenced by the aspect of affairs following the solution of the heretofore problematic question of speedy resumption. The silver bill seems to have been a panacea, delaying the success of inflation in its most radical and offensive form. The growth of the inflation sentiment in the West would have been most alarming in strength but for some concession to demands that although extravagant in some degree, were not founded wholly on fallacies. The vote thrown in town elections in this State, Indiana, and in Michigan, for the representatives of the new National party, shows to what an extent the evil was tending. Both the old political parties lost heavily in their strongholds, and encouraged by success the Nationals will without doubt make themselves felt in the coming Congressional elections, hoping to choose a sufficient number of Representatives to the lower house to hold the balance of power. There is a strong probability that neither the republicans nor the democracy will have a majority in the next House. With resumption accomplished within four weeks of the meeting of the second session of the present Congress, the occupation of the Nationals in the Congress meeting one year later would seem to be gone. The necessity for inflation (if any really existed) would have passed. If necessity were shown, the decision that legal tenders cannot be issued constitutionally except in time of war, would or should debar any further issue or reissue. The election of Congressmen occurs in twenty-one of the thirty-eight States on the 5th of November next. [The average Portsmouth boy will doubtless doubly enjoy the privilege of celebrating "Pope night" on the night of election!]

Reports from your State seem to indicate that should the legislature elected in March choose the U. S. Senator whose term will commence next March, Senator Bainbridge Wadleigh will be obliged to stir around to secure a re-election. It is said that Hon. William E. Chandler does not desire to be considered a candidate, much to the regret of a host of friends who would gladly support him for the position. Should a change be advisable, Hon. Henry W. Blair will have a following that his friends say must ensure success. New Hampshire's third district is certainly most ably represented in the House. With Congressman Jones' retiracy from the field, the old first district ought to easily redeem itself and send some such sterling man as Hon. Chas. S. Whitehouse or Hon. Alonzo Nute to Congress. G.

The War Cloud.

The Indian government has received orders from England to send troops to Malta. The following regiments have been designated to leave for that place: 9th Bengal Cavalry, 1st Bombay Light Cavalry, 2d Ghoorkas, 31st Bengal Infantry, 25th Madras Infantry, two regiments of Bombay native infantry, two Bombay field batteries, two companies of Bombay sappers and miners, and two companies of Madras sappers and miners. The native infantry will be brigaded with the British at Malta. The assistant quartermasters and commissary generals at Calcutta have gone to Malta to arrange for the reception of these troops.

The Congress of Nations is to be held; so says the London Echo, "on authority."

News and Notes.

A strike of great magnitude took place among the cotton mill operatives of Lancashire, England, on Thursday, owing to a general reduction of wages. Over 200,000 looms and 6,000,000 spindles are stopped, and 120,000 people idle.

Mackerel are a drug in the New York market, at one cent to five cents each. Shad are also plentiful.

Charles H. Lanman, a young man, has been keeping company with Annie Lyons, the daughter of a Boston liquor dealer, in opposition to her father's command. The girl walked out with Lanman, Wednesday evening; the father met them and reprimanded Lanman, who at once drew a pistol and shot Lyons, who will probably die.

A man named Shoeburger was murdered at Huntsville, Tenn., on the 13th inst., and Mike White and two negroes were lodged in jail on suspicion of being concerned in the murder. On Wednesday all three were taken from jail by a mob, and hanged.

The recent lynching of a colored woman named Charlotte Harris at Richmond, Va., who had been accused of prompting a boy to burn a barn, appears to have been without cause, as the boy has been acquitted.

Hon. Chester W. Chapin resigned his position as President of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company Wednesday, and Hon. D. Waldo Lincoln was elected to fill the vacancy.

At a meeting of the Newburyport city government Wednesday evening several petitions came before the Mayor and Board of Aldermen for liquor licenses for the ensuing year. It was unanimously voted that these petitioners have leave to withdraw; so the license question, so far as Newburyport is concerned, may be considered settled for this year. Not a license will be granted.

Boss Tweed was buried on Wednesday. His funeral was private, as was proper (but not common) in the case of such a wholesale thief.

Bessie Turner, of the "Celebrated Case" Theatre Company and Beecher-Tilton scandal fame, whose name on the bills is Beta Avery, is seriously ill with diphtheria at Brocton. Mrs. Tilton has telegraphed to have a good nurse procured and everything possible done for her.

The Board of Examiners will visit the stations in the several life-saving districts shortly for inquiry into the qualifications of surfmen, in accordance with the regulations for the government of the Life-Saving Service.

William H. Devlin is on trial at Lowell, Mass., for the murder of his wife and child, last December, and pleads not guilty. It was murder most foul and brutal, when he was drunk.

A six-horse team belonging to Barnum's circus ran away in New York, Thursday, and the driver's brains were dashed out.

The Boston & Albany Railroad pays a dividend of four per cent. May 15th.

Hassan Salib, one of the Turkish inspectors of arms at Providence, on Wednesday night got very drunk, twice stabbed a prostitute with whom he has been consorting, and then jumped from a third story window. Neither of them will die, and the spreeing Musselman will probably be sent to prison for a murderous assault.

New Hampshire Items.

At a meeting of the Governor and Council, Wednesday, Wm. Demorest of Manchester was appointed Supervisor of the State Normal School, in place of Wm. E. Buck of Manchester, resigned.

The usually quiet town of Milford had a young riot on Tuesday, 16th inst. On that day two men claiming to be W. M. Darling and Prof. Wayland canvassed the town in aid of an exhibition to be given in the Town Hall. The show from the start was a complete fraud, resulting in the audience demanding back their money. The parties escaped from the excited audience by a back entrance and fled to the hotel, followed by a large crowd. A writ was procured and the parties were arrested and placed under a keeper. Wednesday morning Manager Darling gave up $6, all the money left, with watch and some other articles, and both left for Nashua, promising to send $10 to redeem what they had left. Wayland hails from Boston.

A fourteen old son of Alvin T. Hall of Stewartstown, while driving to Colebrook with a blind horse, was thrown from a high bridge by the breaking of a rotten railing, and the boy and team fell twenty feet into the stream. The horse was killed and the boy badly bruised and made nearly crazy.

Congress.

The Senate on Wednesday passed a concurrent resolution providing for the adjournment of Congress on June 10th. The idea in fixing a date at this time is to have the House work up to it and to push action on the appropriation bills. If the adjournment takes place by the 1st of July it is more than the Senators now expect.

In the Senate Mr. Morrill reported back the following substitute, agreed upon by the finance committee as a substitute for the bill repealing the resumption act: "That from and after the passage of this act United States notes shall be receivable for the four per cent. bonds now authorized by law to be issued, and on and after October 1st, 1878, said notes shall be receivable for duties on imports, and said notes in the volumes in existence on Oct. 1st, 1878, shall not be cancelled nor permanently hoarded, but shall be reissued, and they may be used for funding and all other lawful purposes whatsoever, to an amount not exceeding in the whole the aggregate amount then in circulation and in the Treasury, and the said notes, whether then in the treasury or thereafter received, under any act of Congress and from whatever source, shall be again paid out; and when again returned to the treasury they shall not be cancelled nor destroyed, but shall be reissued from time to time with like qualities, and all that part of the Act of Jan. 14th, 1875, entitled 'An Act to provide for the resumption of specie payments,' authorizing the retirement of eighty per cent. of U. S. notes shall cease and become inoperative on and after the said Oct. 1st, 1878."

The House passed a bill prohibiting the further coinage of twenty-cent silver pieces. The House went to the Speaker's table, and took up the Senate adjournment resolution; Wood moved to refer it to his committee, but was voted down by twenty majority. Finally the resolution went over. The bill providing for the deposit of savings in popular loans, and for funding the National debt in home bonds, was reported and referred to the committee of the whole. It provides that any person may deposit money in any sum of not less than twenty-five cents in any postal money-order office, and when such deposits shall reach sums of $10 the Postmaster shall issue to the depositor a postal order on the United States Treasury, which shall issue therefor 3-65 bonds, which shall be exempt from all taxes.

As was to have been anticipated, Senator Conkling discredits the World's long report of an interview with him, while conceding that there might possibly have been some private conversation upon which portions of the story were founded.

THE CITY.

The Lingards—Wm. Horace and Alice Dunning—will appear at Music Hall on Thursday evening, April 25th.

The Granite States have accepted a challenge from the "Same Old Game" base ball club, and will play Saturday afternoon at the Plains, at half-past two o'clock.

It was a somewhat singular coincidence that the late Ammi R. H. Fernald, Paymaster of the Kearsarge Mills for so many years, should die on what was pay day at the Mills.

Major Daniel J. Vaughan, having sufficiently recovered from his recent illness, will next week visit the western part of the State for an official tour as Inspector and Mustering Officer of the State militia.

Thursday was a genuine spring day, bright and sunny, with a chilling easterly breeze—just the weather to take cold. Though the day was bright on land it was not so at sea, however, judging from the tooting of the Whale's-back foghorn.

Several times this winter excursion trains have conveyed parties from Portsmouth and the neighboring towns to attend amusements in Boston, but until now we have never heard of their bringing parties here. We learn however that accommodations have been engaged at the Rockingham House for quite a large party that proposes to attend the Easter Concert, which certainly is a high voucher for the excellence of the entertainment offered.

We are informed by a correspondent that our account of the capsizing accident which occurred on Portsmouth bridge on Wednesday was not correct in all particulars; it "was occasioned by the horse becoming frightened on the approach of the train, and in turning threw the ladies out. Miss Lucy E. Hoyt was badly injured, and Mrs. French considerably bruised. Both ladies received the shock on one arm and the side of the face and head. Livery-stable-keepers ought to be held responsible for damages when they send vicious or unsafe horses for ladies to drive."

Mr. James R. Yeaton has leased for twenty years all the Elwyn lands between Richards avenue, South road and the millpond, on both sides Langdon Park, for farming purposes. Had the wealthy citizens of Portsmouth, dead and alive, possessed a tithe of the public spirit of nearly all the rest of mankind similarly situated—this whole beautiful section would long ago have been included in one of the loveliest of parks. It is too bad that these fine lands, so centrally located, should have been so long allowed to remain a dreary waste and blemish in what should be the heart of the city.—Weekly.

Prof. Warman, of Boston, the accomplished elocutionist who has so large a class under his instruction in Portsmouth, will give one of his delightful entertainments at Congress Hall on Tuesday evening, April 23d. As his entertainment is given for the purpose of introducing himself to those wishing instruction in elocution he makes the price merely nominal —fifteen cents admission—with the expectation that many of those who will listen to him will gladly put themselves under his instruction. The Mansfield (Ohio) Liberia says: "Prof. Warman has a splendid voice, full and musical, and his articulation is very distinct. He reads everything in a manner that none but a master could approach. Every word he says vibrates through the the hall. As a humorist he is unsurpassed."

In accordance with the request of many friends, Mr. Albert Laighton has consented to issue a new volume of his poems in season for the holidays of 1878-9. Mr. Laighton's first volume had an extensive sale, and there has been a steady demand for more copies, but the large editions were long ago exhausted, and the only way any of his poems could afterward be reached was through "The Poets of Portsmouth," a "collection of gems of home talent," which edition is also, we believe, now all taken. The new book will in the main be a treasury of poetic gems never before published, the author having spent much time and thought thereon, the results of which, judging by the opinions of critics who have seen the manuscripts, will be to add further laurels to the poet's name. We understand that this volume will bear the imprint of A. Williams & Co., of Boston, and be issued in exquisite style. Seventy-five copies of the work were subscribed for at one store in this city, on the first day the list was opened.

Rev. Charles A. Holbrook will confer the Rite of Baptism upon forty-three little children at St. John's Episcopal church on Easter afternoon.

The following petit jurors were drawn Wednesday evening in Ward Two, to serve at the Supreme Court in Exeter: Albert C. Anderson, Aaron H. Hill, Rufus K. Oxford, Lewis E. Staples.

The Supervising Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital service has divided the marine hospitals into three classes. The relief station off this harbor has been placed in Class Three. The building is to be put in thorough order, to be ready at any time to receive sick and disabled seamen.

A New York despatch says: "An agent a Boston Life Insurance Company is here seeking information as to Captain Clark of the scuttled schooner E. H. Pray, of Clark's father claims $2000 life insurance on the ground that the Captain was murdered here. Evidence is said to be forthcoming that Clark was seen in Hoboken after the schooner sunk."

THE VICINITY.

Mr. George A. Bartlett, Assistant Professor of German at Harvard University, has purchased the Woodman place, near Mr. John Albee's, in Newcastle, and will occupy it as a residence for a considerable portion of the year.

The Newcastle Reform Club has had a revival, and fifty new names have been added to its pledge. The new officers are: President, Conrad Push; Vice Presidents, John Q. A. Martin, Benj. J. Batson, Jr., Rufus A. Preble, Jr.; Secretary, B. J. Batson, Jr.; Chaplain, Albert W. Hanscom.

George E. B. Jackson, Esq., the new President of the Maine Central Railroad, is a lawyer by profession, has been in successful practice at the Cumberland bar, and subsequently as Treasurer and Manager of the Portland Rolling Mills acquired an extensive railroad acquaintance. He is a Director in the Eastern Railroad, and in other railroads in Maine, is an able business man, and will make a successful President.

The brig Leonard Myers arrived in Saco river from Mobile on the 16th inst., having on board about nine hundred bales of cotton, and twenty-five thousand cypress shingles. This we think is the first shipment of cotton direct from the South to Saco for many years. Bringing shingles to Maine from the South seems something like carrying coals to Newcastle. Those received are of uniform width, —about four inches—and it is claimed will last a great many years.

CITY COUNCILS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Thursday evening:

A communication was received from Frank W. Miller, requesting that the sidewalk leading from Union street to Richards avenue be repaired; also that the ledges near his residence on South street be removed; accepted, but no action taken.

A petition for a sidewalk in front of No. 1 Court street, petitioners to pay one half the cost, was referred to committee on streets to report.

The City Clerk notified the Board that Mr. John P. Hart had entered the common sewer on Union street, and refused to pay the usual fee for said privilege, but stated that he was willing to pay if the sewer was relaid low enough to drain his premises.

James Janvrin notified the Board he would enter the new proposed drain on Washington street, from three houses, if the drain is built.

Aldermen Hadley called the attention of the Board to the condition of the burying ground at Point of Graves, and suggested that it be cleaned of the rubbish that had collected, and other improvements needed to be made; referred to committee on burying grounds, with power.

Resignation of William C. Ham was taken from the table, accepted and sent to the Common Council. A message was received from the Common Council stating they were ready to meet the Mayor and Aldermen to elect city officers.

The Boards met in convention, and proceeded to elect City Messenger; and on the ninth ballot James L. Parker was chosen. Robert E. Rich was elected City Treasurer; John F. Shillaber, as Sealer of Weights and Measures; Hiram F. Williams, weigher at Eldredge's Brewery. The convention then rose.

In Board of Aldermen, resumed:

Mr. Montgomery asked leave to open State street to repair sewer; granted.

Mrs. Patchen complained of drain on Madison street, stating that it overflowed her land. Referred to committee on drains, with power.

City Marshall's quarterly reports on arrests, costs and fines were received, accepted and referred to committee on police.

Committee on fire department, to whom was referred the Chief Engineer's report, recommended that Kearsarge Engine, No. 3, be repaired at the Manchester Locomotive Works; which was amended by striking out all after the word "repaired" and inserting "by Portsmouth mechanics under the direction of the Chief Engineer and committee on fire department, if it can be done as cheap as by out of town parties;" and it was still further amended, by adding "if in their judgment equally good work could be done by Portsmouth mechanics."

The Mayor was added to the committee, and as amended the order passed.

Committee on fire department recommended that a six-inch water pipe be laid from the State street main to the Market square reservoir; and that a reservoir be built on Christian shore.

Voted, That the committee on police be instructed to investigate fully the circumstances connected with the reported assault on one James B. Spencer on State street some two weeks since, and report to this Board, whether in their judgment the police force have exerted themselves to their utmost to bring the assailants to justice or a court of law.

THE KITTERY PASTORSHIP.

KITTERY, ME., April 16th.

Editor Chronicle: In one of your issues of last week was an erroneous item concerning the pastor of the Christian Church in this place which I would like to correct, as it has been copied into other papers with additional statements which have not only misrepresented him, but have been against the society. Rev. Mr. Hutchinson has not been dismissed from the church for the use of tobacco nor from any other cause, nor has he any intentions of leaving us, the society last evening having invited him to remain another year. Mr. Hutchinson has ministered to us the past eight years, and we have implicit confidence in him as a Christian teacher. Respectfully,

GEO. MANENT, Clerk of the Society.

[Note. Our correspondent requests us to "ask those papers which have made mention of your former article, to copy' the foregoing statement. We would, willingly, but we do not know of any paper that "made mention of our former article," save the Portsmouth Weekly, and that paper has already published an item (as have we) announcing the action of the church on the evening of the 15th. We took the first item from a Boston paper, and toned it down greatly before we published it; and we have not seen it alluded to since except in the Weekly, as before mentioned.—Ed. Chron.]

Causes of Sudden Death.

Very few of the sudden deaths which are said to arise from diseases of the heart do really arise from that cause. To ascertain the real origin of sudden deaths, experiments have been tried in Europe and reported to a scientific Congress held at Strasbourg. Sixty-six cases of sudden death were made the subject of a thorough post-mortem examination. In these only two were found who had died from disease of the heart. Nine out of sixty-six died of apoplexy, while there were forty-six cases of congestion of the lungs—that is, the lungs were so full of blood that they could not work, there not being room enough for a quantity of air to enter to support life. The causes that produce congestion of the lungs are cold feet, tight clothing, costive bowels, sitting still and getting chilled after being warmed with labor or rapid walking, going too suddenly from close, heated rooms into the cold air, especially after speaking, and sudden depressing news operating on the blood. The causes of sudden death being known, an avoidance of them may serve to lengthen many valuable lives which would otherwise be lost under the verdict "heart complaint." This disease is supposed to be inevitable and incurable; hence, many do not take the pains they would do to avoid sudden death if they knew it lay in their power.

—For lovers—Promerade. For temperance man—Lemonade. For poverty-stricken railroads—Government aid.

—The Utica Observer makes the following very important correction: The line, "Twaddle like a hum on some late spree," in our poem of last Saturday, should have read: "Twitter like a bird on some lone spray."

—Something very like perpetual motion, though not what is technically so called, has been invented by a Pennsylvania man, in a magnetic clock, the pendulum of which is kept in perpetual oscillation by the magnetism of the earth. It will run without any care as long as the machinery holds out.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. The immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and Ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 Dey St., New York.

Mothers,

here is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & CO., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years, by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and gives a feeling of security from their fatal results, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready relief and cure of the various ailments. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

PENNSYLVANIA
RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction and Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and ballasted roadbed, a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the Far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specific in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and permanency. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior article supersede a superior article. By a process of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Saying read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could mulcate a similar curse in their papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "pulses," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," worthless work, though at intervals I would snuff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable patent for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached for my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 36 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weak, nervous system shattered, and my constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seventeen hours of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A friend recently gave me a paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy inclosed me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in three months, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose.

Yours truly, S. D. REMICK.

A CLOUD OF WITNESSES.

The following named parties are among the thousands who have been cured of catarrh by the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy:

A. F. Downs, New Geneva, Pa.; D. J. Brown, St. Joseph, Mo.; F. C. Lewis, Rutland, Vt.; Lewis Springer, Neptune Lake, Ohio; Chas. Norcrop, North Chesterfield, Me.; Milton Jones, Scriba, N. Y.; J. E. Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Bronchitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness; Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternate with hot flashes, low spirits and lowness, forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Yellow Dock, Burdock, Lappulina, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potassium and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

CATARRH

A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER,—Sirs: I have practised medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the nasal passages, fauces and larynx. I have used every thing in the materia medica without any permanent relief, until finally I was induced to try a patent medicine (something that we allopathists are very loth to do) I tried——and divers others until I got hold of yours. I followed the directions to the letter, and am happy to say that I had a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully,
D. W. GRAY, M. D.,
Of Dr. D. W. Gray & Son., Physicians and Druggists, Muscatine, Iowa.

MUSCATINE, IOWA, March 27, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in the cure of those

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes which in many cases accompany a severe case of Catarrh. The inflamed and diseased condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these troubles; and until the system has been brought properly under the influence of the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from them cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was placed before the public, but in that short time it has found its way from Maine to California, and is everywhere acknowledged by druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh ever compounded. The fact will be deemed of more importance when it is coupled with the statement that within five years over 150 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day, with one or two exceptions, (in it names cannot be recalled by the best) formed drug-gist. Advertising may succeed in locing a few sales, but, unless the remedy possess undoubted specific medical properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.00. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

ATTACK THE REAL FOE.

Frank, 'ploy your force in line,
Behold the harvest ripe;
The centre, right and left combine
Against rum, cider, brandy, wine;
I'll aid you with a skirmish line,
And co-work with might and mind:
But never smash a pipe.

O, let my prayer be heard,
For olive branch and pipe!
Bury the hatchet and the sword;
In peace let plowshares turn the sod,
And raise tobacco. In a word,
To me it is a gift from God—
The solace of a pipe.

King Alcohol's arrayed
In rebellion's advance;
Let his triumphant march be stayed;
Guns of your calibre, delayed,
Have panic stricken and dismayed
A host that would have drawn the blade,
But dared not take the chance.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 15th

The investigation of a case of exceptional parental cruelty that has enlisted the sympathies of ninety-nine out of every hundred residents and visitors of our city and vicinity, apparently, in behalf of the victims, has just been concluded in our police court after several days devoted to a patient hearing by Judge Snell. The family consisted of the father and five daughters, the oldest considerably above twenty years old, the youngest about fifteen years. The mother has been dead some years, the father being an employe in the War Department. Intimations of brutal treatment to all except the eldest, Miss Ella, had been heard for some weeks and about two weeks ago a full expose was made in the Star and other local papers. From evidence offered during the trial it appears that Ella was a favorite, the other four being Cinderellas and only permitted to exist for the pleasure of the father and oldest daughter. They seem to have been naturally timid and hysterically disposed, and had been so unmercifully bull-dozed, beaten, kicked, cuffed and starved that they were driven to the verge of insanity. Two cents' worth of corn meal often constituted their rations for a day, while the old gentleman and Miss Ella worried along on fish, oysters, eggs, meat, bread, vegetables and the few other articles afforded by the markets and shops. Screw-drivers, chisels, hammers, chair-rounds and rockers appear to have been the chosen instruments used to inspire filial and sisterly love and obedience when his fist or boot-heel failed. One daughter fled after a severe punishment by a method wholly unfit to publish, and was lured back to be tied up in a chamber like a wild beast for more than twenty-four hours, without fire, in December. The details are harrowing and indecent, and I venture to say there have been more indignant mothers in Washington during the past two weeks than for any similar period, for two years. The Police Court, usually avoided by ladies, was well filled with them every day of the trial. The defense was virtually an admission of all I have stated relative to the treatment and much more of the most shocking character. The father was sentenced to a fine and incarceration in jail for two years. The case was appealed and bonds in $900 were given. Judge Snell in concluding said: "The violence—the unnatural and unreasonable severity manifested, the disproportion of punishment to offense, the insensibility, coarseness and brutality which characterized all these painful scenes, all bespeak a heart regardless of social duty, and exhibiting all the ordinary symptoms of a wicked, depraved and malignant spirit. From a careful consideration of the evidence I find the defendant guilty of the several assaults and batteries charged in the information."

The barbarities inflicted by Mechlin and Miss Ella seem to have been one form of manifestation of the spirit of demoralization and brutality which has run riot here for months and is steadily on the increase. Hardly a day passes that one or more cases of indecent and aggravated assault on females is not reported; and never before during a residence of ten years have threats of lynching been heard as within the past year. On several occasions that dread resort appears only to have been avoided by the forecast of the police authorities. Nor is this moral decadence confined to the rough and vicious. The names of men heretofore regarded as models of social and business propriety are heard associated with the most beastly outrages, gross immoralities and startling lapses. The indignation of the whole community was recently aroused over the alleged criminality of one of our most prominent dry-good merchants in a matter that involved the death of one of his female employes. Enforced idleness has led to a terrible harvest of pauperism, vagrancy and crime, committed, seemingly, in the very wantonness of recklessness and desperation. Notwithstanding the temperance revival, the 1100 drinking houses and tippling shops are all open and seem to enjoy a highly profitable traffic, though scores—possibly hundreds—are absolutely and literally dying of starvation. On the other hand the reckless extravagance, the profligate waste was never more noticeable than during this session, according to the statements of those who consider themselves best qualified to judge. Members of both House and Senate from those sections recently devastated by horrid war, appeal from their places for national aid for their impoverished people, while their wives and daughters fairly outshine Mrs. Veneering, Mrs. Podsnap and Mrs. Shoddy in this race of folly and dissipation at Vanity Fair.

The alleged "confession" of Mrs. Tilton has re-opened an unsavory mess, but with reflecting people here it seem to have had no other effect, so far as regards their opinion of Mr. Beecher's guilt or innocence. She has made too many confessions for her statements to have any particular weight, except with those who adhere to the side making the last plea. Those here who believed Mr. Beecher innocent prior to this last sign of animation in what was believed a dead and much decayed carcass, appear to believe it just as implicitly now, and vice versa. I believe Tilton is generally credited with the paternity of the "confession," even among many convinced of Beecher's guilt; and faith in his manhood, let alone regard for his wife, has not been enhanced by its appearance.

Dr. Mary Walker is critically ill of pneumonia at the Providence Hospital, and little hope is entertained of her recovery.

KNOX.

Daily Chronicle

SATURDAY, APRIL 20, 1878.

The Will of the Late John E. Lyon.

By the last will and testament of the late John E. Lyon the following bequests are made:

Selina W. McLean	$25,000
Abby W. McLean	10,000
J. Thomas Vose	20,000
Edward D. Harlow	10,000
John H. Sullivan	5,000
Warren Street Chapel (Boston)	10,000
George W. Storer	2,500
Theodore Stanwood	2,500
Unitarian Soc. (Lancaster, Mass.)	5,000

The last donation is given to the Society of which Rev. Nathaniel Thayer was pastor from 1793 to 1840. The income only is to be used for the benefit of the poor. The residue of the estate, which is supposed to amount to several hundred thousand dollars, is bequeathed to the same persons to whom the statute of Massachusetts would give it if the testator had not left a will. It is not known that Mr. Lyon had any living relative at the time of his death, but the announcement will no doubt bring to light persons who will be able to establish ties of kindred with the deceased. The will is dated January 18th, 1873, and J. Thomas Vose and Francis E. Parker are appointed executors. The first named bequest in the will lapses by reason of the death of the legatee, with whom Mr. Lyon boarded for many years. Mr. Vose was a partner of Mr. Lyon, and Mr. Harlow is the Treasurer of the Boston, Concord and Montreal Railroad.

The Boston Journal says: "The will of Mr. John E. Lyon bequeaths some seventy thousand dollars to a few friends, and the balance, supposed to amount to several hundred thousand dollars, is given to his legal heirs. His friends are not aware that he had any near relatives, and as no one of kin put in an appearance at the funeral it is a matter of conjecture as yet to whom the property will descend. There is a promise of rich legal fees before the matter is settled, and it is a little surprising that a gentleman of Mr. Lyon's methodical habits had not designated the recipients of his wealth."

Military.

In accordance with an order recently issued by Gov. Prescott, the First New Hampshire Regiment is now composed of the following companies, designated by letters, as below:

Strafford Guards, Dover, Co. A; Sheridan Guards, Manchester, Co. B; Portsmouth Guards, Portsmouth, Co. C; Portsmouth H. A., Portsmouth, Co. D; Straw Rifles, Manchester, Co. E; Lane Rifles, Candia, Co. F; Newmarket Guards, Newmarket, Co. G; Great Falls Light Infantry, Great Falls, Co. H; Manchester Veterans, Manchester, Co. I; Head Guards, Manchester, Co. K.

The Second Regiment as follows:

Lafayette Artillery, Lyndeborough, Co. A; Gov. Cheney Guards, Peterborough, Co. B; Hinsdale Guards, Hinsdale, Co. C; Granite State Cadets, Antrim, Co. D; Lincoln Rifles, Milford, Co. E; Nashua City Guards, Nashua, Co. F; Keene Light Infantry, Keene, Co. G.

A new regiment, the third, will be organized with the following companies, viz.; Messer Rifles, New London, Co. A; Merrimack Guards, Chichester, Co. B; State Capital Guards, Concord, Co. C; Weston Guards, Pittsfield, Co. D; Pillsbury Light Guards, Concord, Co. E. All the other State troops will be attached to the brigade.

Brig.-Gen. J. M. Clough is assigned the duty of calling a meeting of the commissioned officers of the Third Regiment, and such others as he may deem proper, for the purpose of forming a regimental organization and deciding upon a uniform to be adopted by the regiment.

Paying Out the Gold.

On Thursday the following institutions were announced as paying out gold on call: National, Commercial, and Mechanics' and Farmers' banks of Albany; First and Third National banks of Cincinnati; Fourth National bank of Sandusky, O.; First National bank of New Haven, and the Dawson bank of Wilmington, N. C.; Citizens' bank of Atlanta, Ga.; James Hunter, the largest broker of Savannah, Ga.; Germania National bank of New Orleans; also the large houses of Charles Leighton and Byrne & Co., dry goods, New Orleans. In most of the cases where gold is paid out, it is soon returned again and received on deposit at par, the same as greenbacks. In fact, bank notes are everywhere preferred. The Third National bank of Cincinnati had only got rid of $5000, though it commenced paying it on the 15th inst.

On Friday telegrams from other places in several of the Southern States reported that gold was being paid out by the banks, but they found little call for it, greenbacks being generally preferred. The papers of Columbus, Ohio, published interviews with all the leading National and private bankers of the city, in which they declare themselves ready to resume specie payment at any time.

Resumption has practically begun, and instead of there being a frantic rush for gold there is but a trifling demand for it.

Congress.

The Senate in executive session Thursday, recommitted the nomination of Geo. F. Cutter, to be Paymaster-General of the Navy, to the committee on naval affairs, with authority to make a thorough investigation of charges preferred against him.

Fernando Wood's committee of mean ways has agreed to recommend to the House the reimposition of an income tax. The proposed tax is to take effect for the year 1878 and the tax is to be levied January 30, 1880. Incomes over $2000, and not exceeding $5000, are taxable at two per cent.; over $5000, and not exceeding $10,000, three per cent.; above that, four per cent.

News and Notes.

At Coal Creek, Indiana, a mining town, striking coal miners on Wednesday inaugurated a riot, shot three unoffending negroes dead and mortally wounded another, and defied the authorities. The rioters were headed by a militia company composed of miners who were engaged in the great strike riots of a year ago. The State government has been called on for aid.

In Philadelphia, Thursday morning, Effie Da Costra, aged twenty-one, was terribly burned through her clothes taking fire by treading on a match, and died the same evening. Hattie Green, aged twenty-six, living in the same house, attempted to rescue Miss Da Costra and was also burned to death.

Paul Rudolph, aged eight years, residing at Air Line Junction, a suburban railway station near Toledo, Ohio, shot and killed Otto Benning, aged thirteen, on Thursday. Young Rudolph states the shooting was accidental, while another account makes it the result of a quarrel between the lads. Rudolph was put in jail.

There was a nihilist riot at Moscow, Russia, on Thursday, in which 3000 students and workmen took place. Twelve were killed and twenty-five wounded by the soldiery, and hundreds arrested.

Henry H. Harriman, a prominent citizen of Warner, and a brother of ex-Governor Walter Harriman, was found dead in his pasture, Thursday evening, from heart disease. He was about 65 years of age.

There is a woman in Fremont who, during the past winter, has cut and piled twenty-three cords of wood. She has three children, one an infant. In one day she cut and piled up two cords.

The Hedding Camp-meeting Association suits against parties for selling victuals and liquors in houses and booths, within two miles of the camp-ground at Epping, have been sustained by the Courts.

The town meetings that are being held in Merrimac county to take the sense of the voters on the question of rebuilding the Poor House at North Boscawen, reveal a remarkable unanimity in opposition to the county pauper system. With one exception thus far every town returns a great majority against rebuilding.

A shooting affray took place at Woodsville, Thursday, but without serious results. One Joseph Haddock, a tramp, stopped Mrs. George A. Ring in the road and began using insulting language to her, whereupon she drew a revolver and fired at him twice without effect. Her husband, coming to the rescue, pursued him, firing two more shots without hitting him. Ring gave himself up to the authorities for attempting murder, but was quickly released. Ring gave Haddock a severe pounding last winter for circulating stories against his wife and loitering around his premises. He says unless he retracts his words and keeps clear of his path he certainly will shoot him.

The twenty-second annual examination of the State Reform School occurred on Wednesday. Various parts of the programme, of twenty-eight parts, consisting of recitations, dialogues and singing, were rendered to the credit of the inmates. Speeches were made by Hon. Daniel Clark, Gen. Natt Head and others, after which rewards were distributed, and a number of inmates discharged for meritorious conduct. A creditable paper, called the Pioneer, printed by the boys, was distributed among the guests, from which it appears that the whole number admitted to the institution has been 922. The number connected with the school the present year is 146. At present there are 116, of whom sixteen are girls. There is a chair manufactory, shoe shop and printing office connected with the school, and also a fine opportunity to work on the farm; 60,000 chairs have been bottomed during the year, the foreman, for a considerable portion of the time, being one of the inmates. The girls, aside from domestic duties, have made 500 garments for lads, 400 shirts and 200 caps.

The American Journal of the Medical Sciences, for April, is issued by Henry C. Lea, Nos. 706 & 708 Sansom street, Philadelphia; quarterly; $5 per year, free of postage. The papers in this journal are by the ablest medical men, and many of them of great value to the profession.

Myths are but Symbols of Truth.

As the scholar sees in the vain but beautiful mythologies of the ancients the embodied expressions of the hungry human soul, blindly groping after the Infinite, so the physician sees in that popular myth of the sixteenth century—the fountain of perpetual health and youth—an expression of the longings of suffering humanity for a remedy that should forever prevent the incursion of disease. The wilds of Europe were ransacked for this wonderful fountain, and Ponce de Leon sought for it in the cypress-swamps and tangled everglades of our sunny Florida. Men have reached for it everywhere and anywhere but where it really is—in the human body itself. The blood is the real fountain of perpetual health and youth. When this source is corrupted, the painful and sorrow-producing effects are visible in many shapes. The multifarious forms in which it manifests itself would form subjects upon which I might write volumes. But as all the varied forms of disease which depend upon bad blood are cured, or best treated, by such medicines as take up from this fluid, and excrete from the system the noxious elements, it is not of practical importance that I should describe each. For instance, medical authors describe about fifty varities of skin disease, but as they all require for their cure very similar treatment, it is no practical utility to know just what name to apply to a certain form of skin disease, so you know how best to cure it. Then again, I might go on and describe various kinds of scrofulous sores, fever sore, white swellings, enlarged glands, and ulcers of varying appearance; might describe how virulent poison may show itself in various forms of eruptions, ulcers, sore throat, bony tumors, etc.; but as all these carious-appearing manifestations of bad blood are cured by a uniform means, I deem such a course unnecessary. Thoroughly cleanse the blood, which is the great fountain of life, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength, and soundness of constitution, will all return to us. For this purpose Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Purgative Pellets are preeminently the articles needed. They are warranted to cure tetter, salt-rheum, scald head, St. Anthony's fire, rose rash or erysipelas, ring-worms, pimples, blotches, spots, eruptions, pustules, boils, carbuncles, sore eyes, rough skin, scurf, scrofulous sores and swellings, fever sores, white swellings, tumors, old sores or swellings, affections of the skin, throat and bones, and ulcers of the liver, stomach, kidneys, and lungs.

THE CITY.

Chales W. Gardner will address the Reform Club in Mechanics Hall on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Admission free to all.

Base ball match at the plains this afternoon between the Granite States and "Same Old Game" commencing at half-past two o'clock.

Mr. Charles M. Laighton has purchased the lot on the northerly side of Lincoln avenue, running from Richards to Miller avenues, on which he will erect a residence.

By the new organization of the State militia into three regiments, the Portsmouth City Guards are gazetted as Co. C of the 1st Regt., and the Heavy Artillery as Co. D; the Light Artillery and the Cavalry are unattached.

The concert at the Universalist church, Thursday evening, was attended by a good audience, and gave entire satisfaction to all, so far as we have heard. Miss Edith Wendell's singing was received with marked favor, and she was repeatedly and persistently encored.

The funeral of the late Ammi R. H. Fernald took place Friday afternoon, with Masonic ceremonies. There was a large gathering of the brethren of the various Masonic organizations, and the body of the deceased was committed to the earth at the Union cemetery with the beautiful service of the Knights Templar. Very many of the prominent older citizens were present to pay the last mark of respect to one who filled his allotted place faithfully and well during a long and active life.

The Odd Fellows fraternity of this city have arranged for a free lecture in Mechanic's hall on Tuesday evening, by Mrs. Mattie A. Bridge of Florida, who will speak on "Florida, its Past, Present and Future." This lady, who is now lecturing in the Northern States, is the widow of the late Samuel I. Bridge, Past Grand Master of Wisconsin, and Past Grand Representative of the Grand Lodge of the United States; and she is highly commended as a lecturer by Wendell Phillips, B. P. Shillaber and others.

On the 17th sun, plant moon, 8th run, 30th breath,—which means at half-past eight o'clock on the evening of Wednesday, 17th inst.,—the Big Injuns of Newichewannock Tribe, with their squaws, had a grand powow at their wigwam, "following the hunt and great council." The favorite dances were "Much heap pan," (which appropriately preceded the "thirty breaths" taken for indulgence in "corn and venison," which is Injun for corn-juice and tough beef,) and "Some new squaw," the latter captivating all the big braves. The tribe had a good time, and if there was any scalping done it was probably performed by the regular squaws after the warriors had got home and washed off their war-paint.

The Times of Thursday evening says: "Hon. T. B. Reed, Representative in Congress from this district, has presented in the House of Representatives the petition," etc. A more heartless performance than this of the Times, in this unseating Hon. Frank Jones and giving his seat in Congress to Mr. Reed, we never experienced—just when Mr. Jones is at home in this city, too, on a pleasant visit. We did not vote for nor advocate the election of Mr. Jones, but we are bound to say that on most questions that have come before Congress he has voted right, and that he has worked earnestly to advance the interests of his district; and why the Times, a democratic paper, should now put him out so unceremoniously, we cannot conceive. But it reduces the majority in the "democratic House" by one, that's a comfort.

Work has been commenced on the steamer Appledore, to put her in thorough order for doing the transportation for both the Appledore and Oceanic hotels this season. The Laightons have engaged Capt. Albert Rand, of the tug Clara Batemen, to command the Appledore—Mr. James Magraw, favorably known as mate of the Clara Batemen, taking command of the latter. Capt. Rand is a thoroughly competent seaman, a courteous steamboat skipper, and a skilful Piscataqua river pilot; he ran the Appledore a season or two ago, to the decided satisfaction of her owners and passengers, and the Laightons are to be congratulated on again securing his services.

The Heavy Artillery Company of this city has received a gold medal from Mr. George Day, of Shrewsbury, England, to be given to the best drilled private as shown at the next inspection. Mr. Day was visiting Rye Beach at the time the Company was camping out in that vicinity.

EASTER.

Easter services will be held at the South Parish Sunday morning, afternoon and at vespers. In the afternoon, at 2:45, there will be a service with a sermon for the Sunday school; singing by the children. Contributions of flowers are requested to be sent to the church this evening or early Sunday morning.

Services appropriate to Easter, will be held at the Middle street Baptist church Sunday forenoon. There will be an accompanying floral display. At the evening service Rev. Dr. Alden will lecture on "Little Things."

An Easter festival is to be given in the Universalist church Sunday evening, the exercises to include the Easter exercise, "Changed Cross," with selections and music.

At the Catholic and Episcopal churches the customary special observances of the day will be had. At the Episcopal church an unusually large number of children will be baptised at the afternoon service, at four o'clock.

At the Court street Christian church, Easter services will be held at half-past ten o'clock in the forenoon. Service as usual afternoon and evening.

There will be Easter services at the North church Sunday morning, with a sermon upon "The Resurrection," and in the afternoon a sermon upon "Thou Renewest the Face of the Earth."

SUPREME COURT.

Second week; Smith, J.

In the action Perkins vs Perkins (about a right of way in Hampton,) the jury returned a verdict for defendant. Wiggin and Lamprey for plaintiff, Marston for defendant.

Schlesinger & Blumenthal vs. George K. Caswell. Account for liquors sold, $360. The plaintiffs live in New York city and the defendant in Newmarket. Verdict for plaintiff, $174.06. Hatch and Smith for plff.; Marston for deft.

John Petty, Salem, selling liquor. Plea, guilty; fine $50, and costs.

Wm. H. Bryant, Salem, selling liquor, three indictments. Plea, not. con.; fine $50, and costs on all indictments.

The following is the order in which the cases are to come up for trial next week: On Monday, the State vs. Absalom Hazelton; after which follows Magoon vs. New Hampshire Fire Insurance Company; Elizabeth A. Whidden vs. Robert Manson; Judge of Probate vs. William Downs and Isaiah Wilson; Simeon Rowell vs. Boston and Maine Railroad; Richard Hollings vs. George G. Lougee.

POLICE COURT.

Friday, April 19th; Batchelder, J.

Albert Gove was indicted for stealing portions (a saddle and breeching) of a horse's harness, pleaded guilty, and was bound over in $100 to appear for trial at a higher Court. The harness belongs to Dr. Jones, and was stolen on Sunday, April 7th.

Hiram Gove, father of Albert, was arraigned on complaint of having received the stolen harness, knowing it to have been stolen. The officers found the stolen property hanging up with the rest of Gove's harness, without any attempt at concealment. The accused acknowledged having received it from his son, but denied knowledge that it was stolen, saying his son told him that he had traded some fish for it. There being no evidence of criminal intent, Gove was discharged.

THE VICINITY.

Ex-Secretary of the Navy George M. Robeson has engaged quarters at Batchelder's, at Little Boar's Head, for the summer.

John W. F. Hobbs' barn, at Hampton, was broken into Thursday night, and five fine harnesses stolen therefrom, including a gold-mounted pair.

On Wednesday night the Eastern depot at Salmon Falls was entered by thieves. The ticket case was thrown outside and left. This makes the seventh place entered by thieves in that vicinity within two months.

The selectmen of South Hampton, on their annual rounds, this year took a census of the inhabitants, and found 409 men, women and children in the town. There are forty-four boys and forty-two girls between the ages of four years and seventeen.

Schooner Concord, Capt. Gray, of Rockland, Me., recently lost near Cape Perpoise, was owned by Messrs. Cobb, Wight & Norton, of Rockland, and valued at $1200. The cargo, consisting of 700 casks lime, was the property of the Cobb Lime Co., of Rockland; loss $600. No insurance on vessel or cargo.

The Rockingham Lodge of Odd Fellows at Hampton Falls was resuscitated on Thursday afternoon at three o'clock, brothers Joseph Kidder and L. F. McKinney of Manchester, A. F. Craig of Portsmouth and other officers of the Grand Lodge, with visiting brethren, being present, who went from this city in barges. The Lodge starts anew with seven of the original members on the rolls. After the revival exercises a collation was served, followed by addresses from visiting brethren and others. In the evening, initiations, the conferring of five degrees and the installation of officers took place, the exercises continuing to a late hour. The occasion was a most happy and memorable one to the large number who were present. Rockingham Lodge has recently purchased a half interest in the building in which their lodge now is located (being their old quarters) and have fitted up a good lodge room.—Journal.

See advertisement of auction sale of bank and railroad stocks to-day.

A Good Word for the Crow.

For thirty years we have advocated the protection of the crow, instead of having laws passed for its destruction. The only crime charged against it is that it will pull up corn. This is done to get at the soft grain clinging to the sprout; but even this can be prevented by soaking, say a peck of corn, until it becomes soft, and scattering it in an adjoining field. A few quarts at a time are enough, and the operation should be repeated every two or three weeks, or until the plants are sufficiently strong to render it unnecessary. Only last autumn we saw following a plowman from twenty to thirty crows, which picked up every insect or worm that was exposed. They were so eager in their operations that they would come within a dozen yards of the plowman, showing very little fear, and rising up only when the plow was turned for a new furrow, when they would sail around and at once alight and follow along as regularly as the horses progressed.—Germantown Telegraph.

—A Frenchman was once sitting by a hummer at the songs in a theatre. "The brute, the animal," he muttered to himself. "Sir," said the hummer, "do you mean me?" "Heaven forbid!" he replied; "I am complaining of the tenor, whose noise prevents me from hearing you so clearly as I should have wished."

—The President's message was once carried from Providence to Boston in the remarkable time of one hour and forty minutes. It was done in this way. Post-boys were stationed along every mile. The message was tied around a whip stick. The fleetest horses were selected and the best riders. As the post boy saw the messenger coming, he started and got his horse well going, and as the messenger overtook him he rode alongside, grasped the whip and urged his own horse to his highest speed; at the end of the mile delivering to the next. And so the process was repeated the entire forty-two miles.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. The immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, &c., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 Dey St., New York.

Mothers,

here is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIRS—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. otmay1

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public almost forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of comparative security to those who have been well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its frequent ills. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

PENNSYLVANIA
RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. Its
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in advance with the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and roadbed, a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and Southwest but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated, beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of men? An inferior cannot survive side a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while an equal amount goes to use in several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I have tried the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could embrazon a similar cure in the papers. For 20 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "nasles," "inhalations," and "relicts," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable market for patent medicines. I grew deaf, blind and nearly dead; my voice was lost, my sight impaired, my sense of smell shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three months or a second one in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over eleven months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,
S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness; Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect a entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache, with weariness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humers in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa, arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

CATARRH

A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER,—Sirs: I have practiced medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer, myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the nasal passages, fauces and larynx. I have used every thing in the materia medica without any permanent relief, until finally I was induced to try a patent medicine (something that we allopathists are very loth to do) I tried —— and divers others until I got hold of yours. I followed the directions to the letter, and am happy to say have had a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully,
D. W. GRAY, M. D.,
Of Dr. D. W. Gray & Son., Physicians and Druggists, Muscatine, Iowa.

MUSCATINE, IOWA, March 27, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in the cure of those

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial tubes which in many cases accompany the disease of Catarrh. The inflamed and diseased condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these troubles; and until the system has been brought properly under the influence of the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from them cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was placed before the public, but in that short time it has found its way from Maine to California, and is everywhere acknowledged by druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh ever compounded. The fact will be deemed of more importance when it is coupled with the statement that within five years over 150 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day, with one or two exceptions, their names cannot be recalled by the best-informed druggist. Advertising may succeed in forcing a few sales, but, unless the remedy possess undoubted specific medical properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.00. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

No. 3 BOW STREET.

Daily Chronicle.

Reconstruction of the Navy.

The Secretary of the Navy and the naval committee of Congress have agreed upon a bill for the reconstruction of the navy, which is really for the building of an almost entirely new one. The greater portion of our ships are confessedly old or rotten, and the best and most efficient of the iron clads are antiquated and almost contemptible in comparison with those of all the other civilized powers. Very often, when our ships are put to the trial, some humiliating disaster occurs like that of the Wyoming, and there is this difference between the navy and the army that the latter, although too small for its work, is in a high state of efficiency, while the former is both small and incapable. It may be said that there is no reason for attempting a rivalry with the European fleets any more than with their armies; nor is there. And if we continue to abandon all the profits of commerce and the carrying trade to foreign nations, we do not need even a small navy. We can fence up our harbors with torpedoes and let it go at that. But there are signs of a revival of commerce and an attempt to regain our share of the carrying trade, which was once so large and so profitable, and it is against the nature of things that the people of the United States should be content to be forever deprived of a share in a branch of industry, when the pressure for employment and profitable use of capital is so great. With that revival there will be need of a cruising navy of considerable force, for the protection of merchant ships in distant waters. It will be a national shame, also, if under such circumstances, we do not take our share of the work of contributing to the material aid of navigation by surveys and explorations, and to the international police on barbarous coasts. It should be also something of a national pride to restore the flag of the United States to its former position and respect on the waters.

Far national defence there is not much call for a great navy. The probability of any foreign nation attempting to invade our shores is so small that while fortifications should not be entirely disregarded, it should be of that silent and inert sort, like torpedoes and heavy guns, which do not require a constant expense, but are effective when the need comes. It would be absurd to attempt to rival the gigantic inflexible, or the Dinte's overgrown and impregnable masses of iron. We can regulate our expenditure by the reasonable ratio of danger and by the probable use. Swift cruisers of respectable power, and powerful rams, are the fittest war vessels for our use, under the present circumstances, while we should endeavor to keep pace with the new feature in naval warfare, the movable torpedo. In short, our navy should be a practical affair suited to our exceptional position among civilized powers and to our present and reasonably probable future needs. To be without a navy altogether or a miserable and incompetent one is to discourage the revival of commerce and prevent us from doing a proper and creditable share in the ocean work of civilized nations.

The bill presented by the naval committees provides for the appropriation of three million dollars annually for a period of ten years, to be used in the construction of new ships of war, and makes some changes in the present system of superintendence and responsibility. The bill seems a practical one, and the sum proposed is not too large for the work in hand. If it should be adopted, we should have a fleet worthy to bear the flag of the United States, which we hope would be the forerunner of a merchant marine suited to our wealth, our facilities and our position among nations. Our navy yards would no longer be asylums for rotten hulks or place of political jobbery, but a worthy school of naval architecture and the centres of healthy and profitable activity.—Providence Journal.

—How to raise elephants—Use a derrick.

—The Utica Herald tells the following matrimonial complication: "A German named Suitz, living at Cherry Valley, has placed himself in a rather remarkable predicament. His wife has long been an invalid, and a few days ago, thinking that she was dying, she insisted that her husband should comply with her oft repeated request to make her sister his second wife. Nothing would suit Mrs. Suitz but to have the marriage occur before she closed her eyes in death. The ceremony was accordingly performed, a neighboring Justice of the Peace officiating, and strange to say Mrs. Suitz No. 1 has rallied and is rapidly growing stronger, and probably will get well. Mr. Suitz is anxiout to know how he can read his title clear."

MONDAY, APRIL 22, 1878.

The National Credit.

The Rothschilds in London desire to take ten millions of the 4 1-2 per cent. bonds, and two Treasury agents left New York on Friday with that amount of the bonds, for London, to reopen the American bureau of the Treasury at the Rothschilds' banking house. Three millions of 4 1-2 per cents were sold by the New York syndicate last week.

News and Notes.

We see by an exchange that Rev. J. M. Buckley has triumphed over his opponents at Stamford, Conn. It will be recalled that he, with other temperance reformers, had been arrested, charged with conspiracy to secure the arrest and conviction of rumsellers, and was placed under bonds to appear at court. The justice who put him under bonds has been tried for rum selling, found guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of $200, while the charges against the detectives have been withdrawn.

Gen. Fitz John Porter has at last been granted a new trial by the President. The court will be composed of Generals Schofield, Terry and Getty. Time may have softened the minds of these army officers that they will but lightly regard Porter's treachery at a most perilous hour, but if the court were composed of comrades of the men he murdered by his dilatoriness at the second Bull Run, he'd regret ever having applied for a new trial. He loved whisky more than he did his country, and sacrificed thousands of lives to gratify his jealousy of Gen. Pope, then commanding the army of the Potomac—Manchester Times.

Assistant Engineer R. G. Denig, U. S. N., who was one of the four officers saved from the Huron, was married at Sandusky, O., April 11, Cadet Engineer E. T. Warburton, who was also on the Huron, serving as groomsman.

Samuel Dodge, an old and respected citizen of Newburyport, was set upon by roughs in the cars of the Eastern Railroad Company at Boston, Thursday, and an unsuccessful attempt to rob him was made.

An English surgeon, who has just returned from Erzeroum, says that 13,000 sick and wounded Turkish soldiers have died since the evacuation of that city, and the Russians have lost 21,000 men by sickness since they entered the plain of Erzeroum.

Three mature ladies, Mrs. Lockwood, Mrs. Ricker and Mrs. Dundore, who practice the profession of law in Washington, engaged in a foot race Thursday in the suburbs. Mrs. Lockwood, the most elderly of the three, came out ahead.

Frank Kane, who is under $800 bonds charged with a murderous assault upon Officer Morse, in Portland, Me., is missing, and some are of the opinion that he has left town to avoid his trial, which is to come off at the May term of the Superior Court.

Schooner Lady Woodbury, Captain Thomas D. Woodbury of Portland, sailed from Gloucester for Jamaica on the 19th of January, and has not since been heard of. There is little doubt that she was lost with all hands in a heavy storm the day after leaving port. She carried a crew of five men all told, two of them leaving wives and children.

Rev. George Vosburgh, of Jersey City, has been indicted for an attempt to poison his wife, and gave bail in $5000 for trial.

Andrew J. Garvey, of New York, the well known ring plasterer, and his wife, have made a large transfer of real estate to William H. DeForest. It covered the property at the northwest corner of Madison avenue and Sixty-seventd street, and the price was $179,000.

Sheriff Kent having by some means discovered that an attempt was to be made by the most desperate of the prisoners confined in the House of Correction at the County Farm to break out Friday night, was on his way to inform the Superintendent, Friday, when he met two of the County Commissioners, informed them of the fact and advised them of what course it was proper to pursue. The Commissioners proceeded to the County House and searched the quarters of certain prisoners, finding there the tools that were to have been used in effecting the informal jail delivery. Col. Kent, while not denying that he knew anything in reference to the long-contemplated and well-planned outbreak, declines to furnish any information. He states, however, that there are confined there several persons, well known as desperate characters, who should be in the State Prison rather than in the jail at that place.

Germany has proposed a simultaneous withdrawal of the Russian army and English fleet before Constantinople, and Russia has consented.

C. C. Blake, a weather prophet of considerable reputation, whose predictions for the last year were remarkably accurate, now predicts the weather for a year in advance. By a circular just issued he says that the season generally will be dry and warm, with a few heavy storms and tornadoes. The general amount of rainfall for the year from April 1st, 1878, to the same day of 1879, will be about thirty per cent. below the average for the whole United States. In some localities it will be as much as seventy per cent. below the average. The fall months will be cool, and about the first of October there will be heavy frost in most of the higher latitudes. Winter will commence early, and the cold will be steady, but not excessive.

New Hampshire Items.

A fellow named J. T. Belden has been arrested in Bedford on suspicion of breaking into several stores, barns, etc., and stealing whatever he could lay hands on. After his arrest most of the stolen goods were recovered, and Belden is now in jail, with a certainty of State prison unless he can raise the $800 bail required to get him out of jail, and then runs away.

The State has just come in possession of a fine portrait in oil of Hon. Theodore Atkinson, who was Colonial Secretary of New Hampshire under the administration of the Wentworths.

Charles E. Tilton, a New York millionaire, is closing up his extensive business affairs in that city, and will settle down in Tilton, his native town, to reside. Mr. Tilton has already expended several thousand dollars in purchasing works of art to adorn the streets of his birthplace, and has also built a summer house on an island in the river close to the village. He now proposes to erect a beautiful edifice designed for a Town Hall, a Post-office and a public library and reading room, and then to make a free gift of the same to the town of Tilton.

Political.

A democratic orator in the House of Representatives, recently, urged that our post-office department should be made self-sustaining like that of Great Britain. The following paragraph indicates that starvation wages, as well as compact territory, may have something to do with the matter: "A Hertford, (England) letter-carrier has been sentenced to seven years' imprisonment at hard labor for stealing a money letter. It came out during the trial that his wages were $1.25 a week, and that to earn them he had to walk twelve miles a day."

The Belfast Journal says, "The frog is the original greenbacker, having worn that color ever since the first pollywog shed his tail. He sits on a log and croaks just like the preachers of irredeemable paper money—and with about as much effect." The Journal does not seem to favor the greenback "tidal wave" which is washing the Maine democracy from the old hard money landmarks of the party.

Naval Affairs.

Gunner Thomas H. Fortune, of this city, is detached from Mare Island navy yard and ordered to proceed home and await orders.

Master M. F. Wright is detached from the U. S. S. Enterprise, and placed on waiting orders.

Midshipman Chas. A. Gove, of Concord, has been ordered to the U. S. S. Powhatan.

The Senate has recommitted the nomination of Geo. E. Cutter as Paymaster-General of the Navy and Chief of the Bureau of Provisions and Clothing, with authority to make full investigation of certain charges preferred against him. He was confirmed on Tuesday, 16th inst., and somebody reports that there are former transactions that should be looked over but not overlooked. The story of these transactions has frequently been told in the papers, and if untrue it is a matter of justice to the Paymaster that they be fully investigated; and if they are susceptible of proof, of course the Senate will reject the nomination.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

Harper's Magazine for May well befits the month, with its Italian poets, its western song birds, and its beautiful Easter poem. The number opens with a beautifully illustrated paper, entitled "Coast Rambles in Essex," by S. A. Drake, the author of "Nooks and Corners of the New England Coast." Mr. Drake gives us the romances and humors of Lynn, Swampscot, and Nahant. The "Song Birds of the West" is contributed by Robert Ridgeway, our great ornithological authority, and is exquisitely illustrated by Gibson and Beard. Eugene Lawrence contributes an interesting illustrated paper on the "Italian Poets;" Mrs. Frances L. Mace a beautiful poem, entitled "Easter Morning," which is illustrated by Fredericks. The third paper of the series of, "Old Flemish Masters" is about Rubens, and contains some beautiful engravings after his most celebrated pictures. The Emperor William's summer palaces are described in an illustrated paper, entitled "Along the Havel," by Arthur Venner. "Macleod of Dare," and "The Return of the Native," grow in interest with every monthly installment. Hon. F. H. Morse contributes a brief but important paper on the English Civil Service, with especial reference to its consular and diplomatic branch. Henrietta Hardy's poem, "May-Flower," concludes the body of the magazine,—which contains besides the articles we have mentioned, other poems, short sketches and illustrated papers. The "Easy Chair" opens with an article on Daniel Webster, and follows with some very interesting glimpses of the old Walton House, in connection with which it quaintly describes a Flemish interior in the publishing house over the way. It introduces us again to a Sassafras Club discussion, and concludes with a notice of the "Tender Recollections of Irene Macgillicuddy." The other Editorial Departments are as entertaining and instructive as usual. The number is now ready for delivery at Myers' and Moses Brothers' bookstores.

The May number of the Eclectic Magazine presents an exceptional variety of subjects, the table of contents enumerating no less than twenty-two articles (including the editorial departments.) The leading paper is an entertaining biographical sketch of Lord Melbourne, by Lord Houghton; and there is also a brief but interesting sketch of Il Re Galantuomo (King Victor Emmanuel.) In science there are a very suggestive article entitled Can we Separate Animals from Plants? and the first installment of a series on The Earth's Place in Nature, by J. Norman Lockyer, the astronomer. Of what may be called "timely" articles, there is an instructive one on The European Situation, by M. John Lemoinne; Modern Greece, by J. P. Mahaffy; Popular Superstition of the Turks, and Pope Leo XIII. The poetry includes Tennyson's Ballad of the Fleet, the longest poem he has published for some time; and a modernized version of Chaucer to his Empty Purse. The number also contains other articles of interest besides those mentioned.

THE CITY.

Week before last was was Passion week; this week is fashion week.

Miller's Weekly claims that Adam was a farmer, probably because he raised Cain.

The public schools re-open to-day. Come, ye school children, pick up your books and hieper.

Auctioneer Wendell sold on Saturday the dwelling No. Four Rogers street to John M. Davis, for $1305.

Mr. Franklin Ayers of Christian Shore was stricken by paralysis while sitting in his store door, Saturday forenoon.

Capt. Henry L. Marcy left this city for New York on Saturday morning, to take charge of the ship Coldstream, bound to Japan.

It is reported that the U. S. S. Omaha, daily expected to arrive at Norfolk from Callao, will be ordered to this naval station to pay off.

The attempt at an alarm of fire on Sunday morning was caused by the igniting of the wood work around the try works of C. Morris Tredick's fish curing establishment on Long wharf.

Bradford T. Angell has withdrawn his resignation as clerk, etc., in the Master of Transportation's office of the Eastern Railroad, and will remain in the position he has so long filled to the acceptance of the management.

The game of ball Saturday afternoon, between the Granite States and the "Same Old Game" was won easily by the former by a score of 33 to 10. The Granite States show great improvement from last year, playing a very steady and careful game, and by a little more practice will make warm work for any "amateur" nine.

This evening, at Music Hall, the grand concert by Mrs. Carrie W. Rockwood and her associate stars in the musical world will be given. There is no question that a musical treat of the highest order will be afforded; and as the Lenten season is over, and the price of tickets to the concert very reasonable, a full house may confidently be expected. See advertisement.

Among the agreeable entertainments offered to our citizens during the gay season following the festival of Easter is the attractive programme of Prof. Warman—a very accomplished elocutionist from Boston, highly praised by the Transcript, Advertiser and Traveller. Prof. Warman will present a series of comical and amusing scenes, in which he particularly excels. His object in appearing as a reader is to bring himself before the Portsmouth public as a teacher in elocution. The price of admission is put at fifteen cents, and a full house at Congress Hall on Tuesday evening at eight o'clock is solicited.

It is said that the late John E. Lyon, who never found leisure to get married, was twice engaged, but his affiancee in each instance died before the wedding day. He was so much occupied that he had only time to bequeath ninety thousand dollars in legacies. Perhaps his knowledge of the uncertainty of a will being carried out made him hesitate in making further disposition of his property. The heirs-at-law, who did not arrive at the obsequies, will doubtless call around and make themselves seasonably known to the executors, in order to secure their portion of the estate his industry accumulated.

Among the many important improvements in the business management of the Eastern Railroad is the daily record of freight cars. The clerks in this department have been transferred to the office of the Master of Transportation. At nine o'clock A. M. every station agent makes up a report of all cars at his station; this is kept by numbers, upon a book with a column for every day in the month. Thus the Master of Transportation knows just where every car of the company is, when it left any given point and where it arrived last. The result is a vast economy in car service. The stations are kept by numbers designating the miles from Boston, and the mileage of every car and its whereabouts are reported daily. This is only one instance of the improved system of doing business adopted under the present management.

We are informed that Elbredge C. Marden, Esq., formerly police officer in this city, has been appointed to a position on the San Francisco police force.

FAST DAY OBSERVANCE.

The Portsmouth Weekly says: "The Portsmouth Heavy Artillery made a mockery of the proclamation for State Fast issued by their Commander-in-Chief Gov. Prescott, by target-shooting at Middle street circus-ground." In face of the undeniable fact that the annual Fast Day has drifted a long way from its original moorings, and come to be regarded by most people rather as a season of moderate jollification than a day of fasting and prayer, it is gratifying indeed to find our brother of the Weekly standing up for its sanctity; in fact, it is agreeably surprising to find that he reverences anything whatever. But we don't see that the Heavy Artillery boys did anything very bad in going target-shooting on Fast Day; the Commander-in-Chief said nothing against target-shooting in his proclamation, and no evidence has been adduced to show that the boys ate any dinner that day; and if they fasted, (as we are bound to presume they did, in the absence of proof to the contrary,) their going out in the afternoon to perfect themselves for the final duty of soldiers was an act to be commended rather than blamed. We say final duty, for it is of no use for a soldier to march in procession and deploy himself into a skirmish line and do the other things soldiers do, unless at the end of it all he can hit the fellow on the other side with a bullet; and the only way in which he can so familiarize himself with the rifle as to have a dead sure thing on the other fellow, is by actual practise at a target before he meets him.

EASTER.

The Easter decorations at the Catholic church were chaste and elegant. The gothic structure of the altar, with its attending paraphernalia of emblems, etc., and its many brilliant lights, gives an effect not unpleasing to the eye. Interspersed among the many niches were white and scarlet silk bannerets representing the Trinity, Easter morning and the Resurrection; also monograms and crosses, bouquets, and plants. The figures of St. Patrick and St. Bridget, which are placed on the side of the altar, were curtained with lace drapery bordered with gilt and festooned with gilded bands. From the altar hung a deep lace embossed with figures of gold; and in the front of it, in kneeling posture, were two figures representing angels. In niches on either side of the chancel were the figures of the Virgin Mary and St. Joseph resting on pedestals, on the bases of which were placed bouquets and plants. To the left and in front of the altar was the Paschal Candle, which is used in the observance of the Easter ceremony, and lighted after the gospel. The services of the day were impressive and interesting. The singing, which is a prominent feature and was finely rendered by a choir of twenty voices, included the following selections: Asperges, by Peters; Paine's Mass; Haec Dies, Knapp; Regina Coele, Werner.

At the Episcopal church the display was equal to, if it did not surpass that of previous years. In the centre of the niche and over the communion table was a superb cross six feet high of calla lilies, resting on a base of the purple bougainvillier. On either side of this was a heavy drapery of smilax. The font was also a very beautiful feature, its border being wreathed with flowers and smilax, and on it was a frame from which branched holders containing large and beautiful bouquets. On the altar was a basket of flowers. Typical of the ressurection were two butterflies, which had just left their cocoons resting among the flowers. The Bible and prayer book used in the church which were sent over by Queen Caroline, were exhibited on the occasion.

The Unitarian church was regal in its floral display. Around the front of the platform were placed rare and beautiful plants. The communion table was draped with the passion vine, and on it was placed a profusion of flowers and smilax (in semi-pyramid shape,) beautifully arranged and very effective in its combination of colors. Bouquets, etc., were placed around it, and added to the general effect. The font was gracefully entwined with the passion vine, and held an elegant cross of flowers. The altar was dressed in green, and in front of it was a cross of English ivy, on which was a broken wreath of flowers. Flowers arranged in bouquets and baskets were interspersed around the organ, altar, etc., and the general effect to the eye was a view of a beautiful conservatory.

The North church was tastefully decorated. On the desk were flowering plants and bouquets, and in front of it were very large fuchsias and other plants; one of the fuchsias would certainly challenge admiration from its huge proportions. The arrangement was very fine and attractive.

At the Universalist church, on the front of the gallery in letters of green were the inscriptions, "I am the resurrection and the life," "O sing praises unto the Lord," "Because I live ye shall live also." Festoons of evergreen were draped over the altar, and on the platform were placed some very large and beautiful plants. The communion table was finely decorated with flowers arranged into crosses, harps, bouquets, etc. On the front and in each of the angles of the gallery was a wreath and cross. [In the evening a concert was given in the church by the children of the Sunday school.]

POLICE COURT.

Saturday, April 20th; Batchelder, J.

Olive Austin was brought up for drunkenness. Miss Austin has recently been on a visit to Brentwood, and returned on the six o'clock train Friday evening; and in an hour or two she found her way—with a little assistance from the police—to the station house. Judge Batchelder said something to her about $9.90, when she was brought before him Saturday morning, which so displeased her that she took the first freight train out on the Concord Railroad, and returned to Brentwood.

Benjamin F. R. Cook was introduced. He explained to the Court that he is a catarrh doctor, and does a great deal of good; but the magistrate explained to him that the question was not as to whether he (Dr. Cook) is in general a public benefactor, but whether he was drunk on the particular occasion referred to in the complaint. This question the Court decided in the affirmative, and suggested that the handing over of $9.90 would make things all pleasant; this suggestion the doctor was compelled by circumstances to negative, so he was sent to Kent's hotel to practice his profession $9.90 worth.

William Quinn—the original William, with no figures after his name—was adjudged guilty of brawl and tumult, said to have occurred on Water street at about midnight on Friday. He was fined $5, costs $6.90, from which sentence he appealed and was ordered to furnish bonds in $50 to prosecute the appeal, being given till Monday in which to procure sureties.

THE VICINITY.

The street sprinklers began operations in Biddeford and Saco, last week.

Mr. A. Wesley Moulton, of Beech Ridge, York, has sent off from his store within a month over 1000 dozen of eggs.

The Congregational church at Newington has extended a unanimous call to Rev. John F. Aiken, of Vermont, to become its pastor.

The Railroad Commissioners of Maine inspected the Portland, Saco & Portsmouth Railroad, and a small part of the Portsmouth, Great Falls & Conway Railroad, last Friday.

Elder S. Short, pastor of the Christian church at York Corner, has held four prayer meetings every week for the past year, (234 in all,) and though an invalid has walked thirty miles each week to do it. Eleven persons have joined the church within the year. The young people of the society have held a prayer meeting once a week, without the pastor, and several conversions of youths have resulted.

The church of the "York and Kittery Christian Society" at Beech Ridge, York, Elder Paine pastor, is built in a half-acre lot, and considered by its occupants as the handsomest church edifice in the town. There is a fine fir hedge around the lot, with a row of evergreen and horse-chestnut trees inside the hedge, and the grounds are very neatly kept, the whole being highly creditable to the people. The Ladies' Aid Society of the church has had a sum of money in the bank for two years; and the church recently voted to allow the ladies the money to put up a new chandelier, and paint and fresco the church at their discretion.

Fables A La Mode.

I.—THE COMPLAINING OYSTER.

As a French Waiter was enjoying a few raw Oysters on the half-shell, one of the Oysters remonstrated with him. "Mine," said the Oyster, "is a Hard Case." "C'est ma foi vrai," rejoined the Waiter, "I have had much difficulte in opening it." And then, soothing the Sufferings of the Oyster with a Dash of Vinegar, he devoured it.

Moral. Le Raw est mort, vive le Raw.

II.—THE MEDIUM AND THE SKEPTIC.

As a Circulating Medium was in the act of Levitation at a dark Seance, while he was describing the Black Spirits and White by whom he was sustained in the air, an Inquiring Skeptic shed light on his Movements by turning on a Lantern he had concealed about his Person. The Circulating Medium came down from his Ladder, and said that he would be a Party to no such Trance-Action. And the Believers arose and cast forth the Inquiring Skeptic, who thereafter sought with his Lantern for an Honest Man in other Circles.

Moral. Light, more Light.

III.—THE HOODLUM.

As a Chinese Actor was reflecting on his Cue, he was accosted roughly by a Hoodlum, who besought him to pull down his Vest. Accustomed to take things Coolie, the Disciple of Confucius showed no confusion. "I have no such Garment," he said, "but I will willingly exhibit the Sword Trick for your Edification." With that he drew his Two-edged Sword, and made a dextrous flourish before the Eyes of the Hoodlum. Then, wiping his Weapon and returning it to its Scabbard, he politely offered his Snuff-box, and the Hoodlum sneezed his amputated Head from his unsuspecting Shoulders.

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and Ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Flesh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of Colds, bones and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

A. B. ROSE & CO., 46 DEY ST., NEW YORK.

Mothers,

Here is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experiments by the celebrated Sam'l Pitcher, M.D

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

SIR—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & Co., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and strained horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Pitcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in store, ready for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

PENNSYLVANIA
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. It has track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that secures their full and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (curse dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could embalm me a similar cure in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed, "snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continually for 36 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness; Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint," and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health, and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucchorrhea arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

CATARRH

A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER,—Sirs: I have practiced medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the nasal passages, fauces and larynx. I have used everything in the materia medica without any permanent relief, until finally I was induced to try a patent medicine (something that we allopathists are very loth to do) I tried —— and divers others until I got hold of yours. I followed the directions to the letter, and am happy to say have had a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully,
D. W. GRAY, M. D.,
Of Dr. D. W. Gray & Son., Physicians and Druggists, Muscatine, Iowa.

MUSCATINE, IOWA, March 27, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in the cure of those

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial tubes which in many cases accompany a severe case of Catarrh. The inflamed and diseased condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these troubles; and until the system has been brought properly and free influence of the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from them cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was placed before the public, but in that short time it has found its way from Maine to California, and is everywhere acknowledged by druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh ever compounded. The fact will be deemed of more importance when it is coupled with the statement that within five years over 200 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day, with one or two exceptions, their names cannot be recalled by the best informed druggist. Advertising may succeed in forcing a few sales, but, unless the remedy possess undoubted specific medical properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.00. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

BLUE ARMY BLOUSES.

WE have just received a few more of those BLUE ARMY BLOUSES, which have been in such demand for the last twelve months.

C. E. MYERS & CO., No. 3 BOW STREET.

Daily Chronicle.

—This is a great country. When a ship is launched Congress adjourns, and when a man takes a little drink in Virginia they ring a bell.

—The largest obelisk in this country is to be placed over the grave of Gen. Wool, in Oakwood cemetery, Troy, N. Y. It will weigh one hundred and fifty tons, and will be carried to Troy from Maine in a barge, and moved by means of rollers and capstans from the river to the cemetery, a distance of about a mile. The General left $50,000 to pay for a monument.

—Children's theatricals should have parental supervision. At a country house the other day, where the children had some afternoon theatricals, the scene went thus: Enter a knight-crusader, after ten years' absence at the war—"See, dear," he says to his wife, "see the honors and decorations I have attained." "Thrice welcome, my lord," answered his tiny spouse. "Look!" holding up a curtain, showing her ten dolls, the smallest in the cradle, "look; I too, have not been idle!" —London World.

—A Bridgeport, Conn., doctor is the latest aspirant for the mean man's badge. He was called to attend two children sick of scarlet fever. He prepared some medicine, wrote a prescription, and then asked for his fee. The father then said he had been out of work until recently, and had no money on hand, but would pay him when he received his wages. Thereupon the kind-hearted physician threw the medicine out of the window, tore up the prescription, and left in a great dudgeon.

Glover's Drag-Net Investigations.

Alarming reports were circulating among the democrats at the Capitol, Friday, that Mr. Glover had made another haul of his net, and, as usual, caught a big democratic fish; but it is said he tried to throw back his catch before any one discovered that he had him. The story is that he found out that $5,000 of the funds belonging to the House of Representatives was loaned to a democratic member of Congress; the danger of losing it, and the difficulty of recovering the money, caused the matter to be exposed. Mr. Glover's party organ, the Washington Post and Union, pays its respects to him in the following language: "Mr. Glover has caused a large outcry, and produced very little wool by his shearing processes. Having annoyed his own party friends to the extent of his capacity, it is to be hoped that he will now give the country something for its money." The republicans should keep Glover busy investigating even if they have to pay all the expenses out of their own pockets.

News and Notes.

At Mount Holly, Vt., a few days ago, a father forbade his daughter's marriage, and she and her mother and lover lit out and took refuge with a neighbor. Here the girl saved her intended from a tar and feather sociable by hiding him in a chest, and the marriage ceremony was finally performed. The trio then went home and turned the old man out of doors, and he still remains in that inclement region.

The President has approved the act "requiring the commission for preparing and publishing a new edition of the Revised Statutes of the United States to revise and perfect the index to the first volume of the same."

Last winter, while Mrs. Charles Maul, of Richmond, Ind., was confined, her husband seduced her sister and two servant girls who were attending her. Knowledge of this made Mrs. Maul crazy, and Maul fled. He returned on Thursday and was shot by his brothers-in-law, who offer to give themselves up.

A woman named Kate Griffin, of Lawrence, Mass., was arrested Saturday evening for assault upon her husband, James Griffin, with intent to kill. She cut his head open and he is not expected to live. Mrs. Griffin was drunk.

The steamer Mississippi, the pioneer of the new line between Boston and the Azores, sailed from Boston Saturday. This is the first steamship that has left the American coast for the Western Islands direct.

The ship Azor sailed from Charleston, S. C., Sunday, for Africa, having on board about 250 negroes, who are to colonize there.

William Orton, President of the Western Union Telegraph Co., died of apoplexy in New York on Monday, aged 57 years.

The Border City and Sagamore mills, of Fall River, are in trouble. James A. Hathaway is President, and George F. Hathaway Treasurer, of both corporations. The treasurer's "irregularly issued" notes on the Border City Mills amount to about $550,000. Hathaway it is claimed was drawn into the mess through his connection with S. Angier Chace, the Union Mills thief.

The New York Tribune of Saturday publishes an open letter to Rev. E. Y. Hincks, of Portland, from Gail Hamilton, on the subject of Mr. Hincks' Fast Day sermon. Over his shoulders she administers a castigation upon clergymen who make loose and sweeping statements about public men and measures and who present their views concerning politics with a "Thus saith the Lord" air. When ministers find themselves held to the same responsibility as laymen for their words, they will probably be a little more careful to ascertain the truth of their premises before promulgating their dammatory conclusions ex cathedra.

A petition has been presented in the House, and referred to the coinage committee, asking that the motto on the buzzard dollar, "In God we trust," be altered to "In God's name we trust." The petitioners had better ask to have an eagle put on the coin in place of the present hideous monstrosity.

A Paris despatch to the New York Herald states that a movement is on foot for secession in a large body of members of the English Protestant Church, who will unite with the Roman Church. The number of seceders is placed as high as 3,000,000.

Philip Badger, aged eight years, was shot dead in New Orleans on Sunday by his eleven-years-old brother. It was a case of "didn't know it was loaded."

Deadwood, Dakota, last week had the heaviest snow and rain storm ever known there. Mining and travel were almost entirely suspended.

A despatch of Saturday says: "A. P. Thom, one of the principals in the late duel at Eastville, Va., in which Sydney Pitts was shot and killed is to be tried for murder. A special session of the Court has been convened for that purpose on Monday next. Thom, as previously telegraphed, was shot in the mouth, the ball glancing downward and horribly lacerating his tongue and lodging in the neck. He will probably lose the use of his tongue partially, if not entirely. His recovery was doubtful, but he has improved rapidly in the last few days and left his room to-day. He was at once placed under arrest. The plea of self-defence will be set up for the prisoner, and there is no probability of his conviction."

A wrecking schooner from San Francisco has recovered $16,000 in silver bullion from the wreck of steamer City of San Francisco. The divers found the ship's timbers and cargo a confused mass.

At Marlboro on Friday the leg of Artemas Richardson was broken by a drag coming in contact with it.

Charles Sharp has been convicted at Mauch Chunk, Pa., of murder in the first degree for aiding in killing George Smith in 1863. This was the first Molly Maguire murder, and Sharp is the second man convicted for participation in it. Thomas Dakin is now to be tried for the same murder.

Benjamin Godfrey, aged nineteen years, who killed Miss Mollie Winingder at Portsmouth, Va., in December last, because she discarded him, has been convicted of murder and sentenced to eighteen years imprisonment.

Col. W. L. Salisbury, of Columbus, Ga., a banker, Mayor pro tem. and owner of the Inquirer and Sun, was fatally shot in the back while entering a train at Seale, Ala., at ten o'clock Saturday night, by Dr. R. U. Palmer. The latter had sued Salisbury for $250,000 damages to his character by publications, and the jury had awarded him one cent. Salisbury died Sunday. Palmer fled. A reward of $500 is offered for the arrest of the murderer.

Mrs. Tilton's latest (and we hope last) confession has fallen flat on the country, the New York Sun seeming to be about the only paper to pay any continued attention to it. It is evident that the press and the public have had all they want of this scandal. Tilton says the confession was a great surprise to him; there is no doubt the coolness of its reception surprises him. As an advertising dodge for his lecture tour it has proved a decided failure.

Frank Jones on Saturday evening snatched the wallet of Matthew Cruise, containing $15, and ran with it, but was captured and his booty taken from him. The men were in a saloon on Green street. —Boston Post.

New Hampshire Items.

Henry White of Plymouth, a baggage master on the Boston, Concord and Montreal Railroad, was seriously injured while shackling cars at Wing Road station on Saturday, being caught between the cars by the hips. He was taken to Whitefield, where he lies in a critical condition.

The Exeter mills have made a reduction of five per cent. in weavers' and nine per cent. in spoolers' wages. The wages at these mills have been higher than those of any other factories. The managers of the mills at Manchester propose a reduction of the wages of operatives. They have all decided that a cut down (a few stating it definitely as eight per cent.) must inevitably result from the cut downs in other manufacturing cities. A cut down is also announced in the mills at Great Falls.

Wm. H. Gilmore, of Henniker, a well known editor and for a long time connected with the Concord People, was stricken with paralysis on Sunday. His entire right side is paralyzed.

Jack Connors, of Manchester, fell down stairs Sunday while drunk, and was killed.

A violent thunder-storm at Claremont, Saturday night, did considerable damage to fruit trees, fences and chimneys.

Naval Affairs.

Captain Badger, commanding the United States frigate Constitution, sends to the Navy Department from Havre, France, official information as to the arrival of the vessel at that port and the loss overboard of George H. Young, an ordinary seaman. The man was lost from the bowsprit of the vessel during a furious gale, notwithstanding the efforts made to save him, life preservers and balsa being thrown to him, it being impossible to launch a boat. Captain Badger speaks in high terms of the sailing and other qualities of the vessel, and says that the run was made to the mouth of the English channel in twenty days.

Capt. Temple of the navy testifies in relation to the sinking of the U. S. S. Delaware at the Brooklyn navy yard that an offer of $21,000 was made for the Delaware and refused by Isaiah Hanscom; that the engines were taken out and sold to John Roach. Immediately afterward offers were made to purchase her, the largest being $20,000 and the second $15,000. The bidders were informed that the vessel had been sold, and it afterward transpired that Nathaniel McKay bought her for $5000. The Delaware was sunk intentionally by opening her valves, and McKay made over $20,000 clear by his speculation. Ex-Sec. Robeson will be summoned to explain the transaction.

The United States steam frigate Omaha, Rear Admiral Preble, arrived from the South Pacific at Hampton Roads Friday. The Omaha, in view of the presence of yellow fever at Rio Janeiro where she touched on the homeward voyage, is ordered to this station, for fumigation. The officers and crew are all well.

Nasby Feels Better.

Nasby finds great encouragement in the political situation, and something more promising in the recent action of the House. He rejoices, as in the old days, over a rebel victory, and says: "The northern democricy hev taken their proper place. They hev repentid in sackcloth and ashes for their deviashen from dooty during the four years uv the war and hev got down to where they belong. We uv the South are running the guvernment. The gray yooniform is now a badge uv honor, and we walk the streets uu Washington with hed erect, and with a scorn for them ez wuz wunst our oppressors. What we lost at Appomatox we have regained at Washington. We control the House, next year we will hev the Senit, and in 1880 we will hev what is left of the Presidency, which is to say we will hev a dimecratic President, one in name ez well ez in fact. We uv the South will hev all the offices, instid uv a little over a half, and we shel then hev things our own way, ez uv yore. Thank hevin, the prospect is encouragin'. I am not without hope that I may be postmaster uv the corners myself, before another month glides gently in the fucher. In politix, now, almost everything is possible."

—Vain man, if you want your smoking tobacco and can't find it, look for it in your wife's fur box. It is coming time to put such things away.

—Tweed's private secretary says he never alluded to any "guardian angels' on his death bed. "He never thought of angels in his life," says the secretary.

—Bayard Taylor will have "An Impossible Story" in the next Scribner's. Perhaps it will be the story of a defaulter who was not a pillar of the church, and the possessor of an exalted moral character.—Worcester Press.

THE CITY.

The Light Artillery were inspected by Col. D. J. Vaughan on Monday evening.

Schooner Harp arrived at C. Morris Tredick's wharf on Saturday, with 10,000 pounds of fish.

Mr. Franklin Ayers, of Christian Shore, who was stricken with paralysis on Saturday, died Monday afternoon.

Rev. John A. Goss baptised six persons, five females and one male, at Noble's island Sunday afternoon.

A bright light was seen in the northwest between the hours of nine and ten, Monday evening, supposed to be caused by a fire in Newington, or that vicinity.

A number of persons are to be received into the Universalist church on the first Sunday in June. Conference meetings are to be inaugurated at the church next Sunday evening.

See notice of auction sale of household furniture this forenoon by Morse & Ilsley. The furniture is of good quality and in good condition, and will be sold for whatever it will bring.

Notice has been given at Kearsarge Mills that on and after May first, the wages of the weavers will be reduced ten per cent., and the wages of the mule spinners and dressers, five per cent.

The comedy "Our boarding-house" is to be played in Music Hall to-morrow evening. It purports to set forth life in a fashionable boarding-house in Chicago, and abounds in laughable situations, being a burlesque in four acts rather than a comedy. The company that will appear to-morrow evening has been playing the piece in Portland, where it was received with marked favor.

Prof. Warman will give a wide range of dramatic recitations this evening at Congress Hall. He will present Longfellow's "Famine," and as a great contrast, "The Frenchman and the Fleapowder." The "Editor's guest" will be the fun of the evening. Tickets fifteen cents. Prof. Warman puts the tickets thus low to secure a full house, as he desires to introduce himself to the Portsmouth public as a teacher in elocution. Entertainment begins at eight o'clock. Tickets to be obtained at Goodrich's bookstore.

The Pennsylvania miners desire that all the people who use coal and iron shall contribute to their support. Their plan is for the State government to make a corner in these articles, send prices up, and so enable the miners to go to work again. This is the worst kind of class legislation. Every laborer in Portsmouth for example, must pay three or four dollars more a ton for his coal in order that men in Pennsylvania shall have employment. The proposition is, however, but a logical consequence of the doctrine that government should provide for the wants of any class of citizens.

Concerning the new drama "Heart and crown," which is to be performed at Music Hall on Thursday evening by the Lingards, supported by a good company, the New York Herald thus spoke when it was first produced in New York: "This play is well written and constructed, and reflects the utmost credit on its author. It deals with events in the life of Mary, Queen of Scots, but differs in its treatment from any of the many dramatic works founded on the same subject. It was beautifully placed upon the stage and remarkably well played, Miss Alice Dunning Lingard astonishing all by the strength and beauty of her impersonation of Marie Stuart. Mr. Lingard also gave a masterly rendition of a difficult part, giving it all the rich humor for which he is celebrated."

POLICE COURT.

Monday, April 22d; Batchelder, J.

William Johnson and Clara Johnson, claiming to be husband and wife, came to this city from Portland, Saturday, and being unable to withstand the seductions of our Portsmouth liquors and the freedom of the city, took possession of one drunk each, for which they were locked up until Monday morning, when the Police Judge charged them the usual price, $9.90 a drunk, which they paid. That's the kind of customers wanted here; the Brentwood crowd are of no account toward filling the treasury.

SUPREME COURT.

Monday, April 23d; Smith, J.

State vs. Absalom Hazelton. The defendent was indicted at the October term, 1877, for obstructing a public highway in Windham by building into the road at a corner a stone wall that narrowed the road and obstructed the view of a neighbor. The road is an ancient highway, laid out as early as 1738 by the selectmen of Londonderry, Windham having been set off from that town. Defendant denies that the alleged encroachment was within the limits of the highway. A large number of witnesses were in attendance. The jury went to view the locality, leaving by the forenoon train of cars by way of Lawrence. Bell and J. C. Bartlett for State; Hatch, and Rowell of Manchester, for Hazelton. The jury was accompanied by Messrs. Bartlett and Rowell. The trial of the case begins on Tuesday morning.

In action Henderson vs. Pitman, tried before Referee, a report was returned in favor of the plff. for $150 damages.

Case Magoon vs. New Hampshire Fire Ins. Co., it was stated had been settled.

Case No. 103, Rowell vs. Boston & Maine Railroad, will be the next civil case tried; action for burning the plaintiff's building near the line of the railroad in Kingston.

Daniel Tilton, of Salem, was arraigned on two indictments for selling liquor; allowed to go on his own recognizance, he having pleaded nolo contendere.

In case State vs. Wm. Tattenstall, indicted for stabbing one Hodgdon on Water street in Exeter, and who pleaded nolo contendere, a hearing was had in behalf of the respondant in mitigation of the sentence, as to character, occupation, etc. Respondent was fined $25 and costs of prosecution. Bell for State; Gen. Marston for respondent.

In the case George E. Brackett of Greenland vs. Isaac N. Penly, formerly of Lebanon, a suit to recover for the price of 152 barrels of apples, previously referred to, Chas. G. Conner, Esq., the Referee, reported in favor of the plff. The defendant elected trial by the jury, and set up as defence that the contract was rescinded after apples were delivered; that the quality of the apples was not what was contracted for, etc. The jury on Friday evening returned a verdict for $405 in favor of Brackett. Frink for plff., Dale of Lebanon for deft.

IMPORTANT DECISIONS.

A hearing was had before the United States District Court at Manchester on Saturday, April 20th, Judge Clark presiding, on the petition of A. F. Howard, assignee of estate of Hill & Carr, asking that a certain agreement entered into between himself and Charles S. Symonds, assignee of Davis, Moulton & Co., be confirmed, said agreement providing that the assignee of Hill & Carr shall prove against the estate of Davis, Moulton & Co., for the amount paid from the estate of Hill & Carr as accommodation endorsers for Davis, Moulton & Co. After hearing the evidence and arguments the Court confirmed the agreement.

In the case heard by Judge Clark on the 9th inst., which was a petition of A. F. Howard, assignee of Hill & Carr, for re-examination of the claim of E. P. Kimball, assignee of the Rockingham Ten Cents Savings Bank, (which had been proven against the individual estates of Hill and Carr, amounting to about $25,000,) claiming that said Hill & Carr, Benj. Cheever, Jonathan Dearborn and J. C. Carr were the real owners of lands in Cambridgeport, Mass., which were conveyed by one Packer to C. Warren Brown and mortgaged by Brown to the Ten Cents Savings Bank, and that Brown acted as their agent in executing the note and mortgage to the bank, Judge Clark gave an opinion in which he holds that the bank through its officers (Hill, Cheever and Dearborn, who constituted the investing board of the bank,) had full knowledge who they were dealing with, and having taken the note of Brown, knowing all the facts, cannot now discard him and charge the principals. He also held that the bank failed to show that the relation of principal and agent existed between Brown, Hill and others; and the claim must be expunged. This will secure a much larger dividend for the individual creditors of these bankrupts.

THE CONCORD'S WRECK.

We take from the Kennebunk Star the following particulars of the wreck of the old schooner Concord, Capt. Gray, which had traded between Rockland, Me., and this port, for many years, and was totally lost on Goat island point, at the entrance to Cape Porpoise harbor, at three o'clock on the morning of the 12th inst.:

"The wind was blowing a heavy easterly gale, with rain, and the night was so dark that the captain could not see the entrance of the harbor. The crew of the schooner, which was sailing 'short-handed,' consisting of the master, John Gray, and one seaman, Freeman Foster, had a narrow escape of their lives. Upon striking they lowered their boats, but the painter breaking she was immediately swept away. They then cried for help, and their cries were heard by the light-keeper, who went in his dory to their assistance. For an hour he tried to get to the vessel, but owing to the intense darkness, high wind and heavy surf, he was unable to approach near enough to rescue them. The sea at the time was making a clean breach over the vessel fore and aft. Finding that without assistance it would be impossible to get alongside without swamping his boat, the keeper was obliged to row to the village for aid. Those who were called upon responded with alacrity, and in a short time three boats' crews were on their way to rescue the imperilled seamen. The first boat to arrive was manned by Aleck Rice and Herbert Massey. By this time it was daylight and the vessel was fast breaking up. Foster was in the fore rigging clinging for life, nearly every breaker burying him to the neck. The captain was in the main rigging and more out of the reach of the surf. Rice and Massey rowed up and after one or two attempts, succeeded in rescuing them. Foster was nearly exhausted and could have clung but a short time longer, as he had been in the rigging over two hours and a half, the sea breaking against him the whole time. A few minutes after they were taken off the masts fell and the vessel heeled over and sunk. The rescued men were taken to the light-station and cared for by the keeper's family."

Not a Marrying Girl.

They were seated together, side by side, on the sofa, in the most approved lover fashion—his arm encircling her taper waist, etc.

"Lizzie," he said, "you must have read my heart ere this; you must know how dearly I love you."

"Yes, Fred; you have certainly been very attentive," said Lizzie.

"But, Lizzie, darling, do you love me? Will you be my wife?"

"Your wife, Fred! Of all things, no! No, indeed, nor any one else's."

"Lizzie, what do you mean?"

"Just what I say, Fred. I've two married sisters."

"Certainly! and Mrs. Hopkins and Mrs. Skinner have very good husbands, I believe."

"So people say; but I wouldn't like to stand in either May's or Nell's shoes; that is all."

"Lizzie, you astonish me."

"Look here, Fred; I've had over twenty-five sleigh-rides this winter, thanks to you and my other gentlemen friends."

Fred winced a little here, whether at the remembrance of that unpaid livery bill or the idea of Lizzie sleighing with her other gentlemen friends, I cannot positively answer.

"How many do you think my sisters have had? Not the sign of one, either of them. Such pretty girls as May and Nellie were, too, and so much attention as they used to have?"

"Now, Lizzie—"

"I am fond of going to the theatre occasionally, as well as a lecture or concert sometimes, and I shouldn't like it if I proposed attending any such entertainment to be invariably told that times were hard and my husband couldn't afford it, and then to have him sneak off alone."

"Lizzie, Lizzie—"

"And then if once in a dog's age he did condescend to go with me anywhere in the evening, I shouldn't like to be left to pick my way along the slippery places, at the risk of breaking my neck, he walking along unconsciously by my side. I'm of a dependent, clinging nature, and I need the protection of a strong arm."

"Lizzie, this is all nonsense."

"I'm the youngest in our family, and perhaps I've been spoiled. At all events, I know it would break my heart to have my husband vent all the ill-temper which he conceals from the world on my defenceless head."

"But, Lizzie, I promise you that I—"

"Oh, yes, Fred; I know what you are going to say—that you will be different; but Mary and Nell have told me time and time again that no better husbands than theirs ever lived. No, Fred; as a lover you are just perfect, and I shall hate awfully to give you up. Still, if you are bent on marrying, there are plenty of girls who have not got married sisters, or who are not wise enough to profit by their example, if they have. And don't fret about me, for I've no doubt I can find some one to fill your place"—

But before Lizzie had concluded, Fred made for the door, muttering something "unmentionable to ears polite."

"There!" exclaimed Lizzie, as the door closed with a bang. "I knew he was no better than the rest. That's the way John and Aleck swear and slam doors, when things don't go just right. He'd make a bear of a husband; but I'm sorry he came to the point so soon, for he was just a splendid beau."—New Brunswick Freedonian.

—A family is discussing the qualifications of a gentleman who has presented himself as a candidate for the position of son-in-law. There is some doubt, inasmuch as some one has given the intended the character of a spendthrift. Inquiries are made among the tradesmen who know him. One day the father comes in all radiant. "Make yourself easy, my child; I have seen his washerwoman. He doesn't owe her a cent."

—Swizerland has a national church, but is without any form of war-ship.

—"I'm taking cold, you give me such a breeze," is the latest slang phrase.

—Make the bridge from the cradle to manhood as long as you can. Let your children be children as long as they will. Let them be children and not little apes of men and women.

—In a class-room of a New England college, an eminent professor was asked: "Sir, who do you consider the finest metaphysician in our country?" "Modesty forbids me to answer," was the reply.

Portsmouth Chronicle

—Two young men, twins, of Hart county, Georgia, worked out their father's debts, in compliance with his death-bed request. They were thirteen years of age when they began, and attained their majority before finishing. Although frequently told they were neither legally nor morally bound to do so, they persisted until the last cent was paid.

—The perils of matrimony are great in the South. A Georgia man pursued his daughter, who had eloped, and found her with her husband in a hotel. She was of age, and therefore he could not force her to return home; but he was the lawful owner of her clothing, and he compelled her to go up to her room and take off every shred of it. Then he went back to Savannah with a large bundle under his arm, and the women in the hotel contributed something for the bride to wear.

—A few years ago Tweed's daughter was married in grand style in Trinity Chapel, New York, which is one of the most fashionable in the city. The building was crowded with the ring and its attaches, and the bridal presents (in various styles of jewelry) were valued at $70,000. The bride was bedizened in diamonds, and even her shoes had these ridiculous ornaments. She accompanied her husband (Maginnis) to New Orleans, where they have gradually sunk to poverty. It is said that the wedding presents have long since gone to the pawnbroker.

—Mr. Edmund Yates tells this amusing story of Lord Ravensworth, the man who defended George IV against Thackeray. He was a man of no little personal vanity. One cold day in winter, some years back, having wrapped himself in a fur coat, he went to call on some neighbors in Northumberland. He was ushered into the drawing-room, and left, as he thought, alone. No sooner was the door closed than he mounted on a chair in front of the mirror over the fire-place, and, after surveying himself with intense satisfaction, gave vent to the ejaculation: "Well, a man in fur is a noble animal."

Centaur Liniments.

The wonder of medical science—half horse and half man, the fabled Centaurs, left their impress upon the history of the world.

The Centaur Liniments, for man and beast, are not less remarkable in their way. They have been before the public only six years, but in that time they have performed more wonderful works, have alleviated more pains and cured more bed-ridden cripples than have all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves and Ointments in existence. Their immense and rapidly-increasing sale is indisputable evidence of the estimation in which they are held. They are already used in many of the hospitals of this country and Europe, and are prescribed by the best physicians and veterinary surgeons. Why should they not be? They have never failed to ameliorate suffering when cures from loss of bone or muscle are impossible. They contain Carbolic, Witch Hazel, Rock Oil, Arnica and ingredients which must stimulate the fluids, soften the sinews and penetrate to the bone. We have never yet heard of the first failure to benefit, even in stubborn cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuralgia, while, for Fresh Wounds, Bites, Frosted Limbs, Burns, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., they are unfailing. What the White Centaur Liniment is for the human frame, the Yellow Centaur Liniment is for horses and animals. We will guarantee that one dollar expended for Centaur Liniment will perform more and speedier results than can be obtained for five or twenty dollars from any physician. We have made the treatment of flesh, bone and muscle ailments a specialty. We know that we have preparations which do what they are recommended to do. They are not curealls—they will not mend a broken leg, but they will alleviate pain and cure where any human agency can cure. Be sure and inquire for the Centaur Liniments and give them a fair trial.

J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 Dey St., New York.

Mothers,

here is the harmless and certain remedy for your children. CASTORIA is the result of twenty years' experience by the celebrated Chas. A. Fletcher, M.D.

It is a vegetable preparation, as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Indiana, says of it:

Sirs—I have tried the CASTORIA, and can speak highly of its merits. It will do away with Castor Oil. It is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The CASTORIA destroys worms, regulates the Stomach cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

J. B. ROSE & CO., New York.

The latest, greatest, and most reliable remedy ever put together by medical science for Rheumatism, Wounds, Swellings, Burns, Caked Breasts, etc., is the Centaur Liniment. There are two kinds. What the White Liniment is for the human family, the stronger kind, which is yellow in color, is for spavined, lame, and stiffed horses and animals. Their effects are wonderful.

Mothers who have weak and irritable children, can secure health for the children and rest for themselves, by using Dr. Fletcher's Castoria. It contains no morphine or any thing injurious. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and is certain to cure Wind Colic, regulate the bowels, and expel worms. For Teething children, there is nothing like Castoria. 6tmay1

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become a household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as
Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.
It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvellous cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. Recent and well-authenticated cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of Community from their fatal effects, that is well founded, if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the speedy and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by its timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in recognance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed, a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis.
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of nations? The demand for a superior article, and the extent of its sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such gigantic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.
It Speaks for Itself.
ROCKPORT, MASS., April 2, 1877.
MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar-grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 20 years I suffered with catarrh. The most passages became completely closed, "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would snuff up a so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, for you can not know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste was lost, and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than three minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels open by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,
S. D. REMIGR.

A CLOUD OF WITNESSES,

Golden Medical Discovery
Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Pectoral.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.
Golden Medical Discovery
Is Tonic.
Golden Medical Discovery
By reason of its Alterative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties, interrupt and unequaled remedy for Biliousness; Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia, and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most efficacious cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and who e substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual, or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE,

For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

CATARRH

A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER,—Sirs: I have practised medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the nasal passages, fauces and larynx. I have used everything in the materia medica without any permanent relief, until finally I was induced to try a patent medicine (something that we allopathists are very loth to do) I tried——and divers others until I got hold of yours. I followed the directions to the letter, and am happy to say have had a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully,
D. W. GRAY, M.D.,
Of Dr. D. W. Gray & Son., Physicians and Druggists, Muscatine, Iowa.

MUSCATINE, IOWA, March 27, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in the cure of those

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes which in many cases accompany a severe case of Catarrh. The inflamed and diseased condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these troubles; and until the system has been brought properly and ? the influence of the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from them cannot be reasonably expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was placed before the public, but in that short time it has found its way from Maine to California, and is everywhere acknowledged by druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh ever compounded. The fact will be deemed of more importance when it is coupled with the statement that within five years over 250 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day, with one or two exceptions, their names cannot be recalled by the best-informed druggist. Advertising may succeed in forcing a few sales, but, unless the remedy possess undoubted specific medical properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.00. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

Daily Chronicle.

Judging by Appearances.

When Maine was a District of Massachusetts, Ezekiel Whitman was chosen to represent the District in the Massachusetts Legislature. He was an eccentric man, and one of the best lawyers of his time. He owned a farm, and did much work on his land; and when the time came for him to set out for Boston his best suit of clothes was a suit of homespun. His wife objected to his going in that garb, but he did not care.

"I will get a nice suit made as soon as I reach Boston," he said.

Reaching his destination Whitman found rest at Doolittle's City Tavern. Let it be understood that he was a graduate of Harvard, and at this tavern he was at home. As he entered the parlor of the house he found several gentlemen assembled, and heard the following remark from one of them:

"Ah, here comes a countryman of the real homespun genus. Here's fun."

Whitman stared at the company and then sat down.

"Say, my friend, are you from the country?" remarked one of the gentlemen.

"Ya-as," answered Ezekiel, with a ludicrous twist of the face.

"And what do you think of our city?" asked one of the ladies.

"It's a pooty thickly settled place any how. It's got a sweepin' slght of houses in it."

"And a good many people, too?"

"Ya-as, I should guess so."

"Many people where you come from?"

"Wal, some."

"Plenty of ladies, I suppose?"

"Ya-as, a fair sprinklin'."

"And I don't doubt that you are quite a beau among them?"

"Ya-as, I beaus 'em home, tew meetin' and singin'-skewl."

"Perhaps the gentleman from the country will take a glass of wine?"

"Thank'ee. Don't keer if I de."

The wine was brought.

"You must drink a toast."

"O, git out! I eat toast; never heard of sich a thing as drinkin' it. But I can give you a sentiment."

The ladies clapped their hands; but what was their surprise when the stranger, rising, spoke calmly and clearly as follows:

"Ladies and gentlemen, permit me to wish you health and happiness, with every blessing earth can afford; may you grow better and wiser in advancing years, bearing ever in mind that outward appearances are deceitful. You mistook me, from my dress, for a country booby, while I, from the same superficial cause, thought you were ladies and gentlemen. The mistake has been mutual."

He had just finished when Caleb Strong, Governor of the State, entered and inquired for Whitman.

"Ah, here I am, Governor. Glad to see you."

Then turning to the dumbfounded company, he said:

"I wish you a very good evening."

—A Scotch bailie promised to attend a meeting, but broke his engagement. When remonstrated with, he excused himself by saying that he had been attending another meeting, and then plaintively added, "I couldna come, you knaw—canna be in twa places at once; I am not ampheebious."

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24, 1878.

A Grand Grab.

The United States House of Representatives on Monday rushed through the river and harbor appropriation bill under suspension of the rules, thus preventing discussion, the vote in its favor being 166 to 66 against it. It appropriates about seven and a half millions of dollars, scores and even hundreds of thousands being set apart for the "improvement" of harbors that have never been heard of and "trout brooks" on which no vessel larger than a canoe ever floated. We have no idea that the proposed steal—for it is nothing else—will get through the Senate; if it does there are lots of members who should be left at home next time. Many of the items in the bill should no doubt be allowed; but many others should not be, having been introduced solely to aid "the member for the District" in securing his re-election, and been carried through the House by log-rolling—"you vote for my appropriation and I'll vote for yours." There was great excitement over the passage of the bill without discussion, and Mr. Cox of New York said an amendment was required "to provide water for many of the rivers appropriated for!"

Congress.

In the House, Monday, Montgomery Blair's "fraud" resolutions were referred to the judiciary committee, no objection being made. Ben Butler made an effort to get the House to suspend the rules and pass his resolution authorizing the issuance of twenty millions of greenbacks of the denomination of ones, twos, threes and fives, and the issuance of postal currency to take the place of subsidiary silver coin. The motion to suspend, which requires a two-thirds vote, failed of a majority, being lost—121 to 129. Butler voted for it. The rest of the Massachusetts delegation voted no. The river and harbor appropriation bill was passed under suspension of the rules by a vote of 167 to 66; it appropriates $7,300,000, with a trifle of $150,000 more for the survey of other rivers and harbors.

Peter Marseilles.

Peter Marseilles died at his home in Philadelphia on Sunday, in the 84th year of his age. He was born near Greenbrook, N. J., in 1793, and went to Philadelphia upon attaining his majority. At the time of his arrival, 1814, the firm of Marseilles & Vail, hatters and furriers, was established. In 1836 the firm was dissolved, and Mr. Marseilles went into partnership with James Martin in 1840. From 1844 to 1847 Mr. Marseilles was a member of the firm of Robert Scott & Co., boots and shoes, which was dissolved by the killing of Mr. Scott in a railroad accident. Marseilles & Reynolds carried on the commission business from 1848 until 1849, when Mr. Marseilles concluded that he had made money enough to retire. His wealth is estimated at about $1,000,000. Seventy-two houses in the Fifteenth ward belong to his estate. The Philadelphia North American says: "Mr. Marseilles will be well remembered by the older merchants of this city, New England, the south and the west, as occupying a leading position in the business circles of this city thirty years and more ago. He took an active interest in politics in the days of the whig party, and engaged in the canvass of the State during the Presidential campaign of 1844, when General Harrison was elected to the Presidency. He was a man of the strictest integrity and of remarkable business tact and energy. He enjoyed most perfect health until three days before his death, when he was stricken with paralysis, remaining unconscious till the last." Mr. Marseilles was the father of Charles Marseilles, Esq., of the Exeter News-Letter.

William J. Flanders of Bow, who was indicted for manslaughter, for killing George Austin, his step-father, at Bow, in May last, was arraigned in the Supreme Court in Concord on Monday and pleaded guilty to manslaughter in the second degree. A petition asking for his discharge, signed by one hundred residents of Bow, was presented to the Court, and he was sentenced to six months in jail. At a previous trial the jury disagreed.

Phil Stark, Will Flanders and Frank Cunningham, three boys driving a team between Manchester and Goffstown Saturday night, collided with another team and were precipitated down an embankment twelve feet into the Merrimac river. The horse was drowned and the buggy is a total wreck. The boys narrowly escaped.

The mad-dog craze is permeating the whole of Cheshire county. Everybody brings accounts of rabid dogs. Keene, Marlboro and many other towns have ordered all dogs to be muzzled.

Three fellows, named Jerry O'Larry, George N. Whitehouse and Albert Maddox, were arrested in Great Falls Sunday for robbing a peddler named Archer McLaughlin of a pocket book containing about $65 and two licenses. The theft was committed in the Fair Play saloon.

A few days ago a tramp called at the house of Mrs. L. L. Locke, of Loudon, and asked for a "little bite of something to eat." He sat down to the table and ate nine large slices of bread, a ball of butter, a bowl of apple sauce, four slices of cake, and drank four cups of tea, with three spoonfuls of sugar in each cup. Loudon is waiting with fear and trembling for the next.

Master Grant Matthews, son of Joseph Matthews, of Henniker, is the champion checker player of the town. He is only ten years old, but his foresight into the game is next to miraculous. He can tell at an early stage of the game which is to be the winning man. An old player needs as many eyes as a spider (seven pairs) to match his acute movements, and then he is liable to a severe whitewashing.

The first game of base ball in the international series was played between the Manchesters and Rochesters, at Manchester, Monday afternoon, and was won by the former by a score of nine to nothing. Seven of the Manchesters' nine runs were earned.

Two tramps, a man and his wife, were taken at the station at Manchester, Saturday afternoon, and from the woman's pockets were taken a three-quart bottle, a half pint dipper, three spoons, a knife, a beer bottle, a razor, packages of tea, coffee, salt and sugar, a lot of bread, soap, wire and articles of wardrobe—nearly half a bushel in all.

James M. Payson of Plaistow, committed suicide Monday by shooting himself through the head. Cause, insanity. He leaves a wife.

A silver mine has been found in Surrey. It was formerly worked for lead. Boston parties are said to have control of it. Some think it will prove a bonanza.

The Last Big Steal.

George T. Hathaway, Treasurer of the Border City and the Sagamore Corporations in Fall River, proves to be as great a rascal and as infamous a hypocrite as his friend and partner in crime, S. Angier Chace, whose iniquities were exposed last week. Chace and Hathaway are cousins, and both "stood high" in church and social life. Hathaway has issued illigitimate notes to the amount of $600,000 or more, and it is certain that the Border City and Sagamore mills are irretrievably ruined, the amount of the indebtedness in each case being larger than the corporate property and the Directors can possibly carry.

Naval Affairs.

Commander George C. Remey is detached from the Enterprise and placed on waiting orders.

Commander Thomas O. Selfridge is detached from the torpedo station at Newport, R. I., and ordered to command the Enterprise.

News and Notes.

Dr. R. V. Pierce's immense and costly "Invalid's and Tourist's Hotel," at Buffalo, N. Y., will be opened on Monday, April 29th, when the first reception will be given, to the Press; the second, on the 30th, to citizens of Buffalo. This vast establishment is undoubtedly the most complete in its appointments of any similar institution in the world, having every appliance regarded as beneficial by modern medical science, and a corps of specialists such as probably no other private hospital commands the services of. Dr. Pierce's name is a household word, as hardly a paper of any standing in the Union but has repeatedly presented it to its readers.

A New York Sun reporter took a peep into Dr. Hall's Fifth avenue church on Sunday, and his eye lighted on the representatives of $200,000,000 in the saintly congregation. These are the "poor in spirit" who are to inherit the kingdom.

On Sunday last there were several violent tornadoes in the West, killing and injuring a number of persons and destroying a large amount of property.

Political.

Democratic papers in Mississippi are very severe in their criticisms upon the late Legislature. They confess that the State was served no better than when under the despised "carpet bag rule."

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Post calls Mr. Blaine "a demagogue" for offering in the Senate a resolution declaring that any material change of tariff at this time is inopportune, and would needlessly disturb the business of the country and tend to retard the much desired return of prosperity. Pity there are not a lot more of just such "demagogues" as Mr. Blaine in Congress, instead of such "patriots" as Fernando Wood and Dan Voorhees.

The Friendly Ways of the Japanese.
